

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Introduction Kalyani Robbins	ix
PART I MAJOR UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL STATUTES
1 Debunking revisionist understandings of environmental cooperative federalism: collective action responses to air pollution Robert L. Glicksman and Jessica A. Wentz	3
2 Dynamic federalism and the Clean Water Act: completing the task William L. Andreen	28
3 CERCLA, federalism, and common law claims Alexandra B. Klass and Emma Fazio	49
PART II REGULATION OF NATURAL RESOURCES
4 Fragmented forest federalism Blake Hudson	71
5 Coordinating the overlapping regulation of biodiversity and ecosystem management Kalyani Robbins	94
6 Evolving energy federalism: current allocations of authority and the need for inclusive governance Hannah J. Wiseman	114
PART III CLIMATE CHANGE AND FEDERALISM
7 Climate federalism, regulatory failure and reversal risks, and entrenching innovation incentives William W. Buzbee	145
8 The enigma of state climate change policy innovation Kirsten H. Engel	169

9	Cooperative federalism and adaptation Alice Kaswan	188
PART IV THEORIES OF DIFFUSE REGULATORY POWER
10	Reverse preemption in federal water law Ann E. Carlson	213
11	The cost of federalism: ecology, community, and the pragmatism of land use Keith H. Hirokawa and Jonathan Rosenbloom	243
PART V COMPARING INTERNATIONAL REGIMES
12	The Australian experience with environmental federalism: constitutional and political perspectives Robert Fowler	271
13	German environmental federalism in the multilevel system of the European Union Nathalie Behnke and Annegret Eppler	304
14	The paradox of environmental federalism in India Sairam Bhat	327
PART VI CONCLUDING THOUGHTS
15	Environmental federalism's tug of war within Erin Ryan	355
	Index	419