

Index

---

- 9/11 terrorist attacks
  - losses, value of 16
  - maritime security, influence on 1–2, 137–8, 145–6, 187
- 10+2 program 128
- 24-hour rule 2, 5, 20–21, 25, 53, 57–8, 151

- accident precursor analysis 61–3
- Achille Lauro* 1, 18, 21, 93
- Africa see also individual countries
  - maritime security initiatives 194–6
  - piracy trends 100–101, 191
- African Partnership Station (APS) 193
- AFRICOM 193, 195
- Algeria
  - maritime terrorist attacks 94, 96
- Alioto, J. 160–61
- Andrea Smits* 91
- Angola
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Annabella* 178–9
- Arabian Sea see Oman
- Argentina
  - maritime terrorist attacks 90, 93
- ASEAN
  - port security developments 2, 53
- Athena* 95
- Automatic Identification Systems (AIS) 21, 71, 105–6, 122
- Automatic Targeting System (ATS) 216, 229
- Avryaysa* 94

- Babanaft* 92
- Basnet, S. 43
- Belgium
  - maritime terrorist attacks 91
- Belgrano* 93
- Bellish, J. 43

- Benin
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Beyond the Border Agreement (US-Canada) 154
- Bowden, A. 43
- 'Boya' (pirate) 103
- Brazil
  - maritime terrorist attacks 92
- Brooks, M.R. 151–2, 155
- Business Alliance for Secure Commerce (BASC) 5, 26–8
- Button, K.J. 151–2

- Cameroon
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Canada
  - mad cow disease, economic impact 16
  - maritime security policies
    - 24-hour rule 2, 5, 20–21, 25, 53, 57–8, 151
    - assessment challenges 154–6
    - Beyond the Border Agreement (Canada-US) 154
    - Canada Port Corporation Act 1982 149
    - Canada Shipping Act 2001 141
    - Canada Transportation Act 2006 142–3
    - challenges and limitations 152, 154–6
    - Coasting Trade Act 1992 (Canada) 141
    - and counter-terrorism policy 152–3, 155
    - historical development 141–3
    - Integrated Border Enforcement Teams (IBETs) 145–6
    - interdepartmental initiatives 154
    - marine and port regulatory regime 150–53

- Partners in Protection Initiative 5, 35, 151
- policy review procedure 142–3
- port governance responsibilities 149–50
- security grants 151
- targeting, increasing role of 152
- Transport Canada, role of 153–4
- US, relations with 143–6, 154–6
- maritime trade, scale and trends 146–8
- cargo
  - information challenges 168–70
  - loading failures, incidents regarding 15, 159–61, 170–180
  - risk reporting requirements 181
  - stowage rules 180–81
- Caribbean
  - piracy trends 101
- Caribe Star* 89
- catch and release policies 108–9
- Central Africa
  - maritime security initiatives 194–6
  - piracy trends 191
- Child Soldiers Initiative 109–10
- City of Poros* 94
- Clay, A. 102
- Company Security Officers (CSO) 21
- Congo
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- containers
  - cargo information challenges 168–70
  - cargo stowage rules 180–81
  - manufacturing, outsourcing 14–15
  - risk reporting requirements 181
  - scanning 159–61, 168–70
  - smuggling of dangerous substances/ bombs 15, 159–61
  - technology developments 14–15, 54, 126, 230
  - tonnage trends 15, 169
  - usage trends 117
- container security see also supply chain
  - security initiatives
    - Automated Targeting System (ATS) 216, 229
  - challenges 215
  - definition 215–16
  - devices 126, 215–16
  - failures
    - incidents regarding 15, 159–61, 170–180
    - liabilities for 217
    - importance of 215
    - international standards 216
    - scanning 159–61, 168–70
    - vulnerabilities 216
- Container Security Initiative (CSI) 2, 5, 15, 20–21, 28–9, 47, 56, 125–8, 218–19
- Container Working Group (US) 124
- Conventions
  - on the Law of the Sea 1982 (UNCLOS) 99–100
  - for the Safety of Life at Sea 1914 (SOLAS) 1, 21, 52, 55
  - for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation 1988 (SUA) 21
- Corsica
  - maritime terrorist attacks 96
- costs
  - of maritime security policy
    - cost-benefit vs. cost-efficiency 72, 285
    - counter-piracy operations 44–5
    - counter-piracy organizations 45
    - implementation 72–4, 126–7, 130–32, 285–6
    - revealed preference method vs. stated preference method 73
    - transfer costs vs. efficiency costs 73–4
    - willingness to pay (WTP) analysis 65, 73
  - of piracy/ maritime security attacks
    - economic costs 16, 43–6
    - increased speed 45–6
    - indirect vs. direct costs, OECD study 46–8
    - insurance 45
    - labour costs 44–5
    - military operations 44–5
    - non-economic costs 16
    - prosecutions and imprisonment 44–5
    - ransoms 43–5
    - re-routing 44–5

- security equipment and guards
  - 44–5, 47, 132
  - of terrorism 16, 40–43, 118
- CPF analysis (cost of preventing a fatality) 64
- criminal organizations, role in maritime piracy 17–18
- cruise ships, global expansion of 265
- CSI see Container Security Initiative
- C-TPAT see Customs-Trade Partnership against Terrorism
- Customs-Trade Partnership against Terrorism (C-TPAT) 2, 5, 20–21, 32–4, 47–8, 53, 56–7, 127
- cyber attacks 15–16, 119
- Cyprus
  - maritime terrorist attacks 88, 93
- Dallaire, R. 109–10
- Davis, N. 107
- Democratic Republic of Congo
  - maritime piracy trends 191
  - military/ naval strength 193
- dirty bombs 16
  - impact on port facilities, Long Beach and LA studies 41–3
- Djibouti Code of Conduct 45, 104–5, 209–10
- Don Carlos* 91
- dry ports see also under India
  - classification 221–2
  - importance of 220
- East Africa
  - piracy trends 101
- economics see also costs
  - cost-benefit analysis vs. cost-efficiency analysis 72
  - dirty bomb impacts on Long Beach/ LA port facilities 41–3
  - evaluation of ISPS code 2–3, 5, 69–74, 269
  - terrorism, economic implications 16, 40–43, 118
  - and trade efficiency 40–41
- Egypt
  - maritime terrorist attacks 93
- Eko* 90
- Entry Summary Declaration (ENS) System 163–7
- environmental damage
  - cargo loading mistakes, incidents involving 174–8
  - and criminal organization activities 17–18
- Equatorial Guinea
  - maritime piracy trends 191
  - military/ naval strength 193
- European Union see also individual countries
  - Authorized Economic Operators (EU AEO) 5, 29–31, 168–9, 230–31
  - Entry Summary Declaration (ENS) System 163–7
  - Regulation 725/2004 on ship and port facility security 2, 53
- Event Tree Analysis 60
- Failure Modes and Effects Analysis 60
- Falkland Islands
  - maritime terrorist attacks 92
- Farrow, S. 48–9
- Fast Carrier* 94
- Fault Tree Analysis 59–61
- Formal Safety Assessment (FSA) 63–4
- France
  - maritime terrorist attacks 89, 92
- Frittelli, J. 41
- Gabon
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Gallant, T. 103
- Gambia
  - maritime piracy trends 191
  - military/ naval strength 193
- Genoa Voltri Terminal, contaminated container incident 15, 159–61
- Germany
  - maritime terrorist attacks 94
- Ghana
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Gleason, J.M. 79–81
- globalization
  - criminal organizations, increasing role of 17–18
  - global maritime trade sector role 264–6
  - global supply chains 14, 117, 119

- and maritime security 14–17, 220, 267
- Global Trading Exchange (GTX) database 128
- Gordon, P. . 41–2
- Greece
  - maritime terrorist attacks 94
- Guinea
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Guinea Bissau
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) 204–10
  - Defense Treaty 208
  - military/ naval exercises 208–9
  - Riyadh Memorandum of Understanding 2006 209
- Gulf of Aden 43, 101
- Gulf of Guinea
  - energy security strategy 193–7
  - piracy trends 98–9, 101, 191–2
- harbors see ports
- Harrison, J. 236
- hazardous events
  - risk assessment methods 59–61
- hazardous substances
  - container incidents involving
    - Geno Voltri Terminal 15, 159–61
    - Hyundai Fortune* 170–74
    - MSC Napoli* 15, 159–61, 174–8
- Hecate* 92
- Hercules* 92
- Hong Kong
  - maritime security
    - advisory mechanisms 244–5
    - analysis, risk-based model proposals for 247–59
    - challenges and limitations 245–7
    - dynamic entropy-based model 253–8
    - policy compatibility with international rules 246–7
    - policy implementation 243–4
    - Port Area Advisory Security Committee (PASC) 244–6
    - Port Facility Security Working Group (PFSWG) 245–6
    - port vulnerability prioritization model 249–52
    - regulatory and administrative framework 242–3
    - risk estimation and evidential reasoning model 252–3
- hubs
  - development 14
  - terrorist attacks on, potential impact of 14, 18–19
- Husky Racer* 179
- Hyundai Fortune* 170–74
- Importer Security Filing Program 128
- Importer Self-assessment Program (ISA) 53
- imprisonment of maritime pirates, costs of 44–5
- India
  - dry ports security
    - Automatic Targeting Systems (ATS) 229
    - challenges 221–2
    - container/ goods mismatches 226–8, 230
    - failures, reasons for 223–8
    - international initiatives, involvement in 230
    - liabilities 222–3
    - port classification 221–2
    - port importance 220
    - responsibility for 220–21
    - RF identification devices 230
    - risk management 228–30
    - security developments 228–31
    - undeclared dangerous goods 226–8
  - Inland Way Bill railways procedures 222–3
  - Inter-Ministerial Committee (IMC) 219
  - maritime security, general responsibilities for 219
  - regional cooperation initiatives 280
- Indian Ocean
  - piracy trends 101, 276–8
  - regional maritime security initiatives 279
  - strategic importance 280
- Indonesia see also Straits of Malacca
  - maritime terrorist attacks 96

- information and communications
  - technology see technology
- insurance
  - costs of piracy 45
  - risk premium increases 233–4
- International Container Standards Organization (ICSO) 216
- International Maritime Bureau (IMB) 100
- International Maritime Organization (IMO) 1–2, 159
- International Mine Countermeasures Exercises (IMCMEX) 209
- International Ship and Port Facility Security (ISPS) code 21, 218
  - economic evaluation 2–3, 5, 69–74, 269
  - implementation challenges 269
  - MARSEC security levels 52, 162–3, 267
  - objectives 24–5, 128, 267–8
- international trade, generally
  - global maritime trade trends 147, 264–6
- Iran
  - counter-piracy, joint strategies with Oman 208–9
- Iraq
  - maritime terrorist attacks 96
- Ireland
  - maritime terrorist attacks 89–90, 92
- Isenberg, D. 110
- ISO/PAS 28000: 2005 standards for supply chain security management systems 2, 54, 168–9, 218
- ISPS code see International Ship and Port Facility Security (ISPS) code
- Israel
  - maritime terrorist attacks 88, 91, 94
- Italy
  - Genoa Voltri Terminal, contaminated container incident 15, 159–61
  - maritime terrorist attacks 91, 93
- Ivory Coast
  - maritime piracy trends 191
  - military/ naval strength, scale of 193
- James, D. 103
- Japan
  - maritime terrorist attacks 90
- Jrush Shalom* 94
- Juttiner, U. 69
- Kraka* 92
- labour costs of piracy 44–5
- Lashing@Sea project 179–80
- Latin America
  - maritime terrorist attacks 90, 92–3
  - piracy trends 101
- Lebanon
  - maritime terrorist attacks 88, 90, 92, 94
- Liberia
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Limao, N. 48
- MS Limburg* 3, 95, 118
- Lloyd's Market Association Joint War Committee
  - war risk classification, of Straits of Malacca 45, 232–5, 238
- Long Beach and Los Angeles
  - dirty bomb impact study 41–2
  - port security, scope and challenges 19, 121, 126
- mad cow disease, economic impact 16
- Madrid bombings, economic impact 16
- Malaysia see also Straits of Malacca
  - Malaysian Maritime Enforcement Agency (MMEA) 232
- Marine Port Authority and Terminal Operators (MPTOs)
  - C-TPAT eligibility 32–4, 127
- Maritime King* 93
- maritime network, scope of 14
- Maritime Organization of West and Central Africa (MOWCA) 194–6
- maritime security policy, generally
  - agency interaction, importance of 19–20
  - challenges 286–7
  - and container technology 14–15, 54, 126, 230
  - cooperation challenges 283–4
  - costs and benefits, comparison 46–9, 285

- efficiency implications 40–41
- and globalization 14–17, 220, 267
- historical influences on 1–2, 13
- international developments 2, 5
- key components 267–8
- layered approach, role of 66–9, 122–4, 135
- liability concerns 132–3
- limitations 21, 132
- and maritime safety, interaction between 284–5
- multiple agency/ stakeholder interactions 111, 121–4, 134–5, 285–6
- national and local differences
  - challenges of 132–4
  - policy variations, reasons for 282–3
- research trends 2–3
- security measures, identification and classification 46–9
- strategic importance 265–70
- technology and security, links between 14–17, 220
- Maritime Transport Security Act (MTSA) 2002 (US) 2, 43, 119–20, 122, 124, 267
- MARSEC security levels 52, 162–3, 267
- Mauritania
  - maritime terrorist attacks 93
- Mauritius
  - maritime sector
    - cargo traffic trends 272
    - and economic development 264, 271–4, 280
    - Exclusive Economic Zone 264, 273
    - Freeports sector, role of 273–4
    - international strategic alliances 271
    - overview 264, 270–71, 273
    - seafood industry, role of 273–4
  - maritime security
    - bilateral agreements regarding transfer of suspected pirates 279
    - policy challenges 264
    - policy overview 274–6, 278–9
    - regional and international cooperation 279–80
    - regional piracy trends 276–8
    - supply chain security initiative compliance 274–6
    - technology developments 274
  - Mauritius Cargo Community System (MACCS) 275–6
  - Mauritius Ports Authority (MPA) 270–71
  - Piracy and Maritime Violence Act 2011 278
  - sugar industry, role of 273
- Maxim Gorkiy* 90
- Megaports Initiative 127–8
- Mereghan II* 89
- Mikagasan Maru* 88
- military counter-piracy operations
  - costs 44–5
  - GCC exercises 202–3, 207–9
  - Somalia land operations 107–8
- Mitchell, D. 246
- Morang Bong* 95
- Morocco
  - maritime terrorist attacks 93
- Muscat Declaration 2002 209
- MSC Napoli* 15, 159–61, 174–7
- naval counter-piracy exercises 202–3, 207–9
- ‘near miss,’ analysis of 62
- Niassa* 89
- Nicaragua
  - maritime terrorist attacks 93–4
- Nicolay Karamzin* 91
- Nigeria
  - African Partnership Station (APS) 193
  - economic basis 184
  - Global West Vessel Specialist Nigeria Ltd 187, 196–7
  - Gulf of Guinea
    - energy security strategy 193–7
    - piracy trends 98–9, 101, 191–2
  - international drug trade, role in 189
  - maritime security
    - amnesty deals 196–7
    - challenges 188–92, 194–6, 198–9
    - costs and funding 189–90, 197–8
    - legal framework 188

- national initiatives 196–7
- oil security emphasis 193–7
- piracy trends 98, 100–101, 190–92
- policy developments 193–7
- regional initiatives 193–4, 197
- security institutions 185–8
- sub-regional initiatives 194–6
- Maritime Security Agency (MARSECA) 187
- national security responsibilities 184
- Nigerian Marine Department 185
- Nigerian Maritime Administration and Safety Agency (NIMASA) 186–8, 196–7
- Nigerian Maritime Authority 186
- Nigerian Navy 185–6
- Nigerian Ports Authority 185
- policy-making powers 184
- political structure 183–4
- Presidential Implementation Committee on Maritime Safety and Security (PICOMSS) 187
- OECD
  - study of direct vs. indirect costs of maritime security 46–8
- Oman
  - Al Duqm, strategic location of 210–11
  - economic and political stability 204
  - Exclusive Economic Zone 213–14
  - foreign policy objectives 203–4 and Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) 204–10
  - historical trade development 202
  - intelligence cooperation treaties 209
  - maritime security
    - anti-terrorism procedures 212–13
    - counter-piracy, joint strategies with Iran 208–9
    - piracy threats 202–3, 205–6
    - policy developments 206–7, 213–14
    - port security practices 212
    - regulatory reforms 211–12
    - Straits of Hormuz, tensions in 43, 210–11
    - vulnerability 205–6
  - military and naval exercises 202–3, 207–9
  - Muscat Declaration 2002 209
  - security institutions 206–7
  - strategic alliances 202–4, 207
  - Operation Safe Commerce (OSC) 53
  - Ouest France* 89
  - Page, T. 65
  - Pakistan
    - maritime terrorist attacks 89, 96
  - Panama Canal 43
  - Park, J.Y. 41–3
  - Partners in Protection Initiative 5, 35, 151
  - Perito Morena* 93
  - Peru
    - maritime terrorist attacks 91
  - Pham, J.P. 102
  - Philippines
    - maritime terrorist attacks 3, 91–2, 96
  - Phillips, M.K. 102
  - piracy
    - child/ youth involvement 109–10
    - costs
      - counter-piracy operations 44–5
      - counter-piracy organizations 45
      - increased speed 45–6
      - insurance 45
      - labour costs 44–5
      - military operations 44–5
      - prosecutions and imprisonment 44–5
      - ransoms 43–5
      - re-routing 44–5
      - security equipment and guards 44–5, 47
    - counter-piracy policies 104–10, 152–3, 155
    - armed protection of merchant shipping 102, 110
    - Automatic Identification Systems (AIS) 21, 71, 105–6, 122
    - catch and release 108–9
    - Djibouti Code of Conduct 45, 104–5, 209–10
    - military/ naval exercises 202–3, 207–9
    - operational responses on land 107–8
    - political willingness 104

- reporting 107
- satellite automated information systems 105–6
- satellite tracking systems 54, 126
- Somalia land operations 107–8
- technical cooperation and assistance 105
- unmanned underwater vehicles 106–7
- criminal business model 18, 100–103, 110
- criminal organizations, role in 17–18
- definition 99–100, 110
- developments and trends 98–102
- financing arrangements 102
- history 98
- hostage taking 101–2
- pirate ‘stock exchange’ 102
- stakeholder interconnections 111
- targeting 100–101, 103
- vs. terrorism 237–9
- Polancia* 88
- Port Facility Security Assessments (PFSA) 269
- Port Facility Security Officers (PFSO) 21, 269
- Port Facility Security Plan (PFSP) 21, 269
- ports, generally
  - hubs
    - development of 14
    - terrorist attacks on, potential impact of 14, 18–19
  - maritime network, scope of 14
  - port security risk study 80–85
  - vulnerability of 19, 120–21
- Portugal
  - maritime terrorist attacks 89, 91
- Privately Contracted Armed Security Personnel 110
- Probabilistic Risk Analysis (PRA) 63
- prosecutions, costs of 44–5
- Public Health Security and Bioterrorism Preparedness and Response Act 2002 (US) 53
- Puerto Rico
  - maritime terrorist attacks 90
- radioactive substances
  - Geno Voltri Terminal incident 15, 159–61
- Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) technology 54, 126, 230
- RAND Database of Worldwide Terrorism Incidents
- ransoms, costs 43–5
- re-routing, costs 44–5
- revealed preference method (RPM) 73
- RF tags 54, 126
- Riri* 90
- risk
  - definitions of 78–9
  - risk-based model proposals for maritime security 247–59
  - risk estimation and evidential reasoning 252–3
  - terrorism risk 78–80
  - vessel risk reporting requirements 181
- risk assessment
  - accident precursor analysis 61–3
  - challenges 65
  - cost-benefit analysis vs. cost-efficiency analysis 72
  - CPF analysis (cost of preventing a fatality) 64
  - empiricist approaches 59
  - Event Tree Analysis 60
  - Failure Modes and Effects Analysis 60
  - Fault Tree Analysis 59–61
  - Formal Safety Assessment (FSA) 63–4
  - in logistics 66–7
  - ‘near miss’ analysis 62
  - network-related risk 69
  - Port Facility Security Assessments (PFSA) 269
  - Probabilistic Risk Analysis (PRA) 63
  - revealed preference method (RPM) 73
  - safety-risk models 54, 59–61
  - security risk vs. safety risk 284–5
  - Stakeholder Analysis (SHA) 72
  - stakeholder perception variations 65
  - stated preference method (SPM) 73
  - in supply chains 66–9
  - in trade channels 66–9

- VPF analysis (value of preventing a fatality) 64–5
- WTP analysis (willingness to pay) 65, 73
- Riyadh Memorandum of Understanding 2006 209
- Rosoff, H. 41–2
- Russia
  - maritime terrorist attacks 96
- SAFE Framework of Standards to Secure and Facilitate Global Trade (WCO) 2, 5, 21, 31–2, 53, 275
- Santa Lucia* 92
- Sanya* 88
- satellite automated information systems 105–6
- satellite tracking systems 54, 126
- seafarers
  - piracy risk, excess wages and compensation for 43
  - Transportation Worker Identification Credentials (TWIC) 123
- Secure Export Partnership 5, 36–7
- Secure Freight Initiative (SFI) 128
- Secure Trade in the Asia Pacific Economic Co-operation (APEC) Region (STAR) 2, 53
- security alerts 46–7
- security equipment, costs of 44–5, 47
- security guards, costs of 44–5, 47
- Senegal
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Shapiro, S. 48–9
- ship design flaws, incidents involving 174–8
- Ship Security Officers (SSO) 21
- Ship Security Plan (SSP) 21
- Sierra* 91
- Sierra Leone
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Singapore see Straits of Malacca
- Small Island Developing States (SIDS)
  - marine resources, dependence on 263
  - maritime threats, vulnerability to 263–4
- Smart and Secure Tradelanes (SST) 2, 53–4
- smart tags 54, 126, 230
- Somalia
  - armed protection of merchant shipping 110
  - bilateral agreements regarding transfer of suspected pirates 279
  - counter-piracy operations on land 107–8
  - criminal organizations, role in piracy 17
  - piracy, economic costs of 43, 45–6
  - piracy trends 17–18, 101–3, 276–8
- Spain
  - Madrid bombings 16
  - maritime terrorist attacks 92
- speed increases, costs of 45–6
- Spiro* 90
- Sri Lanka
  - maritime terrorist attacks 94–5
- StairSec Initiative 5, 36
- Stakeholder Analysis (SHA) 72
- stakeholder interactions 111, 121–4, 134–5, 285–6
- stated preference method (SPM) 73
- Straits of Hormuz 43, 210–11
- Straits of Malacca
  - classification as war risk zone 43, 232–5, 238
  - insurance risk premium increases 43, 233–4
  - piracy trends 101, 232, 238
  - policy developments 234–6, 238–9
  - security, responsibility for 238–9
  - strategic importance 43
  - terrorist threat in 235–7
- Strategic Council on Security Technology (SCST) 2, 53–4
- supply chain security initiatives
  - challenges 119, 151–2
  - international cooperation 129–30
  - local vs. national differences 132–4
  - multimodalism 167–70
  - US policy seen as ‘neo-imperialism’ 130–32
- importance 217
- IT role in 217
- mandatory initiatives
  - 24-hour rule 2, 5, 20–21, 25, 53, 57–8, 151
- International Ship and Port Facility Security (ISPS) code

- 2–3, 5, 21, 24–5, 52, 128, 162–3, 218, 267–9
- and multimodalism 167–70
- objectives 217–18
- voluntary initiatives
  - Business Alliance for Secure Commerce (BASC) 5, 26–8
  - business-specific initiatives 37–8
  - Container Security Initiative (CSI) 2, 5, 15, 20–21, 28–9, 47, 56, 125–8, 218–19
  - Customs-Trade Partnership against Terrorism (C-TPAT) 2, 5, 20–21, 32–4, 47–8, 53, 56–7, 127
  - EU Authorized Economic Operators (AU AEO) 5, 29–31, 168–9, 230–31
  - generally 26–32
  - ISO 28000-2007 2, 54, 168–9, 218
  - location-specific initiatives 32–7
  - Partners in Protection Initiative 5, 35, 151
  - SAFE Framework of Standards to Secure and Facilitate Global Trade (WCO) 2, 5, 21, 31–2, 53, 275
  - Secure Export Partnership 5, 36–7
  - StairSec Initiative 5, 36
  - Technology Asset Protection Association (TAPA) 5, 37–8
- Sweden
  - StairSec Initiative 5, 35
- technology
  - container technology 14–15, 54, 126, 230
  - electronic seals 126
  - and globalization 14–17, 220
  - implementation challenges 126
  - information and communications developments 14
  - radio frequency identification (RFID) 54, 126, 230
  - satellite automated information systems 105–6
  - satellite tracking systems 54, 126
  - and security, links between 14–17, 220
  - smart tags 54, 126, 230
  - weapons, destructiveness of 15–16
- Technology Asset Protection Association (TAPA) 5, 37–8
- terrorist attacks
  - 9/11, influence on security policies 1–2, 16, 137–8, 145–6, 187
  - biochemical threats 16
  - cyber attacks 15–16, 119
  - dirty bombs 16, 41–3
  - economic impact 16, 40–43, 118
  - on port facilities
    - potential impact 14, 18–19, 118
    - risks of, study 80–97
    - summary of events (1968-2007) 88–96
    - trends 18, 80–81
  - risk, definitions 78–80
  - in Straits of Malacca, threat of 235–6
  - terrorism vs. piracy 237–9
  - threat minimizing, challenges 119
- Tina* 90
- Togo
  - maritime piracy trends 191
- Transportation Worker Identification Credentials (TWIC) 123
- Turkey
  - maritime terrorist attacks 88, 94
- Ulster Queen* 89
- United Kingdom
  - security policy developments, economic implications 71, 132
- United States
  - and Canada
    - Beyond the Border Agreement 154
    - maritime security policy
      - influences on 143–6, 154–6
      - trade relations with 143–4
  - generally
    - import and export trends 117
    - international maritime trade, role in 2, 118
    - maritime terrorist attacks 88–91, 95
    - ports, vulnerability of 120–21
  - maritime security policy
    - Automatic Identification System (AIS) 122

- bilateral agreements on 20
  - cargo scanning regulations 126–7
  - challenges 119, 121–5, 132–8
  - Coast Guard role 121–3, 131
  - Container Security Initiative (CSI)
    - 2, 5, 15, 20–21, 28–9, 47, 56, 125–8, 218–19
  - Container Working Group 124
  - costs of 123–4
  - Customs and Border Protection (CBP) role 122–3, 125–6, 129, 136, 145–6
  - Customs-Trade Partnership against Terrorism (C-TPAT)
    - 2, 5, 20–21, 32–4, 47–8, 53, 56–7, 127
  - development 2, 119–20
  - foreign port security, resource responsibility conflicts 132–5
  - Importer Self-assessment Program (ISA) 53
  - international cultural conflicts 132–4
  - Maritime Transport Security Act (MTSA) 2002 2, 43, 119–20, 122, 124, 267
  - Megaports Initiative 127–8
  - multiple agency/ stakeholder interactions 121–4, 134–5
  - National Security for Maritime Security 49
  - Operation Safe Commerce (OSC) 53
  - Public Health Security and Bioterrorism Preparedness and Response Act 2002 53
  - Secure Freight Initiative (SFI) 128
  - technology, role and challenges 126
  - Transportation Worker Identification Credentials (TWIC) 123
  - unmanned underwater vehicles 106–7
  - US Africa Command (AFRICOM) 193, 195
  - USS Cole* 1, 18, 95, 118
- Venables, A. 48
- Vessel Protection Detachment 110
- Voltri Terminal, contaminated cargo incident 15, 159–61
- von Winterfeldt, D. 41–2
- VPF analysis (value of preventing a fatality) 64–5
- warning thresholds 61–3
- weapons
  - biochemical threats 16
  - destructiveness, trends in 15–16
  - dirty bombs 16, 41–3
  - WMD, security and control initiatives 15, 127–8
- West Africa
  - maritime security initiatives 194–6
  - piracy trends 100–101, 191
- WMD
  - security and control initiatives 15, 127–8
- Wolfe, M. 41
- World Customs Organization (WCO)
  - SAFE Framework of Standards to Secure and Facilitate Global Trade 2, 5, 21, 31–2, 53, 275
- WTP analysis (willingness to pay) 65, 73
- Yemen
  - maritime terrorist attacks 95

