
Contents

List of contributors	ix
1 Introduction	1
Jill Steans and Daniela Tepe-Belfrage
2 Still engaging from the margins?	5
J. Ann Tickner
PART I EXAMPLES OF APPROACHES AND METHODS
3 Gender as a variable in international relations research	15
Andrea den Boer
4 Feminist historical materialist and critical theory	24
Adrienne Roberts
5 Poststructuralist feminism in world politics	33
Maria Stern
6 Reworking postcolonial feminisms in the sites of IR	41
Anna M. Agathangelou and Heather M. Turcotte
7 Masculinities in international relations	50
Paul Kirby
8 Sex, gender and sexuality	58
Terrell Carver
9 Feminist methodologies and world politics	66
Annick T.R. Wibben
PART II THE POLITICS OF IDENTITY AND BELONGING
10 The gendered state in international relations	77
Johanna Kantola
11 Gender and citizenship	85
Jeff Hearn and Alp Biricik
12 Gender and democratization	94
Jane S. Jaquette
13 Is identity politics compatible with the pursuit of global justice?	103
Kirsty Alexander and Catherine Eschle

14	Transnational feminist politics: a concept that has outlived its usefulness? Bice Maiguashca	110
15	Is transnational feminist solidarity possible? Swati Parashar	118
16	Gender, protest and political transition in the Middle East and North Africa Nadje Al-Ali and Nicola Pratt	127

PART III INTERNATIONAL LAW

17	Gender and international law Hilary Charlesworth	137
18	The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women Christine Chinkin	145
19	LGBTI rights: the international context Toni A.M. Johnson	153
20	International criminal courts Doris Buss	162
21	“With all the respect due to their sex”: gender and international humanitarian law Helen M. Kinsella	171
22	Refugees and asylum Jane Freedman	179
23	NGOs, feminist activism and human rights Jutta Joachim	187

PART IV GENDERED VIOLENCE

24	The gender of violence in war and conflict Laura Sjoberg	197
25	Conflict-related sexual violence Paula Drumond	206
26	Female suicide bombing Claudia Brunner	215

PART V PEACE AND SECURITY

27	Gender and security Jenny Russell and Valerie M. Hudson	225
28	Gender difference in attitudes towards global issues Richard C. Eichenberg and Blair M. Read	234

29	Economic sanctions and women's status in target countries A. Cooper Drury and Dursun Peksen	245
30	The securitisation of human rights Katherine E. Brown	255
31	Feminist security studies Laura J. Shepherd	263
32	The Women, Peace and Security resolutions: UNSCR 1325 to 2122 Laura McLeod	271
33	Peacekeeping Carol Harrington	280
34	Solving the problem of men and masculinities in the private military and security industry Paul Higate	289
35	Gender, peace activism and anti-militarisation Ruth Jacobson	298

PART VI GLOBAL MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS

36	Gender and popular culture Christina Rowley	309
37	Cinema and film Cristina Masters	317
38	New media and communications Gillian Youngs	326
39	Computer games and the reinforcement of gender gaps Varun Pande, Theo P. van der Weide and Rekha Pande	333

PART VII POLITICAL ECONOMY AND DEVELOPMENT

40	Feminist political economy Penny Griffin	345
41	Gender in global restructuring Anne Sisson Runyan	354
42	Gender and migration Eleonore Kofman	362
43	The global political economy of sex work Nicola Smith	370
44	Gender and development Zoe Pflaeger Young	378
45	Globalisation, development and the empowerment of women: the case of African traders Akosua K. Darkwah	386

- 46 Social reproduction – the Achilles heel of feminist transformation? 394
Shirin M. Rai and Catherine Hoskyns

PART VIII GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

- 47 Gender in international governance 405
Gülay Caglar, Elisabeth Prügl and Susanne Zwingel
- 48 What is feminist economics? 414
Drucilla K. Barker
- 49 The international financial institutions, structural adjustment
and poverty reduction 422
Arne Ruckert
- 50 Gender and microfinance/microcredit 430
Heloise Weber
- 51 The International Labour Organization and the gender of work 438
Eileen Boris and Susan Zimmermann
- 52 Gender and sustainable development 446
Emma A. Foster

PART IX CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS

- 53 How effective is gender mainstreaming in international peace and security policymaking? 457
Jacqui True
- 54 Conjoined, complex and ‘forgotten’ worlds: gender in world politics 467
Marysia Zalewski
- Index* 475