

Index

- accountability systems
 - overview 222–4
 - problems with 229–32
 - promoting personal responsibility in 232–5
 - and responsibility 225–9
- accounting, multiple conceptions of 92–3, 95, 99, 108
- active individual responsibility 224, 226
- activity-based costing (ABC)
 - compared to Beyond Budgeting 94, 109–10
 - performance effects 64–6
 - use and perceived usefulness 54–8
- actor-based model 119, 136
- actor, from conformer to 131–2
- adaptability and efficiency 185–6, 187–9, 193
- agency theory 75–6, 78, 83, 85, 184
- agility 12, 20, 59–60, 240
- Aguilera, R.V. 70, 72–5, 84–5
- Ahrens, T. 111, 146–7, 156
- Ajzen, I. 206
- Amabile, T.M. 3, 205, 208
- ambiguity 71, 72, 86, 164, 187
 - making sense of 95–6, 106, 108
- Ambition to Action (A2A) 20–25
 - ambition statements 20
 - ambitions and strategies 22
 - constraining effects 101–4
 - implementation 25–6
 - leadership implications 31
 - leaving calendar year 26–31
 - narrative 123–9
 - in practice 97–107
 - processes 23
 - purposes 20
 - skeptics 25–6
 - successful implementation 31–2, 99–101
 - unsuccessful implementation 104–7
- ambitious targets 13, 78, 98, 99–100, 120, 121, 127–8, 129, 229
- Ancona, D.G. 144, 145, 146, 148, 149, 150, 151, 170
- Anglo-American shareholder model 73, 88
- Anthony, R.N. 35, 124
- antithesis 121, 124, 125–6, 127–8, 130–31
- Anyon, J. 210
- Arbnor, I. 114, 117
- Argyris, C. 2, 163, 165, 188, 191
- Aschoff, J. 144
- Atkinson, M.M. 166
- Augier, M. 4
- Austin, J.L. 117
- autonomy
 - learning effects 185, 186, 187, 190, 191, 193–4, 199, 200
 - needs 227
 - struggles with 31
 - and temporal structuring 151
 - Statoil 16, 17
- autonomy-creativity orientation
 - appendix 221
 - implications for employers and research needs 217–18
 - study method 211–13
 - study results 213–16
 - theory 205–11
- awareness of control 222
- Ax, C. 4, 52, 71
- Baer, J. 209, 210
- balanced scorecards (BSC)
 - compared to Beyond Budgeting 94, 109–10
 - implementation 79
 - merits of 81, 83
 - performance effects 64–6

- use and perceived usefulness 54–8
 - use at Statoil 20, 22, 24, 105
- Balogun, J. 96
- Bandura, A. 230–31
- banks, budgets and profitability
 - case of Svenska Handelsbanken 52–3
 - findings 55–66
 - future research needs 66–7
 - study structure 54–5
- Bartol, K.M. 204, 208
- Becker, S. 80–81
- bell-boy 123, 134, 135, 241
- Bem, S.L. 210
- Bemelmans-Vidéc, M.-L. 1–2
- benchmarking
 - performance effects 64–6
 - Statoil 15, 16, 17, 31–2, 102, 105
 - use and perceived usefulness 54–8
- Benders, J. 71
- Bentler, P.M. 196
- Bergstrand, J. 167
- Bernstein, I.H. 213
- Beyond Budgeting (BB)
 - and Ambition to Action 20–25, 97–8
 - as comprehensive model 94–5
 - framework 123–9
 - future research 87–8
 - principles 22, 77–8, 80–81, 82
 - use in banking sector 52–3
- Beyond Budgeting models
 - comparison of models 83–4
 - and corporate governance systems 84–6
 - diffusion and translation 71–2
 - Norwegian model 78–80
 - US model 80–82
- Beyond Budgeting practice
 - case company and control system 97–8
 - integration of theory and 130–31
 - practice variation 110–11
 - sensemaking perspective 95–6
 - sensemaking within business units 98–107
 - study findings 107–11
 - study method 96–7
- Beyond Budgeting Round Table (BBRT) 69, 77, 80, 82, 85, 86
- Bjerke, B. 114, 117
- Bjørnenak, T. 4, 52, 71
- Bleiklie, I. 166
- Bogsnes, Bjarte 3, 59, 63, 70, 78–80, 83–4, 85, 97–8, 108, 114–15, 119, 122–9, 134, 135, 152, 154, 155, 185, 204, 217
 - career 130–33
- bonus schemes 15, 53, 98, 149, 176
 - criticism of 80, 83
 - link with autonomy-creativity 204, 206, 207, 212, 213–18
- book outline 5–7
- bottom up participation 167, 176, 177, 180
- Bourdieu, P. 210
- Bovens, M. 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 234–5
- Brown, D.A. 2, 4, 46
- Brown, S.L. 147, 150
- Browne, M.W. 196
- Buchtel, E.E. 206
- budget constrained leadership style 168, 178–9, 180
- budget control, narrative 122–3
- budget production, narrative 120–22
- budget purposes, separating and improving 13–19, 98
- budgetary constraints 103
- budgetary participation 165, 167, 169, 172, 173–7, 180, 181
- budgeting process
 - influence on organizational and individual behavior 60–62
 - problems and weaknesses 58–60
- budgeting regimes
 - analysis of 173–9
 - dimensions 166–8
- budgets
 - criticism of 151–7, 165
 - designing 167, 177–8
 - reasons for use 13, 35, 49
 - reintroduction of 93, 101–4
 - relevance of critiques 58–64
 - temporal embeddedness in 169–71
 - and timing of organizational activity 147–57
 - use and perceived usefulness 54–8, 92, 167–9
- bureaucracy 11, 63, 81, 85, 101, 146, 190, 191–2

- Burns, T. 38
 business units
 constraining effects of Beyond Budgeting practices 101–4 dependence and comparability 39–42, 44, 45, 50 dual systems in practice 104–7 interpretation of Beyond Budgeting 99 successful implementation of Ambition to Action 99–101
- calendar year entrainment to 148–52
 leaving 15–16, 26–31
 risks and challenges of moving from 26–7, 156 solutions to problems arising from 153–6
- Campbell, J.L. 76 capacity, responsibility as 225–6 capital markets 26, 72, 76, 81, 88 capital stakeholders 73–7, 83, 85, 87–8 career opportunities, link with autonomy-creativity 208, 213–18 cause, responsibility as 225 change
 case for 12–19
 normative implications for other controllers 134–5 organizational rules as instrument for 192–3 responsiveness to 59–60, 61 in way of being a controller 134 way of mediating 134
- Chapman, C.S. 93, 110–11
 character 114, 117, 118, 123, 124–7, 129–31 change in 134–5
- Chenhall, R.H. 36, 37, 38, 39, 44, 164
 Cherrington, D.J. & J.O. 165
 Child, J. 193
 Chittipeddi, K. 96
 Chong, C.-L. 144, 145, 146, 148, 149, 150, 151, 170
 Chow, C.W. 164
 Cinquini, L. 64
 Clark, P. 155
 Clinton, B.D. 167
 clock time 143, 152, 169–73, 178–9, 180–81
 Coleman, W.D. 166
 collectivism 3, 77, 231–2, 233–4, 236 communication budgetary process 175 culture of 241
 of goals 35, 36–8, 42–4 and performance evaluation 128 and social class 210 use of information technology 4 company size, benefits of 12 competence needs 227 competition, and use of budgets 36–7, 39–42, 44, 45, 46, 49 competitive pacers 144–5, 148–9, 150, 153, 155, 156 complexity 3, 27, 28, 36, 46, 93, 150, 187–8 conduct dimension, accountability 222 conformer to actor 131–2 container-related metaphors 122–3
 Continental European stakeholder model 73, 76 contingency theory 34–5, 37, 38, 46 continuous cycles 22, 26, 59, 78, 82, 101, 110, 143, 146–7, 152–4 control-oriented leadership 193–4, 195, 196–201 cooperation, impact of budgets/targets 61–2 coordination mechanisms for 144, 148–50 social embeddedness in 168–9
 use and usefulness of budgets 35, 37, 42–4, 56, 168–9
 see also planning-regimes
- Cordery, J.L. 213
 corporate governance Aguilera/Jackson model 72–5 and Beyond Budgeting models 84–6 Gourevitch/Shinn classification 75–7 corporate intentions, practice in accordance with 93, 96, 97–107 corporatist governance model 75, 76–7, 86 cost reduction, focus on 5, 63, 79, 81–2, 165 cost-consciousness 16–19, 29 cost/income ratio 53, 54–5, 64–6

- creativity see autonomy-creativity orientation
- Crowley, M. 2
- Cudeck, R. 196
- cultural capital 210
- Cummings, A. 207
- Cunha, M.P. 150, 156, 157
- customer orientation 95
- customer profitability accounting
performance effects 64–6
use and perceived usefulness 54–8
- customer service, temporal structuring 150–51
- Czarniawska-Joerges, B. 168
- Daft, R.L. 188
- Dankbaar, B. 207
- Das, T.K. 155–6
- Davis, G.F. 72
- Davis, J.H. 83
- Dearden, J. 146, 147, 151
- decentralization 39–42, 44, 45, 49–50, 61, 83, 84, 86, 94, 152
- Deci, E.L. 189, 205, 212, 227, 229, 232
- decision-facilitation roles of budgeting 149, 151–3
- decision-influencing roles of budgeting 149, 151–2
- demographic factors, impact on autonomy-creativity 206, 208–11, 213–18
- dialectics 124, 125–6, 127, 128, 129, 130, 134
- diffusion, management models 71–2
- DiMaggio, P. 169
- discourse analysis 119–35
method 118–19
- discourse theory 116–17
- Donaldson, L. 83
- “double binding” 191
- dual control systems in practice 104–7
- Dugdale, D. 166
- Duncan, R.B. 36
- dynamic resource allocation 15–19
putting into practice 98–107
- dysfunctional behavior 2–3, 60–62, 63, 84, 150–51, 163
- Eccles, R.G. 234
- economic value added (EVA) models 71
- Edmondson, A. 195
- education, impact on autonomy
creativity 210, 215–16
- efficiency and adaptability 185, 188–9, 193
- Eisenhardt, K.M. 147, 150, 155
- Ekholm, B.-G. 34, 37, 39, 92
- “elevator ride” metaphor 120–21
- embeddedness theory 168–71
- empowerment 3, 4, 81, 152, 208, 236
- endogenous cycles 144–5
- engaged behavior, conditions for 233–4
- entrainment 144–8
to calendar year 148–56
- entrainment time 170–71, 173, 179, 180
- environmental uncertainty literature review and hypotheses development 35–8 research conclusions 46–7
study method 38–42
study results 42–5
- Espedal, B. 192
- event time 170–71, 173, 179, 180
- event-based forecasting 13–14, 15, 27, 28–30, 79, 153, 154–6, 157
putting into practice 98–107
- evolutionary approach 82
- existential dimension of responsibility 227
- existing knowledge 188–9
- external benchmarking 5, 15, 102, 124
- external communication 26–7, 149
- external cycles/pacers 144–5, 148–9, 150, 153, 155
- extrinsic motivation/reward 193, 222–3, 230, 232–3
impact on autonomy-creativity 204, 206, 207, 212, 213–18
- Ezzamel, M. 34, 148, 151, 157
- “family” planning and coordination regime 171, 172, 179–80
budget design 177–8
budget role 173–4
use of control 178–9
- feedback, link with autonomycreativity 208, 212, 213–18
- Feldman, M.S. 192
- financial incentives, control through 1–5

- financial orientation 74, 80–81, 86
 financial performance, and budgets
 52–3, 64–7
 Finkelstein, S. 187
 Fitch, H.G. 223
 flexibility 12, 16, 17, 20, 37, 59–60, 95, 101 followability 132–3 forecasts
 narrative 128
 updating 13, 26–8, 30, 59–60, 79, 153, 155
 see also event-based forecasting, rolling forecasts
 formal discretion 187, 201 formula-based budgeting 167, 173–4, 177, 180
 Foss, N.J. 189
 Foster, G. 52
 Fraser, R. 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 76–7, 81, 94–5, 152, 153, 154
 Frey, B. 223, 230
 Frøland, H.O. 76
 Fromm, E. 136
 functional orientation 74, 83, 84, 86, 87 future orientation 143–5, 152, 154, 226 future, assumptions concerning 59, 60

 gaming behavior 13, 15, 61–2, 98, 100, 101, 121–3
 gender, impact on autonomy-creativity
 209–10, 213–18
 Germany
 corporate governance 72, 73
 strategic decision making 146–7
 Gersick, C.J.G. 152
 Ghoshal, S. 188
 Gioia, D.A. 96
 globalization 3 GLOBE study 209
 goal clarity, link with autonomycreativity 206, 207, 208, 212, 213–18
 goal commitment 165 goal communication 35, 36, 42, 43, 44 goal conflict 62–3 goal displacement 191
 Gordon, L.A. 39
 Gourevitch, P.A. 70, 75–7
 Govindarajan, V. 35, 37–8, 46, 124

 Granovetter, M.S. 168–9 growth journey of companies 12

 Hackman, J.R. 195, 208, 212
 Hambrick, D.C. 187
 Hansen, S.C. 34, 35, 36, 42, 44
 Hartmann, F.G. 34, 38, 46
 Hasse, C. 207
 Heidegger, M. 141
 Heine, S.J. 206
 Held, D. 3
 hierarchical control (Theory X) 1–5, 12, 21, 24, 204
 hindsight insights 19
 Hofstede, G. 206, 208–9
 Högfeldt, P. 76
 holistic performance evaluation 19, 27, 28
 narrative 128–9
 putting into practice 98–107
 Hope, J. 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 76–7, 94–5, 115, 152, 153, 154
 Hopwood, A.G. 2–3, 168
 horizon of responsibility 231–2
 Horngren, C.T. 35, 52, 124, 125, 165
 House, R.J. 209
 human nature, assumptions 79–80, 83–4, 87, 222–3
 human resources (HR) departments 19
 Humphrey, S.E. 205, 207, 212
 Hunton, J.E. 167

 identified regulation 233
 Ihantola, E.M. 92
Implementing Beyond Budgeting
 (Bogsnes) 79, 114–15
 Ims, K.J. 224, 226–7, 231 incentives in accountability systems budgets 61–2
 and temporal orientation 145–7 incremental budgeting 167, 175, 177, 180 individual behavior problems 60–62, 79, 100–101
 individualization 3, 229–30, 231–2 inflexibility, organizational rules as instrument of 192–3, 200, 240
 information and temporal orientation 145–7

- information technology 4, 100–101
 Inglehart, R. 210–11
 innovation cycle 144, 149 integrated regulation 233
 interactive-orientation 6, 115, 125, 129, 131, 133, 134, 135 internal benchmarking 5, 15, 102 internal cycles/pacers 148–9, 150, 153, 155, 156 interpretation 71, 86, 95–6, 99, 106, 109–10, 118–19, 125, 170, 188, 193 intrinsic motivation 21, 189, 204, 207, 208, 223, 224, 227, 228, 229–30, 232 investor governance model 75–6, 86
 Ittner, C.D. 64
- Jackson, G. 70, 72–5, 84–5
 Japan
 corporate governance 72, 73
 management models 71
 Jaques, E. 151
 Jensen, M.C. 77–8, 152
 Johansen, M. 55
 Johnson, G. 96
 Johnson, H.T. 51
 Jones, T.C. 166
 “journey” metaphor 130–33
- Kaplan, R.S. 51, 146
 Kaptein, M. 231
 Kaufman, J.C. 209, 210
 Keros, A.T. 169
 key performance indicators (KPIs) 16, 17, 19, 23, 24, 27, 29, 102, 105, 128
 Khandwalla, P.N. 36–7
 Kiffin-Petersen, S.A. 213
 Kirk, K. 222
 Kohn, A. 207
 Konrad, A. 209, 210
 Krasner, S. 165–6
- labor governance model 75, 76, 86
 labor stakeholders 73–7, 85
 Lamoreaux, M.G. 153, 154 language 116
 language game 116–17, 118–19
 analysis 119–36
 Larcker, D.F. 64
 Latham, G.P. 208
- leadership implications, Ambition to Action 31 leadership style and managerial discretion and learning 193–4, 195, 196–201 in use of budgets 168, 178–9, 180 leadership theory 185–6 learning from experience and leadership style 193–4 and managerial discretion 189–90 nature of 187–9
 and organizational rules 190–93
 study method 194–6
 study results and discussion 196–201
 Leavitt, H.J. 192
 Leblebici, H. 37
 Levinthal, D.A. 189
 Levitt, B. 188, 192
 Libby, T. 53, 54, 58, 59, 61, 62, 65, 92, 165
 life forms 116–17, 129, 131, 135
 Lindkvist, L. 230
 Lindsay, R.M. 53, 54, 58, 59, 61, 62, 65, 92
 Lindvall, J. 3, 4
 Llewellyn, S. 230
 Locke, E.A. 208
 locus of control 223, 230 logic of action 187, 188, 191 long-term orientation 83, 84, 99, 143–4, 145, 146–8, 151, 152–3
 Louch, H. 169
 Lozeau, D. 108
- McGinn, K.L. 169
 McGrath, J.E. 144–5
 McGregor, D. 1–2, 3, 204, 206
 Macintosh, N.M. 222
 Maitlis, S. 96
 Malmi, T. 2, 4, 46
 management accounting tools dilemmas associated with 4 and performance 64–6
 use and perceived usefulness 54–8 management control and planning regimes 178–9 “right” timing 157
 and temporal structuring 145–7
 tensions and challenges 1–5

- management model transferability
 analysis 82–6
 and Beyond Budgeting 77–82 conceptual framework 81–7
 future research 87–8
- management stakeholders 73–7, 86
- management time, budgeting process 58–9, 60
- managerial discretion and learning discussion 198–201
 study method 194–6
 study results 196–8
 theory and hypotheses 186–94
- managerial discretion, nature of 186–7
- managerism 75–6
- “many hands” problem 231
- Manzoni, J.-F. 168
- March, J.G. 185, 187, 188–9, 191, 192
- materialism 206, 210–11
- May, L. 231
- meaning and accountability 228–9
 mechanical approach 3, 115, 121–3, 126, 129, 131, 133–5, 170
- Medsker, G.J. 196
- Merchant, K.A. 165, 168
- Merton, R. 191
- Messner, M. 228, 229, 234
- Miles, R.E. 36, 37
- “military regime” planning and coordination regime 171, 172–3, 180, 181
 budget design 177–8
 budget role 174–6
 use of control 178–9
- mindfulness 201
- Mitchell, F. 64
- moral dimension of accountability 228, 229, 230–31, 233, 234–5
- Morgeson, F.P. 207, 212
- Morris, D. 36, 37
- motivation
 leadership conceptions 187 and peer acknowledgement 2 and social control 4, 101
 use and usefulness of budgets 56, 100, 165, 168
see also extrinsic motivation;
 intrinsic motivation
- Mouritsen, J. 95, 111, 222
- Nahapiet, J. 188
- Narayanan, V.K. 39
- narrative 114–15
- narrative analysis angles of change 133–5
 method 118–19
 micro-stories 119–33
 results 135–6
- national culture, impact on autonomy-
 creativity 208–9, 213–18
- Neely, A. 58, 60–61, 154
- new employees
 introduction programs 25 message for 239–41
 responses to Beyond Budgeting 104, 109
- new knowledge 188–9
- non-accounting leadership style 168, 178–9, 180
- Nørreklit, L. & H. 119, 136
- Norton, D.P. 146
- Norwegian Beyond Budgeting model 70, 78–80
 compared to US model 83–4
 and corporate governance system 84–6
- Norwegian students, autonomycreativity orientation 209, 215, 216, 217
- Nunnally, J.C. 196, 213
- objective time perspective 169–71
- Oldham, G.R. 195, 207, 208, 212
- oligarchy 75
- operational planning, use of budgets
 35, 36–8, 42–4, 46
- operator role 26–7
- organic organizations 39–42, 44, 45
- organizational activities
 budgeting and timing of 147–57 timing of 143–5
- organizational behavior problems 60–62
- organizational constraints 186–7
- organizational fit 92–3, 96–111 and sensemaking 106, 108–9
- organizational rules as instruments of learning and change 192–3, 195, 196–201
 as instruments of stability 190–92

- organizational size 39, 50
 and performance 64, 65–6
- Orlikowski, W.J. 143, 151, 156, 169, 170
- Osterloh, M. 230
- other-directed responsibility 226
- Otley, D.T. 2–3, 36, 37, 38
- pacers (Zeitgeber) 144–51
- passive responsibility 226
- past orientation 32, 59, 152, 154, 156, 226
- Pedersen, L.J.T. 231
- Pedersen, O.K. 76
- peer acknowledgement 2, 240
- peer pressure 1, 5, 15, 16, 17, 31–2, 77
- Pentland, B.T. 192
- performance ability to manage 19 and budgetary participation 167 link with accounting tools 64–7, 152–3
- performance control, narrative 127–9
- performance dimension, accountability 222
- performance evaluation improving and optimising 19 and management style 168, 178
 temporal structuring 28, 146, 151, 152
 use and usefulness of budgets 34, 35, 36–8, 42–4, 45, 46, 56
see also holistic performance evaluation
- Perry, M.E. 195
- personal responsibility limits to 234–5 nature and forms 225–6 promoting within accountability systems 232–5 psychological conditions for 226–8
- personal transformation 130–33, 135
- “personalization” 224, 234
- Pfeffer, J. 37, 191
- phase (cycle) entrainment 144–5, 151
- planning
 social embeddedness 168–9
 use and usefulness of budgets 56, 168–9
- planning-regimes and budget design 177–8 budgeting regimes analysis 173–9 case companies 171–3 and control 178–9
 definition of 165–6
 theoretical framework 164–71
- Player, S. 70, 80–82, 83–4, 85, 86
- playfulness 189
- Powell, G.N. 209
- power and accountability 229
- practice theory 111
- practice-based time perspective 169–71
- pragmatic constructivism 115, 119, 136
- precommitment 191
- “pressed organizations” 156, 157
- primary entrainment 145, 148, 150
- product development 3, 207, 209
- production, temporal structuring 143–4, 148–9
- professional development/transformation 2, 130–33, 135, 240
- profit conscious leadership style 168, 178–9
- Quattrone, P. 222
- Rappaport, A. 77
- rationality 96, 127, 128, 136, 166
- real time information 143, 146–7, 153, 155, 157
- realism 6, 98, 115, 119, 127–8, 136
- “rear-view mirror” effect 154
- reflective orientation 6, 101, 108, 115, 123, 128–9, 131, 133–5, 136, 230, 240, 241
- relatedness needs 227
- relational culture, link with autonomy-creativity 207–8, 212, 213–18
- relational dimension of responsibility 228
- relational embeddedness 168–9, 172, 173, 177–8, 180
- relative performance 22, 46, 64, 69, 78, 80, 82
- relative target-setting 13–15, 17, 21, 27, 29
- putting into practice 98–107

- Relevance Lost* (Johnson and Kaplan) 51–2
- repetitive cycles 120–21, 143–5, 172
- resource allocation
- degree of renewal 167, 172, 173–6
 - improving and optimizing 13–19
 - overestimation 61, 62
 - use and usefulness of budgets 35, 36–8, 42–4, 56, 173–4
 - see also* dynamic resource allocation
- return on equity (ROE) 55, 64–6
- reward
- use and usefulness of budgets 56
 - link with creativity-autonomy 207, 212, 213–18
- Ricoeur, P. 115, 116–17, 118, 119
- rigidity 11–12, 21, 37, 60, 101, 108, 135
- Roberts, J. 228–9
- Roberts, K.H. 188
- Robson, K. 148, 151, 157
- Rogers, E.M. 71
- role models and sensemaking 109, 110, 111
- rolling forecasts 28, 30
- calendar rhythms 79
 - merits of 81
 - performance effects 64–6
 - as solution to entrainment challenges 153–4
 - use and perceived usefulness 54–8
- Rotchford, N.L. 144–5
- routines, focus on 63
- Ryan, R.M. 189, 205, 212, 227, 229, 232
- sales, temporal structuring 143–4, 146, 147, 149, 151
- Sandvik, A. 3, 4
- Saunders, C.B. 223
- Saussure, F. de 116
- Sawyer, J.E. 208, 212
- Scandinavian management model 76, 86, 87
- Scapens, R. 228–9
- Schatzki, T.R. 143
- seasonal rhythms 26, 59, 149, 156
- secondary entrainment 145, 148, 150
- self-determined behavior 227–8, 229–30
- conditions for 232–3
- self-governance 123, 129, 136
- self-regulating management model
- Beyond Budgeting and Ambition to Action 20–25
 - implementation of model 25–6
 - leadership implications 31
 - move away from calendar year 26–31
 - move away from traditional budgeting 12–19
 - success of 31–2
- sensemaking
- Beyond Budgeting ideas 107–8
 - in business units 98–107
 - discussion 109–11
 - importance of role models 109
 - and organizational fit 108–9
- sensemaking theory 93, 95–6
- shared responsibility 231–2, 234, 235–6
- shareholder value 71–8, 80, 81, 83–8
- Sharma, D.S. 37, 38
- Shinn, J. 70, 75–7
- short-term orientation 42, 62, 63, 128–9, 143–7, 151, 152–3, 208
- Simons, R. 3
- Simonton, D.K. 205, 207
- Sims, H.P. 207
- Sivabalan, P. 154
- Snow, C.C. 36, 37
- social background, impact on
- autonomy-creativity 210–11, 213–18
- social capital 188
- social context 71, 136, 92–3
- social control (Theory Y) 1–5, 12, 21, 24, 204
- social embeddedness 164, 166–7, 170–73, 177–8, 180–81, 240
- in planning and coordination 168–9
- Song, M.X. 195
- spending authorization 35, 36–8, 42–4
- stability, organizational rules as
- instrument of 190–92, 200, 400
- stakeholder focus 84, 87
- stakeholder groups 72, 73–7, 84–6
- Stalker, G.M. 38
- Statoil
- Beyond Budgeting and Ambition to Action 20–25
 - company background 11–12
 - event-based forecasting 155

- implementation of Ambition to Action 25–6
- leadership implications of budgeting changes 31
- leaving calendar year 26–31
- leaving traditional budgeting 12–19
- success of Ambition to Action 31–2
- status, link with autonomy-creativity 207, 212, 213–18
- statutory accounting 26, 30, 148, 149
- Steiger, J.H. 196
- stewardship theory 83, 84
- “stock exchange” planning and
 - coordination regime 171, 173, 180–81
 - budget design 177–8
 - budget role 176–7
 - use of control 178–9
- strategic capital 73
- strategic coherence 62–4
- strategic objectives, narrative 125–7
- strategy formation, use of budgets 35, 36–8, 42–4
- Strauss, A.M. 210
- structural embeddedness 168–9, 172, 173, 177–8, 180
- subjective time perspective 19, 38, 98, 100, 155, 169–71
- sustainability 80, 83, 85, 129, 141, 146–7, 229, 234
- Svenska Handelsbanken 4–5, 52–3
- Swedish management models 71
- synchronization 105, 144–5, 148, 150, 151, 157, 170, 173
- synthesis 121, 124–5, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130
- systemic dimension of responsibility 228
- target setting, improving and
 - optimising 13–15, 19
- targets
 - ambitious 13, 78, 98–100, 120–21, 127–8, 129, 229
 - degree of control 167–8, 178–9, 180
 - easily achievable 61, 62
 - focus on achieving 63, 64
 - narrative 128–9
 - ownership of 167
- task variety 195, 199, 205, 212
- task, responsibility as 225–6
- technological innovation 3–4
- Teece, D.J. 4, 192
- tempo (pace) entrainment 144–5, 146, 147
- temporal embeddedness 164, 169–71, 172–3, 178–9, 180–81, 240
- temporal structuring
 - budgeting 147–57
 - management control as 145–7
 - organizational activities 143–5
 - “right” timing 16, 28, 141, 157, 239
- Terjesen, S. 206
- theory of gender self-schema 209–10
- theory of planned behavior 206
- theory of post-materialist values 210–11
- thesis 121, 124, 125–6, 127–8, 130
- Thompson, J. 150
- Thompson, P. 76
- “time-reckoning” capabilities 155–6, 157, 239
- “time-span” 151
- Ting, S.-S. 205
- Tjosvold, D. 187
- top-down direction leadership 193–4, 195, 196–201
- top-down implementation 24, 29, 79, 83, 86
- top-down participation 167, 174, 177, 180
- traditional budgeting
 - leaving 12–19
 - narrative 119–23
 - translation 20, 22–4, 29, 70, 71–2, 82–8
- transparency 11, 24, 27, 32, 101, 240–41
- trust 31, 78, 79–80, 83–6, 127, 129, 132, 172, 206, 240–41
- Tsoukas, H. 187
- Tuttle, D.B. 170
- Tymon, W.G. 36
- uncertainty avoidance (UA) 208–9
- unpredictability 36–42, 44–7, 49
- updating 13, 26–8, 30, 59–60, 79, 153, 155
- US Beyond Budgeting model 70, 80–82
 - compared to Norwegian model 83–4

- and corporate governance system 84–6
- US students, autonomy-creativity orientation 209, 215, 216, 217
- Uzzi, B. 169
- Vaivio, J. 95
- value creation 58, 60, 62–4, 165
- value-based management (VBM) models 71
- values
 - impact on creativity-autonomy 206–11, 213–18
 - and responsibility 226–7, 229, 230, 233–5
- values-based organizations 11, 19, 20, 21, 22, 78
- Van der Stede, W.A. 34, 35, 36, 42, 44
- Van Veen, K. 71
- vertical control 61, 165
- vertical value chain 171, 175, 177, 180
- virtue, responsibility as 225–6
- Vissers, G. 207
- Wallace, T. 76
- Wallander, J. 5, 52–3, 58, 59, 94, 115
- Wallin, J. 34, 37, 39, 92
- way of being a controller
 - analysis 119–35
 - language games and paradigms 135–6
 - theoretical and methodological foundations 116–19
- Weick, K. 96, 169, 188
- Weil, T. 187, 191
- Wempe, J. 231
- Winter, S.G. 192
- Wittgenstein, L. 116–17
- work-related values/opportunities, impact on autonomy-creativity 206–11, 213–18
- Yates, J. 143, 151, 156, 169, 170
- Yuan, K.-H. 196
- zero-based budgeting 167, 176, 177, 180
- Zerubavel, E. 144
- Zhang, X. 204, 208
- Zollo, M. 192
- Zsolnai, L. 227

