

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	x
List of abbreviations	xi
PART I INTRODUCTION
1 The global landscape of collective litigation Deborah R. Hensler	3
PART II CULTURE
2 The culture of collective litigation: A comparative analysis Byron Stier and Ianika Tzankova	23
3 Smoke signals from the south: The unanticipated effects of an 'unsuccessful' litigation on Brazil's anti-tobacco war Manuel A. Gómez	51
4 Using associations as a vehicle for class action: The case of Taiwan Kuo-Chang Huang	70
5 The promise and peril of media and culture: The Toyota unintended acceleration litigation and the Gulf Coast Claims Facility in the United States Byron Stier	93
6 Collective redress in Vie d'Or: A reflection on a European cultural phenomenon Ianika Tzankova	117
PART III ECONOMICS
7 Economic enablers Camille Cameron, Jasminka Kalajdzic and Alon Klement	137
8 A class action 'mash-up': In Re Royal Dutch/Shell Transport Securities Litigation Deborah R. Hensler	170

9	Litigation as ‘core business’: Analyzing the access to justice and regulatory dimensions of commercially funded class actions in Australia Camille Cameron	189
10	The class attorney—an agent without a principal: The Israeli case of Shemesh v. Reichart Alon Klement	212
11	The engine that drives: Fees, costs and the Canadian class action Jasminka Kalajdzic	232
PART IV POLITICS
12	The public dimension of private collective litigation: A comparative analysis Deborah R. Hensler and Elizabeth Thornburg	259
13	Litigation without end? The Deutsche Telekom case and the German approach to private enforcement of securities law Axel Halfmeier	279
14	The L&H case: Belgium’s internet bubble story Stefaan Voet	299
15	Parallel public and private responses: The Buncefield explosion Naomi Creutzfeldt and Christopher Hodges	320
16	Public as private and private as public: MTBE litigation in the United States Elizabeth Thornburg	342
17	Self-interested gatekeeping? Clashes between public and private enforcers in two Chilean class actions Agustin Barroilhet	362
PART V CONCLUSION
18	Class actions in context Deborah R. Hensler	387
	Index	411