

Contents

List of contributors	vii
List of abbreviations	ix

PART I INTRODUCTION

1. Regional renewable energy approaches: An introduction to exploring legal barriers and opportunities Marjan Peeters and Thomas Schomerus	3
2. An EU law perspective on the role of regional authorities in the field of renewable energy Marjan Peeters and Thomas Schomerus	10

PART II SUPPORT MECHANISMS FOR RENEWABLE ENERGY

3. Trade law constraints to regional renewable energy support schemes Hartmut Kahl	35
4. Promotion of renewable energy sources by regions: The case of the Spanish autonomous communities Iñigo del Guayo Castiella	53
5. Transforming the German feed-in tariff system: Legal aspects from a regional perspective Henning Thomas	75
6. Stabilizing the grid with regional virtual power plants Moritz Meister	99

PART III PLANNING AND PERMITTING RENEWABLE ENERGY

7. Towards efficient administrative procedures for renewable energy projects? The Dutch experience with the Crisis and Recovery Act Kars de Graaf and Albert Marseille	123
8. One national wind power objective and 290 self-governing municipalities Gabriel Michanek	144

9. Subnational resistance against renewable energy: The case of Italy Stefano Fanetti and Barbara Pozzo	165
PART IV LOCAL (FINANCIAL) ENGAGEMENT
10. Regulatory financial obligations for promoting local acceptance of renewable energy projects Birgitte Egelund Olsen	189
11. Legal aspects of local engagement: Land planning and citizens' financial participation in wind energy projects Christian Maly	210
12. Local investment schemes for renewable energy: A financial perspective Lars Holstenkamp	232
13. Community wind and solar: Regional renewable energy in the United States Sanford Gaines	256
PART V CONCLUSION AND PROSPECT
14. Regional renewable energy: A string of legal and financial challenges Marjan Peeters and Thomas Schomerus	281
Index	317