

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Preface and acknowledgements	ix
Katarina Kaarbøe

1 Control and autonomy – management challenges and tensions	1
Katarina Kaarbøe, Paul N. Gooderham and Hanne Nørreklit

PART I BUDGETING CONTROL AND BEYOND

2 Taking reality seriously – towards a more self-regulating management model at Statoil	11
Bjarte Boggsnes
3 Environmental uncertainty and the use of budgets	34
Niels Sandalgaard
4 Management accounting tools in banks: are banks without budgets more profitable?	51
Trond Bjørnenak
5 Beyond Budgeting from the American and Norwegian perspectives: the embeddedness of management models in corporate governance systems	69
Daniel Johanson
6 Putting Beyond Budgeting ideas into practice	92
Katarina Kaarbøe, Inger Stensaker and Teemu Malmi
7 A new way of being a controller – from bellboy to actor	114
Hanne Nørreklit and Katarina Kaarbøe

PART II PERSPECTIVES AND CONTROL DIMENSIONS

8 Management control as temporal structuring	141
Sebastian D. Becker and Martin Messner
9 The planning-regime concept and its application to three examples of organizational budgeting	163
Anatoli Bourmistrov and Katarina Kaarbøe

10	Does managerial discretion affect learning from experience in organizations? Bjarne Espedal and Alexander Madsen Sandvik	185
11	The autonomy-creativity orientation of elite business school students in the US and Norway Paul N. Gooderham, Alexander Madsen Sandvik, Siri Terjesen and Odd Nordhaug	204
12	Systems of accountability and personal responsibility Lars Jacob Tynes Pedersen	222
	Epilogue: Welcome to DYMACO Bino Catasús	239
	Index	243