

Index

- 3SLS model results 232–6
- ABC margin 248
- absorptive capacity 202
 - of firm 231–2
- accounting and non-accounting controls
 - MCS design 249
- accounting role 242
- acquired subsidiaries 211
- acquisitions
 - fast penetration of foreign markets 201
 - rapid access to new knowledge assets 201
- activity-based costing (ABC) 251
- activity sectors, comparison, Belgium
 - low-tech and high-tech manufacturing 91
- administrative innovation 242
- aerospace research 158
- agents and distributors for SMEs 133
- agglomeration spillovers 90, 100
- appropriability concerns, high 231–2, 235
- automobile industry 211
- average output growth and level 108–10
- ‘aversion to experiments’, cultural issue 277
- Barcelona Summit, 2002
 - on financing of R&D 59
- bargaining power erosion 227
- basic research 9
 - scientific 155, 157–9, 160–61
 - technological performance relationship 165
 - variables 165
- basic scientific research of firms
 - descriptive statistics 166
- Belgian Report on Science and Technology 2010 44, 49
- Belgian Science Policy Office, 2010 44, 86
- Belgium
 - group affiliation, statistics of key variables 95–7
 - innovation policy 100
 - international context, 1999–2008 73
 - medium-high innovator 77
 - multinational groups 99–100
 - polar research 49
 - space policy 49
 - science, technology and innovation (STI) 43, 45–7
- belief systems 246
- Bell Telephone Laboratories
 - development of transistor, 1948 1 57
- Binomial count data models 163
- biotechnology firms 156
- boundary systems 246
- Breusch–Pagan test 235
- Brussels-Capital Region, Belgium 45, 61, 87
 - multilingualism 53
 - service sector, domination of 77
 - STI policies 53–5
- Brussels, universities and university hospitals 53–4
- Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) 179–80
- Business enterprise intramural R&D expenditure (BERD) 62–3
- business expenditure in R&D, Europe and OECD countries, 26
- capability diffusion 199–200
- cash flow problems in creative SMEs, Flanders 130
- catalogue booths 134, 142

- classic quality criteria
 - validity, reliability, objectivity 270
- climate change 78
- clinical trials 157
- co-inventions 2, 39
- collaboration increase 199
- collaboration, international 18
- collaboration partners, Portugal 112
- Communication Law 1998
 - market liberalization 267
- communication patterns 105
- 'community' concept, Belgium 45–6
- Community Innovation Survey (CIS)
 - 100, 104, 112
 - Belgium 85, 228
 - comparison by region 87–91
 - firms 86–8
 - Portugal, survey questions 124–5
- Community Innovation Survey data 5
- Compendium of Patent Statistics (OECD), 2008
 - on world share of patents 29
- compensation, for quantity, creativity or both 253
- competence-creating subsidiaries
 - 198–204, 207, 211
- competence creation 227
- competency standards 252–3
- competition and coordination
 - in knowledge creation 226
- competition, lack of 67–8
- competitive advantage 1, 196
- compound screening 157
- conduits for information flows 226
- construction, sustainable 53
- Contract for Economy & Employment (CCCC2E/CET, 2005) Brussels
 - 54
- contract selection, rebus puzzles 253–4
- contribution margin 248
- control instruments
 - strategic vision, budget planning, user satisfaction 248–9
- control systems, three types 246
- control variables 161–2, 207–8
- cooperation, international, for knowledge transmission 67
- cooperative innovation 251
- Cooper's stage-gate model 1998, funnel model 264
- coordination centers 90
- coordination in Belgian state 47
- 'core team building' 277
- correlation matrices 139
- correlation matrix model
 - home country EPPs, SMEs in creative industries 152
 - home and host, country EPPs 153–4
 - host country EPPs, SMEs in creative industries 151
- correlation matrix of variables 233
- cost information 256
- countries and sectors of products 195
- country-level studies 2–6
- Cox regression determinants of pace of reverse diffusion 1960–90
 - 210–11
- Cox regression determinants of pace of reverse diffusion 1983–90
 - 210
- creative companies 139
 - export performance, group stands 135
 - financial structure, healthy 130
 - success dependence on creativity 129–30
- creative destination for historic building
 - group solution 256–7
- creative industry, growth potential, Flanders 126–7
- creativity-based compensation 253
- creativity, organizational 12
- creativity stimulation 242
 - role of management accounting 243
- creativity stimulation and management
 - control systems 251–4
- creativity-weighted pay scheme 253–4
- cross-functional teams 265
- cross-section data, pooled 235
- culture clusters 207–8
- culture concepts 264
- customer need as strong argument
 - 274–5
- customer relations in creative companies 130
- data and data collection 204–5
- data exchange, national or international (Belnet) 45

- dependable variables, count variable 163
- dependent variable export performance satisfaction 144
- descriptive statistics 183
- design industry 129
- development-team performance, internal communication 265
- diagnostic systems 246
- diffusion of enhanced intra-MNEs 198
- disciplined problem-solving perspective 265
- domestic inventions, foreign ownership 31–2
- dosage testing 157
- drugs discovery 157–8
- dummy variables
 - Anglo-Saxon, Nordic, European clusters 207–8
- 'dynamic innovation management role models' 278

- economics of learning 200
- economies, newly emergent challenges
 - China, India 76
- education systems 56–7
- electrical machinery research 158
- electricity network, smart technologies 53
- empirical model estimation 181–3
- employee training 22
- employment as parameter for business performance 135
- employment rate 72
- enablers 57
- endogeneity 114–16
- energy, renewable 53
- energy security 78
- energy supply 43
- engagement hypothesis, imports of foreign knowledge 104
- entrepreneurship 57, 68–70, 75, 248
- environmental health 43
- environmental issues 78
- environmental policy, Belgium 46
- estimation issues, Portugal 114–19
- estimation strategy 183–5
- ethnocentric attitudes 199

- EU Industrial R&D Investment Scoreboard 159
- European Innovation Scoreboard 57
- European Innovation Scoreboard (EIS), Belgium's level
 - venture capital, entrepreneurship 74–5
- European Lisbon Strategy 2
- European Patent Office (EPO) 27, 160
- European Research Area (ERA) 44, 48
- European Research and Innovation Plan 44
- European Space Agency (ESA) 48
- European Year of Creativity and Innovation 1
- exogenous and endogenous variables
 - on performance change of subsidiaries 235
- exogenous variables 231, 232
- expenses, non-R&D
 - machinery acquisition, patent buying 110–11
- experimental studies, future research 256
- 'Expert Group Knowledge for Growth', EC 2006 5
- expertise combination 226
- export assistance for SMEs, 132–3
- export barriers for SMEs, Flanders 138
- exporter orientation 107
- Exporters (EXP) Portugal 108–10, 112–14
- exporters, importance 103
- exporters of technology, main in Europe
 - Germany, Sweden, Austria 35–6
- export foreign direct investment (FDI) 185, 188
- export intensity of an SME, levels
 - of accidental, exploratory, experimental, active, dedicated exports 90, 138
- export opportunities 127
- export performance and product
 - sample booths
 - creative companies 135
- export performance, Flanders 137
- export performance satisfaction 129,
 - of SMEs in creative sector 143
 - reasons for 134

- export promotion implements,
 - Flanders Investment and Trade (FIT) 143
 - trade shows, trade missions 132–3
- export promotion programs (EPPs), Flanders 127–9, 138–9, 142
- export promotion services in SMEs, 127
- exports of high-technology products, Belgium 72
- external embeddedness
 - forward, horizontal, backward, public knowledge sources 229
- external knowledge sources, four types
 - forward, horizontal, backward, public knowledge sources 229
- Extramural R&D Expenses
 - acquisition of R&D from institutions 110–11
- facilitators 56–7
 - international linkages 63
- FDI see Foreign Direct Investment
- Federal Cooperation Commission, Belgium 48
- Federal Council for Science Policy, Belgium 45, 48–9
 - tax credits for research, 2008 49–50
- feedback and measurement systems 246
- financial accounting literature 242
- financial intermediaries 90
- financial success of product
 - revenue, profitability, market share 266
- firms
 - Belgian groups 94
 - connections, usefulness of 226
 - dynamics 68–9
 - efficiency, increased 22
 - foreign multinationals in Belgium 94–7
 - globally engaged, effects 23
 - heterogeneity 177
 - resources and export performance, Flanders 128–9
 - stand-alone 94
- first-mover advantages 9, 155–6
- fixed-effect Negative Binomial regression
 - basic scientific research 164
- FIT see Flanders Investment and Trade
- Flanders District of Creativity 133
- Flanders, export performance
 - satisfaction 136–7
- Flanders in Action, ‘Vlaanderen in Actie’ (ViA)
 - Green City District 50
 - Learning Fleming 50
 - Medical Centre Flanders 50
 - Open Entrepreneur 50
 - Powerful Government 50
 - Smart Logistics Europe 50
- Flanders Investment and Trade (FIT) 8, 127–8, 132–3
 - e-mail addresses of creative SMEs 136–7
- Flemish Authority 45
- Flemish design sector
 - export promotion and satisfaction 126
- Flemish exports accounts 127
- Flemish governmental organization (FIT)
 - promotion instruments 133
- Flemish Government, STI policies
 - research and innovation for Flanders, importance 50
- Flemish region economy,
 - industrialization 77, 87
- Flemish research organizations 51
- Flemish Science and Innovation Policy Council
 - strategic clusters 51
- Flemish Universities 51
- foreign advanced subsidiaries
 - new technological capabilities 1893–1990 209
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) 4–5, 19, 105, 173, 188, 198
 - difference for developed and developing countries 189
 - export 180
 - investment motives 181
 - inward and outward 76–7
 - knowledge diffusion literature 183
 - local 180

- measurement of motives 179–81
- measures of multi-national economies (MNE) presence 180
- motives and productivity effects 174–5
- in South Korea 223–4
- parent 180
- foreign doctoral students 24
- foreign market exposure and cost reduction 103, 198
- foreign ownership of domestic inventions 31–2, 90
- foreign partners, identification of for niche markets, SMEs 133
- foreign property 107
- foreign R&D operations, interdependence 201
- foreign students in United Kingdom 59
- foreign subsidiaries
 - Argentina, 1992–96, 199
 - Belgium 99
 - identification of 222
 - knowledge spillovers 176
 - research and development in MNE 196–7
 - source of technological capabilities 212
 - sources of new technological capabilities 197
 - South Korea
 - benefits from public research centers 237
 - innovation initiative 223
- foreign subsidiaries, role importance for knowledge base 225
- foreign technological activity in MNE 201
- foreign technological knowledge, barriers to 105
- formal controls, budgeting 257
- franchising 33
- French-speaking Community, Belgium 45
 - STI policies 51–3
- funding for high-tech firms, higher 99
- funding of firms, Belgium 87
- furniture designers, Flemish
 - demand and supply gap, international 131
- future research, suggestions for
 - levels, individual, group, firm, and inter-firm 254
- G7 countries
 - technology trade and productivity 21
- gatekeepers 265
- Generalized Method of Moments (GMM) estimation 184–5
- German-speaking Community, Belgium 45
- global engagement hypothesis for Portuguese firms
 - Knowledge Protection Function (KPF) approach 104
- Global Engagement hypothesis, Portugal 120
- global engagement indicators 118
- global engagement of firms 103
 - comparison of innovative performance 107
 - higher availability of knowledge 104
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) 69
- global markets in knowledge technology 15
- Global Multinationals (GM) Portugal 108–14, 117–19
- global research networks 2
- Government Budget Appropriation of Outlays on R&D (GBAORD) 61–3
 - government budget outlays for R&D (GBAORD) Belgium
 - financial support 47–8
 - socioeconomic objectives 48
 - greenfield investment 197, 201
 - greenfield subsidiaries 211
 - ‘greening’ of national research 78
- Gross Domestic Expenditure on Research and Development (GERD), China 15, 31, 39
 - knowledge intensity of a society 59
- gross domestic product (GDP)
 - measure of economic activity 70
- group-based incentives 251
- group level stimulation of creativity 256–7
- group membership 85
- group stands 142

- Hausman test 235
- hazard rate 212
- health 78
- Herfindahl index 163
- heterogeneity, importance of, in FDI motives 189
- heteroscedasticity 235
- higher education institutions (HEI), Belgium 46
- high-tech and low-tech firms 5–6
- high-tech industries, funding, Belgium 91
- high-tech industries, performance measurement 204
- high-tech manufacturing firms, Belgian 98
- human resources in science and technology (HRST) 56–7
- human resources management 243
- imitation 105
- independent variables 137–8
- individual creativity fostering 255
- industrial activity fields, Sweden 220
- industrial research, basic 158
- industrial specialization 74
- industrial technology, and basic research 157
- industries, high-tech and low-tech 3–4
- industry variables 207
- informal controls
 - trust, organizational culture 257
- information flows to subsidiaries 199
- innovation
 - activities in Belgian firms 54, 65–6, 68–9, 87–90
 - and creativity, international performance 7, 11, 46
 - role of management control 243
 - definition 109
 - expenditures 235
 - funding 85
 - initiative 226–7, 229, 234, 237–9
 - in South Korea, by foreign subsidiaries 224
 - innovation management mode (IMM) of firms 247, 266–7
 - internationalization 4, 7–8
 - and management accounting 119, 244–9
 - non-technological 65–6
 - output 227, 231, 235
 - Portugal, globalized firms 119–201
 - purposes and barriers to 228–9
 - related expenditures 231
- Innovation Accounting for GM firms, Portugal 125
- Innovation Dynamics in Practice (IDIP) 267
- Innovation Effort Intensity 111
- innovation levels of firms 103
- Innovation of Marketing, Portugal 110
- Innovation on Product, Process, Organization and Marketing (IPPOM) 110
 - binary variable 114–17, Portugal 125
- innovation value chain 224–5, 228
- innovative activity, international openness 27–8
- innovative inputs (R&D) 85
- innovativeness 248
- input–output analysis, innovative 24
- Institute for the Encouragement of Scientific Research and Innovation of Brussels (ISRIB) 54
- instrumental variable (IV) regression analysis, 183
- intellectual capital, value of 242
- intellectual property rights 15, 18
- intensity of exporting 139
- interactive systems 246–7
- interdisciplinary management skills 278
- Inter-Ministerial Conference on Science Policy, Belgium 47
- internal and external sources
 - relationship with intra-MNE knowledge sharing 238
- internal barriers, powerful, by company 278
- internal embeddedness 226, 229
- internal innovation input 231
- internal knowledge flows in MNE structure 231

- Internal Multinationals (IM) Portugal 108–10
- international
- business 196
 - competition 201
 - cooperation in patenting, OECD 28
 - diffusion of communication patterns, imitation 105
 - diffusion of knowledge and technology 16–19
 - diffusion of labor mobility 105
 - linkages 57
 - markets, competition 104
 - patent licensing 16
 - trade in disembodied technology 15
 - trade in ideas 19
 - trade in technology 39, 105
 - transfer of technology 17, 20–23
- International Cooperation Commission (CIS) 81
- internationalization of SMEs 130–31
- International Patent Classification (IPC) 163
- intra-MNE knowledge sharing 235, 237–8
- intramural R&D expenditure 63
- Intramural R&D Expenses
- creative work of personnel 110–11
- inventions and scientific knowledge 158, 203
- inventions made abroad 30
- inventions, novel, non-obvious 204
- inventions, ownership of, Japan and OECD 29
- investigation periods 222
- investment, direct 72
- investment in research and innovation, Belgium 52
- investment, long-term, in research 74
- investment motives, heterogeneity of 173
- investment, RTDI investment effect measurement 81
- Japanese investors in United States, TS FDI 177
- Japan Patent Office 27
- Kaplan–Meier estimates 208–10
- Kaplan–Meier survival functions of reverse diffusion
- of technological capabilities 212
- Key Data on Science, Technology and Innovation, Belgium 2012, 56
- know-how (unpatented knowledge) 33
- knowledge
- circulation 74
 - creation process, investment in 58, 106, 226
 - diffusion, reciprocal nature 178
 - economy of Flanders 50–51
 - exchange 43
 - flows (mean values) in units, Portugal 113
 - informational flow indicators 118
 - information sources, Portugal 111–13
 - inputs (mean values) 110–11
 - levels from multinational network 237
 - output productivity, Portugal 109–10, 114
 - outputs (mean values) 110
 - relevance 202
 - sharing, intra-MNE, exogenous variables 231–2
 - sources, importance of 85, 228, 229
 - sourcing by foreign subsidiaries 225
 - spillover opportunities, host country environment 10, 176, 188, 197
 - spillovers 16, 17, 22
 - statistics overall 112–14
 - and technology diffusion in MNEs 213
 - and technology, leveraging 197
 - transfers 16, 17
 - transmission 67
- knowledge-intensive service firms 6, 100
- Knowledge Production Function (KPF) approach 104, 106, 120
- Tobit models on global engagement 115–18
- Korean Innovation Survey (KIS)
- manufacturing sectors, 2002, 2005 228
- Korean Innovation Survey (KIS) data, 239

- labor mobility 105
- labor productivity per person 72
- Law on National Statistics, Korean context 228
- license contracts, definition 18
- licenses for patents 33
- licensing, definition 18
- lifelong learning 58
- Likert scale, five-point 229, 232
- linear innovation management processes 264
- linear multiple regressions 139–41
- liquidity 248
- Lisbon Agenda 2010 1, 3, 15
- Lisbon strategy, innovation as key-driver 56
- local competence, importance of 226
- local embeddedness 226, 227
- local Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) 185
- Logistics, Flanders 51
- logit models on exporting firms 107
- low-tech manufacturing firms, Belgium 98
- macroeconomic effects 70–73
- macroeconomic performance indicators, Belgium, 1999–2008 71
- main variables
 - emergence of technological capabilities 205–7
- management accounting and control systems (MCS) 243, 257
 - creativity stimulation in inter-firm cooperation 258
 - and innovation 245
 - in R&D firms and new product development 250
- management accounting literature 243–54
- management compensation 244
- management control 12
- management control in creative firms 242
- management control literature 243–54
- management control system (MCS) 242–4
 - creativity stimulation at firm level 251–8
 - formal at top management level 246–7
 - at group level 256–7
 - at individual level 254–6
 - literature 256
 - new product development 249
 - management of SMEs 130–31
 - managerial attitudes, geocentric 199
 - manufacturing firms, Belgium,
 - statistics of key variables 92–4
 - manufacturing industries
 - Belgium 62
 - knowledge flow patterns 207
 - manufacturing industry, Flanders 51
 - market domination and competition
 - lack 68
 - market information activities in home country
 - seminars 135–6
 - market orientation 248
 - market size 208
 - market variables 207
 - marketing investment
 - management of creative SMEs 144
 - marketing reserves 129
 - Marshall Plan 2 Green (Plan Marshall 2 Vert), Belgium 52–3
 - environmental research, ‘green’ technologies 53
 - models and designs 33
 - motor vehicle industry 203
 - multinational companies (MNC) 2, 5, 10, 223
 - multinational enterprises (MNE) 10–11, 15, 17, 87, 224
 - Belgium 22–3, 75
 - challenge 76
 - development 196
 - internationalization 198–9
 - knowledge across borders 212
 - R&D internationalization 28, 61
 - social community 22
 - US, productivity effects 173
 - multinational firms and innovation 8–11
 - multinationals, importance 103
 - nanotechnology, Flanders 51
 - national competitiveness 78
 - national culture of countries 207

- national reform programs 1
- National Science Foundation (NSF)
 - definition of basic research 156–7
- National Scientific Research Fund, Belgium 52
- Negative Binomial regression models
 - empirical results of fixed effects 163
- new product development
 - control and strategy link 251
 - management accounting and control systems (MCS) 249–51
- niche markets, internationalizing 130–31
- niche SMEs and foreign markets' legislation 131
- Nomenclature of Territorial Units for Statistics (NUTS)
 - regional distribution of R&D expenditure 61
- normative integration, HQ and subsidiaries 201–2
- Novel Sales, non-negative variable 114–18
- nuclear energy 49

- old-fashioned products, replacement of 229
- open innovation, Brussels 54, 66–7, 76
- Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 228
 - global research 24
 - host countries sample 189
 - statistics on patents 26–7
- organizational forces and creativity 254
- Organizational Innovation, Portugal 110
- organizational learning 248
- organizational levels, top versus lower
 - creativity stimulation 259 11
- overseas market share 137
- ownership advantage 224–5

- pairwise correlations 183
- parent FDI 185
- partner creativity stimulation 258
- patent activity, internationalization 15, 28
- patent applications with co-inventors
 - location abroad 30, 32
- Patent Corporation Treaty (PCT), international 29, 39
- patent data, measure of technological performance 159–60
- patent documents in basic research
 - citations of scientific literature 157
- patent families, triadic 27
- patent intensity variables 163
- patent protection 155
- patenting 19
 - in new technology 206
 - in the United States 204–5
- patents 2, 19, 23
 - advanced technological capabilities 221
 - Belgium, numbers 65
 - cross-border, co-invented 24
 - filing of, as indicator of innovation output 231
 - statistics 26–7
 - and technological capabilities 204, 205
- Pearson correlation matrix 209
- performance change 235
- performance measurement systems 248
- performance satisfaction in exports 139
- pharmaceutical firms, 155–8, 203
 - effect of basic research on technological performance 167–9
 - Japanese 9
- physical presence for gaining local knowledge 226
- policy intervention, logic model 79–82
- Portuguese Community Innovation Survey (CIS)
 - reports 108
- Portuguese firms
 - global engagement 120
 - innovativeness 103, 108
- positive productivity effects from TS
 - FDI 187
- positive technology license receipts 187
- probit models on global engagement 107
- process innovation in work teams 251
- product development
 - as communication web 265
 - factors affecting success 266
 - as rational plan 265

- product life cycles, shortened 201
- product sample booths and export performance 142
- productivity effects of different FDI types 186–90
- productivity growth 157
- profitability 248
- project management, link with innovation culture 266
- public expenditure on education for S&T 58
- public expenditure on human resources for S&T 58
- public research organizations 46
- public scientific information from universities and research centers 229–31
- pulp and paper industry 203
- Purely Domestic (DOM) Portugal 108–19

- quantity-based pay scheme 253–4

- R&D
 - capital stock 21–2
 - centralization 28
 - deficit 4
 - expenditure 2, 162–3
 - Europe and OECD countries 24–6
 - foreign control, 2004 29
 - intramural and extramural 68
 - in Swedish telecommunications industry 203
 - expenses, intramural 110–11
 - funds from abroad 24
 - intensities (R&Ds) 60–61, 99, 175, 179
 - Belgium 59–61
 - investments 246
 - landscape, Europe less dominance 76 and open innovation 77
 - outsourcing 5
 - outsourcing and insourcing, Belgium 78
 - spillovers 20
 - staff, number of 231
- ratio test log-likelihood 165
- rebus puzzles
 - on worker productivity evaluation 253
- regional differences in Belgian innovation 77–8
- regional distribution of R&D expenditure
 - Nomenclature of Territorial Units for Statistics (NUTS) 61
- Regional Plan for Innovation, Brussels (PRI/GPI), 2006 78
 - strategic targets 54
- relevance theory 202
- Republic of Korea, Government 228
- research
 - design 203–9
 - and development intensity 90
 - findings 163, 166–7
 - funding 74
 - geographical concentration, Belgium 61
 - ideas, four levels of analysis 243
 - innovation in Belgium 85
 - joint venture 18
 - needs on control and incentive mechanisms 214
 - productivity 57, 64–5
 - resource-based model, Flanders 127
 - resource mobilization 74
 - reverse diffusion of capabilities foreign to headquarters 200
 - reverse diffusion of knowledge greenfield and acquired subsidiaries 202
 - reverse diffusion of technological capabilities 197, 201–7, 214
 - reverse diffusion, speed of 210
 - reverse diffusion within MNEs, 197
 - reverse knowledge transfer 202–3
 - reverse technology diffusion 196
 - reverse transfer of technology and knowledge 197, 200
 - risk capital provision, Belgium 46
- Sackmann's iceberg model, 1991 264
- sale growth in foreign markets 137
- sales incentives 275
- sales performance 248
- sales training for benefits focus 275
- Schein's culture model, 1992 264

- science and engineering graduates,
 Belgium 43
 science and technology 3
 Science and Technology Policy
 Institute (STEPI) 228
 science-based industries, research 158
 Science Citation Index of ISI/Thomson
 Scientific 160–61
 science parks 46
 science policy and research management 64–5
 Science Policy Council, 2000 54 science research, nylon, radar, hybrid corn 157
 science, technology and innovation
 (STI) 5
 drivers, enablers 56–7
 internationalization 76
 policies, Belgium, criticism of 73–82 policies in Belgium 9, 43, 48–9, 51–2, 155–65
 scientific research, benefit to firms 155 scientific specialization 74
 scientists and engineers, capital stock 57–8 security 43
 seed capital 69
 semiconductor industry in US MNEs 176–7
 seminars, negative influence on export 143 service-based industries, knowledge flow patterns 207
 service firms, Belgium, statistics of key variables 93–4
 Services in Healthcare, Flanders 51
 ‘shared identity’ 277
 small and medium enterprises (SMEs)
 7–8
 small and medium enterprises (SMEs), Flanders 126–7
 internationalization of 131
 socioeconomic objectives, Belgium knowledge advancement, industrial production, space exploration
 48
 South Korea, foreign subsidiaries
 innovation initiative 223 space research, international 45 speed of reverse diffusion 212 ‘stage-gate process’ 277 start-up funding 69
 start-up promotion, Belgium 46
 statistical method 208–9
 statistical targets 56
 statistics of dependent and explanatory
 variables
 correlation coefficients 163
 descriptive 163–4
 STI see science, technology and innovation (STI)
 ‘strategic partnering with key customer’ 277
 structural equation modeling 127
 subcontracting 22
 subsidiaries, competence-creating to headquarters of the MNE 196
 subsidiaries of multinationals, innovation propensity 118
 subsidiary initiative outcomes 226–8 subsidiary mandates and R&D responsibilities 175–7
 subsidiary–parent linkages 180
 subsidiary performance 232 subsidiary type acquired advance foreign subsidiary 207 greenfield 207
 subsidiary’s contribution to knowledge base of parent company 227
 Summary Innovation Index, 2006,
 2009, Portugal
 moderate innovator country 107 supply chain management, Flanders
 51
 Swedish consolidated sample firms
 220–21
 Swedish multinationals, 1893–1990
 213 patenting activity in foreign locations 198
 tax credits for R&D 62
 TE subsidiaries 178
 team communication 265
 teamwork environment future research at group level 256 technical innovation 242 technical and managerial personnel, cross-border movement 18

- technical services 33
- Technological Balance of Payments Statistics 21
- technological
 - capabilities, diffusion of 196, 198, 221
 - cooperation 228, 231
 - diversification measuring 162–3
 - innovation, Europe, Japan 66
 - innovation in Belgium 43
 - knowledge, adaptation to 103
 - performance 9, 164, 167
- technology acquisition 228
- Technology Balance of Payments (TBP) data 24, 32–4, 63–4
 - by main partner countries, 2008 37–8
 - from selected countries, 2008 36
 - specific exclusions from 33–5
 - statistics 2–3
- technology, codified
 - formulas, blueprints, drawings, patent applications 17
- technology development and diffusion in MNE network 196
- technology, disembodied 15–18, 21
 - trade patterns in Europe and OECD 23–38
- technology exploiting (TE) FDI 173–5, 188
 - FDI positive host country productivity effects 179
- technology flow measure, patents 221
- technology license receipts 185
- technology licenses 181
- technology payments, geographical patterns 35
- technology seeking (TS) FDI 173–5, 188
- technology sharing within MNEs 198
- technology spillovers, definition and effects 17, 19
- technology transfers 17, 20–23, 46, 212, 226
 - effect on firm's productivity 22
- TELE case, Swiss telecom industry 267–9
 - culture description 273
 - culture as goal-oriented 277
 - customer acceptance tests 273
 - data evaluation 270
 - external partner, advantages and dangers 273, 276
 - formal power, important factor 273–4
 - innovation process and culture linking 264, 271–2
 - research design of project 269
 - resistance against new product 274–5
 - staff changes 272
 - structuring technique, knowledge acquisition 269–70
 - triangulation of results 269
- telecom industry in Switzerland 267–9
- telecommunications firms, dynamic market 267
- Telepass, 'Autostrade', case study 248–9
- time dummies 163
- time information 249
- time-to-market 249
- Tobit models on global engagement 107
- Total Expenses in Innovation, Portugal 117
- total factor productivity (TFP) 21
- Total Innovation Expenses 111
- tournament-based incentives 251
- trade mission
 - prospection and business trips 133
- trade missions in export performance 135, 142
- trade protection 104
- trade shows 132
 - catalogue booth 132
 - group stand 132–3
 - product sample boot 132
- trade shows for marketing potential
 - abroad relationships 277
 - role of customer 275–6
- trade in technology, international 16–18
- trademarks 33
- transfer of technology, rapid 201
- transportation, Flanders 51
- TS (technology seeking) activities of subsidiaries 181
- TS FDI and firm heterogeneity 177–8
- TS FDI positive host country productivity effects 179

- TS FDI positive productivity effects 178–9
- TS subsidiaries 178
- United States
 - MNEs in 15 OECD countries 179–80
 - Patent and Trademark Office 27, 205, 209
 - patenting activity 205, 206
 - by Swedish multinationals, 1893–1990 203–4
- universities in Belgian research system 46
- urbanization spillovers 90
- value drivers, intangible, value of 242
- variables and measurement, Korea 229
- variables, definition of 205–9
- export performance in SMEs in creative industries 149–50
- variables, measurement and descriptive statistics 230
- variables, summary of
 - export performance in SMEs in creative industries 148
- Variance Inflation Factor (VIF) 139
- venture capital 46, 75
 - investment 68–9, 71
- Walloon priority
 - research and innovation in business strategies 53
- Walloon Region, Belgium, 45, 87
 - STI policies 51–3
- Want's corporate culture hierarchy, 2003 264
- worker productivity evaluation 253