Index

‘abridged maps’ 270
activation policies
concrete organizational forms of 21–2
corporate governance model 22–3, 24, 99
demanding elements 16, 165
enabling elements 16, 141, 165
fragmented organizational
governance of 21–2
French cross-sectorial employment policies see under France
governance models 19–24
governance of integrated policies
cross-sectoriality 214–15, 223–31
decimalization 213–14, 216, 218–20, 222–3, 231
employment and health 230–31
employment and training 226–9
in France 216, 217–18, 219, 222, 224, 226, 228–9
in Germany 216, 217–18, 219, 221–2, 224, 225, 226, 229
horizontal integration 119, 212, 213, 214–16, 223–32
in Italy 216, 217, 219, 220–21, 224, 226, 227–8
literature on 211–12
multi-level governance 213–14, 216, 220–23, 231
in Poland 216–17, 219, 220, 224, 226–7, 230
progress of integrated approach 216–18
promotion of activation policies 211, 212, 231
in Sweden 216, 217, 219, 221, 224, 226, 229, 230
in UK 216, 217, 219, 222, 224, 226, 228, 230–31
vertical integration 213–14, 216, 218–23, 231
individualization of social service provision 17–18, 37–43, 44
international comparisons 4–5
international organizations’
governance of 19–20
local-level coordination
coordination between policy areas 245–8
coordination between different stakeholders 251–3
coordination of administrative levels 248–51
general patterns 242–4, 264
in Germany 240, 243–6, 248, 249, 251–3, 254, 255, 257–8
local patterns/national systems 253–6
national comparisons 244–5, 257–60
in Poland 240, 243–5, 247–8, 248, 249, 250, 251–3, 254–5, 258–9
previous research into 235–7
research design/methodology 237–41, 256–7
in UK 240, 243–6, 248, 249–50, 251–3, 254, 255, 257–8, 260
local-level focus 2–3, 18–19, 30–32
market governance model 22, 23, 24, 25–6, 27, 99–100, 109
multidimensional coordination 24, 28–30, 32, 34–5

295
Integrating social and employment policies in Europe

multilevel coordination 24, 30–32, 35–6
multi-stakeholder coordination 24, 25–8, 32, 33–4
national varieties of 20–21
network governance model 22, 23, 24, 26–7, 99, 123
organizational dimension of 16–19
Polish welfare system 72–8
individual level barriers to implementation 86–9, 90
sub-national barriers to implementation 79–86, 89–90
procedural governance model 22, 24, 99, 112
social citizenship see social citizenship
social cohesion policies see social cohesion policies
Swedish LTU policy implementation see under Sweden
UK welfare system 93–103, 112–14 see also under individual countries ‘activation turn’ 211–12, 235, 265
active inclusion 3, 4, 5, 28, 37–43, 212
‘activity reports’ 274, 275, 276, 281, 287, 288
ADF (Association of French Departments) 153
AFOL (Agency for Training and Work Orientation, Italy) 125–6, 134
alignment (degree of coordination) 240–41
ALMPs (active labour market policies) and ‘activation turn’ 211–12, 235, 265
and German service integration 163, 166–7
and governance of integrated activation policies 216, 221, 227–9
and individualization of social citizenship 272–3, 275–7, 283, 284–6, 288
and Italian employment services 123 and local-level policy coordination 235, 236 and Polish welfare system 78, 85 and UK welfare system 93 and ‘usages of Europe’ approach 189

Anglo-Saxon welfare regime 21
Area Plans (Piani di zona, Italy) 123, 126, 131
Barbier, J.C. 19, 145
Bassanini Law (Law 59/1997, Italy) 122–3, 219
Blair, Tony 217
Boolean algebra 239
Bordeaux (France) 6, 147, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 252, 264
Borghi, V. 211, 266
British Work Programme see Work Programme (UK)
Brodkin, E. 152, 271
Cardiff (UK) 7, 95, 96, 102–3, 105–8, 113, 238, 243–4, 245, 246, 249–50, 252, 264
Cardiff Partnership Board (UK) 107–8
caseworker specializations 39–40, 41
CELV (Centre for Job Mediation, Italy) 124–6
central reorganization 28–9, 30
Child Tax Credit (UK) 97
collaboration (degree of coordination) 240–41

client categorizations 39, 40, 41, 42, 44
cognitive resources (of EU) 187, 190, 192, 193, 195, 197, 199, 200, 203, 204, 205, 206 cognitive usages (‘usages of Europe’ approach) 187, 190, 192, 195, 197, 204, 206 ‘coherent coordination’ 245, 246, 248, 254, 257–8
corporate governance model 22–3, 24, 99

consolidation 75, 106, 139, 141
convergence (degree of coordination) 240–41
Coordination Unions (Sweden) 51, 65–7, 68
‘coproduction’ 18, 22, 23, 240–41
CPIs (Public Employment Centres, Italy) 123, 127–8, 129, 240 ‘creative appropriation’ 20
cross-sectoriality
employment and health 230–31
employment and training 226–9
French employment policies
activation policies/governance 139–48
barriers to local level cross-sectoriality 149–52
caseworker discretion/tools 154–5
cross-sectoriality as policy agenda 140–42
cross-sectoriality as scientific concept 140–42
data-sharing and communication channels 151–2
‘global’ delivery approach 139, 142, 146, 153–8
high centralization trend 143 and ‘insertion’ policies 145–6
local level adaptation 146–8
local level enablers 148–52
micro-level delivery 152–3
multiplicity of actors trend 144–5
overlapping competencies 149–50
professional culture among caseworkers 156–8
and promotion of local actors’ discretion 146
public service modernization trend 145
policy cross-sectoriality 215–16, 223–6, 232
rise of 214–16
Częstochowa (Poland) 79, 88, 238, 243–4, 246, 247, 249, 252, 264
data-sharing 151–2, 155, 172
decentralized collaboration 29, 30, 35, 107
demanding elements (of activation policies) 16, 165
Denmark 21
DEOY (department for equal opportunities and young people, Italy) 129–30
Department of Employment Promotion and Social Affairs (Poland) 83 ‘deservingness’ 279, 281, 282, 285, 287, 288
devolved administrations (UK) 96, 188, 222
DGEFP (General Delegation for Employment and Professional Education, France) 153
differentiated/flexible procedures 39–41
DIRECCTEs (Regional Administrative Service for Enterprises, France) 144
DRJSCS (Regional Directorates for Youth, Sports and Social Cohesion, France) 148–9
Dubois, V. 41
DW (Department for Welfare, Italy) 129
DWP (Department for Work and Pensions, UK) 25, 28–9, 96–7, 99–101, 105, 109, 111
EC (European Commission) 82, 211, 212
economic cross-sectoriality 215–16
Economy, Work, Skills and Learning Partnership (UK) 108
EES (European Employment Strategy) 2, 20, 185, 201, 202, 204, 216–17, 225
Ehrler, F. 102, 109
Employer Offer (UK) 105
‘Employment and Social Developments in Europe 2011’ (report) 141
‘Employment Promotion and the Activation of the Local Labour Market Programme’ (Poland) 80–81
enabling elements (of activation policies) 16, 141, 165
ESA (Employment and Support Allowance) 96, 97, 98, 100, 101, 111
ESF (European Social Fund) 75, 80, 127, 172, 174, 176, 182, 185, 191, 194–5, 201–2, 203–4, 205, 217
Integrating social and employment policies in Europe

Esping-Andersen, G. 237
EU (European Union)
cognitive resources 187, 190, 192, 193, 195, 197, 199, 200, 203, 204, 205, 206
EU2020 strategy 118–19
and governance of activation policies 20, 213
institutional resources 187, 194, 195, 199, 200, 205, 206–7
legal resources 187, 190, 192, 193, 197, 205
Lisbon Strategy 185
and LOCALISE project 3, 4, 5–8, 52–3, 187, 216, 237, 243–4, 254, 257–9 and Polish welfare system 72, 73–4, 75, 85, 86–8, 90
political resources 187, 194, 195, 197, 198–9
European Social Agenda 118
Evans, T. 108, 152
Families First (UK) 107
FEA (Federal Employment Agency, Germany) 42, 162, 164, 166, 167, 180, 193
Ferrera, M. 2
‘filters’ in policy-making process 146–7, 152
financial pooling 65–7
financial resources (of EU) 185–6, 187, 188–90, 191–2, 193–5, 196–200, 201–2, 203–4, 206–7 ‘flanking’ services 16
Flexible New Deal (UK) 97, 101
Flexible Support Fund (UK) 105
fragmentation (degree of coordination) 240–41
fragmentation of services/welfare systems
Italy 119–21, 125, 129, 130–34
Poland 72, 73, 75, 78, 83, 84, 89–90
United Kingdom 93–4, 99–100, 106–7, 112–13
Framework for the Provision of Employment Related Support Services (UK) 100 France

and continental welfare regime 4
cross-sectorial employment policies
activation policies/governance 139–48
barriers to local level cross-sectoriality 149–52
caseworker discretion/tools 154–5
cross-sectoriality as policy agenda 140–42
cross-sectoriality as scientific concept 140–42
data-sharing and communication channels 151–2
‘global’ delivery approach 139, 142, 146, 153–8
high centralization trend 143
and ‘insertion’ policies 145–6
local level adaptation 146–8
local level enablers 148–52
micro-level delivery 152–3
multiplicity of actors trend 144–5
overlapping competencies 149–50
professional culture among caseworkers 156–8
and promotion of local actors’ discretion 146
public service modernization trend 145
governance of integrated activation policies 216, 217–18, 219, 222, 224, 226, 228–9
and individualization of social service provision 38, 39, 40–41, 44
LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 6, 8
and multidimensional coordination 29, 34–5
and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6
and multi-stakeholder coordination 33–4
social cohesion policies 190–92, 203, 204–5
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>‘usages of Europe’ study 190–92, 203, 204–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>functional dimension (of vertical integration) 213–14, 216, 220–23, 231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>functional specialization 28, 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fuzzy-set analysis 238–40, 242, 245–7, 253, 257</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and continental welfare regime 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>governance of integrated activation policies 216, 217–18, 219, 221–2, 224, 225, 226, 229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hartz IV reforms (2005) 23, 221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and individualization of social service provision 38, 39, 40–41, 42, 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jobcenters see Jobcenters</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 6, 8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>local-level policy coordination 240, 243–6, 248, 249, 251–3, 254, 255, 257–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and multidimensional coordination 29, 34–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and multi-stakeholder coordination 25, 26, 33–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>service integration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and active labour market policies 163, 166–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and Hartz reforms 162, 163–5, 167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>impact of caseloads on 178–80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>impact of target groups on 180–81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>individual level 178–81, 182–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jobcenter service provision data 165–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>local level 171–8, 182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and minimum income scheme 162, 163, 165–7, 169, 172, 173–5, 177–8, 182–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>role of Jobcenters 162–3, 164, 181–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>street-level delivery mechanisms 168–70</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>study design/methodology 170–71</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social cohesion policies 193–5, 203, 204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘usages of Europe’ study 193–5, 203, 204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘Get Britain Working’ initiative 100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘global’ service delivery approach 139, 142, 146, 153–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GOPS (Local Social Assistance Centres, Poland) 77, 78, 87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harris, J. 108, 152</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hartz reforms (Germany, 2003, 2005) 23, 162, 163–5, 167, 211, 229</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hasenfeld, Y. 267</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>high centralization (structural trend) 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>horizontal fragmentation 28, 29, 30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘horizontal governance’ 68, 141</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>horizontal integration of activation policies 119, 212, 213, 214–16, 223–32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>housing Benefit (UK) 97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>human capital development 2, 21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ILO (International Labour Organization) 20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IMF (International Monetary Fund) 20, 74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Incapacity Benefit (UK) 98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Income Support (UK) 96, 97, 98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>individualization 17–18, 37–43, 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and French cross-sectorial employment policies 139, 141, 143</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of Polish social service provision 37, 38, 39, 40–41, 42, 44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of social citizenship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>analytical framework for study 266, 268–72</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>constructing knowledge on individuals 278–80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>distributing resources and allocating responsibility 282–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and formal categorizations 273–4, 287–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>jobseekers’ obligations and organizational sanctions 276–7, 287</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>literature on 265–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘organizational legibility’ 268–72, 286</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Integrating social and employment policies in Europe

in Poland 266–7, 272–7, 278–9, 281–2, 283, 284–8
reading clients 280–82, 287
and ‘responsibilization’ 17, 20, 268, 273, 275, 286, 288–9
standardization of client treatment 274–6
street-level construction of individuals 277–86
and Swedish LTU policy implementation 51, 52, 57–68
inner-organizational factors/conditions 37–43, 44, 170, 171 ‘insertion’ policies (structural trend) 143, 145–6
institutional resources (of EU) 187, 194, 195, 199, 200, 205, 206–7
institutionalized discretion 39, 40–41, 42–3, 44
‘integrated approach’ 4, 118–19, 123, 141, 164, 177, 211–12, 216, 225, 231
‘interface zone’ 265–6, 269, 280
inter-organizational cooperation 3–4, 18, 147, 183

Italy
governance of integrated activation policies 216, 217, 219, 220–21, 224, 226, 227–8
and individualization of social service provision 37–8, 39, 40–41, 44
LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 6, 8
and Mediterranean welfare regime 4
and multidimensional coordination 34–5
and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6
and multi-stakeholder coordination 25, 26, 33–4
NPM reforms 119, 120, 122–3
social cohesion policies 195–8, 203, 204–5, 206
social inclusion policies
case selection/methodology 121–2
fragmentation of services 119–21, 125, 129, 130–34
institutional context of study 122–3
integrated approach 118–19, 123
multidimensional coordination 124–30, 131–3, 134–5
multilevel coordination 124–30, 131–2, 134–5
and Rechtsstaat administrative culture 119–20
specialization ethos 119, 120, 121, 130–34, 135
‘usages of Europe’ study 195–8, 203, 204–5, 206
Weberian bureaucratic model 119, 120, 135
ITs (information technologies) 279

Job and Development Guarantee (Sweden) 55, 56, 59–60, 275
Job Match Initiative (UK) 105
Jobcenters (Germany)
creation of 162
individual level service integration 178–81, 182–3
individualization of social service provision 40
local level service integration 171–8, 182
and multidimensional coordination 29
and multilevel coordination 31
service integration role 162–3, 164, 181–2
service provision data 165–8
street-level delivery mechanisms 168–70
Jobcentre Plus (UK) 31, 33, 34, 97, 99, 100, 104–5, 112
‘joined-up government’ 141
JSA (Jobseeker’s Allowance) 95–6, 97, 98, 100, 101

Key Performance Indicators 110, 111, 113
Künzel, S. 23–4

Law of the Modernization of Territorial Public Action and Metropolitan Assertion (France, 2014) 145
legal resources (of EU) 187, 190, 192, 193, 197, 205
‘legibility tools’ 268, 270–71, 278, 281
legitimizing usages (‘usages of Europe’ approach) 187, 190, 192, 197–8, 199, 204, 206
Lewis, J.M. 22–3, 24, 99
liberal scheme welfare regime 4
limited coordination of services 110–12
Lipsky, M. 41, 108, 268, 270, 281
Lisbon Strategy (EU) 185
LOCALISE (Local Worlds of Social Cohesion) project 3, 4, 5–8, 52–3, 187, 216, 237, 243–4, 254, 257–9
LTU (long-term unemployed) and UK Work Programme 94, 96, 97, 99–102, 105–8, 112–14
and fragmented organizational governance of activation policies 22
and German service integration 162, 164–5, 175–6, 177–8
and individualization of social citizenship see individualization of social citizenship
and Italian social inclusion policies 119
LOCALISE project national comparisons 5, 6
and local-level activation policies 2, 3
and local-level policy coordination 103–8, 239–40
and market governance model 25
multidimensional problems of 17
and Polish activation policies 73–4, 86–8
and Swedish policy implementation activation policy/governance 54–7
barriers to service individualization 58–60
coordinated service provision 51–2
Coordination Unions 51, 65–7, 68
financial pooling 65–7
individualization of social service provision 51, 52, 57–68
Job and Development Guarantee 55, 56, 59–60
labour market policies/measures 54–5
and LOCALISE project data 52–3
local-level coordination 64–7, 68
municipal welfare policies/services 55–7
theoretical framework of study 53–4
‘Work Line’ Concept 60–64, 68, 256, 258, 283
and UK activation policies 94, 95, 96–103, 105–8, 112–14
and UK research design 102–3
market governance model 22, 23, 24, 25–6, 27, 99–100, 109, 112, 113, 114
Mediterranean welfare regime 4
merger/full integration (degree of coordination) 240–41
Milan (Italy) 121–2, 124–6, 132–3, 134, 197, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250, 252, 264
‘millefeuille’ approach 29, 144
Minas, R. 29, 31, 56
Ministry of Employment, Work, Professional Training and Social Dialogue (France) 150
Montpellier (France) 6, 147, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 252, 264
MOPRs (City Family Assistance Centres, Poland) 77, 78, 84–5
MOPS (Local Social Assistance Centres, Poland) 77, 78, 87, 89
MPiPS (Ministry of Labour and Social Policy, Poland) 76–7, 220, 224 multidimensional coordination and activation governance 24, 28–30, 32, 34–5
and Italian social inclusion policies 124–30, 131–3, 134–5
in Polish activation policy implementation 85–6
and UK LTU activation policies 106–8
multilevel coordination
and activation governance 24, 30–32, 35–6
and Italian social inclusion policies 124–30, 131–2, 134–5
in Polish activation policy implementation 79–83
and UK LTU activation policies 104–6
multiplicity of actors (structural trend) 144–5
multi-stakeholder coordination
and activation governance 24, 25–8, 32, 33–4
in Polish activation policy implementation 83–5
and UK LTU activation policies 106–8
multi-stakeholder cross-sectoriality 215–16
Nacka (Sweden) 7, 52, 57, 65, 202, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250, 252, 264
Naples (Italy) 121–2, 128–30, 131, 196, 197, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250, 252, 264
NAPs (National Action Plans) 225
National Audit Office (UK) 108
national framework law (Law 328/2000, Italy) 123 Netherlands 31
network governance model 22, 23, 24, 26–7, 99, 123
‘Neustadt’ (Germany) 170–73, 177, 178–81, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 252, 264
New Deal programme (UK) 97, 101, 228
NGOs (non-governmental organizations) 25, 75, 77, 83, 87–90, 150–52, 168, 172–3, 174, 251–2 non-coordinated service provision 29–30
normative assumptions 53, 60–64, 67–8 NPM (New Public Management)
and corporate governance models 22–3
and French cross-sectorial employment policies 152
and French public service modernization 145
and individualization of social citizenship 271
and Italian reforms 119, 120, 122–3
and multidimensional coordination 28
and UK governance models 94, 99, 102, 105, 109, 113–14
OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development) 19–20, 211
OFII (French organization in charge of migrants’ integration) 149
OMC (Open Method of Coordination) 185, 189
one-stop shops (Germany) see Jobcenters (Germany) Örebro (Sweden) 7, 52, 65, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250, 252, 264
organizational formatting 269
organizational integration 18, 29, 30, 32, 34, 107
organizational isomorphism 53
organizational legibility 268–72, 286
‘organ pipes’ governance model 120, 121, 132, 135
‘Osternburg’ (Germany) 170–71, 175–6, 177, 178–80, 238, 243, 246, 249, 252, 264
parallel governance 104–6 ‘partial coordination’ 257–8
participation in lifelong learning 226–7
Pathways to Work (UK) 99, 100, 101
‘people-changing activities’ 267
‘people-processing’ 19, 266, 267, 269, 270, 271, 277–8, 283, 286
‘people-sustaining’ organizations 267
PES (Public Employment Service)
French model 155, 157
German model 164
and individualization of social citizenship 267, 269, 270, 273–4, 275–7, 278–88
and individualization of social service provision 38–9, 42, 51, 57–60, 67–8
and multilevel active governance coordination 33–6
Polish model 72, 74–5, 79, 84–5, 87, 88, 90
Swedish model
and Coordination Unions 65–7
and governance of integrated activation policies 221
and individualization of social service provision 51, 57–60, 67–8
labour market policies/measures 54–5
LTU study data collection 52
municipal welfare policies/services 55–7
role in activation policies 51
and social cohesion policies 200
and ‘Work Line’ Concept 61–2
PHARE (Poland and Hungary: Aid for Restructuring of the Economies) programme 199
PLIE (Local Employment and Integration Plan, France) 3, 144, 240
Poland
activation policy implementation 72–8
individual level barriers to 86–9, 90
multidimension integration 85–6
multilevel integration 79–83
multi-stakeholder integration 83–5
sub-national barriers to 79–86, 89–90
and EU integration/funding 72, 73–4, 75, 85, 86–8, 90 ‘Europeanization’ of welfare system 72–3, 75, 89
evolution of welfare system 72, 74–8
fragmentation of welfare system 72, 73, 75, 78, 83, 84, 89–90
governance of integrated activation policies 216–17, 219, 220, 224, 226–7, 230
individualization of social citizenship 266–7, 272–7, 278–9, 281–2, 283, 284–8
individualization of social service provision 37, 38, 39, 40–41, 42, 44
LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 6, 8
local-level policy coordination 240, 243–5, 247–8, 248, 249, 250, 251–3, 254–5, 258–9
and long-term unemployed 73–4, 86–8
and multidimensional coordination 34–5
and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6
and multi-stakeholder coordination 25, 26, 33–4
and post-socialist transformation 4, 72, 74–5
social cohesion policies 198–200, 203, 204, 206
‘usages of Europe’ study 198–200, 203, 204, 206
Pôle Emploi (French national employment agency) 144, 145, 149, 153, 154
policy cross-sectoriality 215–16, 223–6, 232
political resources (of EU) 187, 194, 195, 197, 198–9
post-communist welfare regime 4 ‘power asymmetry’ 186, 196, 198, 205
‘prime provider’ companies 34, 35, 100, 101
procedural governance model 22, 24, 99, 112
‘procedural personalisation’ 110
professional norms 41–3, 44
profiling interviews 155
promotion of local actors’ discretion (structural trend) 146
PRZ (Poviat Council for Employment) 79, 83–5
public service modernization (structural trend) 145
PUP (Poviat Labour Office, Poland) 34, 35, 76–7, 78, 84–6, 89, 219, 226–7, 240
QCA (Qualitative Comparative Analysis) 239, 242
Rechtsstaat administrative culture (Italy) 119–20
regulative influences 53
‘responsibilization’ 17, 20, 268, 273, 275, 286, 288–9
RGPP (general public policy review, France) 145
Roma Decade (2005–15) 118
Rome (Italy) 121–2, 126–8, 131, 132–3, 134, 197, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250–51, 252, 264
ROPS (Regional Social Assistance Centres, Poland) 77
SACs (Social Assistance Centres) 31
SAS (social assistance services) 72, 77, 79, 84–5, 87, 88, 90
SCAS (Single Card for Access to Services, Italy) 133–4
Scott, J.C. 269–70
Scottish Community Planning Partnerships (UK) 107
SD (Desk for Women, Italy) 129
Serrano, Pascual A. 19
service budgets 37–8, 42–3, 44
service integration (Germany)
and active labour market policies 163, 166–7
and Hartz reforms 162, 163–5, 167
impact of caseloads on 178–80
impact of target groups on 180–81
individual level 178–81, 182–3
Jobcenter service provision data 165–8
local level 171–8, 182
and minimum income scheme 162, 163, 165–7, 169, 172, 173–5, 177–8, 182–3 role of Jobcenters 162–3, 164, 181–2
street-level delivery mechanisms 168–70
study design/methodology 170–71
SGB II (Social Security Code II, Germany) 40, 166, 172–4, 175–6
‘silos’ 93, 106–7
Słupsk (Poland) 79, 88, 238, 243–4, 246, 247, 249, 251, 252, 264
social citizenship and activation policy governance models 23
analytical framework for study 266, 268–72
constructing knowledge on individuals 278–80
distributing resources and allocating responsibility 282–6
and formal categorizations 273–4, 287–8
jobseekers’ obligations and organizational sanctions 276–7, 287
literature on 265–6
and ‘organizational legibility’ 268–72, 286
in Poland 266–7, 272–7, 278–9, 281–2, 283, 284–8
reading clients 280–82, 287
and ‘responsabilization’ 17, 20, 268, 273, 275, 286, 288–9
standardization of client treatment 274–6
street-level construction of individuals 277–86
social cohesion policies and EU cognitive resources 187, 190, 192, 193, 195, 197, 199, 200, 203, 204, 205, 206
and EU financial resources 185–6, 187, 188–90, 191–2, 193–5, 196–200, 201–2, 203–4, 206–7 and EU institutional resources 187, 194, 195, 199, 200, 205, 206–7
and EU legal resources 187, 190, 192, 193, 197, 205
and EU political resources 187, 194, 195, 197, 198–9 ‘usages of Europe’ approach 186–8
cognitive usages 187, 190, 192, 195, 197, 204, 206
French study 190–92, 203, 204–5
German study 193–5, 203, 204
Italian study 195–8, 203, 204–5, 206
legitimizing usages 187, 190, 192, 197–8, 199, 204, 206
Polish study 198–200, 203, 204, 206
strategic usages 187, 188, 189, 190, 192, 195, 197, 200, 203, 204
Swedish study 200–203, 204
UK study 188–90, 203, 204–5
social exclusion 5, 30, 81, 119, 193, 212
social inclusion
active inclusion 37–43
and French cross-sectorial employment policies 139, 141, 156–7
Italian social inclusion policies
case selection/methodology 121–2
fragmentation of services 119–21, 125, 129, 130–34
institutional context of study 122–3
integrated approach 118–19, 123
multidimensional coordination 124–30, 131–3, 134–5
multilevel coordination 124–30, 131–2, 134–5
and Rechtsstaat administrative culture 119–20
specialization ethos 119, 120, 121, 130–34, 135
LOCALISE project national comparisons 5
Social Service Act (Sweden) 57, 58, 64
social-democratic welfare regime 4 specialization ethos (in Italian organisational governance) 119, 120, 121, 130–34, 135
Sportello Lavoro (Labour Front Office, Italy) 124
SSIA (Swedish Social Insurance Agency) 33–6, 52, 55, 64–7, 224, 247, 250
staff resources 38–40, 42–3 ‘stakeholder coordination’ 239, 251, 254–5, 258–9
strategic usages (‘usages of Europe’ approach) 187, 188, 189, 190, 192, 195, 197, 200, 203, 204
structural dimension (of vertical integration) 213–14, 216, 218–20, 222–3, 231
STU (short-term unemployed) 96–7, 99
‘subsidiarity principle’ 123, 127, 131, 185, 186, 213, 222
‘Süderfeld’ (Germany) 170–71, 173–5, 177, 178–9, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 252, 264
Support Group (UK) 96, 98, 101
Sweden
governance of integrated activation policies 216, 217, 219, 221, 224, 226, 229
individualization of social service provision 38, 39, 40, 42, 44
LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 7, 8
LTU policy implementation activation policy/governance 54–7
barriers to service individualization 58–60
coordinated service provision 51–2
Coordination Unions 51, 65–7, 68
financial pooling 65–7
individualization of social service provision 51, 52, 57–68
Job and Development Guarantee 55, 56, 59–60
labour market policies/measures 54–5
and LOCALISE project data 52–3
local-level coordination 64–7, 68
municipal welfare policies/services 55–7
theoretical framework of study 53–4
‘Work Line’ Concept 60–64, 68, 256, 258, 283
Integrating social and employment policies in Europe

and multidimensional coordination 34–5
and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6
and multi-stakeholder coordination 25, 33–4
social cohesion policies 200–203, 204
and social-democratic welfare regime 4
‘usages of Europe’ study 200–203, 204
‘systemic coordination’ 22
‘third way’ 217
Toruń (Poland) 6, 79, 88, 238, 243–4, 246, 247, 249, 251, 252, 264
Tours (France) 6, 147, 149, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 252, 264
Treu Law (Italy) 219
Trollhättan (Sweden) 7, 65, 202, 238, 243–4, 246, 249, 250, 252, 264
UB I (Unemployment Benefit I, Germany) 193, 195
UK (United Kingdom) activation policies/governance 93–103, 112–14
UK Work Programme see Work Programme (UK)
devolved adminstrations 96, 188, 222
fragmentation of welfare system 93–4, 99–100, 106–7, 112–13
front-line service delivery 108–12, 113–14
governance of integrated activation policies 21, 216, 217, 219, 222, 224, 226, 228, 230–31
and individualization of social service provision 38, 39–40, 42, 44
Jobcentre Plus 31, 33, 34, 97, 99, 100, 104–5, 112
labour market reforms 96–8
and liberal scheme welfare regime 4
LOCALISE project national comparisons 4–5, 7, 8
local-level coordination of services 103–8, 112–13
local-level policy coordination 240, 243–6, 248, 249–50, 251–3, 254, 255, 257–8, 260
LTU activation policies 94, 95, 96–103, 105–8, 112–14
and market governance model 99–100, 109, 112, 113, 114
and multidimensional coordination 34–5, 106–8
and multilevel coordination 31, 35–6, 104–6
and multi-stakeholder coordination 25, 33–4, 106–8
research design for LTU study 102–3
social cohesion policies 188–90, 203, 204–5
‘usages of Europe’ study 188–90, 203, 204–5
‘usages of Europe’ approach 186–8
cognitive usages 187, 190, 192, 195, 197, 204, 206
EU cognitive resources 187, 190, 192, 193, 195, 197, 199, 200, 203, 204, 205, 206
EU institutional resources 187, 194, 195, 199, 200, 205, 206–7
EU legal resources 187, 194, 195, 197, 205
EU political resources 187, 194, 195, 197, 198–9
French study 190–92, 203, 204–5
German study 193–5, 203, 204
Italian study 195–8, 203, 204–5, 206
legitimizing usages 187, 190, 192, 197–8, 199, 204, 206
Polish study 198–200, 203, 204, 206
strategic usages 187, 188, 189, 190, 192, 195, 197, 200, 203, 204
Swedish study 200–203, 204
UK study 188–90, 203, 204–5
Van Berkel, R. 22, 23, 94, 211, 266
vertical coordination 31, 43
vertical integration of activation policies 119, 213–14, 216, 218–23, 231
Voivodeship Labour Office (Poland) 74, 76–7
Weber, M. 119
Weberian bureaucratic model 119, 120, 135
WEFO (Welsh European Funding Office) 189
welfare regime types 4, 21, 255
Wildavsky, A. 146
Work Capability Assessments (UK) 96, 98
‘work first’ strategies 21, 26, 97, 114
‘Work Line’ Concept (Sweden) 60–64, 68, 256, 258, 283
Work Programme (UK) and front-line service delivery 108–12
and local-level policy coordination 240, 251, 255, 260
and long-term unemployed 94, 96, 97, 99–102, 105–8, 112–14
and market governance model 23, 25
and staff resources 39–40, 42
Work Related Activity Group (UK) 96, 98, 100
World Bank 74
‘worlds of activation’ 21, 22, 45, 237
Wright, S. 25–6
Youth and Job Guarantee (Sweden) 55, 275
Youth Engagement Board (UK) 107