
Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction Cary L. Cooper	1
PART I NEGOTIATING WORK–LIFE BALANCE AT THE INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILIAL LEVELS: THE ASIAN PERSPECTIVE
2 ‘I love my work, but I love my family more’: testing a cultural theory of work and family in Taiwan Luo Lu	9
3 Work–family conflicts and coping strategies in Asia Hsiu-Lan Shelley Tien and Yu-Chen Wang	35
4 Heavy work investment and work–family balance among Japanese dual-earner couples Akihito Shimazu	61
5 Crossover effects in work–family interface between Chinese dual-earner couples Huimin Liu and Fanny M. Cheung	77
6 A closer look at work–family conflict: the early childrearing experience of dual-earner couples in urban China Jiafang Lu	99
7 Work–home interference and employees’ well-being and performance: the moderating role of Chinese work value Chang-qin Lu, Xiao-min Xu and David E. Caughlin	116
8 Relationships between work–family conflict, gender-role attitude and job burnout Yuan Li and Jianmin Sun	137

PART II NEGOTIATING WORK–LIFE BALANCE AT THE ORGANIZATIONAL AND SOCIETAL LEVELS: THE ASIAN PERSPECTIVE

- 9 Generational differences in work–life balance values in Asia:
the case of Greater China Region workers 157
Ting Wu and Jin Feng Uen
- 10 Research on family-friendly employment policies and practices in Hong Kong: implications for work–family interface 181
Oi-Ling Siu
- 11 Work–life balance policies in Malaysia: theory and practice 207
Noraini M. Noor and Nor Diana Mohd Mahudin
- 12 The policies to support work–life balance and the impact of work stress on family life among emotional labourers
in Korea 236
Jong-Min Woo

PART III NEGOTIATING WORK–LIFE BALANCE: THE CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

- 13 Comparative analysis of work–life balance policies and work practices in Taiwan and Japan 251
Chiu-Lan Chang
- 14 Governmental interventions and social re-engineering to facilitate work–life balance: Singapore and South Korea 271
Eunae Cho and Chee-Wee Koh
- 15 Cross-cultural impact of work–life balance on health and work outcomes 295
Carolyn Timms, Paula Brough, Oi-Ling Siu, Michael O’Driscoll and Thomas Kalliath

- Index* 315