

---

Index

---

- absolute reward scheme 500
- absolute-win mechanism 489
- absorption of aid, limits 350, 355
- access to adequate sanitation 470
- access to improved water source 470
- accountability costs 557–8
- accountable tax systems, new philanthropy role 226
- accounting for institutional quality (FGLS estimator) 569
- Accra Agenda, 2008 458
- ADB and World Bank, differences 259–60
- ADB dominant shareholder, held by Japan and US 259–60
- advantage of research on sectoral aid patterns
  - donors' different motivations for giving 57
- adverse effects of aid
  - Dutch disease effect, governance effect 350
- Africa
  - development path for, negative growth, reasonable growth 336
  - wide disparity of electricity share from renewal source 472
- African countries, response of output to aid 9
- African Development Bank, ADB and IDB
  - multilateral aid institutions 20, 255, 261
- African Development Indicators (ADI) of the World Bank (1996–2010) 315
- AfT-related adjustment category trade liberalization 167
- aggregate aid and investment flows 45, 117
- agrarian exports of aid recipients 58, 287
- agrarian societies, low returns to education 417
- agricultural cargo preference (ACP) in USA
  - global secrecy jurisdictions 295
- agricultural manufacturing and service
  - larger Asian developing nations 165
- agricultural productivity, raising in China 112
- agricultural research, 'green revolution technologies' 297
- agricultural trade liberalization, price raising 11
- agriculture, lower share to favour education 422
- agriculture in GDP, lower tax ratios 571
- aid
  - effectiveness literature (AEL) results from 2009, upward kink 326–7
  - macroeconomic impact of 215–26
  - negligible effects of 345–6
  - one-quarter, no access to domestic economy 40
  - partial substitute for domestic saving 28
  - saving, and investment, relations between 28
- aid activities of China, no reports 110
- aid allocation 352–3
  - decision-making, comparative sectored approach 45–61
  - equation for country 103
  - not always for altruistic reasons 90
  - political and civil rights, infant mortality 99
  - principles for, reliance on quantitative criteria 26
  - two competing views 91
- aid allocation patterns
  - combination of altruistic, instrumental, technical 98, 104
  - economic interests on aid-partner countries 98
  - high 352–3
  - international security during Cold War period 98
  - promoting democracy and political stability 98
  - 'subordinating' countries' political power 98
  - to 'critical' countries, Iraq, Afghanistan, Jordan, Palestinian territories 102
- aid amounts, performance, income per capita, population 19
- aid and commerce mixing
  - standard among OECD-DAC donors 290
- aid and corruption in some African countries 7
  - an incentive problem 305–12
- aid and donor–recipient nexus, South East Asia and South Pacific Region 171
- aid and FDI study
  - Japan case of profit for donor country 288
- aid and microfinance 577–94
- aid and resource mobilization, literature review 29–31
- aid and reverse flows, global analysis 28–41
- aid and tax revenue International Monetary Fund (IMF)
  - Government Finance Statistics 13
- aid and taxation 555–73

- aid and trade, empirical analysis of
  - gravity model, Australia and New Zealand 174
- aid and trade, empirical evidence 180–84
- aid and trade models, specifications 168–74
- aid and trade relationship between OECD donors
  - and recipient countries 181–2
- aid and trade specification 168–70
- aid as a profitable use of taxpayers' money 285
- aid as prize for good trade policies 132
- aid as technical assistance, donor country interests 294
- aid buying inertia, dictators to buy political support 358
- aid categories
  - project aid, programme aid, technical assistance, food and other commodities 221
- 'aid causing trade' relationship 198
- aid channelled through government expenditure
  - increase in corruption 314
- aid channelled through private investment
  - decrease in corruption 314
- aid contributions to capital outflows (reverse flows) 28
- aid dependence level 354, 399
- aid dependence on policy, problems 218–19
- aid effectiveness 7, 8, 457–9
  - Africa 113–14
    - Bangladesh, development with governance challenges 429–53
    - countries with good policies 131
    - dependence on policy and environment of recipient countries 64
    - in developing countries, dependence on type of aid 163
    - influence of quality of institutions 357
    - for primary schools 422
    - quality measure 341
- aid effectiveness literature (AEL) 325–346, 350
  - analysis of the periods 327–35
  - problems and solutions 360–68
- aid effectiveness major barriers
  - absorptive capacity, Dutch disease, poor governance 10
- aid efforts concentration on fewer countries 483
- aid failure and Dutch disease 430
- aid failure to impact on secondary schooling 423
- aid flow patterns, potential donors and recipients 46
- aid flows 112–13, 118, 198, 224
  - developing countries, potential for increase in rate of economic growth 40
  - from China to Africa, self-interest in resource exploitation 113
  - unpredictability 222
- aid for consumption or investment 29, 40
- aid for education impact, aiding primary school gross enrolment 10, 415, 422
- aid for greener cities 2
- aid for health and education
  - funds for tuition in donor countries 7
- aid for HIV/AIDS prevention and awareness 58
- aid for primary secondary, tertiary schooling
  - aid and budget support data 415
- aid for strategic influence 12
- Aid for Trade (AFT)
  - categories, trade policies and regulations, economic infrastructure, communications 143, 146
  - effect, increasing recipient exports 145
  - helping recipient countries to upgrade and diversify exports 149, 156
  - initiative, major objective 142
  - productive capacity-building 167
  - variable of principal interest 150
- aid for trade 1990–2010
  - transportation, energy supply, telecommunication sectors 286
- aid for trade 1995–2012 147, 141–58, 184
  - case of Asia and Oceania nations 162–76
- aid for trade classification, targeted assistance 166–8
- aid for trade nexus
  - gravity model, Australia and New Zealand 174
- aid from China to Africa, motives behind 109
- aid from food agencies to increase 78
- aid from United States 45
- aid growth, policies and fragility 375–86
- aid heterogeneity, single figure unable to capture 221–3
- aid impact dependence on quality of governance 105
- aid ineffectiveness, reasons 430
- aid inflows, uncertainty of 223
- aid influence on firm growth 367
- aid in foreign grants and concessional loans 38
- aid institutions and growth 355–6
- aid linkages, need for 226
- aid literature focus, on aggregate outcomes 414
- aid losing through corruption, capital flight, bad governance 45, 180

- aid money to increase government consumption 220
- aid on bilateral trade links, between donors and recipients 5
- aid on economic aggregates, effect of 33–4
- aid on growth on industry or firm level 8–9
- aid on total exports of developing countries 179
- aid or investment from China rapid growth, geographic concentration, Africa 110
- aid ‘orphaning’ 102, 510–11
- ‘aid regime’ for middle power donors
Canada, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden 507
- aid replacement, by better access to trade 134–5
- aid sterilization 2
- aid tied to tariff reform 133–4
- aid to close foreign exchange gap 180
- aid to get favourable voting behaviour within United Nations Security Council and General Assembly 48
- aid to governments in aid-recipient countries 219
- aid to improve economic infrastructure 141
- aid use for debt servicing 2
- aid use for investment purposes 29
- aid use to displace saving 31
- aid used for foreign reserve accumulation aid variable, positive and significant 208
- aid volatility 222, 482 increase in trade balance volatility 225 reduction of aid effectiveness 6
- AidData database 58, 369, 458
- aid-demand factors, new countries sending migrants 102
- aid-growth empirics 376–9
- ‘aid-growth’ literature, key criticism 219
- aid-growth nexus restriction 217–18
- aid-growth relationships 9, 354
- aid-institutions relationship, seven variables 313, 316–17
- aid-partner countries, heterogeneity 105
- aid-policy-fragility interactions, dropping 380–81
- aid-receiving country
maximization of social preference function 29
- aid-reducing trade barrier, competition for 135–6
- aid-supply factors donors political interests, as immigrant-recipient countries 102
- aid-supported scholarship programmes young people from Asia, Africa, Latin America to rich countries 298
- aid-trade nexus 134, 162
- Akaike Information Criterion (AIC) 37
- all estimates with kernel curve showing the movements of the average 328
- allocation parallel through earmarked funds 24–5 capping for very large countries, Pakistan and India 23–4
- altruism and expressive behaviour 68, 137, 344
- Austria, Ireland, Switzerland, most Nordic countries 101
- altruistic donors, care about welfare of poor 78
- American HIV/AIDS aid, dramatic growth of 55
- Antilles, free-wheeling semi-sovereign jurisdiction commercial law in Dutch legal system 283
- ‘Antilles sandwich’, ‘Dutch sandwich’ legal gimmick under tax treaties with USA 283
- anti-terrorist and anti-drugs operations 478
- antitrust enforcement cooperation 287
- armed conflict, dampener of Chinese enthusiasm 123 strong deterrent to aid flows from, China to Africa 123
- ASEAN Free Trade Area (AFTA), trade bloc agreement 165
- Asian Development Bank (ADB) 6, 10, 20, 255, 430 agriculture and natural resources, major focus, 1980s 438–9 hard window (OCR) 259 modeled on World Bank, 1966 259–60 self-sufficiency in food, Bangladesh 438 soft window (ADF) 259
- Asian Development Fund (ADF) 21
- Asian financial crisis 1997, decline in trade financing 197
- Asia-Pacific countries, list donors, Australia and New Zealand 178
- Asia-Pacific developing nations, capacities assessment standards trade policy, regional integration, competitiveness 167
- Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) free trade and economic cooperation 165
- assistance to fragile states, main difficulty for PBA 23
- assistance to vulnerable populations 59
- Association of South East Asian Nations (ASEAN) 165
- auditing and financial services ‘big four’ firms 294

- Australia and New Zealand AfT to Asia-Pacific 162
- Australia and New Zealand Closer Economic Relations Trade Agreement (ANZCERTA) 166
- Australian response to budgetary changes 522–3
- autoregressive distributed lag (ARDL) models 343
- automated teller machine (ATM) use, financial inclusion 578
- average foreign aid for renewable energy per country for each region 469
- average foreign aid for waste disposal per country for each region 468
- average size of co-efficient for aid–output ratio 30
- average foreign aid for water supply and sanitation per country for each region 468
- Bangladesh
- ADB on need for stronger government commitment to transparency in governance 439
  - economic and social strides 429
  - environmental vulnerability to climate hazards 462
  - famines, natural disasters, political, social instability 434
  - food self-sufficiency 429
  - foreign assistance 430
  - one of poorest nations in world 429
  - short-term dynamic behaviour of capital flight from 31
- Bangladesh below global median in governance 444
- Bangladesh Climate Change Resilience Fund (BCCRF) 462
- Bangladesh Climate Change Trust Fund (BCCTF) 462
- Bangladesh experience, governance and corruption 10
- Bangladesh governance indicators (2002–12) 445
- Bangladeshi successes
- infant mortality, life expectancy, primary school enrolment, female enrolment in school, adult literacy 429
- Bankers' Association for Finance and Trade 197
- banking crises 199
- Algeria (1990), Tunisia (1998) 208
- banking crises, lists 203
- behavioral equation of PMG representation 36
- Belgian firms, new business linkages 289
- no benefits for wage earners 287
- benefit–cost ratio of aid projects 345
- benefits of aid-supported 'fairtrade' schemes 287
- benefits to donors through enhanced flows of rents 7
- bidirectional causality argument 233, 236
- bilateral aid (BAID) 181–6
- and trade relationship of European Union (EU) countries and developing countries, 1975–92 181
- bilateral aid disbursements from donors
- Denmark, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden 267
- bilateral aid donors 216
- policy selectivity in aid allocation decision-making 52
- bilateral and multilateral donors, targets to larger levels of need 51
- bilateral donors, four major, USA, UK, France, Germany 98
- bilateral export level, effect of total export level 147
- bio-engineering, aid-subsidized 297
- bio-fuel technologies 464
- bottom CPIA quintile, country, highly fragile 382
- bridge construction, Chinese investment 110
- British aid successes 289
- budget constraints of donor and recipient 69
- budget pressure problem, competition among recipients 76
- budgetary support 55–6
- direct giving to recipient government 56, 58
- budgetary support for OECD donors 45
- post-2005 Paris Agenda 54
- bureaucratic costs, tax administration 557
- Burnside–Dollar analysis 351, 352, 354
- conditional impact of aid on growth 368
  - econometric model 376–7
  - sample independence 359
  - turning point in aid growth literature 360
- business development services, MFI offers 580
- business training 592
- impact on female clients of FINCA, Peru 584
- business training in Bosnia Herzegovina
- improvement to business practices 585
- business training, Tanzania, increasing profits of men 584
- Canadian aid decrease 522
- capacity of absorption of aid in developing countries 442

- capacity production in recipient countries 141 capital flight 29, 33, 40, 281 capital transfer 77 financing of capital projects 68 no efficient level of capital investment in recipient country 72 case study of aid corruption in Bangladesh 2 censoring bias at zero 326
 'censored' nature of aid, non-negative and non-zero values 100
 Center for Global Development
   China's international aid flows 110
 Centre d'Etudes Prospectives et d'Information Internationale (CEPII) 201 channels of foreign aid received in developing countries 87 child labor, microfinance, negative consequences 582
 China, Asian giant, international lender aid and investment in Africa 4 despite still a developing economy 109, 110 human rights ignoring, support for corrupt regimes 4 new 'workshop of the world' 109 non-interference in governance 113 presence among developing countries in resource-rich Africa 109 special case trust funds combating environmental problems 543 willingness to fund bad governments 113
 China's aid differences from DAC definition of 112–13 independence of democracy and governance in aid-partner countries 102 strategic interest or economic motivations 109
 China's aid and investment flows to Africa, motives behind 1, 110–14, 115
 China's intensive trading countries with lower measures of governance 112
 Chinese aid allocation 1956–2006 independent of democracy in aid-partner countries 102
   'political considerations and affinities' 102
 Chinese aid and investment 109–13
 Chinese banking crises in 1992 208
 Chinese companies, presence in most African countries 111
 Chinese development finance flows to Africa 14, 114
 Chinese FDI stock in Africa, substantial growth since 1990s 110–11 Chinese foreign direct investment (FDI) rapid increase in recent past 109
 Chinese government, actions secret from own citizens 110 Chinese investment, market access opportunities for manufacturing 111–12
 Christianity domination, relationship with Islam-orientation 318
 Christian-oriented nations, corruption-control (CC) 316 cities, centres of consumption, ecological footprints 456 major contributor to climate change 456
 Clean Technology Fund (CTF) 464–5 clean water access, Asia and Africa 467 climate change adaptation 26, 460, 465, 546 Climate Investment Funds 11 coastal fisheries, rent source for rich country interests 288 coefficients in hard peg countries 411
 coefficients in flexible exchange rate countries 412
 Cold War aid bilateral, in post-Cold War period 51
 Cold War end 529 change in development assistance 527 reduction in inter-donor convergence 505 colonial legacy, French civil law nations and corruption 318 colonial settlements, extraction strategies, African countries 357 commercial investors, funding microfinance 587 Commission for Africa Report (2005) 215 commitment saving programs
   Green Bank of Caraga in the Philippines 581
 Commitment to Development Index
   Centre for Global Development (CGD) 480 commodities, 'non-traditional' ingredients for pharmaceutical products 287 common causal relations between the variables 248 common fund for green cities, money pooling 464 communicable diseases, UK-funded research 298 comparing the distribution of funding by SDTFs, MDTFs and multilateral aid, 2006–12 541 comparisons, dependent variable log of IDB funding 274 competition and commercialization role 585–9 of microfinance business 590 competition and coordination, donor behavior 507–11 competition between donors
   Cold War, 'Western bloc', 'Soviet bloc' 503

- completion rate (commitment, disbursement aid) 420, 421
- computable general equilibrium (CGE) model 391
- conceptual framework of possible patterns of causality between the variables 238
- consumption, higher level of, supported by aid 28
- control function approach results for recipient exports and output 191
- cooperation activities
  - universities, enterprises, private organizations 82
- cooperation among donors 77–8
- correlation between the aid share and the growth rate 340
- correlation lack between governance and growth
  - application to China, India, Vietnam 444
- correlations between output equation residuals and real exchange rate equation residuals 395
- corruption-control (CC) 316
- corruption, determinants of 3, 10, 314, 350
- corruption, low, Australia, and Sweden, rewards from 306
- Corruption Perception Index (Transparency International) 2013 305
- corruption widespread in developing countries 305
- cost-efficiency of MFIs 591
- costs of aid volatility 222
- counterflows, aiding of 281–3
- countries' experimentation for own policies and institutions 450
- countries listed 196
  - for 'completion rate' 426
  - for 'gross enrolment rate' 425
- countries situate in the tropics, aid less effective 356
- countries with good economic policies 351
- country ownership 447
- country-pair heterogeneity 188–91
- Country Policy and Institutional Assessment (CPIA) 9, 19, 23, 25, 356, 383
  - not an index of performance 21
  - quality of commitment to development 2, 19
  - scores, countries with critically low 377–8
- Country Policy Rating (CPR) 20
- covariates, types of four general
  - China's financial flows to individual country in Africa 116
  - life expectancy at birth, health expenditures 117–18
- credit crunch crisis
  - severe on export flows from emerging and developing countries 197
- credit for poor, from MFIs 579
- credit for trade and investment 290
- Creditor Reporting System (CRS) 465
- crops, traditional, coffee, cacao 287
- cross-sectional modelling framework 398–407
- customs unions (CUs) 184
- Cutrone tests for competitive behavior 510
- Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia
  - foreign political and economic interests, international obligations for donating 102
  - main determinants, geographical proximity, historical ties 102
  - 'Visegrád countries', 2001–08 102
- data
  - availability limitations, on China's aid to Africa 114
  - and estimation strategy 201–6
  - issues 35, 145–7
  - preliminary tests, and econometric method 379–80
  - and variables, 1988–2007, aid and trade 185
- dataset, new, with pooled ordinary least squares 565
- debt amortization, capital flight, reserve accumulation, all reverse flows 40
- debt reducing, Asia-Pacific region 163
- debt service obligations, non-aid-related 29, 39, 40
- debt trap in Andhra Pradesh, India, 2010 suicide of MFI borrowers 587
- definition of variables, GDP, FDI, OPE, ODA 239
- delegation of decision making power by the donor to another agency 76
- delegation to less poverty-averse agency improvement of welfare 76
- delegation to different types of agents 307
- demand for rainfall insurance Andhra Pradesh, Gujarat, India 584
- demand side, two main sources of development domestic demand and foreign demand (export of goods and services) 87
- demand-following (DFH) hypothesis
  - causality from economic growth to trade openness 235
  - causality running from economic growth to foreign aid 234

- Demographic and Health Surveys by quantile 367
- Department for International Development (UK) (DFID) in hands of large consultancy companies 294–5
- descriptive statistics 265, 394, 576 for continuous variables 413 on primary education 427
- determinants of estimated actual and hypothetical one-year, two-year, three-year responses of output to a unit increase in aid 402, 403, 404, 405
- determination of bilateral aid 190
- developing countries
list (alphabetical order) 202 move from North–South trade to South–South trade 164 structural economic vulnerability 25
- developing countries or regions, list of the countries 43–4
- developing countries, with good fiscal, monetary, trade policies, positive impact of aid 232
- development aid organizations (DAOs) 11
- development assistance 313 fuelling of corruption-control 315 taxation and government expenditure, effect 317 waste management disposal, water supply and sanitation, renewable energy 472
- Development Assistance Committee (DAC) 179, 503 aid allocation panel data set for 1970–74 100 and Arab donors, 1991–2000 101
China not a member 110 official development assistance 118
OECD–DAC database 528
- development aid organization (DAO) 488–9 definition of aid, precise 112, 113 and multilateral donors 315
- Development Cooperation Instrument
European Commission 26
- development finance institutions (DFIs)
CDC (UK), FMO (Netherlands) 292–3
KfW (Germany), Swedfund (Sweden) 292–3
- development targets, some met by East Asian and South East Asian nations 163
- developmental criteria, influence on Cold War period 99
- Dickey–Fuller test of unit root 241
- differential income effect of aid among recipient countries 135
- diminishment of extreme poverty for 2000–2010
World Bank data 85
- direct-aid trade linkages through explicit tied aid 174
- direct and indirect private aid, important to achieve MDGs 88
- disaster assistance aid 3, 46
- Disaster Management Programme 462
- disaster relief disproportionate to democracies 57
- disbursed aid data for schooling for primary school enrolment 427
- disbursement data
OECD Development Assistance Committee 266
- disbursement rate 268 actual international transfer of financial resources DAC member countries 185 Cold War versus post-Cold War 272, 273 early versus late periods 270, 271
- disbursements, actual or planned
Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) 263–4
- discretionary aid allocations by country 25
- disease incidences 414
- disease-specific health aid 46
- disease-specific research positive returns for donor countries 297
- distinguishing bilateral, multilateral and multi-bi aid 536
- distribution of multi-bi aid between IDOs 539
- distribution of the aid effectiveness estimates 340
- distribution of the five-year averages for aid and growth, 1961–2010 339
- Doha International Conference on Financing for Development, 2008 162, 215
- domestic benefits, beneficiaries, out of public view 285
- domestic demand, private consumption, public consumption, private investment, public investment 87
- domestic investment or consumption, non-availability 40
- domestic population growth, high rate, 2000–2010 countries with low levels of schooling 86
- domestic revenue in aid recipients volatility of aid flows 222
- donor agencies, proliferation 532
World Bank 77
behaviour, decline 216 commercial interests, US and world trade 267

- competition, analysis 503–4, 511–23
- concern need for very fragile states 384
- coordination superficial level 483, 507–8
- disparities in ‘quality’ of aid 105
- fragmentation 438
- influence and tax mobilization 557
- influence in ADB, Japanese and US variables 261
- influence in World Bank lending 261
- motivation to obtain influence 48
- ‘recipient need’ and ‘donor interests’ 503
- scrutiny over aid effectiveness 12
- self-interest, promotion of FDI investments 290
- donor aid organization (DAO) 489–92
  - multi-layered, multi-dimensional 499–500
- donor countries
  - competing motivations 45
  - conditionality imposition on recipients 64
  - exports promotion 285–7
  - foreign aid giving in return for market access 131
  - international cooperation 83
  - powerful, interest in specific influence on nations 48
- ‘donor interest’
  - aid a foreign policy tool 48
  - competition with other donors 11–12
  - securing commercial ties with recipient country 48
  - selection of recipients for bilateral aid 260
  - targeting countries with ‘good’ economic policies 51
- donor rank 12, 511–15
  - by total ODA and activity (CPA) 514
- donors 3, 102–3, 142, 145
  - disproportionate influence on policies 440
  - expectations from giving aid 91–2
  - helping themselves 280–300
  - own interests 280
  - problem 70–71
  - response to other donors 518–19
  - to ‘Russian Federation’ 281
  - ‘self-help’ 280
  - utility function 92
- donor-specific importance 512–13
- drop in exports 198
- dummy variable for countries with a hard fixed exchange rate peg 399
- Dutch aid selectivity decisions
  - distinction between types and selectors of aid 56
  - and macroeconomic impact of aid 224–5
- Dutch disease 8, 9, 143, 224–5, 350, 362
- aid increase of domestic demand 354
- aid leading to appreciation of real exchange rate 430
- implications of aid 6
- increase in foreign aid 390–91
  - to recipient country, growth of 285
- dyadic (bilateral) fixed effects 187
- dynamic effects of foreign aid to corruption 317–19
- dynamic FLGS without multilateral resistance 88
- educational opportunities, equality of major principle 414
- earmarked funds 24–5, 534
- earmarking of multi-bi aid dimension and intensity, 1990–2012 543
- eco-building standards, Brazil 461
- econometric methodology and results 565–70
  - China and Africa 115–24
- econometric techniques
  - generalized least squares (GLS) 197
- economic and geo-strategic interests of donors
  - commercial, political and investment interests 91
- economic benefits of PCD 481
- economic crises in donor country 49
- economic development, objective of foreign aid 232
- economic development in world, path of development aid 335–7
- economic growth of sub-Saharan African countries
  - link between FDI and exports 113, 166
- economic infrastructure priorities 167
- economic integration with China 117
- economic motives, tied and untied aid 132
- economic performance, no impact
  - for nations with poor institutions 47–8
- economic slowdown
  - severe on export flows from emerging and developing countries 197
- economic vulnerability 2
  - criteria for development assistance 26
- Economist Intelligence Unit, cities in Latin America 461
- economy structure, determinant of tax revenues 571
- education
  - costly investment in developing countries 421
  - effects on development positive 86
  - expenditure low in developing countries 88
  - important determinant of an economy’s success 3

- main factors of development channels for international cooperation 85
- education aid
  - no shaping by primary enrolment rates 59
  - on primary schooling in developing countries 414
- educational
  - attainment, health, clean water, sanitation Asia-Pacific countries 163
  - level of population 86
  - positive correlation with educational level life expectancy 86
- effect of aid on reverse flows, estimation procedures 34
- effect of growth on aid, purging
  - negative correlation of aid with growth 363
- effectiveness of aid 353
  - doubts of impact on so-called fragile states 384–5
- effectiveness of performance-based allocation (PBA) 22
- effects of AfT on recipient exports of manufactures and primary commodities
  - exports to donor countries 152
  - exports to low and middle-income countries 153
- effects of AfT on recipient exports of SITC categories
  - nested exports to donor countries and developing countries 155
- efficiency of tax collection
  - autonomous revenue authorities 557
- egotism of donor, Australia, France, Japan, Italy, USA 101
- electricity generation from renewable sources 472
- elite
  - benevolence towards rest of population 357
  - ruling development project 308
- emergence of Brazil, Russia, India, China, South Africa (BRICS) 510
- emergency and distress aid, natural disasters 57
- emergency loans, contingent loans 582
- emission reductions
  - development aid in India, or Senegal 546
- employment by transnational businesses, or international agencies 299
- endogeneity of aid flows and FDI 117
- endogeneity to growth performance, aid 360
- energy consumption habits 456
- energy efficiency 459
- energy supply
  - Clean Technology Fund (CTF) World Bank, 2008 460
- enrolment rate
  - commitment aid 419
  - disbursement aid 418
  - school completion rate 416
- enterprise development in rural Kenya, only for women 583
- environment management
  - governance measures in Bangladesh 437
- environment protection funds 26, 59
- environmental hazards mitigation 459
- environmental sustainability 82, 226
- equality of opportunity principle 353
- equation on aid flows relative to income on net exports 35
- equation on concessional loans 33
- equilibria in a principal (donor)–agent (recipient) set-up 7
- equilibrium allocations 68
- equity and equal opportunities 22, 26
- equity of performance-based allocation (PBA) 22–3
- eradication of extreme poverty 82
- error-correction term, from PMG estimator 37
- estimated coefficients of standard gravity model as weights 148
- estimated immediate response of output to unit increase in aids 396
- estimated long-run coefficients 39
- estimated one-year response of output to a unit increase in aid 397
- estimated three-year responses of output in a unit increase in aid 399
- estimated two-year responses of output to a unit increase in aid 398
- estimates of key statistics 384
- estimation and tests of foreign aid in schooling promotion 416
- estimation approach 34, 147–8
- estimation results, mixed effects model, 1990–2007 206
- estimation strategy, gravity model 147
- Ethiopia and Ghana
  - foreign exchange use to accumulate reserves 31
- EuropeAid, development motivations 99
- European Commission
  - bias in favour of African, Caribbean, and Pacific (ACP) countries 101
- European Development Fund, European Commission 26
- European Free Trade Association (EFTA) countries
  - FTA agreements 188
- European Investment Bank 292

- European Union aid for Niger uranium mining venture by French energy company 289
- European Union (EU), bilateral donor 535
- evaluation methodology assessment of aid's performance 416
- evaluation study of Asian Development Bank 438–9
- Evangelical Christian community dramatic increase in HIV/AIDS aid 55
- evidence for green city procedures in developing world 459–61
- evolution of bilateral, multilateral and multi-bi aid 537
- evolution of electricity generation from renewable sources excluding hydroelectricity 471
- evolution of multi-bi aid relative to bi- and multilateral aid 538
- ex ante* conditionality setup, credibility of 351–2
- ex post* policy conditionality, attractive to donors 352
- exchange economy, case example 65–8
- exogenous geographical variable 356
- exogenous macroeconomic shock negative impact on governance 23
- exogenous shocks, vulnerability to 22
- exogenous variable
net official development assistance (NODA) 315
- expenditure on health per capita 86
- exploiting intra-country variation to assess aid effectiveness 366–8
- export diversification 143, 143–5, 163, 167, 168
- export of goods and tourism 82
- export opportunities lack, in Asia-Pacific nations 174
- export-depressing Dutch disease effects 143
- exporting goods or services, increase in capability need 87
- exports in specific SITC categories 154–6
- exports to all trading partners 149
- exports to donors and developing countries 151–4
- external debt servicing 28
- external factors of aid impact climatic factors, droughts, floods, earthquakes 232 export instability, terms-of-trade fluctuation 232
- external shocks and vulnerability 355
- failure of ex ante conditionality at heart of argument 351–2
- FAT-PET, evidence of publication selection 344
- feasible generalized least squares (FGLS) 565
- feedback hypothesis (FBH) economic growth, trade openness, mutually causal 234–6
- fertility, life expectancy, school enrolment for girls, child immunization, Bangladeshi progress 435
- finance from capital markets, microfinance business 587
- financial and economic crisis in Asia-Pacific region 163
- financial and social performance of MFIs provision of subsidies 590–92
- financial and social sustainability, microfinance trade-off 586
- financial crises, dampening foreign aid effort 49
- financial crisis of 2008
on trade flows from developing economies 5
- financial literacy training 590, 592
MFI training offers 580 for Rwandan smallholders 585
- financial sector 291–4
- financial services to poor households 577 costly activity 585–6
- financing for trade 5
- financing of reverse flows 31–2
- firms in recipient country buy goods from donor 180
- fiscal behavior of aid-recipient country 220, 317
- fiscal planners, uncertainty of aid receipts 222
- Fisher test, cointegration relationship 244
- five points of the Paris declaration, summarized by the OECD ownership, alignment, harmonizations, results, mutual accountability 341
- Five-Year Plan, Bangladesh priorities 439
- flows and basic results, dynamic model 117–18
- food aid 3, 46
benefits for large agricultural firms 7
US dominance as source of 295
- food aid allocations, response to recipient need 57–8, 78, 295
- foreign aid 1 25 per cent financing reverse flows 40 allocation literature 45
Bangladesh, flight of domestic capital 31 for climate change, green cities 456–7, 465–9 contribution to capital flight from developing countries 28 corruption and institutions in Africa 311, 313–20

- corruption reduction or fostering 306–7
- denial of, to countries too corrupt to use it 311
- for different categories 469
- diversion to other usage than intended 64
- driven by economic self-interest 284
- economic growth, FDI, trade openness in
  - lower middle-income countries 232
- for either consumption or investment 29
- to fragile states 217
- fueling of corruption, non-reduction of poverty 311
- growth 185–8, 233
- harm to poor countries incentive reducing for self-progress 64
- importance in international relations 1
- increase in domestic consumption 29
- ineffectiveness 430
- inter-linkage in trade-theoretic frameworks 131–8
- international trade, financial crises
  - developing country perspective 197–209
- international transfer, foreign trade 64, 131, 136–7
- intervention, Olandes Sewage Treatment Plant 461
- leading to deterioration of governance 444
- leading to higher investment and higher growth 68
- means of contribution to greener cities 472
- motivation for, to certain countries, not others 45
- multilateral system 216
- new challenges 225
- ‘opening door’ policy, donor use 180
- percentage of government expenditure, per capita income, imports and investment, Bangladesh 432
- policies, clear definition of needs of poor countries 313
- policy coherence for development 477–86
- predictor of trade flows 198
- relations with indicators of green urbanization 469–72
- subsidization of MFI 589–93
- supplementing domestic savings 68
- targeting to primary education 415
- third destination in developing countries, reverse flows 40
- through tax effort and private investment mechanism 317
- uncertainty and corruption 319–20
- Foreign Assistance Act 1961, USA 290
- foreign assistance
  - full range, environmental impact, environmentally neutral aid 59
  - in Bangladesh, effectiveness 441
  - in resource mobilization for growth 29
  - selfish motivations 48
  - target to agricultural sector 58
  - target to health sector 58
- foreign development assistance variables 182
- foreign direct investment (FDI) 83, 238
  - and aid 117
  - allocation sensitivity to economic conditions 100
  - China 110
  - flows to Africa 123
  - lucrative for donor country 288–90
  - strategic interest or economic motivation 109–24
  - vital for economic growth 234
- foreign exchange 29
  - from foreign aid 134
- foreign exchange reserves (RS) 35
- foreign investment and aid for developing countries 83
- foreign lending support (FLEN) 83
- foreign loans in form of concessional grants 29
- foreign policy interests of donor 91
  - in allocation of bilateral aid 104
- foreign policy view, instrumental utility of aid 91
- foreign tourism balance (FTOUR) 83
- foreign trade and investment
  - for economic development of developing countries 88
- foreign trade of goods (FTRADE) 83
- forestry resource rents, focus on non-renewables 117
- formal finances, poor, little access 578
- fragile state classifications, based on CPIA scores 380
- fragile states
  - effectiveness of aid in 375–6
  - need for external support, bad quality of governance 23
- fragmentation, herding, orphaning, donor behavior 505–7
- framework, analytical, estimation issues
  - estimation procedures 239–44, 262–4
- framework for universal education, Forum of Dakar, 2000 414
- France, Germany
  - protection of commercial and international interests 98
- free-rider problem 68, 77
- free trade agreements (FTAs) 5, 179
  - dummy variables 192

- Freedom House index measuring human rights 117
- French and Japanese aid supporting nations with strong political relationships, former colonies 51
- French civil law, middle quantiles 316
- French donors, little relationship to poverty or democracy 260
- Fund for Special Operations (FSO)
equivalent IDA credits 258
- fund misuse incentive reduction 308
- funding, voluntary and earmarked 529
- funding mechanisms revolution 527
- five points of the Paris declaration, summarized by the OECD ownership, alignment, harmonizations, results, mutual accountability 341
- funnel asymmetry test (FAT) 326
- funnels for two sub-periods, 2007–08 and 2009–11 332
- funnel plot of the 600 estimates from period
(A) 2007–08 330
- funnel plot of the 266 estimates from period(B) 2009–11 330
- gender equality promotion 82
governance measures in Bangladesh 437
- gender gap, dwindling support for 422
- gender gap reductions in school enrolment 438
- gender parity in primary and secondary schools
Bangladesh 435
- general budget support (GBS) 482
- generalized method of moments (GMM) 197, 506 estimates 380–81, 559
- geographic interests of donor countries 3, 100
- geographical allocation of aid lessons from political economy 90–106
- geographical distance between trading partners 150
- geographical distribution on official development assistance (ODA) 90
- geo-localization within countries, of aid projects 369
- geopolitical interests of donors bilateral economic aid disbursements from US 267
- German and Dutch foreign aid, economic impacts 285
- German exports, whether aid from Germany promotes 182
- giant vacuum cleaner 282
- Global Agricultural and Food Security Program by the G8 531
- global aid shock effect on imports, exports, and growth 225
- global ‘burden of disease’, research failure to match 298
- global economic downturn dummy negative and significant 202, 207–9
- Global Environment Facility (GEF) 459, 464–5
- Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro 530
- funds to World Bank 535
- global financial crisis of 2008–09 217, 226
- Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria 530–31, 535
- Global Partnership for Education (GPE) 535
- global public goods 529–30
- global value chains (GVCs) 286
- ‘Global War on Terror’ influence on aid allocation 102
- globalization development with care for human rights respect for natural environment 88
- GMM estimates of aid–growth–fragility relationships 382
- GOJ stated objectives of country assistance program economic growth, social development, human security environmental protection 439
- good governance
for aid to work 499
- importance for effectiveness of aid 101
- income 232
- influence on Cold War period 99
- positive factor in development 22
- prerequisite for macroeconomic success 223
- goodwill effect, gravity model 181
- governance 358–60 adverse impact on aid 358 and corruption 444 enhancement of quality by aid 358 issues related to 101 measures in Bangladesh 10 quality, influence on aid effectiveness 357 taxation, microfinance, aid disbursement 2
- governance and decentralization in aid context 499 making aid work 488–501
- governance as focus of World Bank in new millennium 437
- governance variables, measurements 315
- government behavior, dependence on 219
- Government Finance Statistics (GFS) 555
- government of donor country aid to enhance development program in recipient country 309

- government quality in countries of English common law 316
- governments representation of their population's views, or not 483
 taxing people's income above subsistence level 78
- Granger causality analysis 6, 198, 244, 246
- Granger procedure
 within a vector error-correction model (VECM) 238
- grant aid 28, 32–3, 38
 for least-developed countries (LDC) 39 objective measures of recipient need 47 for reduction in pollution 460
- gravity model 5, 156
 determinants of bilateral trade 180–81 links between Australia and New Zealand's aid 168
- gravity model of trade
 effect of aid on recipient exports, few studies 83
- gravity results for donor and recipient exports with specific FTA effects 189
- gravity-type models movements of goods, services and factors of production across countries, analysis 147
- green aid, categories
 buildings, transport, air pollution, energy, water supply, sewage 11
- green cities 463–4
 minimization of energy, water, food, waste output of heat, air pollution, water pollution 456
- green credit lines
 Agence Française de Développement
 (AFD), in Egypt 465 funded by aid disbursements 11 industries to use clean technology 460 interlocking with food aid 297
- green urbanization, growing awareness of need 469, 473
- greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, energy generation, vehicles, industry, biomass use 456
- gross domestic investment to GDP 9
- gross domestic product increase in exports from donors to Asia-Oceania countries 174
- growth rates in Indian Ocean territories in south of Africa 394
- per capita in 2000–2010, world poverty 83–5
- per capita in 21 areas, and average increase and annual rate of growth in 2000–2010 84, 85
- strong in Bangladesh since 1990s
 435
- gross domestic product ratio 180, 232, 390
- gross national income (GNI) per capita 20, 26, 257
- group lending structure 579, 581
- growth in developing countries, aid hurts or spurs 350
- growth–poverty nexus 226
- Hadri test 35–6
- Hanoi's bus system, environmentally sustainable 460
- hard fixed peg countries 392–3
- hardwoods, tropical, value chains loss of forest cover in recipient countries 288
- harmonization 483–4
- health 297–8
- Health Action International, resistance to IPR 296
- health aid on infant mortality 367
- health aid projects 58
- health aid to reduce risk of disease transmission 48
- health and poverty alleviation, aid targeting 414
- health assistance reduction of child mortality, improve maternal health, combat diseases 82
- health professionals educational attainment, health, clean water, sanitation 298
- health risks in rich countries aid against specific diseases 297–8
- health sector aid, health outcomes 365
- heavily indebted poor country (HIPC) initiative 28
 aid effectiveness, debt relief 220
- Heckman two-step approach, Probit equation 118–19
- herd behavior between donors significant feature in aid allocation 506–7
- heterogeneity in recipient country 72–4, 365, 369
- heterogeneous impact of aid, problem
 360–61
- high fertility rates 86
- higher capital transfer by recipient, reduction 70
- higher education 298–9
- High-Level Meeting in Busan
 Global Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation 215
- highly indebted poor country (HIPC) 40

- HIV/AIDS 55–7, 56
 British disproportionate awards to former colonies 58
 French bilateral aid, least responsive to prevalence rates 58 increase by 300 per cent 55 in the US 54
 human capital 2, 25
 fully qualified workers, investment in research and development 87 human immunodeficiency virus (HIV/AIDS) relief 3, 45 human resource development
 World Bank assistance program in Bangladesh 437 human rights record of recipients role for multilateral aid 48, 52 humanitarian aid 101 economic assistance utility 91 no country limitation 56 human-made famines multiple recipients, one altruistic donor 78 hydroelectric dam financing, China 110 hydroelectricity, small-scale 460 hydropower low impact on CO<sub>2</sub> (SMALL) 2 emissions 461 source for electricity supply 461 hypothesis, second kink as a breakthrough in our models 342–4 hypothesis, third the kink is an artefact 343–4 hypothesis that the kink is true 338–42
- IDA aid allocation per capita as a function of CPR in 2014 24
 IDA and AfDF, increase in country base allocations 21 identification of a causal impact 366 identification of fragile states, definitions of 377 identification strategy, how to improve supply-side instruments 361–4 weakness, to estimate impact of aid on growth 361
- IDR, ADB, and World Bank dependent variable: log of disbursements 275
- IFI-led financial liberalization benefit failure to recipient countries 291
- immigrant populations, important
 France, Germany, UK, USA, Spain 105
- immigrants, no links to donor country's history from countries not historically linked 102 supporting donors' immigration interests 105 immunization rates 9 impact of aid disaggregated, on outcomes of development 366 education outcomes 365 evidence review 350–69 on growth, heterogeneous 364 negative in most African nations 232 positive in most Asian countries 232 on primary school completion rates 10 imperfect market 226 import of 'strategic materials' from recipient countries 288 importance of incomes and relative prices 34
 imports, increased, from China into Africa machinery, technological goods 113 improvements in health assistance, quality of governance 86 incentive effects 77 incentive for better policy, indirect factor of growth 22 incentive mechanism corruption reduction 310 of donors and recipients 307–11 explanatory situation 307–8 inclusive growth 226 income effect, indirect 180 income levels and population sizes of recipient countries 103 income inequality 9 income per capita 26 income per capita and poverty in the world 85 incomes of high income OECD countries plus China foreign income as sum of 35 increase in aid causing reduction in consumption 30 decrease in domestic saving 30 increase in consumption by 60 per cent 30 investment increase by 25 per cent 30 increase of exports from donors to recipients bilateral level 180 increase of savings and investment production and real income per head 88 increases in investment, consumption in aid-receiving countries 28 increasing productivity 86 independence movement amongst former colonies 1 independent knowledge creation 528
 India, commercial and political self-interests 290
 Indonesia 462–3

- green buildings code 459
- largest greenhouse gas emitted 459
- Indonesia Climate Change Trust Fund 463
- industrialization at expense of environmental protection 481
- industrialization strategy in Asia-Pacific nations, 1990s, 2000s 164
- industry in GDP, significance 571
- inefficient OLS estimates 103
- inequality and poverty in recipient country
  - main goal of donor countries 72
- infant mortality rates 118, 365–6, 414
- inflation rate, sensitivity analysis 394, 564
- influence
  - on aid allocation
    - conditionality in IMF lending 261
    - donor interest, recipient need and institutions 506
    - foreign policy objectives 511
- informal influence in World Bank and Asian Development Bank, US 255–6, 262, 276
- informal influence on multilateral lending
  - case of Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) 255–77
- information provision
  - main benefit of multilateral institutions 60
- infrastructure for green cities 10–11, 46
- infrastructure role 144, 174
- inhabitants in recipient country, elite and poor
  - case example 73–4
- institutional capacity for revenue mobilization 226
- institutional governance
  - rule of law, corruption control 315
- instrumental variable (IV) regression 186, 197, 314, 417
- instrumentation of aid 361
- insurance for the poor 584
  - MFI, few difficulties 580
- integrated rural advancement
  - governance measures in Bangladesh 437
- intellectual property rights (IPR) 287, 296
- Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) 6, 20, 255, 258–9
  - formal veto power over individual loans 258
  - fund allocation 262
  - hard and soft lending window 258
  - loan approval 262
- interdependence of two countries
  - historical/colonial relationship 131
- interest payments on foreign debt
  - affected by foreign aid 32
- interest rates 219
  - subsidization of 589–90
- intermediate inputs from foreign and domestic markets 87
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development 257, 292
  - ‘hard window’ of World Bank 256
- international capital flows
  - aid and foreign direct investment 6
- International Centre for Tax and Development Government Revenue Dataset 555
- International Chamber of Commerce (2008) 197
- international cooperation context reward schedule 308
- international cooperation to development
  - around 2010 87
  - poverty eradication, possible and necessary 88
- International Development Association (IDA) 435
  - allocation of credits 19
  - ‘defensive lending’ 292
  - loans (credits) 257
  - outright grants to poor countries 257
  - ‘soft’ window of World Bank 256
- international development organizations (IDOs) 527
  - influencing of 532
  - poverty reduction in developing countries 104
- International Development Statistics (IDS) of OECD’s Development Assistance Committee (DAC) 145
- international equity, priority concerning aid allocation 22
- International Finance Corporation (IFC) 459
  - World Bank Group 292
- international finance institutions (IFIs) 564
  - priority condition 290
- international financial institutions
  - no independence from member governments 261
- international financial markets, imperfect 69
- International Financial Statistics (IFS) data on ODA 35
- international foreign aid assistance 198
- International Fund for Agricultural Development, 2005 20
- International Maize and Wheat Improvement Center
  - benefits to businesses in donor countries 297
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 82, 110, 185, 555
  - austerity programmes, from outset of 1980s
  - reserve accumulation, imperative for recipient countries 292

- conduit for creation of stock markets 291
- Direction of Trade Statistics 201
- fall in international demand 197
- US interests rules 282
- International Rice Research Institute (IRRI)
  - benefits to businesses in donor countries 297
- 'international security' influence on aid
  - allocation 102
  - high aid allocations to Afghanistan, Iraq 105
- international terms-of-trade effect
  - important role in economics of aid 132
- international trade, two-period, two-country 136
- International Year of Microcredit, 2005 579
- intra-country coherence at recipient level 485
- intra-country distributional impact 366–7
- intra-country variations in aid
  - understanding of mechanisms at play 369
- incentive aid contract 308
- investment 29, 219
  - main reason for love income and growth in poor countries 68
- investment and aid flows
  - by destination, total 2000–2011 116
- investment climate addressing 168
- investment flows in Africa 112–14
  - to Africa from China, very high 114
- investment in education
  - importance of incomes and relative prices 85
- investment in real estate 111
- investment in renewable energy
  - wind biomass, geothermal solar 460
- investment mechanisms 317
- investment of effort by departments
  - under both mechanisms 496–9
- investment source, aid as waning over years 431
- institutional set-up in donor country
  - strategic behaviour by recipients 76
- Japan, content with second place as donor 12
- Japan Bank for International Agencies 439
- Japan External Trade Organization 439
- Japan focus on physical infrastructure
  - high-profile bridges (Jamuna, Paksey, Rupsa) in Bangladesh 439
- Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
  - largest bilateral donor to Bangladesh 439–40
- Japanese aid allocation determinants
  - evidence of allocation preference like US or Britain 505
- Japanese donors
  - interest in investment and trade relationships 260
  - JICA investment in agriculture 439
  - JICA program deficiencies
    - program formulation, coordination, implementation 439
  - joint liability group lending 579
  - 'joint ownership'
    - donor and recipient 482
  - joint trust funds 529–30
  - Kao test
    - cointegration relationship 244
  - knowledge and skills from primary schooling 416
  - knowledge base for developing countries
    - to gain from trade preferences 167
  - knowledge transfer through donors
    - through technical assistance 557
  - lack of interest in Rank 12
  - lagged nature of investment decisions 120
  - lag-length selection
    - Schwarz Bayesian Information Criterion (SBIC) 37
  - Lagrange Multiplier (LM) disbursements 268
  - Lagrange Multiplier (LM) test 35–6
  - landlocked countries, more aid 318
  - large increase and decreases
    - in Australian aid 52
    - in Canadian aid 520
    - in Dutch aid 520
    - in Spanish aid 520
  - largest donors (the United States and Japan) 515
  - Latin America
    - cities, all have environmental departments 461
    - dependence on US economy for export flows 208
    - susceptibility to spread of communism 25
  - Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) 40
    - net export equation 39–40
  - Latin American countries
    - descendants from colonial settlers 357
  - Latin American green city index, eight categories 461
  - lead donor presence 508–9
  - least developed countries (LDCs)
    - concern in international community 25
    - criteria for development assistance 26
  - legal origin perspective, key findings 316
  - legal origins, cultural dynamics 316
    - dynamic investigations 318
  - lending by World Bank, Asian Development Bank, Japan to Bangladesh 10
  - life expectancy, greater 86

- better completion rates for education 423
  - countries with, less likely to receive aid flows from China 123
- life insurance, offers by MFIs 580
- link from aid to Dutch disease 9–10
- literature on donor behavior 504
- literatures on foreign aid, The Bottom Billion, Dead Aid 313
- Somaliland hypothesis 313
- loan approval, identification, preparation, appraisal 262
- Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) 263
- loan commitments 261–2
- loan disbursement 6, 269
- loan flexibility, individual more than group 581
- loan pushing by microfinance institution 587–8
- loan size as reward to favoured countries 262
- loans and grants 38
- loans with flexible repayment schedules, MFI offers 581–2
- long-run causal relationships 241, 244
- losses, substantial, for aid recipients
  - from aid volatility 222
- low and middle-income countries 142
  - trading partners of AfT recipients 153
- low income, price elasticity of demand 164
- low interest rates 589
- low level of human capital 25–6
- 'low-income countries under stress' (LICUS) 23
- Maastricht Treaty, 1993, PCD in the Global North 479
- macro-econometric models of supply and demand 86–8
- macroeconomic impact of aid 217, 222–4
- macroeconomic instability sensitivity analysis 564
- macroeconomic response to aid inflows
  - explaining the variation 398–407
- macroeconomic risk measure, inflation 117
- macroeconomics of aid, policies and growth 217–20
- Mali, renewable energy sector 464
- Mali 2011 conflict, not considered fragile state before 23
- management training, MFI training offers 580
- manufacture share in merchandise exports and AfT in infrastructure 144
- manufactured exports by income groups of AfT recipient countries, 1990–2012 (merchandise exports) 141
- marginal cost and marginal benefit 67
- market access and trade costs 150
- market clearing conditions for foreign exchange 34
- market interest rates, borrowing 589
- marketing, MFI training offers 580
- Marshall aid, offsetting flight of private capital out of Europe 281
- Marshall Plan, assistance to European region from US 1
- MDGs and international cooperation 82–8
  - slow in sub-Saharan Africa 82
- mean aid (percentage GDP) 1980–2010 562
- mean group (MG) approach 36
- means and PETs for the Five Periods, comparing 334
- measure of armed conflict 117
- measurement of aid effectiveness 448–9
- medicines, essential, resistance to IPR from India, Brazil 296
- Médecins sans Frontières, resistance to IPR 296
- Medicines Transparency Alliance (MeTA) 296
- medical 'brain gain', dependence on immigrant doctors 298
- medical education, positive returns for donor countries 297
- member states, powerful 255
- meta regression analysis (MRA) 326, 345, 571
  - in the social sciences 7
- methods used, Funnel and FAT-PET MRA 329
- MFIs dependence on subsidies 590
- micro-business development 578
- microcredit, dropping of repayment performance, India 583
- microfinance 581
  - benefits for the poor 13
  - crisis situations in 40 countries 587
  - increased poverty 583
  - new developments 13–14
  - not reaching real poor 582–5
  - offer of loans, savings, insurance, money transfer services to poor 578
  - reduced education of children 583
  - reduction in portfolio quality 587–8
  - reduction of women empowerment 583
  - targeted at poor 14
  - trade-off, financial and social sustainability 585–9
  - training offers, borrowers from more than one MFI 587
- microfinance business
  - on credit and savings 582
  - remarkable annual growth, late 1990s 586

- microfinance institutions (MFIs) 577
- microfinance training, business and financial skills 584
- micro-insurance 593
- micro-macro paradox 233
- Middle East and North Africa (MENA)
  - net export equation 39–40
- middle income countries
  - 'disproportionate' amount received 105
- migration flows, intensification 102
- Millennium Development Goals 3, 26, 82, 350, 414, 429, 527
  - agenda 105
  - food, health, education, water quality, sanitation aid flows 59
  - fostering global partnership for development 82
  - need to meet by 2015 215
- mineral resources and mining, minor attractive role 143
- mineral resources, oil and gas 117, 123
- minimum allocation for each country 24
- 'mission drift' 586, 588
- mixed effects trade gravity model
  - trade finance, foreign aid, banking crises, global economic downturns 209
- mixed-effects model, general specification 205
- model specification and estimation
  - gravity model of trade 186
- moderation of excessive fertility rates 88
- moral hazard 305, 309–10, 581
  - no agreement between recipient and donor for allocation resources 310
- most favoured nation (MFN) status 184
- most important recipients by type of aid 542
- motive for aid decisions, uniformity of, faulty assumptions 45
- motives for investment, China
  - natural resources in Africa, largest component 111–12
  - in resources, access to foreign markets, development of infrastructure, agriculture 111–12
- multi-bi aid, rise of 12–13, 527–8, 529–34
  - additionality of 545
  - dominant form of financial flows 548
  - enhancement of donor cooperation and harmonization 548
  - SDTF's on humanitarian aid, MDTFs on global public goods 548
- multi-bi financial contributions to IDOs 527
- multi-country samples, several developing regions 30
- Multi Donor Trust Funds (MDTF) 534–5, 539
- multi-donor context, gravity model 182
- multilateral agencies, aid to countries with good government and post-conflict societies 90, 99
- multilateral aid agencies 187
  - less influenced by political considerations 52
- multilateral development banks (MDBs) 2, 20, 21, 285, 291–2
  - potential donor influence 255
- multilateral donors
  - World Bank, regional development banks 306
- multilateral donors, United Nations and World Bank 98, 103
- multilateral financial institutions
  - source of aid for Bangladesh 433
- multilateral institutions, World Bank, IMF, DAC 507
- multilateral lending, independence from political objectives 260
- multilateral resistance factors 181, 188
- multilateral system, strain on 549
- multilaterals
  - advantages in implementing conditionality 260
  - trade liberalization processes 165
- multi-period budgetary transfers 77
  - rather than direct capital transfers 3
- multiple donors, common good for donors 77
- multiple regression analysis 97
- multiple strategies, on development 484
- Muslim-dominated nations, corruption-control (CC) 316
- NAD coefficient 173
- Nash equilibrium 492, 510–12
- national aid agencies
  - more influence by political considerations 52
- National Bank of Egypt 465
- national climate change plans
  - Bangladesh, Cambodia, Indonesia, Philippines, Vietnam 462
- national climate change policy, Nepal 462
- national income accounting
  - and allocation of aid 31–4
- national plans and MDG assessments
  - for allocation of aid 450
- nations of cultural similarity, donor motivation 48
- natural resources, dynamic investigations 318
- natural resources endowments, China
  - rejection of them as aid determinants 102
- need-based concerns for foreign aid 47
- need-based variables 51
- need for within-country distribution strategies to reach 'targeted' poor 105

- negative aid 'corruption control' 316
- negative association between aid/GDP and tax/GDP ratios 559
- negative effects of foreign aid on resource mobilization 64
- negative influence on total factor productivity 359
- negative relationship between aid and tax revenue 558
- neo-colonialism, foreign aid governed by 313
- Nepal, Memorandum of Understanding 462
- net aid inflows 2
- net aid (percentage GDP), 1980–2010 561
- net export equation
- regional regressions 1971–2012 39
  - with disaggregated aid (all developing countries 1971–2012) 38
  - with ODA (all developing countries, 1971–2012) 37, 44
- net export (trade balance) equation, empirical estimations 34
- net exports 35
- net transfers from recipients 282
- Netherlands cut in aid resources 522
- neutrality hypothesis (NLH)
- foreign aid and economic growth, no causality 234, 236
- new donors
- focus on closer neighbours, care less for recipients' needs 103
  - weaker bias towards badly governed countries 103
- New Public Management thinking 294
- new traded theory (NTT) key determinants for trade 199–201
- Newton's law of gravity
- economic attraction between two countries 147
- Nigeria, South Africa, China's FDI flows 111
- no causality between variables, neutrality hypothesis 233
- Nobel peace prize, Mohammad Yunus, winner, 2006 579
- nominal GDP or real GDP 123
- non-financial services, offers by MFIs 580
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
- British
  - on how much aid actually received 280–81, 479
- non-linearity
- aid–growth relationship 364
  - and marginal diminishing returns 354
- non-sector allocable aid, ('programme' aid) 223
- non-tradable goods 391
- Nordic countries' aid provision
- recipient need and 'good' recipient economic policies 51
- Nordic donors, humanitarian aid programs targets poverty, democracy, openness 260
- Nordic Trust Fund (NTF) 527–8
- OECD – Development Assistance Committee 375–6
- Creditor Reporting System, research data 58, 366, 534
  - database 394
  - 'Policy framework for investment' (PFI) 289
  - policy on reduction of tied aid, 2005 162
- official development assistance (ODA) 35,
- 82–3, 88, 168, 325–6
  - allocation, response to 'political incentives' 100
  - debt relief 28
  - in developing countries 457
  - Development Assistance Committee (DAC) members for HIV/AIDS 54
  - effectiveness for green cities 461
  - finance for capital accumulation, government expenditure, imports 503
  - financing capital outflow 283
  - financing development programs 503
  - fragile states 226
  - literature on importance of 29
  - 'multi-bi' aid 527
  - ratio of recipient country GDP 379–80
- official donor engagements with banks
- acceleration in twenty-first century 292
- oil and aid 358
- oil and gas reserves 123
- oil price fluctuations with dummy variable
- in Muslim receiving countries 363
- one-donor model of Dudley and Monmarquette 93
- openness to sea, dynamic investigations 318
- openness to trade 238
- Operations Evaluation Department 438
- optimal aid allocation rule
- compensation for lower growth prospects 353
- optimal foreign aid and trade policy 136–7
- optimal strategies of donor and recipient 70
- optimum tariff level in recipient country 136
- ordinary capital resources (OCR) 258
- ordinary least squares (OLS)
- aid allocation estimation 100
  - testing 510
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 45, 82, 179
- data on ODA 35

- new priorities for aid 215
- Paris declaration 8
- Organization of Petroleum-Exporting Countries (OPEC) 283
- other three top donors (Germany, France, UK) 516
- punishment and rewards 78
- outcome-based conditionality 448–9
- over-indebtedness of poor families
  - Nicaragua, Bosnia, Nigeria, India 582
- Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) 290
- overseas students
  - important sources of income for universities 299
- overview of studies on the effects of ODA on donor exports 195
- ownership concept 481–3
- PACER
  - 14 Forum Island Countries, Australia, New Zealand 166
- PACER Plus (2009)
  - capacity building, market liberalization, economic cooperation 166
- Pacific Agreement on Closer Economic Relations 165
- Pacific Forum Island Countries (FICs)
  - trade agreements with Australia and New Zealand 165
- Pacific island countries, dependence on foreign aid 288
- Pacific Island Countries Trade Agreement (PICTA) 165
- Pacific Islands Forum Secretariat (2011)
  - supply-side constraints 168
- Padma Bridge and corruption
  - construction of bridge over River Ganges 444–6
  - contract, Bangladesh 10
- panel corrected standard errors (PCSE) 65
- panel data models 97, 99–103
- panel data techniques, preferable 241
- panel dataset for comparability
  - 89 developing countries 559–60
- Panel FED estimators, annual panel 567
- panel fixed effects (FE) estimators 565
- panel unit root tests 410
- Pareto-efficient equilibrium 137
- Pareto improving aid
  - to reduction in tariffs in recipient country 134
- Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness 2005
  - 55–6, 341, 458, 478, 508, 529, 532
  - five key commitments 457–8
- Paris Principles, ownership, alignment, harmonization 481
- participation rates in education 414
- path of income 1960–2011 for 137 countries 336
- Penn World Tables 266
- pensions schemes, MFIs experiments with 580
- per capita GDP 9
- per capita income growth
  - impact of aid on growth, heterogeneous 375
- performance-based allocation (PBA) of foreign aid 19–27
  - acronym forgetting 26
  - discontent with, treatment of large countries 23–4
  - really performance-based 21
  - World Bank implementation, late 1970s 19–20
- ‘petro-aid’, grants from OPEC donors, after 1973
  - filling private accounts offshore 283
  - paying for consumer imports 283
- petroleum-exporting nations, less development assistance 318
- pharmaceutical companies, drug sales profits 298
- Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA)
  - substantial profits 296
- Philippines, out-migration of young women as care providers 298
- physical capital 87
- physical vulnerability to climate change 26, 27
- PICTA inclusion of 14 Forum Island Countries
  - tariff elimination, creation of single market 165
- policy coherence for development (PCD) 11, 481
  - aid to developing countries 481–4
  - ambiguities and uncertainties 484–5
  - assessment in donor countries 480
  - definition 477–8
  - in the Global North 479–80, 485
  - European Union obligation 479
- policy conditionality to governance
  - conditionality 356
  - not working in Bangladesh 446–7, 448–9
- policy lending, knowledge products 431, 437
- ‘policy selective’ donors 47
- polio eradication from Bangladesh 435
- political and economic interests of donors 280
- political asylum seekers, in donor country 180
- political costs of aid, higher than domestic revenue 558

- political costs of aid and tax
  - accountability, bureaucracy, autonomy 557
- political economy in donor country 216–17, 530
- political incentives for donor cooperation 509–10
- political institutions, deteriorating impact of aid 350
- political interference
  - lack of financial autonomy, Bangladesh 439
- political relationship between donor and recipient 45
  - possible shaping 59
- political relationships, determinants of
  - bilateral aid flows 260
- political stability 118, 123
  - determining factor in aid allocation 98
- politico-economic stability, dynamic investigations 318
- pollution and waste treatment
  - Agence Française de Développement (AFD) in Egypt 460
- pollution reduction in Marikina River in Manila 461
- pooled mean group (PMG) approach, error correction 36–7
- pooled OLS annual panel 566, 571
- poor countries, creditors to rich ones 282
- poor governance of country
  - aid withholding, double penalization 2
- poor people, lives of, how aid affects 226
- population increase, dramatic in urban areas 459
- population reduction, Bangladesh 429
- populations with bad governance
  - penalization by aid allocation 22–3
- portfolio of active loans 264
- portfolio investment flows, growth 291
- positive impact of aid on GDP 22
- positive roles of effects of education 86
- post-Cold War period
  - less response to certain relationships 52
- ‘post-colonial ties’ dummies 100
- ‘Post-Lomé’ trade agreements of EU 291
- post-war reconstruction 255
- post-World War II period 1
- potential aid recipients 489
- poverty 162, 353
  - alleviation 143, 308, 351, 578
  - approach supporters 586
  - eradication 166, 218
  - extreme, quality of social organization 85
  - multidimensional problem 590
  - policy selective, aid disbursements 52
  - reduction 26
    - in Bangladesh 435, 441
    - in developing countries 28
    - strategy paper (PRSP) 356, 439
    - trap 350
- power nations 255
- precision estimate test (PET) 326
- preferential trade agreements with recipient countries 286
- President’s Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) 55
- preventive approach to state fragility 23
- price-fixing, combatting 287
- prices of tradable versus non-tradable goods 350
- primary commodities, small Asian developing countries 165
- primary commodity dependence
  - African countries 141
  - poor governance, risk of civil war 141
- primary commodity exports
  - AFT effects insignificant 157
- primary education, lessening incidence of child labor 414
- primary financing mechanism
  - for sale of World Bank bonds 257
- primary school completion rate 417
  - aid, no help 415
- private aid
  - developing countries, direct or indirect 88
  - foreign investment, trade 82
  - through investments and donations higher than official development aid 88
- private and public aid, analysis of 82–8
- private benefit (corruption), high 310–11
- private donations
  - through non-governmental organizations 83
- private philanthropy and remittances 82
- private sector development in Bangladesh
  - serious problems, electricity, power, transport 438
- private sector development 293, 294
  - World Bank policy reforms in Bangladesh 437
- private sector growth
  - governance measures in Bangladesh 437
- private-sector implementation 463
- private-sector tax base 571
- privatization of state-owned firms and public services 294
- procurement and tying 284–5
- procurement of goods from donor’s own country
  - obligatory for recipients 285
- procurement of services donor country interests 294–9

- product design
  - key issue for success of microfinance 581
- production economy 68–72
- production per capita 83, 86
- production technology of recipient country 68
- productive capacity-building 174
- productive energy use 463
- productivity per worker, increased 83
- program placement bias, microfinance 582
- programmes and funds proliferation 463
- project financing from donors 77
- project-focused aid, effectiveness 482
- project selection influence by donors 255
- projects in low-income countries
  - ‘blended’ public monies of European Investment Bank 293
- promotion of country ownership of policies 450
- promotion of economic development
  - in low income countries 91
- promotion schooling of males and females in developing countries 416
- proof of proposition 1, 81
- proportion of binary variables equal to one 413
- PRSP (poor substitute for planning), Bangladesh 441
- public expenditure management systems 294
- public expenditure on education
  - low in many countries Development Assistance Committee (DAC) countries 86
- publication selection bias 344
- publication selection bias, serious issue in economics 345
- punishment of recipient involves reduction of welfare 74
- punishment severity 318
- purchasing power parities (PPPs) 83
- Quality of Government Institute (QoG) 471
- quality of policy 26
- quality of life for workers and citizens
  - international cooperation within companies, universities, media, humanitarian organizations 88
- quantile regression approach 306–7, 315
- quantitative restrictions on imports in recipient country 133
- quasi-experimental designs 582, 583
- quasi-experiments 363–4
- rainfall insurance 584
- randomized control trials (RCTs) 582, 583
- rank competition and new donors 524
- rank conscious behavior
  - no clear evidence in Dutch response 522
- ranking of donors 513–18
- reaction of aid flows to economic conditions
  - by type of aid 1990–2012 545
- real effective exchange rate (REER), Bangladesh 443
- real exchange rate 39
- real exchange rate appreciation 6, 391, 442–3
  - effect of aid on 9
  - undermining aid effectiveness, sub-Saharan Africa 390–408
- real exchange rate (RER) 34
  - appreciations 225
  - calculation 35
  - effects 207
  - overvaluation, Dutch disease effects 442–3
- real per capita GDP 400
- ‘realist’ donor approach
  - political and economic interest of donor 48
- receiving countries, heterogeneity of
  - accounting for 354–60
- recipient countries
  - consumption, financial savings, capital investment 69
  - elite and poor population groups 308
  - exports, promotion of 185–8, 287–8
    - specific SITC categories 156
  - governmental capacity to use aid 91
  - gross domestic product (GDP) 150
  - selectivity, increase since end of Cold War 52
    - two types of inhabitants, rich and poor 76
- recipient–donor trade relations 151
- recipient–donor trade relations, stimulation of 142
- recruitment drives by health authorities 298
- reduced form regression, aid as response variable 187
- reduction of resources devoted to poor 72
- reduction on infant mortality 9
- reforms during Reagan and George H.W. Bush administrations
  - IDB more responsive to US policy initiatives 259
- refugees from developing countries in donor country 180
- regional development banks, founding 255
- regional economic integration and aid for trade 184
- regional proximity, dynamic investigations 318
- regions and reverse flows
  - sub-Saharan Africa, Asia, Latin America, Caribbean, Middle East, North Africa 28

- regression analysis 503
  - cross-country estimations with panel data sets 97–9
- religious conservatives in US, further action of HIV/AIDS 55
- religious dimensions of result 316
- religious domination
  - cultural dynamics 316
  - dynamic investigations 318
- remittance and tourism, importance in developing countries 88
- remittances (REM) 82–3
- renewable energy use projects in low-income countries 463
- rent seeking in developing countries 64, 305
- rent-seeking by large firms, for aid-recipients 293, 295, 489
- rents to shipping interests 295
- research avenues, future 59–60
- reserve accumulations 29, 39
- residuals of Granger causal relations between the variables 249
- resource constraints of developing countries
  - saving constraint, foreign exchange constraint 29
- resource rents as share of GDP 117
- resource-rich countries 564
- restrictions on imports from recipient countries 134
- results
  - dynamic panel Arellano–Bond estimator regressions 119
  - generalized impulse response functions 245–6
  - panel cointegration test 246
  - panel unit root test 245
  - trade–aid nexus, Asia-Pacific countries 172
  - two-stage Heckman regressions 121, 122, 120
- revenue-neutral reforms 135
- revenue raising, cost 13
- reverse flow, Asian and sub-Saharan African nations 3
- reverse flow effect, different regions of developing world 39
- reverse flows, aid to 28, 33
  - in aid allocation, 1971–2012 28, 30
- reverse flows, role of, in allocation of aid 31
- Review of World Economies* 54
- reward to disaster affected countries with political and economic ties to 57
- rewards (rent) for donors 490–92
- rice acreage in America 297
- Rio Earth Summit 535
- risk covariates 120
- risk-averse and corrupt political leaders' rent-seeking activities 319
- risk measures, rule of law, political stability 117
- road projects in Vietnam, little evidence of aid fungibility 220
- robustness checks on BD, tests 359–60
- role of education 82–88
- 'Rome declaration on aid harmonization' (OECD-DAC) 2003 215
- SafeSave, Bangladesh, microfinance product for poor 581
- Samaritan's dilemma 64–79, 74–5, 77, 446
  - donor's willingness to provide 3
  - free-riding by the recipient 68
  - important role in economics of aid 64–5
  - no reference to reduction in savings by recipient 68
- sample country list 575
- samples of recent aggregated aid flows
  - literature 50, 51
- savings, investment, social capital 30, 83
- school attendance raising 415–16
- school completion rate, last year of primary school 425
- school enrolment rate, gross enrolment rate 425
- Schwarz Bayesian Information Criterion (SBIC) 37
- second step aggregated estimations 187–8
- secondary school enrolment 422
- secrecy rules 287
- sector aid 366
- sector approaches
  - transparency in goals, spending and results 56
- sectorally disaggregated systematic studies of aid allocation 53
- sector-based approach to study of aid flows 56–9
- sector-specific aid ('project' aid) 223
- sector-specific analyses, aid allocation studies 54
- sector-specific commitments of AfT by donor to recipient 145
- selectivity, objections to 447–8
- self-interest motives 101, 113, 137
- self-interested private sector lobby groups 479
- selfish donors better access to raw materials 143
- self-selection bias, microfinance 582
- self-sufficiency, virtual, in food, Bangladesh 435

- 'sensitivity' to poverty increase
  - Millennium Development Goals 101
- sensitivity analysis, oil producing country 564
- sensitivity to governance 362
- separate evaluation for highly fragile states 2
- share of manufacture in overall merchandise of Aft recipients to donor countries 142
- shipment services 'iron triangle' in USA 295
- short-run and long-run relationships
  - foreign aid and economic growth, no causality 238
- short-run and long-run results 241, 244–5
- short-run panel Granger causality results, summary 247
- short-term claims from international banks
  - Bank for International Settlements 201
- showing causal links
  - between FDI and economic growth 236
  - between foreign aid and economic growth 235
- simultaneity of aid effectiveness and aid allocation 331
- single donor trust funds (SDTFs) 13, 35, 539
- SITC categories 154
- SNS Lavelin, Canadian engineering company
  - corruption of Padma Bridge, Bangladesh 445–6
- social and economic impact of aid in Bangladesh 434–41
- social capital and institutions, aid complementation 219
- social development aspects, quality living standards 163
- social indicators in Bangladesh 436
- social programs and poverty reduction in Latin America 258
- social services, MFI training offers 580
- socio-cultural factors, effect on aid 219
- soft loans for donor country businesses 7, 290
- solar mini-hydroelectricity 464
- Solow growth model 317
- South Pacific Regional Trade and Economic Cooperation Agreement
  - on Closer Economic Relations (SPARTECA) 165
- South–North trade 208
- South–South trade 109, 142, 151, 157, 208
- Spain, increase in aid budget 521
- Spanish aid allocation, 'bandwagoning' 505–6
- SPARTECA
  - non-reciprocal relationship with Australia and New Zealand 165
- special attributes of recipient countries
  - small, big, fragile, conflict-afflicted, post-conflict countries 20
  - Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development 256
- specifications of equation, fragility per se 381
- speed of multilateral development bank loan disbursement 276
- sponsor interests 344
- SREP (scaling-up renewable energy programme) 463–4
- stable policy and strong government, trade necessity 167
- Stackelberg follower, donor 66, 68, 74, 75
- Standard International Trade Classification (SITC)
  - recipient exports of specific categories 154
- start-up costs for MFIs, subsidies for 592
- stochastic variable role 309
- stock market multiplications 291
- strain on multilateral system 550
- strategic donor behaviour 216
- Strategic Programme for Climate Resilience (World Bank) 462
- structure of exports of Aft recipients by SITC categories
  - average for the 1990–2012 period 156
- students from developing countries, in donor country 180
- studies showing causal links between trade openness and economic growth 237
- sub-period averaged panel, 1980–2010 570
- sub-Saharan Africa and Middle East, aid 'orphans' 506
  - net export equation 39–40
  - under IMF supervision 292
- subsidies for
  - borrowing costs 14, 594
  - lending programs for non-financial services 592
- subsidization impact on social performance 591
- subsidization, potential, specific types of saving 594
- subsidization strategy
  - for reduction of borrowing costs for clients 592
- substitutes or complements – the additionality of multi-bi aid to multilateral aid 547
- Sudan, Algeria, China's FDI flows 111
- suicides from indebtedness of microfinance clients in India 582
- summary statistics 161, 185, 204
  - on the variables and correlation matrix 240
- supply and demand, balanced evolution need 87
- supply-leading hypothesis (SLH)
  - FDI causes economic growth 234

- foreign aid causes economic growth 234
- trade openness, necessary pre-condition to economic growth 235
- supply-side capacity 162
- supply sources
  - four main positive effects on development 87
- 'support to fragile states' 101
- sustainable development goals (SDGs) 26, 456
- replacement of current MDGs 550
- Switzerland's domestic output, net gains 284
- tariff barrier dropping 478
- tariff on imports 136
- tariff reforms 133–4
- tax and grants (percentage of GDP), 1980–2010 563
- tax and net aid (percentage of GDP), 1989–2010 562
- tax and net loans (percentage of GDP), 1980–2010 563
- tax revenue (percentage GDP, 1980–2010) 560
- technical assistance, MFI training offers 580, 592
- technical progress, nature of, AEL as production process 342
- The Netherlands Antilles, Caribbean possessions 283
- Third High-Level meeting on Aid Effectiveness in 2008, 215
- threat of punishment (credible) from donor to recipient 78
- tied aid, strategic donor behaviour 4, 132–3, 181, 216, 285
- time-inconsistency and foreign aid 64, 66, 74–8, 78
- time path of the estimates in the AEL, choosing the periods 327–8
- time series analysis 35, 97, 103–4
  - of macroeconomic data from sub-Saharan Africa 407
- time-series modelling framework 243–4, 393–8
- time-series regression coefficients in the Fittemodel
  - coefficients in hard peg countries 411
- Tobit model 46
- top middle-ranked donors (Australia and the Netherlands) 516
- total external debt as percentage of GNI for selected countries in financial year 2012 434
- total external debt from 1980 to 2012 434
- total foreign aid for renewable energy sources by regions 467
- total foreign aid for water supply, sanitation, disposal by regions 466
- trade agreement negotiations 162, 184
- trade and aid, key issues 163–8
- trade and investment 284–94
- trade and political freedom
  - mitigation of CC in Christian-dominated nations 316
- trade barriers with ASEAN, elimination
  - Australia and New Zealand Closer Economic Relations Trade Agreement (ANZCERTA) 168
- trade creation in Africa due to Chinese investment 113
- trade data from United Nations Comtrade database 146
- trade effects of foreign aid, empirical perspective 179–92
- trade finance and foreign aid
  - contribution to bilateral export flows 209
- trade finance, outstanding short-term credit in US dollars 208
- trade finance role
  - fostering export flows in Asia and sub-Saharan Africa 209
- trade financing and trade flows relationship 197
- trade integration within Asia-Pacific region 163
- trade liberalization 5, 136
  - requirement from recipients 284
- trade openness 9, 351, 400
- trade partnership favouring 52
- trade policies, good 131–2
- trade policy in Australia, New Zealand, and the Asia-Pacific, overview 165–6
- trade promotion programmes
  - trade increases, donor and recipient 286–7
- trade regulations, stringent in Asia-Pacific nations 164–5
- Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS)
  - rent extraction 296
- trade wars, aid in
  - more active participation in World Trade Organization 284
- trading partners, two sub-groups
  - DAC donor countries of AfT 151
  - low and middle-income countries 151
- traditional policy conditionality, Bangladesh, not working 447
- Trans-Pacific Partnership 165
- Transparency International
  - Bangladesh ranking as most corrupt country, 2005 444

- transport infrastructure 111
- transportation system 459–60
- trend of aid dependency 431
- trend of Bangladesh's real effective exchange rate 443
- tropics variable, negative correlation with CPIA 356
- Trumbull and Wall's model, approach 94
- trust funds 530–32
- trust funds, proliferation of 527–51
- trust of donors, of recipient governments 482–3
- two middle-ranked donors (Canada, Sweden) 517
- two-periods and two countries
  - one donor, one recipient 65–7
- two smaller donors, Portugal, Finland) 517
- UN-Data, data on ODA 35
- unit root test for the Panel data 35–6, 241
- United Kingdom (UK)
  - aid allocation to preserve international influence over Commonwealth countries 98
  - aid to poorer nations 1
  - France, Germany, donor rank preference 12
  - Japan and, more aid to countries with higher growth, fewer human rights abuses 51
  - largest number of immigrant doctors 298
- United Nations (UN)
  - by 2050 urban areas' populations 456
  - COMTRADE database 185
  - Conference on Financing for Development in Monterrey (2002) 215
  - Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) 86, 110
  - Development Programme (UNDP) 528
  - multilateral agency 463
  - Environmental Programme (UNEP) 535
  - Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) 459–60, 546
  - global agreement on climate change 456
  - High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) resolution 48, 82
  - Millennium Declaration, 2000, substantial increase in development assistance 28
  - Millennium Development Goals (MDG) 3, 26, 82, 350, 414, 429, 579
  - Millennium Development Project report (2005) 215
  - one-country, one-vote governance system 256
  - Security Council (UNSC) temporary membership by developing country 261
  - voting alignment as supply-side control variable 262
  - voting data 266
- United States (US)
  - Agency for International Development (USAID), 82, 294, 295, 296
  - aid, more to corrupt recipients 306
  - bilateral aid, one-third to Egypt and Israel 260
  - consolidation of 'hegemonic' political power 98
  - financial sector 282
  - fostering international security 98
  - global philanthropy, report 82
  - HIV/AIDS humanitarian aid
  - influence, informal in World Bank, loan approval 261
  - Intellectual Property Rights Assistance Project 296
  - military aid 268
  - no response to nations with natural disasters 49
  - overriding interest in Latin America, acknowledgement of 276
  - preference for highest rank as donor 12
  - realignment of conservative lawmakers 55
  - Trade and Development Agency 290
- universal primary education and gender parity by 2015 414
- urban design and public policy, green buildings and infrastructure 459
- urban growth in Asia, Africa, Latin America 456
- urbanization with ecological standards 459
- use of different aid channels by donor countries, 2006–12 540
- use of single-donor versus multi-donor trust funds, 2006–12 540
- utility-neutral reforms 135
- variable definitions and data sources 389
- variable descriptions and sources 576
- variables, non-stationary 244
- variables use in study
  - bilateral foreign aid, foreign direct investment, trade openness, per capita economic growth 239
- variance of shocks to aid 223
- variation in aid flows, factors 45
- vector autoregression (VAR) model 225, 233, 392–3
- vertical export diversification 143
- vocational skills training, MFI training offers 580
- volatility of aid flows 222

- voluntary exports restraints (VER) by donor country 133
- voluntary savings accounts offers to poor 579
- vote buying on UNSC 261
- vote shares tied to financial contributions 259
- Wald tests 148, 149, 151, 154
- Washington consensus, few benefits to Bangladesh 441
- waste management 471
- waste management disposal 465
- water consumption 459
- water supply 471
and sanitation 465
and sewage 461
- weak associations between aid and growth real exchange rate overvaluation 442
- weak correlation between aid and recipient exports 192
- weak institutions 226
- wealth of nations, dynamic investigations 318
- welfare implications of tied aid 132–3
- welfare level in donor country 137 unchanged 134
- Western trade cartels, market powers 286
- Western transnational corporations market shares in non-Western economies 282
- wheat producers gains in US 297
- women empowerment 579, 592
- World Bank 2, 6
coordinator of aid donors to Bangladesh 436–7
Country Policy and Institutional Assessment (CPIA) 257, 352
Global Development Finance database 201 global philanthropy and remittances 82
World Development Indicators (WDI) 201
‘Worldwide Governance Indicators’ 401
- World Bank and Asian Development Bank multilateral aid for Bangladesh 433
- World Bank assistance program to Bangladesh ‘moderately satisfactory’ 437–8
- World Bank Development indicators
52 African nations, 1996–2010 315
- World Bank Enterprise Surveys (WBES) 367
- World Bank and policy reform for Bangladesh, disingenuous, self-serving 437
- World Bank policy research working paper 1997 ‘Aid, policies and growth’ 218
- World Bank poverty reduction strategies (PRS) 527
- World Bank report, Assessing Aid 15, 20, 351
- World Bank’s Clean Technology Fund 11
- World Bank’s CPIA indicators 8
pro-cyclical 25
- World Bank’s Strategic Programme for Climate Resilience 462
- World Bank’s World Development Indicators (WDI) 146 control variables 559–60
- World Development Indicators, World Bank 239
- World Development Indicators (WDI) 35, 266
- World Food Programme 528
- World Governance Indicators (WGI) corruption problem indications 444
- World Health Organization
‘quality of air’ 461
The World Medicines Situation 296–7
- World Institute for Development Economics Research 85
- World Trade Organization (WTO)
Aid-for-Trade initiative 1, 4–5 trade policy 162
Trade-related Aspects of Intellectual Property (TRIPS) 7
- World Trade Organization (WTO) Ministerial Conference in Hong Kong merchandise exports 141–2
- World War II aftermath, creation of World Bank 255
- zero observations 118
- zero trade/zero aid flows 183
- zero-correlation result 337
- Zimbabwe under Robert Mugabe example of prioritization of own survival 483

