

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	xvi
Preface	xviii
Introduction	1
Vai Io Lo and Mary Hiscock
1. The BRICS: An Indian perspective	5
H.E. Mr Biren Nanda
2. How solid are the BRICS? An economic overview	11
Anthony J. Makin and Rashmi Umesh Arora
3. Fiscal policy and China's economic growth	27
Shuanglin Lin
4. Productivity differences, technology adoption and economic growth: The case of India	52
Radhika Lahiri and Shyama Ratnasiri
5. Brazil: A soft power rising with the BRICS towards a multipolar world	67
Raquel Dos Santos
6. Sino-Brazilian trade and antidumping concerns	84
Muruga Perumal Ramaswamy
7. Joining the BRICs: The case of South Africa	99
Laurence Boulle and Jessie Chella
8. Implications of the rise of the BRIC countries for Africa	123
Emmanuel T. Laryea
9. The BRICS: Experiments with state capitalism and institutional investment	142
John Farrar and Mohamed Ariff

10.	The power of the BRICS in world trade and growth, analysing the macroeconomic impacts within and across the bloc Ahmed Khalid	162
11.	The BRICS+: Fault lines and opportunities Umair Ghori	191
12.	The BRICS: A model for living on the earth Dilyara B. Karimova	219
13.	The BRICS and Russia Stephen Fortescue	228
14.	New players, new rules? The BRICS and global economic governance Mark Thirlwell	241
15.	BRICS and mortar(s): Breaking or building the global system? Melissa Conley Tyler and Michael Thomas	253
16.	China's path to development: Does law matter? Vai Io Lo	268
17.	The role of the BRICS in international law in a multipolar world Muthucumaraswamy Sornarajah	288
18.	Conclusions: The BRICS – Ascendancy, decline or plateau? Mary Hiscock and Vai Io Lo	308
	Index	313