
Index

- Abreu, M. 189, 194
academics autonomy 116
 commitment, perceived reduction in 350–51, 361, 362 freedom and organization autonomy 47–8 qualification requirements 284, 289–90 response and role, business angel university promotion 334, 338, 340–41 see also faculty level challenge; teaching Acs, Z. 91, 323 agricultural entrepreneurship, Netherlands see Netherlands, agri-food sciences' knowledge network and entrepreneurship education Ajzen, I. 95, 212, 230–31, 234, 236, 238
Alashloo, F. 171, 172
Aldrich, H. 49, 211, 438 alumni contribution 43, 372
 see also students
Ambos, T. 361, 363
Åmo, Bjørn Willy 91–111
Anderseck, K. 371, 379
Anderson, A. 384, 385
Argyres, N. 351, 352, 353, 356, 362
Atchison, M. 394, 403
Atkinson, C. 415, 429
Audretsch, D. 2, 11, 91, 167, 168, 184, 190, 324, 414–15, 416, 417, 426

Baerz, A. 171, 172
Bager, E. 92, 94
Baldini, N. 347, 351
Bandura, A. 209, 210, 211, 214, 215, 219, 220, 410
Baron, R. 65, 211, 441
Bécharad, J. 136, 284

Becker, C. 225, 233, 235, 236, 238–9, 243
Behrens, T. 127, 327
Benneworth, P. 192, 193, 323
Bercovitz, J. 44, 236
Berger, A. 324, 328
Bernstein, T. 348, 350
best practice entrepreneurship education programmes see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management, best practice entrepreneurship education programmes recommendations, stakeholder management 19–22 transfer, regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university 191 translation, transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes 91–2, 106–7, 108
Biggs, J. 137, 138–9, 140–41, 156, 439
Bino, R. 259, 260, 262
Binswanger, M. 117, 123, 128, 130
Bird, B. 210, 211, 212, 323, 327, 346, 350, 353
Birley, S. 327–8
Blenker, P. 435, 438, 439, 444
Blok, Vincent 64–90, 248–78
Bode, C. 115, 116, 117, 119, 120
Bok, D. 113, 328
Bosma, N. 95, 96
Boucher, G. 193, 323
Bozeman, B. 348, 359, 362
Bramwell, A. 346, 415
Bray, M. 350, 429
Brennan, J. 25, 51
Breschi, S. 347, 352
Brush, C. 281, 282, 284, 295, 435, 437, 438, 439
Bührmann, A. 113, 124
Bunge, M. 123, 129

- Burtscheidt, C. 114, 116, 117, 120, 126, 128
- business angel university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation 323–45
- academics' response and role 334, 338, 340–41
- business angel event observations and focus group results 336–9
- commercialization of IP 324
- cooperative projects, suggestion of 342
- economic downturn, effects of 341–2
- equity share of company, relevance of 334, 336
- as funding source 325, 338, 341–2
- future research 342
- IP basic draft pipeline, creation of 340–41
- knowledge spillover theory of entrepreneurship 323–4
- marketing fees 334, 335, 337
- network managers as gatekeepers 333–4, 335, 336, 340–41
- non-financial value-added (NFVA) studies and outreach role 326, 328
- risk-taking 324, 338
- stakeholder involvement 331–2, 336, 339, 339–41, 340
- university innovation, role of 324, 325–9, 336
- university management and governance-related barriers to entrepreneurship education 327–8
- Welsh Business Angels network (Xenos Limited), overview 330
- see also* intellectual property (IP); start-ups
- business challenge competitions see IBM Universities Business Challenge
- business cultures, learning from different 349, 361
- business opportunity identification and assessment see opportunity identification and assessment
- business plan development
- accessing development, Denmark 441, 442, 443
- agri-food sciences' knowledge network 265, 267, 269, 270
- competition see IBM Universities Business Challenge
- entrepreneurial journey, university's contribution toward 375, 383
- EXIST policy programme 233, 235
- focus, need for, transferability of programmes 108
- global start-up internships 306
- business schools
- and entrepreneurial universities, differences between 381–2, 387
- universities with and without, comparison of 451, 453, 454
- business spin-offs see spin-offs
- business start-ups see start-ups
- Bygrave, W. 325, 326, 386
- Canada, programme improvement management see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management, best practice entrepreneurship education programmes
- case studies
- agri-food sciences' knowledge network 267
- development access, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center (UCHSC) 427–8
- entrepreneurship educators, impact of 280, 293
- EXIST policy programme see Germany, EXIST policy programme
- Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities 167, 171–5
- Tanzania, use of local material 156
- venture capitalists 428–9
- Welsh Business Angels network see business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation
- categorization model see Denmark, entrepreneurship education

- at university level, accessing development, categorization model for entrepreneurship education
- Chandler, G. 210, 211
- Chang, Y. 3, 352, 361, 363
- Chapple, W. 328, 350
- Charney, A. 156, 437
- Clark, B. 3, 11, 12, 68, 112, 113, 114, 125, 137–8, 163, 166, 168, 179, 180, 229, 237, 279, 296
- Clarysse, B. 190, 317
- Coco, M. 302, 304
- Collini, S. 25, 51
- Colyvas, J. 347, 348, 349–50, 351, 353, 362
- commercialization
 - business angel university promotion see business angel university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation
 - development access see university level entrepreneurial education, development access and firm location
 - exploitation of knowledge fears 25–6, 30–31
 - Higher Education, Germany 113
 - of spin-offs see university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review
- competencies
 - acquisition and development 211
 - attitude and skills development, IBM Universities Business Challenge 400–401
 - competence triggers 210–20
 - development, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 268–71
 - enterprise and entrepreneurial skills development 39–40
 - entrepreneurial mindset see entrepreneurial mindset
 - generic competencies, supporting, IBM Universities Business Challenge 405–7
 - intercultural negotiation 407
 - marketing skills 270, 375, 379, 405
 - self-efficacy see self-efficacy
 - skills mix, identifying 385
 - skills teaching and applied entrepreneurship 383, 388
 - skills teaching and competency trap 279–80
- competition
 - entrepreneurial activity income and competitiveness 195–202
 - global competition in science and benchmarking 122
 - innovation and competitiveness 121
 - state sponsoring and unfair competition 353–4, 363
- consultancy services 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201
- Cooke, P. 191, 324, 415, 437
- Cope, J. 11, 65, 68, 70, 141, 279, 394, 395, 397, 405, 406, 437, 439
- Corbett, A. 70, 318
- Crayford, Judith 392–413
- curriculum
 - design and objectives, Tanzania 140, 147–50, 154
 - development, and employers 37–8
 - entrepreneurial education development, Denmark 438–9, 440–41, 447–51, 455
 - focus, and stakeholder management 19–20, 21
 - start-up internships as a source of experiential learning, Norway 307–9
 - see also* teaching
- D'Abate, C. 303, 304, 310, 311
- Dahl, M. 415, 416, 417
- Dahlstrand, Å. 327, 415
- Darby, M. 349, 351
- David, P. 352, 362
- Davidsson, P. 209, 212, 214, 438, 441
- De Groot, S. 257, 259
- Deacon, J. 393, 408
- Dearlove, D. 381
- Debackere, K. 363, 436
- Deeds, D. 416, 417, 427
- Denmark, International Master of Entrepreneurship Education and Training 295
- Denmark, entrepreneurship education at university level, accessing development 435–59

- Centre for Social Entrepreneurship (CSE), Roskilde University 445
- Copenhagen Innovation and Entrepreneurship Lab (CIEL) initiative 444, 454–5
- course design considerations 438–9, 440–41
- cutbacks in public funding, effects of 436
- Danish context, analysis of 444–5
- Danish Foundation for Entrepreneurship – Young Enterprise 444
- educational activities, importance of 436–7
- effective logic 437
- entrepreneurship education, focus variations 438
- EU funding 444
- future research 455–6
- government grant 444–5
- International Danish Entrepreneurship Academy (IDEA) 444
- legal issues, understanding of 438, 441, 442
- measurement of entrepreneurship education development 437–9
- teaching methods, importance of effective 439
- see also* entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management
- Denmark, entrepreneurship education at university level, accessing development, categorization model for entrepreneurship education 439–43
- business plan development 441, 442, 443
- content dimensions 440–41
- entrepreneurship/beginning category 440–41
- finance/beginning category 440, 441
- intrapreneurship category 440, 441
- law category 437, 440, 441, 442
- market analysis 441
- multidisciplinary dimensions, importance of 441–2
- pedagogical dimensions 441–3
- Denmark, entrepreneurship education at university level, accessing development, entrepreneurial education development 445–52
- course content and focus 447–9, 450–51, 455
- pedagogical methods 449–50, 451, 453
- pedagogical methods, focusing on teaching through and for entrepreneurship 451, 454
- social entrepreneurship 445
- student numbers 446–7, 451, 455
- trend developments 451
- universities with and without business schools, comparison of 451, 453, 454
- Der Foo, M. 394, 407
- developing countries see Latvia; Middle East; Tanzania
- Di Gregorio, D. 190, 191, 351
- Ding, W. 236, 414
- Dohse, D. 70, 230, 430
- Dons, Hans 248–78
- Draycott, M. 392, 393, 394
- Dweck, C. 214, 215, 219, 220
- economic downturn, effects on business angel university promotion 341–2
- economic growth and government intervention 28–9, 40, 46
- and local economic development 415–16
- unemployment rates and role of entrepreneur 371–2
- university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs 349, 359–60, 361
- see also* financial resources; funding; socioeconomic perspective
- educators impact of see entrepreneurship educators, impact of see also teaching
- Edwards, Louise-Jayne 370–91
- effective logic 66, 68, 70
- accessing development 437
- effectuation of entrepreneurial

- competencies 210, 212, 215, 354, 357, 439, 441
- Egeln, J. 414, 415, 417
- Eisenhardt, K. 167, 171
- Elliott, E. 219, 220
- employment
 - career motivation aspect, IBM Universities Business Challenge 404–5
 - and employability 29–31, 35, 37–8, 39–40, 44, 386
 - employers and curriculum development 37–8
 - self-employment as attractive occupational choice 234
 - student expectations and career aspirations, Tanzania 150–52, 153, 154, 157–8
 - unemployment rates and role of entrepreneur 371–2
- Ensley, M. 65, 211
- enterprise
 - and entrepreneurial journey see under entrepreneurial journey, university's contribution toward
 - and entrepreneurship education, differences between 393–4
 - skills development, IBM Universities Business Challenge 404–5, 406, 407, 408–9
- entrepreneurial journey, university's contribution toward 370–91
 - alumni growth and development patterns 372
 - business plan development 375, 383
 - business schools and entrepreneurial universities, differences between 381–2, 387
 - definition problems 374–8
 - employability concept 386
 - enterprise, courses about 383
 - enterprise definition, cultural differences 378–9
 - enterprise education, understanding of 375–6, 377
 - enterprise educators, need for development of 372, 375–6, 385–6
 - entrepreneurial university concept 380–86
 - entrepreneurship education, learning through enterprise 382–3
 - entrepreneurship, skills teaching and applied entrepreneurship 383, 388
 - entrepreneurship, teaching for or about, distinction between 383–5, 387–8
 - evaluations of enterprise education, need for 372–3
 - future research 377
 - glamorization of entrepreneurs through mass media 374–5
 - government enterprise support programmes, UK 379–80
 - individual empowerment 380
 - innovative teaching methods, need for 386–9
 - knowledge economy, exploitation of 380, 384
 - labelling effects 377–8
 - marketing skills 375, 379
 - non-business-related staff 375
 - opportunity identification 373, 380, 381, 384, 387
 - personal identity development 376–7, 385
 - skills mix, identifying 385
 - small business, use of term 379, 380
 - unemployment rates, economic growth and role of entrepreneur 371–2
- entrepreneurial mindset
 - attitude and skills development 400–401
 - entrepreneurial values see values, entrepreneurial university as nurturer of
 - improvement, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 264–8
 - intentions and behaviour of university members 229–32 see also competencies
- entrepreneurship education
 - programmes, improvement management 64–90
 - future research 85, 87
 - global diversity of programmes 66
 - opportunity identification 65–6, 70, 82

- performance indicators and dimensions 65–72
- public-private partnerships 85
- see also* Denmark, entrepreneurship education at university level, accessing development; teaching
- entrepreneurship education
 - programmes, improvement management, best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 73–84
 - development and evaluation dimension 83–4, 87
 - education dimension 81–2, 86–7
 - entrepreneurship through education 74
 - financial resources dimension 77–9, 83
 - income generation 79
 - institutional infrastructure 79–80, 86
 - knowledge transfer 67, 74, 82, 83, 87
 - leadership style and governance structure 77
 - multidisciplinary approach 79, 80
 - outreach dimension and stakeholder involvement 82–3, 85–6
 - patent numbers and knowledge transfer 67, 74, 82, 83
 - performance and dimension, relationship between 74, 75
 - research infrastructure 80
 - stakeholder involvement 79, 80, 84
 - strategy and mission dimension 75–7, 85
- entrepreneurship education
 - programmes, improvement management, European benchmark studies 64–5, 66
 - action-learning approaches 71–2
 - development and evaluation dimension 71–2
 - education dimension 69–70, 87
 - effective logic 66, 68, 70
 - financial resources dimension 68–9
 - income generation 68–9
 - institutional infrastructure dimension 69
 - knowledge transfer between university and society 69, 71
 - leadership style and governance structure 68
 - multidisciplinary approach, importance of 69
 - outreach dimension and stakeholder involvement 70–71
 - performance indicators 67
 - research infrastructure 69
 - strategy and mission dimension 67–8
- entrepreneurship educational programmes, transferability see transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
- entrepreneurship educators 279–300
 - academic qualification requirements 284
 - case studies 280, 293
 - common additional qualification, suggestion for 295
 - competency trap 279–80
 - diversity, importance of 296
 - educational backgrounds, diversity of 284–5
 - educators as role models, importance of 296
- entrepreneurship education
 - implications 295–7
 - faculty profile, importance and understanding of 295, 296
 - future research 297
 - ideal profile, perception of 285–6
 - knowledge gaps in existing literature 280
 - non-business studies 290
 - processes optimization 268
 - research, earlier 280, 281, 285
 - ‘specialist’ and the ‘generalist’ approaches, differences between 284
- team composition, defining aspired 296
- tenure requirements at US Higher Education schools and universities 285
- typology, need for 280
- use of, in entrepreneurship education 281–4
- working definition 286

- entrepreneurship educators, impact of,
 - Germany 286–9
 - academic qualification of external e-educators 289–90
 - data analysis 288–9
 - educational backgrounds,
 - business/ economic sciences predominance 290, 291, 292
 - educator profiles 289–90
 - entrepreneurial experience of e-educators 290, 291, 292, 295, 296
 - ‘entrepreneurial’ performance categorization 287–8
 - inter-group comparison of educator profiles 290–91
 - potential impact of e-educators 292–3
- Erikson, Truls 210, 301–20
- ethical concerns, and
 - commercialization of spin-offs see university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review
- Etzkowitz, H. 2, 3, 12, 13, 19–20, 25, 26, 64, 69, 71, 113, 164, 167, 188, 209, 221, 229, 253, 301, 328, 415, 429, 435, 436, 437
- European Union
 - Confederation of EU Rectors’ Conferences 124
 - Entrepreneurship in Higher Education in the EU* 381–2
 - European benchmark studies see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management, European benchmark studies
 - European Commission, entrepreneurship education 11, 21
 - European Consortium for Accreditation (ECA) 125
 - funding 444
 - see also* individual countries
- evaluation
 - best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 83–4, 87
 - commercialization of spin-offs see under university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review
- enterprise education 372–3
- European benchmark studies 71–2 see also values
- EXIST policy programme see Germany, EXIST policy programme
- experiential learning
 - direct experience, importance of 215
 - real-life learning, IBM Universities Business Challenge 401–3
 - and start-up internships see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning
- faculty level challenge 46–7, 51–2, 54
 - departure and inequity claims 353, 358, 361
 - faculty profile, importance and understanding of 295, 296
 - peer supportiveness, effect of 236 see also academics
- Fayolle, Alain 1–8, 11–24, 70, 91, 95, 140, 158, 229, 231, 232, 279, 377
- Fearon, Colm 392–413
- Feldman, M. 44, 236
- Feller, I. 347, 351, 353
- Feltovich, P. 212, 215
- female entrepreneurship, Scandinavia 102, 106
- Fiet, J. 279, 281, 282, 285
- Figueiredo, O. 416, 417
- financial resources
 - best practice programmes 77–9, 83
 - competitiveness and entrepreneurial activity income 195–202
 - European benchmark studies 68–9
 - EXIST policy programme 235–6, 239–40, 241
 - Iranian entrepreneurial universities 179, 181–2, 183 see also economic growth; funding
- Finkle, T. 255, 280, 283, 285, 290
- Finland, transferability of
 - programmes see transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
- firm creation see start-ups

- firm location see university level
 - entrepreneurial education, development access and firm location
- firm performance see commercialization
- Foss, N. 437, 438
- Fotopoulos, G. 416
- France
 - Iranian universities' alliance 180
 - Observatory of Pedagogical Practices in Entrepreneurship 295
- Freeman, R. 13, 14, 18
- Freeth, D. 138, 140
- Freidson, E. 114, 115, 129
- Frey, B. 122, 124, 129, 130
- funding
 - alternative revenue drive, and efficiency 42–3
 - fees and competition 27–8, 31, 34, 38, 41, 45–6, 48
 - German Higher Education system 120, 127–8
 - government grant, Denmark 444–5
 - international technology entrepreneurship, Norway 310
 - knowledge transfer activities, UK 189–90
 - public funding cutbacks, Denmark 436
 - research funding, agri-food sciences' knowledge network, Netherlands 260–62
 - resource shortages and lack of experience, Tanzania 138, 139–40, 145–6, 149, 153–5, 156
 - revenue generation and commercialization of spin-offs 349–50, 360, 361
 - venture-capital-funded firms 418–19, 428–9, 431
 - see also* economic growth; financial resources; government involvement
- funding source, as business angel
 - university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation 325, 338, 341–2
- future research
 - business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation 342
 - Denmark, entrepreneurship education at university level, accessing development of 455–6
 - entrepreneurial journey, university's contribution toward 377
 - entrepreneurship education programmes, managing improvement of 85, 87
 - entrepreneurship educators, impact of 297
 - Germany, EXIST policy programme 242–3
 - Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system 130
 - global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning 317, 318
 - IBM Universities Business Challenge 409–10
 - Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities 184
 - regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 193, 202–3
 - Tanzania, university entrepreneurship education 157, 158
 - university level entrepreneurial education, development access and firm location 431
 - university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review 363
- Garavan, T. 69, 371, 382
- Gartner, W. 66, 68, 70, 71, 141, 156, 281, 297, 437
- Geiger, R. 347, 349
- George, G. 236, 238
- Germany
 - BioRegio contest 430–31
 - entrepreneurship educators, impact of see entrepreneurship educators, impact of, Germany
 - Fraunhofer system 29

- Germany, EXIST policy programme 225–47
- academic entrepreneurs 228–9
 - attractiveness of entrepreneurship, perceived 234–6, 242–3
 - behavioural control of entrepreneurship, perceived 237–41
 - business plan development 233, 235
 - embedded support chain 229–30
 - entrepreneurial intentions and behaviour of university members 229–32
 - factors affecting entrepreneurial behaviour 228–9
 - faculty and student peers, effect of supportiveness of 236
 - financial and material support at initial development stage 235–6
 - financial and resource support 239–40, 241
 - free-riding, avoidance of 243
 - future research 242–3
 - information and advice provision 238–9
 - infrastructure support 238
 - knowledge, entrepreneurial utilization of academic and scientific 234–5
 - market feasibility 238, 239, 240
 - normative acceptance of entrepreneurship, perceived 236–7
 - opportunistic free-riding, avoidance of 243
 - opportunity costs, potential negative impact 235–6, 242
 - policy support 232–41
 - research and policy implications 241–3
 - risk-taking 235–6, 238
 - self-employment as attractive occupational choice 234
 - start-up barriers 237–8
 - sustainability of 240–41
 - theory of planned behaviour (TPB) models 231–2, 236
 - university-wide acceptance and encouragement, effects of 236–7
- Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system 112–35
- commercialization of Higher Education 113
 - future research 130
 - Higher Education Framework Law 118, 120, 127
 - institutional logic 113, 114–15, 117–18, 122–4, 125, 129
 - legal issues 120, 126, 127
 - Opening Universities policy 120
 - Triple Helix effect (education, state, market) 113
- Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system, federal involvement and democratization 117–21
- capacity regulation 119
 - competitiveness and innovation 121
 - Excellence Initiative 127
 - funding policies 120
 - governance system 119–20 and institutional logic of democratization and central planning 117–18
 - new actor involvement 118–19
 - precursors of change 120–21
 - student associations 118–19
 - supply-oriented study programmes 118
- Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system, managed education era 121–8
- autonomy, increased 127
 - competitive funding programmes 127–8
 - Confederation of EU Rectors' Conferences 124
 - funding and incentives 126
 - global competition in science and benchmarking 122
 - governance system 125–8
 - institutional mergers, cost efficiencies and strategic profile development 126–7
 - national and international accreditation agencies 125

- New Public Management (NPM)
 - approach 123–4, 127
 - opportunity identification 125
 - presidential constitution, shift to 126
 - publication preferences 124–5
 - research productivity indicators 122–3
 - university councils, emergence of 126
- Germany, institutional change in
 - German Higher Education system, professional dominance era 114–17
 - and change to managed education 112–13
 - governance system 116
 - Humboldtian model 112, 114, 115, 117, 125
 - institutional actors 115–16
 - precursors of change and second industrial revolution 116–17
- Geuna, A. 190, 350, 435, 436
- Gibb, Allan A. 21, 25–63, 188, 228, 264, 296, 297, 379, 381, 385, 386, 387, 408, 410, 435, 437, 439
- Gilsing, V. 346, 349
- Glenna, L. 351, 360
- global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning 301–20
 - early career success and past participation in undergraduate internship, relationship between 304
 - experience as source of learning 302–5
 - future research 317, 318
 - market feasibility studies 317
 - organizers and facilitators, important role of 317–18
 - social entrepreneurship 309
- global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning, international technology entrepreneurship, Norway 301, 305–10
 - business plan development 306
 - current programme structure 306–10
 - establishment and growth, main factors affecting 309–10
 - global partnerships, importance of 309
 - internship characteristics 311–15
 - internship satisfaction as dependent variable 311–12, 316–17
 - job characteristics as independent variable 312–13
 - legal aspects 301
 - political and financial support 310
 - prizes awarded 309
 - programme characteristics 307–9
 - recruitment and interviewing process, institutional distribution of 310
 - work environment characteristics as independent variable 313–15, 317
- Goddard, J. 31, 188
- Goedegebuure, L. 126
- Goethner, M. 229, 230, 231, 232, 234, 236, 237, 242
- Goldstein, H. 347, 350, 415, 429
- Gonzalez, C. 349, 351
- Gorman, G. 11, 384
- Gotlieb, P. 394, 403
- governance system
 - German Higher Education system 116, 119–20, 125–8
 - Iranian entrepreneurial universities 171, 172, 176
 - leadership style 68, 77, 219, 220
- government involvement and economic growth 28–9, 40, 46
 - enterprise support programmes, UK 379–80
 - government grant, Denmark 444–5
 - policy considerations, and development access 430–31
 - policy support, agri-food sciences' knowledge network, Netherlands 261–2
 - political and financial support, global start-up internships 310
 - state sponsoring and unfair competition 353–4, 363
 - transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes 100
- Triple Helix model (university–industry–government)

- interrelationship) 12–14, 53, 113 see also public policy
- Grandi, A. 165, 177
- Grayling, A. 28, 31, 39
- Greene, P. 280, 284, 286, 295
- Grégoire, D. 136, 284
- Grimaldi, R. 163, 165, 177
- Groenewegen, Peter 136–62
- Grünhagen, Marc 225–47
- Guerrero, Maribel 2, 11, 22, 64, 163–87
- Gulbrandsen, M. 234, 351
- Gulikers, J. 65–6, 70
- Gumport, P. 122, 129
- Günther, J. 279, 283
- Hackman, J. 311, 312
- Haeussler, C. 347, 352
- Hakhverdyan, Sose 435–59
- Hamilton, J. 393, 394, 401, 403, 406, 410
- Handscombe, R. 371–2, 379, 380, 381, 383, 387
- Hanft, A. 113, 124
- Hannon, P. 264, 393, 408, 439
- Harman, G. 126, 327
- Harris, J. 393, 408
- Harrison, R. 324, 325, 328, 329
- Haskins, Gay 25–63
- Heinonen, J. 435, 436, 437
- Hemer, J. 235, 237
- Henderson, R. 140, 149
- Hewitt-Dundas, N. 189, 194
- Higher Education Institutions see ‘university’ headings
- Hills, G. 280, 282, 285, 379, 381, 387
- Hindle, K. 139, 140, 156
- Hödl, E. 117, 120
- Hofer, A. 225, 294
- Honig, B. 209, 212, 214
- Hsu, R. 348, 350
- Huggins, R. 193, 194–5, 199, 415
- Hughes, A. 29, 46
- Hulsink, Willem 248–78
- Humboldtian model, German Higher Education system 112, 114, 115, 117, 125
- Hynes, B. 69, 70–71, 93, 155, 156
- Hytti, U. 72, 92, 94, 105, 108, 372, 384, 435, 436, 437
- IBM Universities Business Challenge
392–413 business challenge competitions 394–5 career motivation aspect 404–5 ‘enterprise’ and ‘entrepreneurship’ education, differences between 393–4 enterprise skills development 404–5, 406, 407, 408–9 entrepreneurial behaviour, attitude and skills development 400–401 entrepreneurial learning and teaching implications 408–9 entrepreneurial values, identifying key 403–4
future research 409–10 generic competencies, supporting 405–7 intercultural negotiation 407
marketing skills 405
real-life learning, emphasis on 401–3 respondents’ profile and reasons for joining 399–400
risk-taking 395, 403
self-confidence development 403–4 sense-making, core tenets of 397–8, 403 situated learning theory 394, 405–6 social nature of entrepreneurial learning 395, 402, 403–4, 405–6, 408, 410
stakeholder relationships, management of 407
- immigration controls 34
- income generation see financial resources; funding
- incubation services 21, 425, 430
- innovation business angels and university innovation 324, 325–9, 336
competitiveness and innovation 121 innovative teaching methods, need for 386–9 and knowledge transfer, Iran 177 local and regional partnership development 41, 51–2 and open creativity 13–14
R&D expenditure and patent applications, and transferability

- of programmes 100–101, 103, 105, 106
 - and research system, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 257, 258–62
- institutional change, Germany see
 - Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system
- institutional differences, regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 190–92, 193, 194
- institutional infrastructure
 - best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 79–80, 86
 - European benchmark studies 69
 - transferability of programmes 97–8, 99, 105, 107–8
- intellectual property (IP)
 - academic founder preferences, and development access 426–8
 - and anti-commons effect, commercialization of spin-offs 348, 352, 355–6, 360, 361, 362
 - exploitation, and business angel university promotion see business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation
 - patent application and transferability of programmes 100–101, 103, 105, 106, 108
 - patent applications, Iranian entrepreneurial universities 181
 - patent numbers and knowledge transfer 67, 74, 82, 83
 - patent and technology licensing, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 253, 260, 261, 272, 273
 - regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 200, 201
 - valorization, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 261, 272–3
- international market
 - immigration controls 34
 - networks and alliances, Iranian entrepreneurial universities 180
 - start-up internships see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning
 - trans-cultural opportunities and global curriculum 34–5, 42
- Internet
 - online learning technologies, use of 33–4, 38, 39
 - see also* technology
- internships
 - opportunities 29, 30, 33, 38, 42
 - start-up see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning
- Iran, entrepreneurial universities see Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities, Iranian entrepreneurial universities
- Iredale, N. 393, 394
- Ireson, J. 384, 388
- Italy, Iranian universities' alliance 180
- Jack, S. 384, 385
- Jensen, R. 347, 349, 429, 436
- Jessen, R. 114, 117, 118
- Jones, A. and P. 392, 393, 394, 395, 398, 411
- Jones, B. 393, 394
- Jones, C. 296, 386, 411
- Jones, G. 380, 384
- Jones-Evans, D. 163, 168, 330
- Jongbloed, B. 13, 18
- Jørgensen, Casper 435–59
- Kabongo, J. 280, 281, 283, 284–5, 290, 295, 385
- Kalaitzandonakes, Nicholas 414–34
- Katz, J. 11, 65, 93, 254, 255, 281, 282, 284, 435, 437, 451, 454
- Kehm, B. 113, 127
- Kirby, D. 12, 64, 125, 163, 165, 166, 168, 177, 178, 229
- Kirzner, I. 354, 356–8, 362
- Kitson, M. 50, 188
- Klandt, H. 280, 285
- Kleinman, D. 351, 352, 353, 355
- Klofsten, M. 19–20, 69, 163, 168
- Kluth, W. 119, 121, 126
- Klyver, K. 92, 94

- knowledge transfer
 best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 67, 74, 82, 83, 87
 European benchmark studies 69, 71
 EXIST policy programme 234–5, 238–9 flows, debate over use of 38–9 and innovation, Iranian entrepreneurial universities, environmental factors 177 network, agri-food sciences see Netherlands, agri-food sciences' knowledge network and entrepreneurship education and patent numbers 67, 74, 82, 83 regional perspective, UK 189–91, 194, 195, 196 social sources 211 spillover theory of entrepreneurship 323–4 utilization objective, and commercialization of spin-offs 348, 360, 361
- Kolb, A. and D. 302, 303
 Kolvereid, L. 70, 93, 100, 234
 Kolympiris, Christos 414–34
 Krinsky, S. 351, 352, 353, 355, 356, 362
 Kristiansen, S. 136, 145
 Krueger, N. 212, 214, 215, 216, 231, 242
 Kulicke, M. 225, 226–7, 232, 233, 234, 235, 238, 243, 279, 280, 284, 285
 Kuratko, D. 11, 66, 139, 254, 437
 Kyrö, P. 91, 439
 Kyvik, S. 435, 436
- Lacetera, N. 351, 360
 Landström, H. 91, 326
 Lans, Thomas 64–90, 248–78
 Larsen, M. 347, 349, 351
 Latvia, entrepreneurship education, low rate of 163 leadership style 68, 77, 219, 220 see also governance system lecturers and guest lecturers see academics; teaching Lee, J. 350, 429
- legal aspects academic autonomy 116
 accessing development, Denmark 437, 440, 441, 442
 federal involvement and democratization, Germany see Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system, federal involvement and democratization German Higher Education system 120, 126, 127
 global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning 301 intellectual property and patents see intellectual property legal and social regimes, diversity in 363
 legal status of universities, and public/private investment 43 support-oriented state universities, history of (US) 252
- Lehmann, E. 168, 324
 Leibfried, S. 113, 127
 Leslie, L. 113, 125, 138, 349, 353, 355
 Leunbach, Daniel 301–20
 Leute, K. 350, 351, 362
 Levie, J. 96, 383–4, 387
 Leydesdorff, L. 2, 12, 188
 Libecap, G. 156, 437
 Liebeskind, J. 351, 352, 353, 356, 362
 Liñán, F. 166, 231, 234, 237
 Link, A. 163, 165, 177, 192
 Little, S. 302, 303, 304, 317 local partnership development 31, 32, 40–41, 46, 51–2 see also regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK
- Long, W. 68, 254, 285, 296
 Lowe, R. 349, 351
 Lubberink, Rob 64–90, 266, 268, 272
- McCarthy, Simon 323–45
 McCaskey, P. 280, 281, 283, 284–5, 290, 295, 385
 McDougall, P. 166, 178, 349, 351, 438
 MacKenzie, Niall G. 188–206
 McMullan, W. 68, 254, 285, 296, 381, 438

- management
 - entrepreneurial management of independence 48–50
 - financial see financial resources; funding
 - improvement management see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management
 - New Public Management (NPM) approach, Germany 123–4, 127
 - stakeholder see stakeholder management
 - university management and governance-related barriers to entrepreneurship education 327–8
- Marginson, S. 34, 54
- market analysis 239, 441
 - feasibility studies 238, 239, 240, 317
 - international see international markets
 - marketing fees, business angel university promotion 334, 335, 337
 - marketing skills 270, 375, 379, 405
 - marketing studies, Tanzania, university entrepreneurship education 146, 155
- Markowska, Magdalena 209–24
- Markussen, Elisabeth 435–59
- Martinelli, A. 350, 352
- Mason, C. 324, 325, 328, 329
- mass media, glamorization of entrepreneurs through 374–5
- Matlay, H. 71, 279, 371, 387, 410
- Maxwell, N. 39, 51
- Mead, G. 216, 218
- Meier, F. 123, 124, 125, 127
- Mello, J. 13, 164, 167
- Merton, R. 354, 355–6, 362, 363, 429
- Meyer, M. 346, 348
- Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities 163–87
 - case study approach 167, 171–5
 - entrepreneurial universities framework 164–7
 - entrepreneurial university missions (EUMs) 166–7
 - environmental factors, institutional approach 164–6
 - future research 184
 - internal factors, resource-based view 166
 - research and knowledge spillovers 166–7
- Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities, Iranian
 - entrepreneurial universities, environmental factors
 - entrepreneur role models 178
 - entrepreneur role models, reward systems as incentives 178, 179
 - entrepreneurship education programme 177
 - favourable attitudes, encouragement of 177, 184
 - governance structure 172, 176
 - innovation and knowledge transfer 177
 - patent applications 181
 - support measures for entrepreneurship 176–7, 183, 184
- Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities, Iranian
 - entrepreneurial universities, internal factors
 - financial resources 179, 181–2, 183
 - foreign investment and entrepreneurship capital 181–2, 183–4
 - government policies and investment levels 171, 172
 - human resources 178–9, 182, 183
 - international networks and alliances 180
 - physical resources 179–80
 - Sharif University of Technology (SUT) 173–4, 175
 - socioeconomic impacts 167, 181–2, 183–4
 - status and prestige 180
 - undergraduate admissions 179
 - University of Tehran (UT) 173–4, 175
- Mitchell, R. 15, 218, 348
- Moberg, Kåre 435–59
- Moore, M. 26, 51

- Morley, L. 136, 141 motivation and attitudinal requirements 98–9, 101, 107–8, 210, 211–12 see also self-efficacy
 Mowery, D. 190, 349
 Mueller, P. 2, 11, 209, 349, 414
 Mueller, S. 231, 232
 Muir, Elizabeth J. 370–91
 Müller, S. 279, 284, 292
 multidisciplinary approach 69, 79, 80, 441–2
 Münch, R. 112, 113, 117, 121, 122, 124, 125, 128
 Müskens, I. 113, 124
 Mwasalwiba, Ernest Samwel 136–62
 Narayanan, V. 302, 303
 Neck, H. 280, 284, 286, 295
 Nesta, L. 190, 350
 Netherlands, agri-food sciences’ knowledge network and entrepreneurship education 248–78 agri-food sector overview 256–8
 case study approach 267
 Centres of Entrepreneurship (CoEs) 249, 255 entrepreneurial university system 250–53 innovation and research system 257, 258–62
 Kauffman Foundation and Campuses Initiative 249 knowledge valorization as Third Mission in European universities 253
 opportunity identification 258, 261, 268, 269, 270, 271, 273
 Partnership in Entrepreneurship Education programme 249 patent and technology licensing 253, 260, 261, 272, 273
 Third Generation university and knowledge exploitation 251–2 US model as comparison 252–3, 254–5 value chain changes 257–8
 Netherlands, agri-food sciences’ knowledge network and entrepreneurship education, Wageningen University, DAFNE programme 249–50, 263–75 Academic Master Cluster module 269–70
 business plan development 265, 267, 269, 270
 ‘champions of entrepreneurship’ role models 264–6, 267 database of entrepreneurs 266–7 Entrepreneurial Boot Camp 271 entrepreneurial mindset improvement 264–8 games and simulations 267–8
 Go West exchange programme 271
 Innovation and Entrepreneurship BSc minor 270 intellectual property (IP) and knowledge valorization 272–3 marketing courses 270 professional courses 268–9, 272
 Schilperoort lectures 267 skills and competencies, development of 268–71
 Top-class programme 269
 Netherlands, agri-food sciences’ knowledge network and entrepreneurship education, Wageningen University transformative approach 258–63 government policy support 261–2 intellectual property (IP) valorization 261 knowledge sharing 259, 260
 processes optimization 258
 public–private partnerships 253, 260, 262, 263 research funding 260–62
 Startlife programme 275
 University of Applied Science 259
 Wageningen Business Generator (WBG) 261
 New Public Management (NPM) approach, German Higher Education system 123–4, 127
 Newman, J. 25, 39, 51
 Nickel, S. 119, 123, 124, 127
 Nikolou-Walker, G. 395
 Noel, T. 219, 377

- Norway
 start-up internships see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning
 transferability of programmes see transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
- Nowotny, H. 26, 50
- Nygaard, C. 435, 436
- O’Cinneide, B. 69, 371, 382
- OECD strategies for good entrepreneurial practices 20–21
Towards an Enterprising Culture
 382–3
- Oehler, C. 114, 117
- O’Gorman, C. 72, 372
- Oldham, G. 311, 312
- Olsen, J. 112, 113, 129
- Omta, Onno 64–90
- online learning technologies, use of 33–4, 38, 39
see also technology
- opportunity identification and assessment business angel university promotion see business angel university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation entrepreneurial journey, university’s contribution toward 373, 380, 381, 384, 387
Excellence and Opportunity White Paper 189
 and experiential learning see IBM Universities Business Challenge
- Netherlands, agri-food sciences’ knowledge network and entrepreneurship education 258,
 261, 268, 269, 270, 271, 273
- opportunistic free-riding, avoidance of 243
- opportunity costs, potential negative impact 235–6, 242
- regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 189
- start-up internships see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning
- Tanzania, university entrepreneurship education
 151 transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
 93–4, 95, 101, 105, 107 university spin-offs see university spin-offs and commercialization
 of spin-offs, ethical review values, entrepreneurial university as nurturer of 210, 214, 215, 220
- O’Shea, R. 163, 165, 166, 176, 237, 349, 429
- Osterloh, M. 122, 124, 130
- outreach dimension and stakeholder involvement
 best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 82–3, 85–6
 European benchmark studies 70–71 non-financial value-added (NFVA) studies and outreach role 326, 328
- Owen-Smith, J. 347, 349, 351, 355, 360
- Packham, Gary 323–45
- Pasternack, P. 113, 115, 119, 127
- patents see under intellectual property
 (IP)
- Patton, R. 392, 394
- Patzelt, H. 228, 233, 241–2
- Paul, S. 324, 326–7
- pedagogy see teaching
- Pegg, A. 30, 37
- Pelfrey, A. 415, 429
- performance indicators
 best practice entrepreneurship
 education programmes 74, 75
 European benchmark studies 67 improvement management 65–72 performance and dimension, relationship between 75 performance orientation and entrepreneurial values 219–20
- Perkmann, M. 347, 348

- personal identity development 376–7, 385
see also self-efficacy
- Phan, P. 69, 190
- Pickernell, David 323–45
- Pittaway, L. 11, 65, 68, 70, 141, 279, 393, 395–6, 397, 401, 405, 411, 437, 439
- Polanyi, M. 114, 115, 129
- Politis, D. 326, 439
- Porter, L. 311, 313
- Potter, J. 68, 69, 225, 279
- Powell, W. 94, 347, 348, 349, 351, 355, 360, 362, 363
- Power, M. 113, 123
- Powers, J. 166, 178, 349, 351
- private sector involvement 28, 34, 41
 public–private partnerships 41–3, 262, 263
 venture-capital-funded firms 418–19, 428–9, 431
- processes optimization 47, 49, 51, 52, 54, 258, 268
- production processes see knowledge transfer
- professional dominance in German Higher Education System see Germany, institutional change in German Higher Education system, professional dominance era
- Pruisken, I. 126, 127
- public interest research, possible abandonment of 351
see also research
- public policy
 funding cutbacks, Denmark 436 recommendations, and entrepreneurial values 220–21 support, EXIST policy programme 232–41 see also funding; governance system
- public–private partnerships 41–3, 85, 253, 260, 262, 263
- R&D expenditure and patent applications, and transferability of programmes 100–101, 103, 105, 106
see also innovation
- Rae, D. 64, 70, 371, 374–5, 385–6, 387, 388–9, 395, 397, 398, 405
- Rappert, B. 348, 363
- Rasmussen, E. 69, 71, 230, 238, 242
- Rawls, J. 347, 354, 361, 363
- Redford, Dana T. 1–8, 11–24
- Reeves, S. 138, 140
- regional partnership development 31, 32, 40–41, 46, 51–2
- regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 188–206 ‘best practice’ transfer 191 business and community interaction 194 categorization of UK universities 194–5 collaborative research and contract research projects 194, 195–7, 198, 199, 200, 201 competitiveness and entrepreneurial activity income 195–202
 consultancy services 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201 European Union countries, suggested future research 202–3 facilities-and-equipment-related services (F&E) 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201 funding schemes for knowledge transfer activities 189–90
 future research 193, 202–3 institutional differences 190–92, 193, 194 intellectual property activities 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 200, 201 knowledge transfer 189–91, 194, 195, 196
 licensing differences 191 literature review, missing elements 190–93 opportunity identification 189
 polytechnics 194
 Realising Our Potential Awards 189 regional divergence 192–3 research and economic benefit, and knowledge-driven economy 189
 risk-taking 192
- Reihlen, Markus 112–35
- Renault, C. 350, 415

- research
- collaborative and contract research projects 194, 195–7, 198, 199, 200, 201
 - direction change, claims of 351–2, 360, 361, 362
 - entrepreneurship educators, use of earlier 280, 281, 285
 - infrastructure, best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 80
 - infrastructure, European benchmark studies 69
 - innovation and research system, agri-food sciences' knowledge network 257, 258–62
 - and knowledge spillovers, Middle East 166–7
 - output and publishing, increased levels of 349
 - and policy implications, EXIST policy programme 241–3
 - productivity indicators, German Higher Education system 122–3
 - public interest research, possible abandonment of 351
 - revenue generation see funding
 - Rhoades, G. 113, 128, 346, 353, 356, 363
 - Rhoten, D. 362, 363
 - Richardson, I. 70–71, 155
 - risk-taking 49, 51
 - business angel university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation 324, 338
 - commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review 346, 353
 - EXIST policy programme 235–6, 238
 - IBM Universities Business Challenge 395, 403
 - regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK 192
 - Robbers, I. 280, 283
 - Robertson, M. 140, 149
 - Rogers, E. 92, 95
 - role models
 - 'champions of entrepreneurship', agri-food sciences' knowledge network 264–6, 267
 - educators as role models, importance of 296
 - identifying inspiring 217–19
 - Iranian entrepreneurial universities 178
 - support, and technology transfer 44
 - role-playing, social nature of entrepreneurship learning 395, 402, 403–4, 405–6, 408, 410
 - Röpke, J. 12, 19, 125
 - Rothaermel, F. 229, 230, 239
 - Russell, R. 394–5, 398, 403–4, 406
 - Salamzadeh, Aidin 163–87
 - Salter, A. 41, 184
 - Samila, S. 415, 417, 431
 - Sarasvathy, S. 210, 212, 215, 283, 298, 354, 357, 439, 441
 - Schimank, U. 123, 124, 125, 127
 - Schleinkofer, M. 279, 280, 284, 285
 - Schneeberger, Ken 414–34
 - Schulte, P. 137, 166, 167
 - Scott, J. 112, 115, 116, 163, 165, 177, 192
 - self-efficacy
 - individual action-controlled beliefs, increasing 214–16
 - individual belief systems, development of 212–14
 - motivation and attitudinal requirements 98–9, 101, 107–8, 210, 211–12
 - personal identity development 376–7, 385
 - role identity, development of 216–17
 - self-confidence development, IBM Universities Business Challenge 403–4
 - see also* competencies
 - Shane, S. 65, 94, 190, 191, 240, 327, 346, 348, 349, 350, 351, 353, 357, 414, 415, 418, 431
 - Shepherd, D. 210, 228, 231, 233, 241–2, 279–80
 - Siegel, D. 3, 69, 346, 348
 - Sieger, P. 229, 230
 - Sieweke, S. 113, 127
 - skills see competencies

- Skinner, E. 210, 214, 219
- Slaughter, S. 113, 122, 125, 138, 327, 346, 349, 353, 355, 356, 363
- small businesses involvement with 29, 32, 40–41 use of term 379, 380
- Smith, A. 392, 394
- social entrepreneurship 309, 445
- social media use 33
see also technology
- socioeconomic perspective cost-benefit analysis, transferability
 of programmes 95–6
 Iranian entrepreneurial universities
 167, 181–2, 183–4 social bonds and development access 425–6
 social nature of entrepreneurial learning 395, 402, 403–4, 405–6, 408, 410
see also economic growth
- Solomon, G. 70, 254, 255, 281, 380–81, 437
- Sorenson, O. 415, 416, 417, 431
- Sørheim, R. 69, 71, 324, 326, 328
- Souitaris, V. 70, 158, 232, 234
- Spain, Iranian universities' alliance 180
- spin-offs
 commercialization of see university spin-offs and commercialization
 of spin-offs, ethical review and transferability of programmes 102, 104, 106 see also start-ups
- Sporn, B. 68, 128, 229
- stakeholder involvement
 best practice entrepreneurship education programmes 79, 80, 84 business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation 331–2, 336, 339, 339–41, 340
 European benchmark studies 70–71 outreach dimension 82–3, 85–6 relationship management 407
 Tanzania 155–6, 159 universities as entrepreneurial stakeholder learning organizations see universities as entrepreneurial stakeholder learning organizations stakeholder management 11–24 business incubation services 21 classification of stakeholders 14 community concept 13 curriculum focus 19–20, 21 entrepreneurial university concept 11–12
 good practice recommendations 19–22
 innovation and open creativity 13–14 internal and external stakeholders, engagement of 16–19 participation levels, assessment of 18–19 relevant groups, uncovering 14–15 stakeholder selection 13 start-up support 21–2 strategies for good entrepreneurial practices 20–21
 Third Mission and university
 involvement 13
 Triple Helix model (university– industry–government interrelationship) 12–14 university resources, use of 21
- start-ups barriers 237–8 expectations, transferability of programmes 100, 101, 102, 103–4, 107 government funding 341–2 internships see global start-up internships as a source of experiential learning support, and stakeholder management 21–2
see also business angel university promotion and intellectual property (IP) exploitation;
 spin-offs
- Steers, R. 311, 313
- Steffensen, M. 350, 416
- Steiner, Susanne 279–300
- Stephan, P. 414–15, 417, 426
- Sternberg, R. 30, 37, 39, 211
- strategy and mission dimension
 best practice entrepreneurship
 education programmes 75–7, 85

- European benchmark studies 67–8
- strategy beliefs 214, 215–16, 218
- Streeter, D. 249, 255
- Stryker, S. 217, 218
- Stuart, T. 236, 414
- students
 - alumni contribution 43, 372
 - choice, universities influencing 36–7
 - entry profiles, Tanzania 140, 147, 148
 - expectations and career aspirations, Tanzania 150–52, 153, 154, 157–8
 - experience enhancement 32
 - student bodies, involvement of 40, 118–19
 - support for, EXIST policy programme 229–30
 - see also* teaching
- Svalastog, Mari Saua 301–20
- Sweden, transferability of
 - programmes see transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
- Tanzania, university entrepreneurship education 136–62
 - Biggs 3P model (presage, process, product) of instructional alignment 137, 138–9, 140–41, 156, 439
 - case study material, use of local 156
 - Community Engagement Programmes 145
 - concept of the entrepreneurial university 137–41
 - country's political changes 144–5
 - course design and objectives 140, 147–50, 154
 - education focus, changing 145
 - entrepreneurship centres, establishment of 145
 - future research 157, 158
 - lecturer training, investment in 146–7, 154–5
 - local context, importance of in programme transfers 155
 - marketing studies 146, 155
 - opportunity identification 151
 - performance and examination results 150, 151, 156
 - polytechnic colleges 141
 - resource shortages and lack of experience 138, 139–40, 145–6, 149, 153–5, 156
 - response biases, checking for 157
 - stakeholder involvement, importance of 155–6, 159
 - student entry profiles 140, 147, 148
 - student expectations and career aspirations 150–52, 153, 154, 157–8
 - student experience, tapping into 156
 - teacher-focused and student-focused strategies, distinction between 140–41, 156–7
 - teaching methods employed 149–50, 151, 153
 - traineeships with local entrepreneurs, suggestion for 155
 - university motivation for teaching entrepreneurship 145
- Tartari, V. 347, 352
- teaching
 - business plan development see business plan development case studies 280, 293
 - computer games and simulations, use of 267–8
 - educational backgrounds of entrepreneurship educators 284–5, 290, 291, 292
 - enterprise educators, need for development of 372, 375–6, 385–6
 - entrepreneurial experience of educators 290, 291, 292, 295, 296
 - entrepreneurship educators, impact of see entrepreneurship educators, impact of
 - entrepreneurship, teaching for or about, distinction between 383–5, 387–8
 - 'flipped classroom' model 33
 - guest lecturers 70, 71, 81, 82, 87, 265, 269, 275, 430, 441
 - implications, IBM Universities

- Business Challenge 408–9
- internships see internships
- lecturer training investment, Tanzania 146–7, 154–5
- methods, Denmark 439, 441–3, 449–50, 451, 453, 454
- methods, Tanzania 149–50, 151, 153
- non-business-related staff 375
- programme improvement
 - management see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management
- programme transferability
 - see* transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway
- role-playing, and social nature of entrepreneurial learning 395, 402, 403–4, 405–6, 408, 410
- skills teaching and applied entrepreneurship 383, 388
- teacher-focused and student-focused strategies, distinction between, Tanzania 140–41, 156–7
- see also* academics; curriculum; research; students
- technology use
 - agri-food sciences, Netherlands see Netherlands, agri-food sciences' knowledge network and entrepreneurship education
 - mass media, glamorization of entrepreneurs through 374–5
 - online learning technologies 33–4, 38, 39
 - technology transfer, role model support and availability 44
- transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes 104, 105, 106, 108
- Teichler, U. 115, 116, 117, 119, 120
- Thompson, P. 194, 330
- Thornton, P. 115, 164
- Thursby, J. 190, 191, 347, 348, 350, 351, 362
- Thursby, M. 190, 191, 347, 349, 350, 351, 352, 429
- transferability of entrepreneurship educational programmes in Finland, Sweden and Norway 91–111
- age and gender differences 100–102, 103
- antecedent to entrepreneurship 97–9
- best practice translation 91–2, 106–7, 108
- business plan focus, need for 108
- business spin-offs 102, 104, 106
- education implications 106–9
- entrepreneurial output factors 100–102, 103–4
- female entrepreneurship 102, 106
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor research programme 94–7
- government involvement 100
- institutional structures and national environment for entrepreneurship 97–8, 99, 105, 107–8
- intellectual property (IP) rights 108
- motivation and intentions towards entrepreneurship 98–9, 101, 107–8
- neo-institutional theory and ideas as policy recommendations 94
- opportunity identification 93–4, 95, 101, 105, 107
- population and domestic market size as factors 98
- R&D expenditure and patent applications 100–101, 103, 105, 106
- serial entrepreneurship 100
- socioeconomic perspective and cost-benefit analysis 95–6
- start-up expectations 100, 101, 102, 103–4, 107
- structuration theory and entrepreneurial actions 94, 102
- technology use 104, 105, 106, 108
- theoretical perspectives 93–6
- see also* teaching
- Triple Helix model (university–industry–government interrelationship) 12–14, 53, 113

- Udell, G. 324, 328
- unemployment rates, and role of entrepreneur 371–2
see also employment
- United Kingdom
- Academy Schools Programme 32
 - Baccalaureate 32
 - Big Society concept 31
 - Catapult programme of R&D investment 29
 - Edinburgh University online courses 33
 - Employer Ownership Partner scheme 40
 - Enterprise Educators UK 39
 - Enterprise and Entrepreneurship Education* 32
 - Entrepreneurship Action Plan, Wales 384
 - entrepreneurship teaching developments, recent 382
 - Excellence and Opportunity* White Paper 189
 - government enterprise support programmes 379–80
 - Higher Education Academy ‘Pedagogy for Employability’ paper 37
 - Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) 31, 45
 - Higher Education Innovation Fund (HEIF) 31, 41
 - Higher Level Apprenticeships programme 30
 - IBM Universities Business Challenge see IBM Universities Business Challenge
 - International Entrepreneurship Educators’ Programme (IEEP) 410
 - Iranian universities’ alliance 180
 - Knowledge Exploitation Fund (Wales) 380
 - Knowledge Transfer Partnership programme (KTP) 32, 40
 - Leading Transformational Change partnership programme 36
 - Local Enterprise Partnerships 31, 41
 - National Centre for Entrepreneurship in Education (NCEE) 39
 - National Centre for Universities and Business 29
 - National Co-ordinating Centre for Public Engagement 41
 - National Consortium of University Entrepreneurs (NACUE) 40
 - National Council for Graduate Entrepreneurship (NCGE) 297, 393, 395–7, 398
 - National Scholarship Programme 38
 - National Social Enterprise UEN (University Enterprise Network) 41
 - New College of the Humanities (NCH) 28
 - Open University 33
 - Our Competitive Future* White Paper 189
 - regional perspective see regional perspective on the entrepreneurial university, UK
 - Research Assessment Exercise 42
 - Shell Technology Enterprise Programme (STEP) 40
 - student loan system 27
 - universities as entrepreneurial stakeholder learning organizations see universities as entrepreneurial stakeholder learning organizations
 - Wales Spin Out Programme 380
 - Welsh Business Angels network see business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation
 - Wilson Report 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 42
- United States
- angel investment network 324, 325
 - Babson College’s Modules for Entrepreneurship Educators (MEE) 295
 - entrepreneurship education programmes, managing improvement of see entrepreneurship education programmes, managing improvement of, study results

- firm location decisions see university
 - level entrepreneurial education, development access and firm location
- internships before graduation 302–3, 304
- land grant colleges 252–3
- Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) 33, 38
- support-oriented state universities, history of (US) 252
- tenure requirements 285
- University of Colorado Health Sciences Center (UCHSC) case study 427–8
- university entrepreneurship courses, evolution of 254–5
- university knowledge transfer and entrepreneurship 252–3
- universities
 - business angel university promotion see business angel university promotion and intellectual property exploitation
 - education programmes, improvement management see entrepreneurship education programmes, improvement management
 - entrepreneurial journey contribution see entrepreneurial journey, university's contribution toward
 - entrepreneurial university, concept 2–3, 11–12
 - evolving, Middle East see Middle East, evolving entrepreneurial universities
 - EXIST policy programme see Germany, EXIST policy programme
 - polytechnics 141, 194
 - Tanzania see Tanzania, university entrepreneurship education
 - university councils, emergence of, Germany 126
 - university–enterprise cooperation see enterprise
 - with and without business schools, comparison of 451, 453, 454 see also 'entrepreneurial' headings
- universities as entrepreneurial stakeholder learning organizations 25–63
 - academic freedom and organization autonomy, perceived threat to 47–8
 - alumni and philanthropic revenue 43
 - apprenticeship programmes 30
 - commercial exploitation of knowledge fears 25–6, 30–31
 - community engagement 31, 32, 40–41
 - current pressures 27–35
 - current pressures, responses to 36–44
 - departmental/faculty level challenge 46–7, 51–2, 54
 - differentiation challenge 36, 41, 53–4
 - employability and employment 29–31, 35, 39–40, 44
 - employers and curriculum development 37–8
 - enterprise and entrepreneurial skills development 39–40
 - entrepreneurial development capacity 26
 - entrepreneurial learning 32–3
 - entrepreneurial learning organization, organizing for 51–2
 - entrepreneurial management of independence 48–50
 - entrepreneurial management of independence, organizational design 49–50
 - 'flipped classroom' model 33
 - funding, efficiency and alternative revenue drive 42–3
 - funding, fees and competition 27–8, 31, 34, 38, 41, 45–6, 48
 - government intervention and economic growth 28–9, 40, 46
 - innovation and business 29
 - innovation and local and regional partnership development 41, 51–2
 - international market dynamics and global curriculum 34–5, 42
 - internship opportunities 29, 30, 33, 38, 42

- knowledge flows, debate over use of 38–9
- knowledge, imaginative and creative use of 39
- legal status of universities and public/private investment 43
- local and regional partnership development 31, 32, 40–41, 46, 51–2
- mature students 30, 33
- multiple stakeholder interdependency, managing 47–50
- ‘national accountability’ metrics 28, 38
- online learning technologies, use of 33–4, 38, 39
- Open Access publication 29
- organizational change 43–4
- part-time students 30, 38
- private sector involvement 28, 34, 41
- processes optimization 47, 49, 51, 52, 54
- public/private partnerships 41–3
- Research Excellence Framework (REF) 20
- risk-taking 49, 51
- small and medium enterprises (SMEs), involvement with 29, 32, 40–41
- social media use 33
- social mobility concerns 30, 38, 41
- stakeholder education, ongoing, and sharing of goals 49
- stakeholder relationships, rebalancing 44–7
- strategic partnership building, challenge of 52–5
- student bodies, involvement of 40
- student choice, influencing 36–7
- student experience enhancement 32
- technology transfer, role model support and availability 44
- trans-cultural opportunities and global curriculum 34–5
- transfers and joint degrees 42
- Triple Helix concept, moving beyond 53
- trust-related relationships, managing independence through 49, 50
- university as knowledge broker 50–51
- university leadership challenges 26
- wider access measures 38
- university level entrepreneurial education, development access and firm location 414–34
- agglomeration economies, effects of 427
- case studies (venture capitalists) 428–9
- case study (University of Colorado Health Sciences Center (UCHSC)) 427–8
- firm location choices overview 414–15
- firm location drivers 416–17
- future research 431
- government policy considerations 430–31
- incubator spaces and office parks 425, 430
- intellectual property implications and academic founder preferences 426–8
- larger labour pools, proximity to 426, 427
- literature review 416–18
- local economic development 415–16
- proximity factors 424–5
- social bonds 425–6
- venture-capital-funded firms 418–19, 428–9, 431
- university spin-offs and commercialization of spin-offs, ethical review 346–69
- academic commitment, perceived reduction in, and conflict of interest 350–51, 361, 362
- arguments against spin-off creation 350–54
- business cultures, learning from different 349, 361
- commercialization evaluation 361–3
- deontological ethical evaluation 354–8
- deontological ethical evaluation, Kirznerian ethics of finders–keepers 354, 356–8, 362
- deontological ethical evaluation,

- Mertonian ethos of science 354, 355–6, 362, 363, 429 dual structure creation 362–3 economic growth contribution 349, 359–60, 361 equity policies 350 faculty departure claims 353 faculty inequity claims 353, 358, 361
 future research 363 intellectual property (IP) and anti-commons effect 348, 352, 355–6, 360, 361, 362 knowledge utilization objective 348, 360, 361
 legal and social regimes, diversity in 363
 objectivity, perceived threats to 352–3, 361, 362
 public interest research, possible abandonment of 351 research direction change, claims of 351–2, 360, 361, 362 research output and publishing, increased levels of 349 revenue generation 349–50, 360, 361
 risk-taking 346, 353
 state sponsoring and unfair competition 353–4, 363 supportive arguments 348–50 teleological ethical theory 358–61
 Urbano, David 2, 11, 22, 125, 163–87
 Valima, J. 38–9
 Vallas, S. 351, 352, 353, 355 values
 accessing development 437–9
 identifying key, IBM Universities Business Challenge 403–4 nurturing entrepreneurial see entrepreneurial values, entrepreneurial university as nurturer of value chain changes, agri-food sciences' knowledge network, Netherlands 257–8 see also evaluation values, entrepreneurial university as nurturer of 209–24 competence acquisition and development 211 competence triggers 210–20
 direct experience, importance of 215 effectuation of entrepreneurial competencies 210, 212, 215, 354, 357, 439, 441 goals, adaptation of 219–20 individual action-controlled beliefs, increasing 214–16
 individual belief systems, development of 212–14 knowledge, social sources 211 learning goal orientation 219, 220 motivation and attitudinal requirements 210, 211–12
 opportunity identification 210, 214, 215, 220 pattern recognition 211 performance orientation 219–20 policy recommendations 220–21
 role identity, development of 216–17 role models, identifying inspiring 217–19 self-efficacy beliefs 214–15 socialization process, importance of 211–12 strategy beliefs 214, 215–16, 218
 Van Burg, Elco 346–69
 Van der Heijden, Y. 269
 Van Vuuren, Wim 392–413
 Van Vuuren-Cassar, Gemma 392–413
 Venkataraman, S. 65, 94, 166, 178
 Vesper, K. 66, 68, 70, 71, 141, 156, 254, 281, 297, 381, 437, 438
 Vestergaard, Lene 435–59
 Veugelers, R. 363, 436
 Volkmann, Christine 225–47
 Von Wissel, C. 115, 119
 Wakkee, Ingrid 136–62
 Walsh, K. 347, 348
 Walter, S. 70, 230
 Watson, C. 380, 387
 Watts, G. 395, 406
 Webb, A. 379, 380, 382, 384
 Wedgwood, R. 136, 140
 Weingart, P. 122, 127
 Welikala, T. 35, 42
 Welsh, R. 349, 350, 351, 352, 362
 Welter, F. 49, 229, 238, 239

- Wenger, E. 402, 406
Wenzlaff, Ferdinand 112–35
Whitehead, A. 25, 39
Wiklund, J. 212, 214, 235, 438
Williams, G. 68, 378, 387, 388
Wilson, K. 68, 69
Wilson, T. 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 42
Wissema, J. 113, 124, 225, 250, 251
Witte, J. 113, 119, 124
Wolfe, D. 346, 415
Wood, M. 165, 176
Wood, R. 219, 220
Wright, M. 163, 166, 178, 323, 416
Yin, R. 167, 168–71, 233
Yorke, M. 30, 37
Zegelin, W. 117, 120
Zhang, Qiantao 188–206
Ziegele, F. 123, 127
Zucker, L. 347, 348, 349, 351, 414, 415, 417, 426