Figures

7.1 Costs of rules and regulations .......................................................... 97
8.1 Number of times various social impacts are considered in European Commission IAs (2003–11) ......................... 113
9.1 IA and courts cycle ............................................................................. 137
14.1 Impact assessments on energy policies carried out by the different departments (Directorates General) of the European Commission (2003–September 2013) ........... 216
14.2 Amount of information published in IAs and level of data exchange between energy companies and public authorities producing IAs .......................................................... 218
18.1 Cumulative and annual frequencies of adoption ............................... 281
19.1 Total number of countries adopting IA and total number of IAs produced across Europe, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ....................... 294
19.2 Proportion of European countries adopting various basic IA institutions, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ................................................................. 295
19.3 Total number of distinct IA types across Europe, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ....... 298
19.4 Distribution of IAs published in laggard and non-laggard countries according to IA types, Europe, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ................. 298
19.5 Top five countries that publish symbiotic IA, Europe, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ................................................................. 299
19.6 Combined number of IAs grouped by shallow and well-developed IA practice, Europe, 2006Q1–2012Q2 ................................. 300
20.1 Number of IAs per year at the European Commission, 2003–13 .......... 308
20.2 Number of IAs per DG and type, at December 2011 ....................... 310
24.1 IA and rulemaking ........................................................................... 365
27.1 A Framework for Regulatory Policy Evaluation .............................. 414
27.2 Type of publicly available indicators on IA ....................................... 418