

Contributors

Meng-Hsuan Chou (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore) is Nanyang Assistant Professor in Public Policy and Global Affairs. She is the Academic Coordinator of UACES's European Research Area collaborative research network.

Mari Elken (Nordic Institute for Studies in Innovation, Research and Education, Norway) works as a Researcher at NIFU. She is also enrolled in the Ph.D. programme at the University of Oslo and is affiliated with the research group HEIK (Higher Education: Institutional Dynamics and Knowledge Cultures), where the chapter in this volume was first conceived and written.

Åse Gornitzka (University of Oslo, Norway) is Professor at the Department of Political Science and is also affiliated Research Professor at Arena Centre for European Studies, University of Oslo.

Hanne Foss Hansen (University of Copenhagen, Denmark) is Professor at the Department of Political Science. She has published books and articles on research and higher education policy, public sector reforms and evaluations.

Cecile Hoareau (RAND Europe) is a Researcher at RAND Europe, a Research Associate at UC Berkeley and a Research Fellow at the University of Maastricht. Her interests lie in comparative education policies, particularly higher education.

Julia Metz (University of Bremen, Germany) is a Senior Researcher in the research area 'Organization and Governance Studies'. Currently she is a visiting Researcher at the WZB Social Research Centre Berlin where she works in a project on internal dynamics in the EU Commission.

José Real-Dato (University of Almeria, Spain) is Lecturer at the Department of Public Law. Among his research interests are the study of human resource policies in science and higher education, the theory of the policy process, and the study of political careers.

Martina Vukasovic (Ghent University, Belgium) has been working since December 2013 in CHEGG (Centre for Higher Education Governance Ghent), within the Odysseus project on higher education governance. Prior to moving to Ghent, she was a member of the HEIK (Higher Education: Institutional Dynamics and Knowledge Cultures) research group at the University of Oslo, where she did her Ph.D. and where the chapter in this volume was first conceived and written.