

Figures

---

1.1	Variation within and between European countries in rates of energy taxation	6
1.2	Spain: the impact of the three tax packages on GDP	10
1.3	Modelling suggests that if direct taxes raise the same revenue as EU ETS reform greater GDP losses result	13
2.1	Renewable power capacities (excluding hydropower) in the developing world, the EU and the top five countries in 2010	24
4.1	Development of carbon tax rate since 1991	66
4.2	Per capita car fuel consumption in Sweden	68
4.3	Real index for car fuel	69
4.4	Per capita GDP (2005 price) in Sweden	69
4.5	Time-varying price elasticity	71
4.6	Time-varying income elasticity	71
5.1	GHG emissions in Tokyo by gas and source including shares	82
6.1	The structure of water CGE model	97
7.1	Cost strategies and competition among firms operating in a carbon-friendly world	117
7.2	Cost strategies and competition among firms operating in a carbon-restricting regulatory environment	119
9.1	Application of BC's carbon tax	166
10.1	Concentration of NGPV usage worldwide	185