

Acknowledgements

The editors of this book would like to express their gratitude to the InBev-Baillet Latour EU–China Chairs at the University of Leuven (KU Leuven) and the Université catholique de Louvain (UCL), the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies (KU Leuven), the Institute for European Studies at the Facultés Universitaires Saint Louis (FUSL), the Institute for European Studies at UCL, the Madariaga – College of Europe Foundation and the InBev-Baillet Latour Chair at the College of Europe for their involvement in and support for the project. Special thanks should go to the Fonds Wetenschappelijk Onderzoek – Vlaanderen (FWO) for supporting part of the costs for the publication.

The editors would also like to thank all the contributors, David Belis from Taishindo Services for his work on Part 4 on ‘China–EU and the Challenge of Global Climate Change and Energy’, Matthieu Burnay from the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies (KU Leuven) and Maddalena Malgarini from the Madariaga – College of Europe Foundation for the editing and coordination, and Derek McGlynn for the linguistic editing of the papers.

This book stems from the international conference ‘China, the EU and the Restructuring of Global Governance’ held on 6 and 7 May 2010 in Brussels, with the kind support, besides the partners quoted above, of the European Economic and Social Committee, the Fonds de la Recherche Scientifique (FNRS), the European Union and the Belgian Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

