

Index

- Aglietta, M. 88, 89, 133
Ahmadjian, C. 225
Akiba, H. 315
Alesina, A. 235
Amable, Bruno 11, 90, 138, 143–4, 177–216
Amsden, A. 219
Anderson, K. 349, 351
Ansolabehere, S. 297 anti-recession plan, bloc bourgeois, Italy 188–91
Aoki, M. 92, 138
Arrighi, G. 95
Ascoli, U. 378
Asia democracy cleavages, ideological basis 396–7 international balance of payments surplus 5 structural change and productivity growth 7
 see also individual countries
Atesoglu, H. 121
Atkinson, A. 323
Atkinson, J. 322
austerity measures see fiscal austerity authoritarian regimes 63, 129, 137, 157–8, 219, 220

Baldini, M. 375 banking reform 207, 285, 302, 319, 321–2
 see also hedge fund crashes
Barber, W. 340
Bartels, L. 278
Bastagli, F. 380
Beffa, J. 160
Bekker, S. 322, 324
Béland, D. 338, 353
Bennett, C. 390, 394
Berman, S. 354

Berton, F. 365, 376
Bhaduri, A. 101
Blankenburg, S. 285
Blecker, R. 101, 104
bloc bourgeois, France/Italy
 comparison 177–216
 Dominant Social Bloc (DSB), effects of 178–9, 181, 183–4 emergence difficulties 194–210 emergence difficulties, fiscal austerity 195–200, 202–3 emergence difficulties, structural reforms 205–10 neoliberal rupture, failure of 187–94 outsider bloc 180 political situation and economic difficulties 177–8 poverty and social exclusion 199–200 pro-European integration social alliance 179–80 socio-economic model 177–8
bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison, France Accord national interprofessionnel(ANI), trade unions and flexicurity 207–9 anti-recession plan 188 banking reform and business interests 207 class analysis 193–4 competitiveness demands by business associations 205–6, 207
Dominant Social Bloc (DSB) 181 firm size distribution 202
fiscal austerity 195–6 fiscal austerity, minimum wage rises 198 fiscal austerity, VAT increase 197–8 Keynesian economic policies, 1970s and 1980s 184, 186, 187 labor market reform 205–9

- labor market reform and
 - decentralized bargaining 208–9
- labor market reform, pension reform 211
- Left bloc support 186, 192
- Left and Right blocs 179, 181
- neoliberal reforms, failure of 191–2
- neoliberal reforms and flexicurity programme 188
- political crisis effects 184
- public debt as percentage of GDP 202
- public expenditure freeze 196
- supra-class strategy and supply-side oriented policy, move towards (1980s) 186–7
- taxation changes 197–8, 205, 206–7
- top rate tax proposal 205
- trade unions and labor market reform 203
- wealth share 201
- bloc bourgeois*, France/Italy
 - comparison, Italy
 - anti-recession plan 188–91
 - apprenticeship contract 209
 - class analysis 189
 - concertazione* (joint management of budget restraint), excluded classes and strategy failure 185–6
- Dominant Social Bloc (DSB) 181, 183–4
- euro entry reasoning 185, 186
- firm size distribution 202
- fiscal austerity and Salva Italia measures 196–7
- fiscal austerity and stability law 197
- Great Recession effects, labor costs reduction 191
- Great Recession effects, political compromise 190–91
- labor market reform 209–10
- labor market reform, dismissal and reinstatement 209–10
- labor market reform, pension reform 210
- Left bloc, political structural difficulty factors 184–5
- Left parties, move away from (1990s) 187
- neoliberal reforms and economic and employment growth 188
- neoliberal reforms, failure of 188–91
- pentapartito* (governing coalition), and Dominant Bloc divisions 183–4
- policy mediation and interest groups 179, 183
- political crisis effects 181–4
- poverty and social exclusion 200
- public debt as percentage of GDP 202
- public debt rise 182
- public expenditure freeze 196–7
- trade unions and labor market reform 203
- wealth share 201
- bloc bourgeois*, France/Italy
 - comparison, political crisis and break-up of traditional alliances 181–94
 - anti-recession plans 188–91
 - Great Recession effects 188–91
 - socio-political alliances, end of dominant 181–4
 - workers' share in party electorates 188–90
- bloc bourgeois*, France/Italy
 - comparison, political landscape differences 200–205
 - economic constraints 202–3
 - private firms, size structure 200–201
 - public sector role and size 200
 - social base changes 203–4
 - trade unions and labor market reform 203
- bloc bourgeois*, Sweden 348, 350, 352
- Blondiaux, L. 161
- Boeri, T. 209
- Boyer, Robert 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 11, 13, 77, 88, 89, 93, 124–73, 285, 296, 321, 322, 323
- Braga, M. 371, 378, 381
- Brandolini, A. 362, 363, 364, 380
- Brasher, H. 297
- Brazil 3–4, 11, 12, 13, 69, 75, 93, 129, 288
- Bresser-Pereira, Luiz Carlos 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 50, 56–78, 104, 285, 287

- BRIC countries see Brazil; China; India; Russia
- Bush, S. 393
- business competitiveness 68–9, 76–7, 205–6, 207
- business conglomerate (chaebol) see under South Korea, political response to economic crisis
- ‘business-friendly’ policies and social polarization, South Korea 232–5
- Bustelo, P. 222
- Cahuc, P. 209
- Calder, K. 242
- Canto-Sperber, M. 161
- capitalism
- comparative approach and spatial dynamics 91–6
 - diversity, typical country and comparative approach 91–3, 98
 - dominant regimes across brands of capitalism 150–52
 - future of, and Régulation Theory see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, future of democracy and capitalism
 - market-driven, problems with 287–9
 - market-driven, self-regulating market 289–92, 301–2
 - neoliberal see neoliberalism
 - plurality in social sciences 80–84
 - state-led 139–40, 141, 143–4, 151, 152
 - synthetic definition 137–8
 - transformations, ongoing 286
 - varieties and Régulation Theory see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, capitalism varieties with distinct regulation modes
- Cardini, A. 6
- Carlson, A. 338, 341
- Castronovo, V. 6
- chaebol* (business conglomerate) see under South Korea, political response to economic crisis
- Chavance, B. 138
- Checchi, D. 378
- China 3, 5, 52, 75, 82, 93, 130, 157–8, 286, 288
- Cho, M. 225
- Choi, T. 233
- Christiansen, J. 75
- Clarke, H. 267
- class coalition development 64–5, 66–71
- class structure polarization, South Korea 233
- clientelism, Japan 243, 244
- collective bargaining 87, 88, 155, 160 see also employment; trade unions; wages policy
- competitiveness 68–9, 76–7, 205–6, 207 see also market-driven capitalism
- conservative policy regime 153–5, 387, 388
- postwar Japan see Japan, Democratic Party record and new policy regime, conservative policy regime of postwar Japan
- Cooper, G. 285
- Corsetti, G. 222
- Cox, R. 338, 353
- Crewe, I. 40, 44, 45, 46
- Crotty, J. 229
- Crouch, C. 161, 169
- Crowley, J. 161
- Cucek, M. 261
- Cumings, B. 226
- current account constraint 62, 72, 76
- Curtis, G. 395
- Dahl, R. 297
- D’Arista, J. 304, 305
- debt accumulation
- bloc bourgeois*, France/Italy 182, 202
 - Japan 253–5
 - and macroeconomic performance 101–2, 108–9, 114–15, 117–19
- decentralization 208–9, 351–2
- democracy
- cleavages see under multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers
 - democratic governments, South Korea, continuity under 220–21, 223–4
 - Democratic Party record, Japan see

- Japan, Democratic Party record and new policy regime
- democratization process and citizen disenchantment 158–61
- future of, and Régulation Theory see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, future of democracy and capitalism
- new social democracy (NSD) 162–3, 164, 165, 167–9
- as political regime see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, democracy as political regime, critique of quality, Italy see Italy, democratic quality, policy choices and socioeconomic divides
- success, South Korea, neoliberal policy regime 228
- Denmark
 - domestic democratization factors 166
 - migrant workers, integration of 165–6
 - workfare regimes and Danish flex-security 163–4, 165–7
- Denord, F. 325
- depreciation, Swedish krona 350 see also monetary policy
- deregulation
 - financial deregulation effects, neoliberal years of capitalism 68, 69, 71, 72, 76
 - global economic crisis 285
 - and shadow finance 299–300
 - wage earner exclusion and finance-led regime 155–6
 - wage earner to consumer transition, and conservative backlash 1967–85 153–5
 - see also* privatization
- Deutsch, K. 401
- developmentalist model 93, 95, 96, 134, 288
 - and economic liberalism, alternating between 58–60, 65, 71, 75
 - state policy regime, South Korea see South Korea, political response to economic crisis, developmental state policy regime see also BRIC countries
- Dewit, A. 244
- Diamond, L. 360
- Dodd, R. 292
- Dolowitz, D. 389, 390, 391, 395
- Drangel, J. 95
- Duch, R. 264, 267, 268
- Dunn, J. 46
- Dutt, A. 101, 102
- economic constraints
 - bloc bourgeois*, France/Italy comparison, political landscape differences 202–3
 - neoliberal years of capitalism, hegemony constraints 61, 62–3, 64, 65–6, 67, 72–3
- economic crisis see global economic crisis headings
- economic growth
 - corporation tax and investment rate, link between 234
 - finance-led growth regime 89–91, 95–6
 - and industrial policy, Japan 242
 - interest rate policy rules 102, 109–11, 116–17
 - monetary policies 44–5, 102, 109–11, 116–19, 293–4, 350
 - regressive redistributive effects, Italy 373–6
- economic growth regimes and economic crises 79–100
 - Anglo-Saxon model, limited adoption of 92
 - capitalism plurality in social sciences 80–84
 - capitalist diversity, typical country approach and comparative approach 91–3, 98
 - collective bargaining 87, 88
 - comparative approach and spatial dynamics of capitalism 91–6
 - cyclical crises 85
 - Eurozone crisis and differing economy types 93
 - finance-led growth regime 89–91, 95–6

- finance-led growth regime, non-stability and financial crises 91
- global economy, hierarchical structure 94–6
- global economy, hierarchical structure, semi-periphery 95–6
- global economy types 93–4
- historical changes in growth regimes and hegemonic power 85–6
- and policy regime 80, 97–8
- Régulationist concepts 84, 86, 88, 90
- structural crises and changes of growth regimes 80–86
- successive occurrence of structural crises 85
- typical country approach and comparative approach 91–3
- economic growth regimes and
 - economic crises, Fordist growth regime and productivity gains 87–9
 - breakdown and neoliberalist policies 88–9
 - institutional changes 88
 - and Taylorism acceptance 88
- economic growth regimes and policies, post-Keynesian analysis 101–23
 - debt accumulation and macroeconomic performance 101–2, 108–9, 114–15, 117–19
 - effective demand and tax system 107–9, 116–17
 - fiscal policy 102, 107–9
 - income distribution, employment system and inflation 105–7, 116–17, 119
 - interest rate, parking-it approach 102
 - interest rate policy rules 109–11, 116–17
 - Kansas City inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 117, 118–19, 120
 - macroeconomic performance under different monetary policy rules 112–16
 - monetary policy rule 102
 - monetary policy rule types 109–11, 116–19
 - Pasinetti inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 115, 117, 118, 119, 120
 - policy regime implications 116–20
 - policy regime perspective 102–3
 - research model overview 103–11
 - research model working 111–16
 - research model working, dynamic stability analysis 111–12
 - Smithin inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 115, 117, 118, 119, 120
 - tax system effects 104, 107–9, 116–17
 - economic growth sustainability, doubts over 292
- economic policy innovation, Japan 250–53
 - see also* innovation
- economic policy regimes, and Régulation Theory see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, economic policy regimes
- economic research, mathematical-deductive research methods, need for change from 308
- economic resources, changing distribution of, Italy 361–3
- economic and social inequalities, creation of 286–7
- economic stagnation, Sweden see Sweden, welfare policy evolution, economic stagnation and neoliberalism (1970s and 1980s)
- education investment 368–71
- elections
 - electoral democracy and chaebol power, South Korea 223
 - electoral promises, outcome failures 159
 - electoral test, South Korea, and new policy innovation 233–4
 - farming votes, shift in favour of, Japan 248–9
 - majoritarian electoral system, introduction of, Japan 246
 - patrimony economic voting and property ownership 265, 266, 267, 269, 270–71, 272, 273
 - results, structural reasons of recent, Italy 358–9
 - Social Democratic Workers' Party (SAP), Sweden, election loss (1982) and re-elections 347, 348–9, 350

- success probabilities, policy regime innovation 38–40, 49–50 voting behavior, UK see UK, general election voting behavior analysis (2010) workers' share in party electorates, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 188–90 young voters, distinctive voting behavior, Italy 359
- Elkins, Z. 390, 393
- employment
 apprenticeship contract, Italy 209 collective bargaining 87, 88, 155, 160
 female shortage, Japan 329–31 flexible labor market reform, South Korea 226–8 flexicurity see flexicurity/flexsecurity full employment goals 34, 51, 149, 152, 243, 343, 345, 351–2 labor market and flex-insecurity, Italy 376–7 labor market flexibility and short-term contracts, Italy 374–5, 376 labor market inequalities, Italy 372–3, 374–7 labor market policy regimes see global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes labor market reform, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 205–10 labor strikes, South Korea 221, 223 labor–capital bargaining, Régulation Theory, wealth accumulation versus power accumulation 129 polarization, South Korea, and new policy innovation 233 rates, Italy 364–5
 Schumpeterian workfare post-national regime (SWPR) regime 321, 327 system, and income distribution, post-Keynesian analysis 105–7, 116–17, 119 workfare regimes 163–4, 165–7, 321, 327
see also trade unions;
 unemployment; wages policy
- Epstein, G. 302, 304, 305
 Esping-Andersen, G. 52, 368, 387–8
- EU
 European Central Bank and purchase of government bonds 319
 European Financial Stability Facility (EFSF), establishment of 318
 European model and national solidarity 69–70
 European Stability Mechanism (ESM) 318–19
 Open Method of Coordination (OMC) 142 participation, Sweden 350, 398–9 pro-European integration social alliance, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 179–80 see also individual countries
- Eurozone euro entry reasoning, bloc bourgeois, Italy 185, 186 exchange rate regime 6 fiscal austerity measures and inequality 8–9 fiscal crisis see global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, Eurozone fiscal crisis North–South divide 4–5, 6
- Fabbrini, S. 307
 Fariás, A. 67
 Faucher-King, F. 155
- female employment shortage, Japan 329–31
see also employment
- Ferrera, M. 360, 368, 381
 Filippin, A. 371, 381
- financial orthodoxy, return to, Japan 253–9
- financial reconstruction, policy convergence toward, Sweden 1990s 350–51
- Fiorina, M. 264, 306
 Fiorio, C. 362, 380, 381
- fiscal austerity measures bloc bourgeois see under bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison

- budget constraints 62, 185–6, 252–3 and lowering of labor costs 325–7
 - fiscal crisis, Eurozone see global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes,
Eurozone fiscal crisis
 - fiscal policy
 - economic growth regimes and policies, post-Keynesian analysis 102, 107–9
 - neoliberal years of capitalism 62, 64, 65–6, 76
 - stimulus plan, US 301
 - flexible labor market reform, South Korea 226–8
 - flexicurity/flexsecurity
 - bloc bourgeois*, France 188, 207–9
 - flex-insecurity in labor market, Italy 376–7
 - and global economic crisis see under global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, labor market reforms
 - neoliberal years of capitalism 68, 74
 - Régulation Theory, wealth
accumulation versus power accumulation 129
 - Fligstein, N. 290, 298
 - Flora, P. 379, 380
 - Fordist growth regime
 - compromise, and Régulation Theory 153, 154
 - and productivity gains see economic growth regimes and economic crises, Fordist growth regime and productivity gains
 - foreign direct investment, South Korea 225, 231, 235
 - France
 - bloc bourgeois see bloc bourgeois*,
France/Italy comparison,
France
 - child poverty 369
 - domestic democratization factors 166, 167
 - education services 369, 371
 - employment rates 364, 365
 - equalizing effect of social protection
transfers 366
 - income inequality 361, 363, 368
 - poverty rate reduction due to social
transfers 367, 368
 - poverty risk 364
 - services, distributive effectiveness in reducing income inequality 368
 - state-led capitalism 141
 - unemployment insurance 365
 - bloc bourgeois see bloc bourgeois*,
France/Italy comparison,
France
 - child poverty 369
 - debt-burdened growth (DBG)
regime 102
 - education services 369, 371
 - employment rates 364, 365
 - equalizing effect of social protection
transfers 366
 - income inequality 361, 363, 368
 - neoliberal social market economy 320–21
 - poverty rate reduction due to social
transfers 367, 368
 - poverty risk 364
 - services, distributive effectiveness in reducing income inequality 368
 - state-led capitalism 141
 - unemployment insurance 365
- Freeman, R. 354
 - Fröbel, F. 219
 - Fujita, Nanako 337–56
 - Fujita, S. 102
 - Fukuda, Koji 314–46
 - Fukuyama, F. 124, 161
 - full employment goals 34, 51, 149, 152, 243, 343, 345, 351–2
see also employment
 - Galbraith, J. 320, 325, 345
 - Garibaldi, P. 209
 - Garrett, G. 235
 - Germany
 - child poverty 369
 - debt-burdened growth (DBG)
regime 102
 - education services 369, 371
 - employment rates 364, 365
 - equalizing effect of social protection
transfers 366
 - income inequality 361, 363, 368
 - neoliberal social market economy 320–21
 - poverty rate reduction due to social
transfers 367, 368
 - poverty risk 364
 - services, distributive effectiveness in reducing income inequality 368
 - state-led capitalism 141
 - unemployment insurance 365
 - Giddens, A. 48–9, 50
 - Glass, D. 341
 - Gleditsch, K. 393
 - global economic crisis effects
 - as cause of government turnover,
UK 274–7
 - developmental state policy regime,
South Korea 221–4, 228–9
 - election voting behavior analysis,
UK (2010) 265, 266, 267–8, 269,
270–71, 272–3, 274–7

- neoliberal years of capitalism 65–6, 72–3, 76
- policy choices and socioeconomic divides, Italy 358
- and policy regimes 39, 48–9
- and public debt, Japan 253–5
- global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes 314–36
- earth carbon tax, recommendation of 331
- global tax on international currency trades, recommendation of 331
- welfare systems, long-term sustainability concerns 314
- global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, Eurozone fiscal crisis 76, 93, 315–20
- economic governance in post-financial crisis and future of euro 318–20
- euro Plus Pact 325–7
- European Central Bank and purchase of government bonds 319
- European Financial Stability Facility (EFSF), establishment of 318
- European Semester 319
- European Stability Mechanism (ESM) (Economic Governance) 318–19
- European System of Financial Supervisors 319
- Fiscal Treaty and support of euro system 320
- Greek fiscal crisis causes, fiscal austerity measures, reaction to 319
- Greek fiscal crisis causes and fiscal crisis escalation to other countries 317–18
- Greek fiscal crisis causes, government bonds and credit default swaps (CDSs) 317
- Greek fiscal crisis causes, and monetary union 315–17
- labor flexibility measures 319–20
- national employment policies and unemployment 316
- single currency benefits 316
- Stability and Growth Pact 316
- global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, Japan
 - female employment shortage 329–31
 - labor market reforms post-2009 results 327–31
 - neoliberal structural reforms and employment uncertainty 322
 - public expenditure in labor market 327–9
 - Special Account for Foreign Exchange Fund 318
 - wage and social security disparities between regular and non-regular employees 327, 328, 330
- global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, labor market reforms 320–31
- austerity measures and lowering of labor costs 325–7
- and euro Plus Pact 325–7
- flexicurity approach 322–7, 332
- flexicurity approach, components and types 325, 326
- flexicurity approach, multi-stakeholder cooperation, need for 333
- government funding of bank losses, effects of 321–2
- labor flexibility concept 322, 323–4, 327–31
- neoliberal reforms before financial crisis 320–22
- public expenditure in labor market 327–9
- Schumpeterian workfare post-national regime (SWPR) regime 321, 327
- social democratic model of Northern Europe and socialization of knowledge 321
- social welfare policies, national jurisdiction 321
- soft law governance, Open Method of Coordination (OMC) 327
- global economic crisis, political analysis and crisis governance 283–313

- capitalism transformations, ongoing 286
- central banks, expansive monetary policy 285
- cognitive framework 287–9
- contradictions of globalization, political and economic 286
- developmentalist model see developmentalist model
- economic and social inequalities, creation of 286–7
- financial expansion, excessive 285
- growth sustainability, doubts over 292
- hedge fund crashes 291, 292, 303–5
- housing bubble, US 285, 292, 293, 296
- information and communications technology (ICT) revolution 287, 288, 294
- innovative industrialist capitalist model 288
- Keynesian theory, decline of 287–8
- lobbying for or against legislation 298–9
- lobbying power and coalition of financial interests 294–6, 308–9
- lobbying power and Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) 299–300
- lobbying and rising cost of politics, US (pressure politics) 296–300
- lobbying, shadow finance and deregulation 299–300
- market-driven capitalism, problems with 287–9
- market-driven capitalism, self-regulating market 289–92, 301–2
- mathematical-deductive research methods, need for change from 308
- monetary policy, lack of effectiveness of 293–4
- national sovereignty, erosion of 286, 294
- neoliberal policy regime 288, 296
- policy mistakes and predictive errors of the regulatory authorities 293
- policy synchronization across countries 288
- privatization and deregulation 285
- regulation weaknesses and power of lobbying 292–5
- risk-management techniques, lack of understanding of 290, 291, 292, 295–6
- shadow finance explosion 295–6
- social democratic policies see social democratic policies
- stagflation problems 287–8
- systemic crisis 284–7
- virtual economy, predominance of 289–90
- global economic crisis, political analysis and crisis governance, Obama's record in financial regulation and crisis management, US 301–6
- American Recovery and Reinvestment Act 301, 302, 305
- banking and financial crisis response 302
- divided government and political polarization 306–10
- Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act 303–5, 309
- Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission* 301–2
- financial monitoring and Office of Financial Research (OFR) 305
- financial salvaging and reconstruction efforts 303
- fiscal stimulus plan 301
- housing policy and lobbying power 302–3
- inter-institutional conflict and political polarization 307
- lobbying power, dealing with 302–3, 308–9
- neoliberalism, break with 302
- social inequalities and mobility, dealing with 306–7
- Speaker of the House, veto power 307
- global economy, hierarchical structure and types 93–6

- globalization effects competition 68–9, 76–7 multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers
 385–6, 393–4 Régulation Theory, socioeconomic groups, incorporation into political processes 159–60 Régulation Theory, wealth
 accumulation versus power accumulation 127
- Glyn, A. 67, 296
- Godley, W. 292
- Gottschalk, P. 235
- Greece
 fiscal austerity 196 fiscal crisis see under global economic crisis and the future
 of labor market policy regimes,
 Eurozone fiscal crisis
- growth regimes see economic growth regimes
- Haas, P. 393
- Haggard, S. 224, 228
- Hall, P. 13, 44, 45, 70, 138, 147, 337, 338, 390
- Hausmann, R. 133
- Hays, J. 235
- Heclo, H. 390
- hedge fund crashes 291, 292, 303–5
see also banking reform
- Hein, E. 102
- Hoang-Ngoc, L. 186
- Hoberg, G. 394
- Hobson, J. 219
- Holzinger, K. 394
- Hoshi, T. 244, 246
- housing policy, US 285, 292, 293, 296, 302–3
- Howlett, M. 370
- human and social capital, future investment in, Italy 368–71
- ICT see information and communications technology (ICT)
- Ido, Masanobu 240–62
- Ikenberry, J. 390
- Ikeo, K. 242
- Im, Hyug Baeg 217–39
- IMF programs, implementation of,
 South Korea 226–7, 229–30, 231
- income distribution, post-Keynesian analysis 105–7, 116–17, 119
- income group polarization, South Korea 233, 234–5
- income inequality 361–3, 368, 372, 377–8
see also inequalities; wages policy;
 welfare policy
- India 5, 52, 82, 93, 158, 286, 288
- inequalities deregulation, wage earner exclusion and finance-led regime 1986–2008, Régulation Theory
 155–6 economic and social, creation of 286–7
 Eurozone, and fiscal austerity measures 8–9
 income inequality 361–3, 368, 372, 377–8
 Japan 167
 labor market, Italy 372–3, 374–7 social, creation of 286–7 social exclusion issues 48–9 social, long-term, Italy 358–9 social, and mobility, US 306–7 social, and welfare, Régulation Theory 165–7 and urban exclusion, France 167
- inflation
 Kansas City/Pasinetti/Smithin rules 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 115, 117, 118–19, 120
 post-Keynesian analysis 105–7, 116–17, 119
see also stagflation problems
- information and communications technology (ICT)
 ICT revolution 287, 288, 294 industry investment, South Korea 231, 235 innovations 68
- Ingram, H. 390
- innovation
 economic policy innovation, Japan 250–53
 and ICT revolution 68

- innovative industrialist capitalist model 288
- new policy innovation, South Korea
 - see* South Korea, political
 - response to economic crisis, global economic crisis (2008) and new policy innovation
- policy innovation successes, Sweden (1930s) see Sweden, welfare
- policy evolution, policy innovation successes, 1930s
- policy regime see policy regimes, stability and change, policy regime innovation
- institutional reforms 66, 74, 88, 148–9
- interest groups 49, 179, 183
 - see also* lobbying
- interest rate policy rules 102, 109–11, 116–17
 - see also* economic growth headings
- Italy
 - austerity policies 1, 4, 13
 - bloc bourgeois* see bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison, Italy
 - economic growth, early 5–6
 - GDP levels 12
 - wage earner exclusion and collapse of Christian Democrats' hegemony 156–7
- Italy, democratic quality, policy choices and socioeconomic divides 357–84
 - democratic quality approach, individual life chances and policy regimes 359–60
 - economic crisis effects 358
 - economic growth, regressive redistributive effects 373–6
 - economic resources, changing distribution of 361–3
 - education investment 368–71
 - electoral results, structural reasons of recent 358–9
 - employment rates 364–5
 - future challenges 379
 - income inequality 361–3, 372
 - income inequality, geographical factors 363, 377–8
 - labor market and flex-insecurity 376–7
 - labor market flexibility and short-term contracts 374–5, 376
 - labor market inequalities 372–3, 374–7
 - media involvement 358
 - pension incomes 362, 365
 - personal income ascribable to public services 376
 - policy choices and reasons for lack of comparative progress 371–8
 - political scandals 358
 - pre-school care and education services 369
 - short-time work schemes and unemployment 358, 359, 374–5
 - social and human capital, future investment in 368–71
 - social inequalities, long-term 358–9
 - unemployment insurance 365, 376, 377
 - young voters, distinctive voting behavior 359
 - youth unemployment 370
- Italy, democratic quality, policy choices and socioeconomic divides, poverty levels
 - child poverty 369
 - equalizing effect of social protection transfers 366–7
 - and performance of social protection 363–8, 373
 - rate reduction due to social transfers 367–8
 - services, distributive effectiveness of 368, 375–6
- Jang, H. 225, 237
- Japan
 - austerity policies 1
 - de-democratization signs 167
 - debt-burdened growth (DBG) regime 102
 - democracy cleavages 395, 396
 - domestic democratization factors 166, 167
 - employment policies and unemployment 316
 - GDP levels 12
 - inequalities 167
 - labor market policy regimes and

- global economic crisis see global economic crisis and the future of labor market policy regimes, Japan
- land-industry cleavage 396
- macroeconomic management 152
- mesocorporatist capitalism 138–41
- neoliberal reforms 76, 399, 400
- owner-worker cleavage 397
- postal reform policy 251, 252, 399
- Japan, Democratic Party record and new policy regime 240–62
 - amakudari* (golden parachutes) practices, promise to eradicate 247–8
 - budget-screening process and budgetary constraints 252–3
 - child allowances 249, 251, 256–7
 - consumption tax legislation 257–8
 - consumption tax rise, debate over 254–6
 - defeat, and failure to create new alliance of social classes 258–9
 - economic policy goals, initial and new policy regime 247–8, 250
 - economic policy innovation 250–53
 - farming subsidies 251, 252, 257
 - farming votes, shift in favour of 248–9
 - financial orthodoxy, return to 253–9
 - full employment goal 243
 - Futenma military base relocation, failure of, and exit of SDP from coalition 253
 - global economic crisis effects and public debt 253–5
 - highway tolls 251, 256–7
 - landslide victory over Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) 248
 - New Growth Strategy and 2010 House of Councillors' election 253–7
 - origins and mergers 247
 - privatization plans of LDP, cancellation of 250, 252
 - Rengo labor federation, relationship with 249–50
 - SME Financing Facilitation Act and moratorium on debt repayments 251, 252
 - social class coalitions, realignment of 241, 247–50
 - social security reforms 249, 251–2, 256, 257–8
 - welfare support for single parents 251–2
- Japan, Democratic Party record and new policy regime, conservative policy regime of postwar Japan bubble economy (1980s) and economic stagnation 244, 398
- career bureaucrats and amakudari (golden parachutes) policy 243
- economic growth and industrial policy 242
- 'influence peddling' with farmers 248
- keiretsu* (shareholding system) 242, 244
- Keynesian policy regime 243, 244
- Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) rule and construction state 242–7
- logic of 242–4
- majoritarian electoral system, introduction of 246
- neoliberal policy regime transition 244–7
- organized workers and low wage levels 243
- political clientelism 243, 244
- privatization of public corporations 246
- social class coalition, support from, and subsidization of 242–3, 245–6
- welfare state, underdevelopment of 243–4
- Jenkins-Smith, H. 390
- Jessop, R. 314, 321
- Johnson, C. 242
- Jordana, J. 390
- Kahn, S. 75
- Kalyvas, S. 34, 40, 44, 45
- Kansas City inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 117, 118–19, 120
- Kashyap, A. 244, 246

- Kawamura, K. 249
 Keefer, P. 235
 Keynesian economic policy 2, 33, 34, 37, 40, 71–2, 97–8
 budget deficits 62, 64
 France, 1970s and 1980s 184, 186, 187 and institutionalization 149 Japan, Democratic Party record and new policy regime 243, 244 post-Keynesian analysis of economic growth regimes see economic growth regimes and policies,
 post-Keynesian analysis
 post-Keynesianism and investment
 analysis 130
 South Korea, neoliberal policy regime 231–3
 Sweden 41–4, 47, 51 Sweden, criticism of (1950s and 1960s) 342–3, 347, 348, 349 theory, decline of 287–8
 UK 44–5, 51
 Kiewiet, D. 264
 Kim, B. 219, 222, 223, 224, 226, 228, 229, 230, 231
 Kinder, D. 264
 Kindleberger, C. 292
 Kitschelt, H. 180
 Knack, S. 235
 Knill, C. 390, 394
 Konkzal, M. 304
 Korea see South Korea
 Kramarz, F. 209
 Krasner, S. 387
 Kregel, J. 292
 Krugman, P. 50–51, 222
- labor market see employment
 Ladd, E. 298
 Latin America 5, 7, 158
 Brazil 3–4, 11, 12, 13, 69, 75, 93, 129, 288
 Lawson, T. 308
 Le Galès, P. 155
 Lee, D. 233, 236
 Lee, J. 221
 Lee, K. 229
 Levi-Faur, D. 390, 393
 Lewis-Beck, M. 264, 265, 267
- liberalism and developmentalism, alternating between 58–60, 65, 71, 75 liberal capitalism, Régulation Theory 163–4, 167–9
 Liberal Democratic Party (LDP),
 Japan, 242–7
 and multilevel policy regimes 387, 388, 390–91
 social liberalism 161–2, 163–5
 social liberalism, OECD 171–2 see also neoliberal policy regime;
 neoliberal years of capitalism,
 hegemony constraints liberalization 127, 219, 220
 Lippi, A. 378
 Lipset, S. 395
 lobbying coalition of financial interests 294–6, 308–9
 and Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) 299–300
 interest groups 49, 179, 183 legislation, for or against 298–9 Obama's record in financial regulation and crisis management, US 302–3, 308–9 regulation weaknesses and power of 292–5
 and rising cost of politics, US (pressure politics) 296–300 shadow finance and deregulation 299–300
 Lockwood, D. 379
 Lordon, F. 40, 213
 Lowery, D. 297
 Lowi, T. 307 loyalty voting, UK, 274–6 luck, effect of 40–41, 44–5, 341 Luhmann, N. 127, 160
- Maclachlan, P. 246
 McMillan, M. 7–8
 Madama, I. 378, 380
 Magara, Hideko 1–29
 Malhotra, N. 393
 Margalit, Y. 393
 Marglin, S. 101, 131 market-driven capitalism 287–92, 301–2

- Régulation Theory, capitalism varieties with distinct regulation modes 138, 139–40, 142, 143–4, 150–52
see also competitiveness
- Marsh, D. 389, 390, 391, 395
- Martinelli, Alberto 283–313
- Maureira, S. 67
- Mayhew, D. 306
- Meager, N. 322
- media control 66, 160, 161, 165, 341, 358
- Meseguer, C. 389, 390–91
- mesocorporatist capitalism 138–41, 142, 143–4, 150–52
- Meulders, D. 323
- Migliavacca, M. 362–3
- Miyamoto, T. 256, 342, 343, 352
- Mo, J. 229
- Moene, K. 37, 343
- Moffitt, R. 235
- Moller, G. 43, 339–40
- monetary policies 44–5, 102, 109–11, 116–19, 293–4, 350
see also economic growth headings
- Montagne, S. 155
- Moon, C. 229
- Moore, B. 102
- Morlino, L. 359, 360
- Morris, C. 285
- multilevel policy regimes, and
 horizontal and vertical transfers 385–403
 conservative policy regime 387, 388 democracy cleavages, evaluation of 395–7, 398 democracy cleavages, Japan 395, 396 globalization and internationalization effects 385–6, 393–4
 land-industry cleavage 396 liberal policy regime 387, 388 national policies and welfare (state)
 regimes 388–9
 neoliberal international policy regime, impact of 397–9 neoliberal policy regimes and party system change 392–3, 397–401 neoliberal policy regimes, subnational regions, vertical policy transfer to and from 400–401
 owner-worker cleavage, Asia, ideological basis 396–7 owner-worker cleavage, Nordic countries (social democracy) 396 partisan control 387–8 and party systems 385–6, 399–401 policy regime definition 386–8, 389 ‘same policy’ regimes, incumbent and opposition parties 390–91 social democratic policy regime 387, 388 state-Church cleavage 396 multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers, policy convergence development pattern 394 and liberal policies 390–91 mechanisms 390–91 policy regime as final goal of policy convergence 393–5 processes 394 regional integration effects 394
 multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers, policy transfer 386–97 actors involved 394–5 compulsory 390 definition 389–90
 foundation of 389–92 and internal domestic policy pressures 394 lesson-drawing concept of voluntary transfer 391–2 and policy diffusion, difference between 389 structural 390 types 390
 voluntaristic 390, 391–2
- Myrdal, A. 340, 346
- Myrdal, G. 43, 338, 340–41, 342, 352
- Naastepad, C. 101
- Nadeau, R. 264, 265
- Naoi, M. 396
- national policies
 internal domestic policy pressures,

- and multilevel policy regimes 394
- national trajectories, possible divergence of 133
- sovereignty, erosion of 286, 294
- and welfare regimes 388–9
- see also* individual countries
- nationalization 34, 40, 44
- neoliberal policy regime
 - Fordist growth regime breakdown 88–9
 - global economic crisis, political analysis and crisis governance 288, 296
 - international 397–9
 - market reliance policies, flaws in 50
 - new issues under 3–10
 - Obama's record in financial regulation and crisis management, US 302
 - and party system change 392–3, 397–401
 - reforms before financial crisis 320–22
 - reforms and flexicurity programme, France 188
 - rupture, failure of, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 187–94
 - social exclusion issues 48–9
 - South Korea see South Korea, political response to economic crisis, neoliberal policy regime
 - structural reforms and employment uncertainty, Japan 322
 - subnational regions 400–401
 - sustainability, South Korea 232–3
 - transition, Japan 244–7
 - and UK 44–7
 - wage and productivity levels 6–8, 11
 - welfare policy evolution, Sweden see Sweden, welfare policy evolution, economic stagnation and neoliberalism (1970s and 1980s)
 - see also* liberalism
- neoliberal years of capitalism,
 - hegemony constraints 56–78
 - achieving hegemony 64–7
 - authoritarian regime contrast 63
 - balanced budget constraint 62
 - class coalition development 64–5, 66–71
 - collective consumption, fairness of 70–71
 - constraint types 61–4
 - current account constraint 62, 72, 76
 - economic constraints 61, 62–3, 64, 65–6, 67, 72–3
 - economic liberalism and developmentalism, alternating between 58–60, 65, 71, 75
 - European model and national solidarity 69–70
 - Eurozone crisis 76
 - financial crises, effects of 65–6, 72–3, 76
 - financial deregulation effects 68, 69, 71, 72, 76
 - fiscal policy 62, 64, 65–6, 76
 - flexsecurity 68, 74
 - future alternatives 74–5
 - globalization and competition 68–9, 76–7
 - hegemony constraints 61, 63–4, 67–71, 72
 - innovations and ICT revolution 68
 - institutional reforms 66, 74
 - media control, importance of 66
 - middle-income countries, national development strategies 76–7
 - new developmentalism 75–6
 - policy regimes 57–8, 66–7
 - policy regimes, creation of new 75
 - political constraints 61, 63, 64, 65, 72, 73
 - privatization of monopolies 68
 - profit constraint 62–3, 64, 65, 68
 - rentier–financier class coalition and unregulated capitalism 60, 68, 71
 - in rich countries 67–71, 76
 - social construction since capitalist revolution 58–61
 - social democratic policy regime 59–60, 65, 66–7, 69–70, 71–3
 - taxation reduction 69–70, 73
 - welfare state growth, effects of 68
 - welfare state resilience 70–71, 75, 76

- new social democracy (NSD) 162–3, 164, 165, 167–9
see also social democratic policies
- Nishi, Hiroshi 101–23
- Nordic countries see Scandinavia
- Norway, EU membership rejection 398–9, 400
- OECD
full employment goal 34
neoliberal structural reforms 316
social liberalism 171–2
social welfare systems and economic growth 235
- Ogawa, M. 167
- Ohlin, B. 35
- Okazawa, N. 344
- Olivennes, D. 186
- Olsen, G. 347, 348
- Onaran, O. 101
- one-best-way belief, criticism of 142–5
- Ono, K. 249
- Palombarini, Stefano 156, 157, 177–216
- participative democracy 161
- Pasinetti inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 115, 117, 118, 119, 120
- patrimony economic voting and property ownership 265, 266, 267, 269, 270–71, 272, 273
- Paulson, H. 285
- Pavolini, E. 369, 378
- Pempel, T. 243, 245
- pension reform 210, 211, 343–4, 348, 362, 365
see also welfare policy
- Perotti, R. 235
- Phillips, K. 297, 298
- Pierson, P. 337
- Pisano, E. 363
- Plama, J. 285
- Polanyi, K. 75, 127, 137
- policy regimes
convergence, multilevel policy regimes see multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers, policy convergence creation of new 75 growth regimes and economic crises 80, 97–8 institutional forms, need for new 1–2, 13–14 mediation and interest groups, bloc bourgeois, Italy 179, 183 mistakes and predictive errors of regulatory authorities 293 multilevel see multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers need for new 10–14 overview 1–3
post-Keynesian analysis 116–20
Régulation Theory see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies social alliance, new 10–12 stability and change 36–7, 47 synchronization across countries 288 welfare and economic growth policies 11, 13
see also individual policy regimes policy regimes, stability and change 33–55 capital account and redistribution changes 46 cross-party convergence and policy success 35–7 deviations, reasons for 37–8 economic crisis, current understanding of 48–9 financial institutions, need for regulation of 51
full employment goal 51
international economic arrangements 35 monetarism 44–5 nationalization 34, 40, 44 ownership forms 34 privatization 40, 44, 45
protest groups 49
'same policy' regime, incumbent and opposition parties 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 390–91
social exclusion issues 48–9 social welfare policies 35
Sweden and Keynesianism 41–4, 47
UK and neoliberalism 44–7, 58

- unemployment, coping mechanisms 34, 45, 49, 51
- unemployment, productive employment system 42–3
- policy regimes, stability and change, policy regime innovation
 - current prospects 48–52
 - current prospects and lack of ideas 51
 - economic crises effects 39
 - election success probabilities 38–40, 49–50
 - and luck 40–41, 44–5
- policy transfer, multilevel policy regimes see multilevel policy regimes, and horizontal and vertical transfers, policy transfer
- political analysis, global economic crisis see global economic crisis, political analysis and crisis governance
- political clientelism, Japan 243, 244
- political constraints, neoliberal years of capitalism 61, 63, 64, 65, 72, 73
- political intermediation, significance of 157–8, 160
- political landscape differences, bloc bourgeois see bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison, political landscape differences
- political response to economic crisis, South Korea see South Korea, political response to economic crisis
- political scandals, Italy 358
- population issues and welfare policy changes, Sweden (1930s) 338–9, 340–41
- populist neoliberalism, South Korea 231
- positional economic voting, UK 265, 266, 267, 269, 270–71, 272–3, 274
- poverty
 - Italy see Italy, democratic quality, policy choices and socioeconomic divides, poverty levels
 - and social exclusion, bloc bourgeois France/Italy comparison 199–200
- pressure politics, US 296–300
 - see also* lobbying
- privatization 34, 40, 44, 45, 68, 246, 250, 252, 285
 - see also* deregulation
- profit constraint, neoliberal years of capitalism 62–3, 64, 65, 68
- Przeworski, Adam 2, 10, 13–14, 33–55, 57, 80, 97–8, 102, 120, 158, 186, 217, 218, 240, 285, 315, 338, 341, 386–8
- Radelet, S. 222
- Rajan, R. 289
- Ranci, C. 362–3
- Rangone, M. 190
- Read, C. 285
- recession, anti-recession plan, Italy 188–91
- Régulation Theory concepts 84, 86, 88, 90
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies 124–73
 - media control 160, 161, 165
 - national trajectories, possible divergence of 132–3
 - political foundations for viability of a self-interest economy 131–2
 - political foundations for viability of a self-interest economy, surveillance authorities, need for 131
 - rentier economies 133
 - state interventions 133
 - wealth accumulation versus power accumulation, pure tinkering and chance (virtù e fortuna) 130
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, capitalism varieties with distinct regulation modes 137–45
- capitalism, synthetic definition 137–8
- hybridization processes 142
- intrinsic diversity of power configurations and capitalisms 138–41
- market-led capitalism 138, 139–40, 142, 143–4, 150–52

- mesocorporatist capitalism 138–41, 142, 143–4, 150–52
- one-best-way belief, criticism of 142–5
- performance index choice 142
- social democratic capitalism 139–40, 141, 142–5, 151, 152
- state-led capitalism 139–40, 141, 143–4, 151, 152
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, current financial crisis, strategies for overcoming 161–5
 - liberal capitalism 163–4, 167–9
 - new social democracy (NSD) 162–3, 164, 165
 - social liberalism 161–2, 163–5
 - unemployment benefit strategies 164
 - workfare regimes and Danish flex-security 163–4, 165–7
 - workfare regimes and training 164
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, democracy as political regime, critique of 133–7
 - country specificity 137
 - definition 135–6
 - democratization paths 124
 - democratization/de-democratization outcome 136–7
 - social democracy 135–6
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, economic policy regimes 145–52
 - accumulation regimes 145–7, 148
 - dominant regimes across brands of capitalism 150–52
 - economy–polity relationship in contemporary societies 124–6, 128–9
 - full employment goal 149, 152 and institutional architecture 148–9
 - macroeconomic management 152
 - reform strategies 147–50
 - reform strategies, substitution of historical time 148
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, future of democracy and capitalism 165–9
 - de-democratization signs 167, 169
 - democracy, factors shaping (Tilly) 165–7
 - new social democracy and political democratic rights 167–9
 - social inequality and welfare 165–7
 - trust networks, integration into public politics 165
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, socioeconomic groups, incorporation into political processes to stabilize long term growth 152–61
 - collective bargaining 155, 160
 - democratization of new societies, effects of 158
 - democratization process and citizen disenchantment 158–61
 - deregulation, wage earner exclusion and finance-led regime 1986–2008 155–6
 - division of labor and collective bargaining power reduction 160
 - division of labor and individualization of competences 160
 - electoral promises, outcome failures 159
 - Fordist compromise 153, 154
 - globalization effects 159–60
 - manager–wage earner alliances and growth regime 1945–66 153
 - participative democracy, proposed development of 161
 - political intermediation, significance of 157–8, 160
 - wage earner exclusion and collapse of Christian Democrats' hegemony in Italy 156–7
 - wage earner to consumer transition, deregulation and conservative backlash 1967–85 153–5
- Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, wealth accumulation versus power accumulation 126–30
 - authoritarian regimes 129, 137, 157–8
 - compatibility within viable socioeconomic configurations 127–30

- economic and political factors in political economy 126–7 flex-security model 129 labor–capital bargaining 129 liberalization and globalization factors 127 mutual compatibility of economic and political processes, and learning by interaction 130 post-Keynesianism and investment analysis 130
 regulation weaknesses and power of lobbying 292–5
 Reich, R. 296, 297, 298–9
 rentier economies 60, 68, 71, 133
 research methods, mathematicaldeductive research, need for change from 308 retrospective voting, UK 278 risk-management techniques, lack of understanding of 290, 291, 292, 295–6
 Rochon, R.-P. 102, 104, 107
 Rodrik, D. 3, 7–8, 235
 Roemer, J. 36
 Rokkan, S. 395, 396, 401
 Roncaglia, A. 285
 Rosanvallon, P. 161
 Rose, R. 389, 390
 Rothstein, B. 352
 Rubin, G. 304
 Russia 94, 158, 165, 288
- Sabatier, P. 390
 Sacchi, Stefano 214, 357–84
 Sachs, J. 186, 222
 Saillard, Y. 133
 ‘same policy’ regime, incumbent and opposition parties 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 390–91
see also policy regimes, stability and change
 Samuelson, P. 235
 Sánchez-Cuenca, I. 67, 73
 Santiso, J. 158
 Sasaki, H. 102
 Sauger, N. 206
 Scandinavia
 democracy cleavages, owner-worker cleavage and social democracy 396 democratic cleavages 398–9 social democratic model see under social democratic policies
 wage and productivity levels 11
see also individual countries
 Scharpf, F. 234
 Scheiner, E. 243
 Scheve, K. 235
 Schimmelfennig, F. 393
 Schlozman, K. 298
 Schmidt, S. 235
 Schmitter, P. 8, 9–10, 70, 161
 Schneider, A. 390
 Schoder, C. 102
 Schumpeterian workfare post-national regime (SWPR) regime 321, 327 see also workfare regimes
 Schwartz, A. 325
 Sedelmeier, U. 393 self-interest economy 131–2 Setterfield, M. 102, 104, 107 shadow finance 295–6, 299–300 Shaw, M. 294
 Shin, G. 233
 Shiota, U. 254
 Shipan, C. 390, 401
 Shiratori, Hiroshi 385–403
 Simmons, B. 390, 393
 Sinclair, T. 393
 Slaughter, M. 235
 SME Financing Facilitation Act, Japan
 251, 252
 Smithin inflation rule 102, 110, 112, 113–14, 115, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121
 Snyder, J. 297
 social base changes, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 203–4
 social class coalitions, Japan 241, 242–3, 245–6, 247–50 social compensationist policy innovations, South Korea 234–5, 236 social construction since capitalist revolution 58–61
 social democratic policies 33, 50 multilevel policy regimes 387, 388
 neoliberal years of capitalism,

- hegemony constraints 59–60, 65, 66–7, 69–70
- new social democracy (NSD) 162–3, 164, 165, 167–9
- Nordic countries, democracy cleavages 396
- Northern Europe model 321
- Régulation Theory 135–6, 139–40, 141, 142–5, 151, 152
- Social Democratic Workers' Party (SAP), Sweden see Sweden, welfare policy evolution, Social Democratic Workers' Party (SAP)
- Sweden and Keynesianism 41–4
- social and human capital, future investment in, Italy 368–71
- social inequalities see inequalities; welfare policy
- social liberalism 161–2, 163–5, 171–2
 - see also* liberalism
- social security reforms
 - Japan 249, 251–2, 256, 257–8
 - see also* welfare policy
- socio-economic divides, Italy see Italy, democratic quality, policy choices and socioeconomic divides
- socio-economic groups, incorporation into political processes see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, socioeconomic groups, incorporation into political processes to stabilize long term growth
- socio-political alliances, end of
 - dominant, bloc bourgeois, France/ Italy comparison 181–4
- Solari, S. 190
- Song, J. 225
- Soros, G. 285
- Soskice, D. 70, 138, 147
- South Korea
 - macroeconomic management 152
 - mesocorporatist capitalism 138–41
 - policy regime changes 37–8
- South Korea, political response to economic crisis 217–39
 - South Korea, political response to economic crisis, developmental state policy regime 217–20
 - authoritarian government of Chun Doo Hwan and liberalization policies 219, 220
 - chaebol (business conglomerate) creation 219, 220, 222, 223, 228–9
 - democratic governments, continuity under 220–21, 223–4
 - disciplinary rule 219
 - electoral democracy and chaebol power 223
 - export-oriented strategy 219
 - financial markets and chaebol power 223
 - globalization and 1997 financial crisis 221–4, 228–9
 - globalization and 1997 financial crisis, triggers 222–3
 - innovations by Park Chung Hee and Korean miracle 218–19, 224, 233
 - labor strikes 221, 223
 - policy regime choices 217–18
 - stability of 220
 - and union movements 223
 - wage repression, end of 223
- South Korea, political response to economic crisis, global economic crisis (2008) and new policy innovation 232–5
 - 'business-friendly' policies and social polarization 232–5
 - class structure polarization 233
 - electoral test 233–4
 - employment polarization 233
 - income group polarization 233, 234–5
 - social compensationist policy innovations of Park Geun Hye Government 234–5, 236
- South Korea, political response to economic crisis, neoliberal policy regime and Kim Dae Jung government 224–31
 - activist state and effective economic bureaucracy 230–31
 - corporate governance (chaebol)

- reforms, Five Plus Three Principles 225
- corporate governance (chaebol)
 - reforms, transparency and accountability improvements 225, 229, 230
- democratic success 228
- external pressures 229–30
- financial institutions, supervisory reforms 226
- flexible labor market reform 226–8
- foreign direct investment 225, 231, 235
- ideological hegemony 228–9
- IMF programs, implementation of 226–7, 229–30, 231
- mergers and Commercial Code 225
- pactismo* (social pact) to transform labor market 227–8
- policy innovations 225–8
- success, reasons for 228–31
- Tripartite Commission 227
- South Korea, political response to
 - economic crisis, neoliberal policy regime, stability despite power alternation 231–3
 - bilateral free trade agreements 231
 - IT industry investment 231, 235
 - Keynesian neoliberalism and Lee Myung Bak 231–3
 - populist neoliberalism and Roh Moo Hyun 231
 - sustainability of 232–3
- Spain
 - child poverty 369
 - education services 369, 371
 - employment rates 364, 365
 - equalizing effect of social protection transfers 366
 - fiscal austerity 196
 - income inequality 361, 363, 368
 - poverty rate reduction due to social transfers 367, 368
 - poverty risk 364
 - services, distributive effectiveness in reducing income inequality 368
 - unemployment insurance 365
- stagflation problems 287–8
 - see also* inflation
- state-led capitalism 139–40, 141, 143–4, 151, 152
- Stegmaier, M. 264, 267
- Steinmo, S. 244
- Stevenson, R. 264, 267, 268
- Stiglitz, J. 37, 51, 284, 320, 325
- Stockhammer, E. 101
- Stokes, S. 36–7
- Stolper, W. 235
- Stone, D. 389–90, 393
- Storm, O. 101
- structural crises and changes of growth regimes 80–86
- supra-class strategy, bloc bourgeois, France 186–7
- Swank, D. 390, 393
- Sweden, and Keynesianism 41–4, 47, 51
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution
 - 337–56
 - ‘idea’ theory 337–8
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution, affluent society, strategic ideas in 1950s and 1960s 341–5
 - full employment goal 343, 345, 351–2
 - media involvement 341
- Rehn-Meidner model, establishment of, and criticism of Keynesian economic policy 37, 342–3, 347, 348, 349
- Society of Free Choice* program and ‘strong society’ 345
- solidaristic wage policy (equal pay for equal work) 342–3, 349
- supplementary pension system (ATP), dispute over introduction of 343–4, 348 and universalism 342, 344, 345
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution, economic stagnation and neoliberalism (1970s and 1980s) 346–9
 - bourgeois political bloc and nuclear power problem 348
- Co-determination Act 1947
- government changes 347–9
- industrial democracy legislation 347
- Third Way policies, krona

- devaluation and financial deregulation 348–9
- Towards Equality* report and universalism 346–7
- wage-earner funds proposal 347
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution,
 - policy innovation successes, 1930s 338–41
 - and devaluation of krona 341
 - domestic social crisis and fertility rate decline 338–9, 340
 - luck, influence of 341
 - mass media publications and wireless broadcasting, effects of 341
 - population issues and welfare policy changes 340–41
 - Stockholm School 340
 - and universalism 340, 341
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution,
 - Social Democratic Workers' Party (SAP) 337, 338, 339–40
 - election loss (1982) and re-elections 347, 348–9, 350
 - Politics of Progress* program 344
 - single-party government, change to (1945) and partnership with white-collar workers 342
- Sweden, welfare policy evolution,
 - welfare policy ideas after 1990s 349–52
 - Ädel* reform 350, 351
 - bourgeois parties assume power 350, 352
 - decentralization and activation 351–2
 - EU participation 350, 398–9
 - financial reconstruction, policy convergence toward 350–51
 - floating exchange rate system and depreciation of krona 350
 - full employment policy, retention of 351–2
 - tax reforms 350, 351
 - unemployment and bursting of economic bubble 349
- systemic crisis 284–7
- Tachibanaki, T. 167
- Taub, S. 305
- taxation
 - changes, bloc bourgeois, France 197–8, 205, 206–7
 - consumption tax legislation, Japan 254–8
 - corporation tax and investment rate, link between 234
 - earth carbon tax, recommendation of 331
 - effective demand and tax system 107–9, 116–17
 - global tax on international currency trades, recommendation of 331
 - reduction, neoliberal years of capitalism 69–70, 73
 - reforms, Sweden 350, 351
 - tax system effects, post-Keynesian analysis 104, 107–9, 116–17
- Taylor, L. 102
- Taylorism 88, 129
- Thelen, K. 70, 165
- Théret, B. 126, 128
- Third Way policies 240, 254, 348–9, 351–2
- Tiberghien, Y. 230
- Tierney, J. 298
- Tillman, E. 269
- Tilly, C. 133, 135, 137, 147, 160, 165–7, 169
- Tilton, T. 43, 339, 343, 345
- Timonen, V. 352, 353
- Tingsten, H. 37, 42, 43
- trade unions
 - collective bargaining 87, 88, 155, 160
 - and flexicurity, France 207–9
 - and labor market reform, bloc bourgeois, France/Italy comparison 203
 - South Korea 223
 - see also* employment; wages policy
- Trechesel, A. 161
- Tsunekawa, K. 243
- UK
 - capital account and redistribution changes 46
 - child poverty 369
 - domestic democratization factors 166
 - education services 369, 371

- employment rates 364, 365
- equalizing effect of social protection transfers 366, 367
- income inequality 361, 363, 368
- Keynesian consensus 44–5
- market-led capitalism 138
- monetarism and Thatcher 44–5
- nationalization programme 44
- nationalization programme and oil crisis 44
- and neoliberalism 44–7, 58, 397
- North Sea oil revenues 45
- personal income ascribable to public services 376
- poverty rate reduction due to social transfers 367, 368
- poverty risk 364
- privatization 40, 44, 45
- services, distributive effectiveness in reducing income inequality 368
- unemployment insurance 365
- unemployment and trade union movement 45
- UK, general election voting behavior analysis (2010) 263–79
 - abstentions 269, 270–71, 273, 274, 276
 - economic crisis effects 265, 266, 267–8, 269, 270–71, 272–3, 274–7
 - economic voting dimensions 264–5
 - financial crisis as cause of government turnover 274–7
 - five-option vote choice 272–4
 - leadership change in Labour Party, effects of 277, 278
 - loyalty voting 274–6
 - patrimony economic voting and property ownership 265, 266, 267, 269, 270–71, 272, 273
 - positional economic voting 265, 266, 267, 269, 270–71, 272–3, 274
 - research data 266–8
 - research models and estimates 268–74
 - retrospective voting 278
 - trichotomous vote choice 269–72
 - valence issue of economic voting 264–5, 266–7, 268, 269, 270–71, 272–3, 274, 275–6
- unemployment
 - benefit strategies, Régulation Theory 164
 - coping mechanisms 34, 45, 49, 51
 - female employment shortage, Japan 329–31
 - insurance, Italy 365, 376, 377
 - productive employment system 42–3
 - short-time work schemes, Italy 358, 359, 374–5
 - welfare policy evolution, Sweden 349
 - workfare regimes 163–4, 165–7
 - youth unemployment, Italy 370
 - see also* employment; welfare policy
- universalism, Sweden 340, 341, 342, 344, 345
- US
 - American Recovery and Reinvestment Act 301, 302, 305
 - de-democratization signs 167
 - Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act 303–5, 309
 - domestic democratization factors 166, 167
 - finance-led growth regime 89–91
 - Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission* 301–2
 - Fordist growth regime and productivity gains 87–9
 - Fraud Enforcement and Recovery Act 301
 - Glass-Steagall Act 299
 - Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Services Modernization Act 299–300
 - housing bubble 285, 292, 293, 296
 - income inequality 361, 363
 - Industrial Military Complex 129
 - lobbying and pressure politics 296–300
 - macroeconomic management 152
 - market-led capitalism 138
 - Obama administration and opportunities for change 51–2
 - Obama's record in financial regulation and crisis management see global economic crisis, political analysis and crisis governance,

- Obama's record in financial regulation and crisis management, US
- Volcker rule/Merkley-Levin Provisions 305
- welfare privatization 155
- valence issue of economic voting, UK 268, 269, 270–71, 272–3, 274, 275–6
- Vandenbroucke, F. 368–9, 381
- Vavreck, L. 264
- Vecchi, G. 373
- Veneroso, F. 222
- Verba, S. 345, 348
- virtual economy, predominance of 289–90
- Volden, C. 390, 401
- voting behavior see elections
- Wade, R. 221, 222
- wages policy collective bargaining 87, 88, 155, 160
disparities between regular and non-regular employees, Japan 327, 328, 330
income inequality 361–3, 368, 372, 377–8
manager–wage earner alliances and growth regime 1945–66 153 solidaristic wage policy (equal pay for equal work), Sweden 342–3, 349 wage earner exclusion, Italy 156–7 wage earner to consumer transition, deregulation and conservative backlash 1967–85 153–5 wage repression, end of, South Korea 223 wage-earner funds proposal, Sweden 347 see also employment; trade unions
- Wallerstein, I. 36, 37, 94, 95, 343
- Ward, M. 393
- Watanabe, H. 344
- wealth accumulation, versus power accumulation see Régulation Theory, policy regimes and reform strategies, wealth accumulation versus power accumulation
- Weiss, L. 219
- welfare policy
child allowances, Japan 249, 251, 256–7
income inequality 361–3, 368, 372, 377–8 national jurisdiction, labor market reforms 321
neoliberal years of capitalism 68, 70–71, 75, 76 single parent support, Japan 251–2 social security reforms, Japan 249, 251–2, 256, 257–8 Sweden see Sweden, welfare policy evolution underdevelopment of, Japan 243–4 welfare systems, long-term sustainability concerns 314 see also inequalities; pension reform; unemployment
- Wells, R. 50–51
- Westphal, L. 38
- Weyland, K. 390
- Wilkin, L. 323
- Withangen, T. 322, 324
- Woods, T. 285
- workfare regimes 163–4, 165–7, 321, 327
see also employment; unemployment
- Wray, R. 121
- Wyplosz, C. 186
- Yamada, Toshio 79–100, 285
- Yamaguchi, J. 167
- Yanai, Yuki 263–79
- You, J.-I. 102
- young voters, distinctive voting behavior, Italy 359
- youth unemployment, Italy 370
- Yuasa, M. 250
- Zingales, L. 289