Index

AA see Aspiring Artisan (AA)
AACA see Architects Accreditation Council of Australia (AACA) Aalborg University, 159–60
ABS see Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS)
ACA see Association of Consulting Architects (ACA)
ACCA see Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) Accenture, 106, 107, 108 accountability
and hybrid managers, 35, 43 and managing professional organizations, 35, 43–6 and professionalism, 24
and public good, 132–4
and traditional professionals, 286 accounting profession changes in, 11, 187, 191–4 and globalization, 11, 187, 188 qualifications of professionals, 198–200 recruitment and retention, 199–200 responses to challenges and changes, 200–206 sustainability and digitalization, 187 accounting scandals and independent audit, 196–7 and regulatory framework, 195–6 and trust, 194–5
Ackers, Brian, 313
Ackers, George, 33, 315, 322 Ackers, Harry
association with Masonic Order, 327–9 at British Tyre & Rubber, 325–7 from craftsman to professional, 331–3 life and family, 315–16 marriage to Louisa Millers, 323 post-World War, 320
professional leap of, 314
at Wigan Mining College, 322, 323–4 Africa economies, 113
Africanization, of Kenyan accounting profession, 116
AHRI see Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI)
AIA see Australian Institute of Architects (AIA)
AICPA see American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
Allen & Overy, 106, 107
AMA see Australian Medical Association (AMA)
Amalgamated Society of Engineers (ASE), 321
American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), 202
APB see Auditing Practices Board (APB)
Architects Accreditation Council of Australia (AACA), 220 architecture profession, 11–12
in Australia, 214–17
competition with construction industry, 217–21 design and pursuit of aesthetic achievement, 221–2 future prospects of, 224–5 and international business travel, 145 professional life, 212–14 salary and status, 216–17 and women, 212, 222–4
Argent, Frank, 325
ASE see Amalgamated Society of Engineers (ASE)
Aspiring Artisan (AA), 177–8, 182
Association for Chartered Accountants, 126
Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), 11, 201, 202, 203–4, 210 Association of Consulting Architects (ACA), 216 audit, 193–4, 196–7
Audit and Assurance Council, 197
Auditing Practices Board (APB), 197, 200 Auditing Standards, 197 augmentation, and professional identity structure, 274–5, 276 Australia
architecture profession in, 214–17 employment of architects in, 217, 218 global financial crisis in, 218–19 healthcare and social services in, 232–4 Australia and the Center for Professional Work, 6
Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), 216
Australian Health Contact Center (HCC), 170, 171, 172, 174, 180, 182
Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI), 291, 292 Australian Institute of Architects (AIA), 9, 123, 136
on accountability and public good, 132
change over time, 124
gender equity policy for architects, 225 membership data, 210
relationship with the profession, 221–22
Australian Institute of Health and Welfare, 236
Australian Medical Association (AMA), 126
Australian Productivity Commission, 220, 221, 234 Australian professional bodies, 123 impact of changing times on, 125 old and young professionals in, 128 rivalry between competitors, 126
and technology, 127–128
Austrian Center for Productivity and Efficiency (ÖPZ), 291 authoritarian behaviours, of top management, 74, 75, 80 authority, and global firms, 108
Baker & McKenzie, 106, 107, 108
BCCI, 194
behaviour, and professional identity, 262 biography, and social science research, 334
Boon, Ng, 201
BRIC economies, 113, 117
Bristol Inquiry in UK, 235
British Tyre & Rubber (BTR), 325–7, 330, 333, 334 Brundtland Report, 189 bureaucracy
and organizational forms, 19, 31 and organizational professionalism, 24
and professionalism, 17, 18, 19
and project-based organizing, 13–14 and public services organizations, 27, 47 of top management, 74, 75 Weberian or professional, 37, 43, 47, 51–2 business-related travel, 145, 147–50, 160–61 buyers bargaining power, 218–20
Cadbury Code of 1992, 195
CAI see Chartered Accountants Ireland (CAI)
Canada, HR professional bodies in, 292
Canadian Council of Human Resources Associations (CCHRA), 291, 292
The Canal Boy who became President (Gammon), 320
CAPA see Confederation of Asian and Pacific Accountants (CAPA) Capgemini, 106, 107
capitalist class, 161
car-based travel, localized, 162 career insecurity, and project professionals, 342, 343, 356 careers, biography and studying, 334–5 caring, discourses of, 97–8 carriers, as type of mobility, 153 cases, empirical nurse leading clinical team identity transition, 38–42 police becoming resource managers, 48–51 principals in schools transformational leadership, 46–8 social lead for children’s safeguarding, 43–6
CC see Constrained Careerist (CC)
CCHRA see Canadian Council of Human Resources Associations (CCHRA)
CDSS see Clinical Decision Support Software (CDSS)
Center for Professional Work and Society at Loughborough University, UK, 6
Center for Work, 6
Certified nurse-midwives (CNMs), 270–72
CGI, 106, 107
CGMA see Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA)
Chartered Accountants Ireland (CAI), 202, 210
Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA), 202, 204 Chartered Institute of Builders (CIOB), 9, 123
on accountability and public good, 132–3
change over time, 124
Code of Practice for Construction Management and Development, 348–9 on future of the profession, 134 on granting Chartered Construction Manager title, 355–6 legislation and professional services, 137
membership, 130, 131–2, 348
Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA), 9, 11, 123
on accountability and public good, 133
change over time, 124
on conducting professional work, 136 and differentiation strategies, 202–4 future of professional services and profession, 137
membership, 130, 131–2, 210
new qualification for shared services, 205 recognizing the challenges, 201 societal perceptions of the profession, 135
and technology, 127
Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD), 9, 123, 292
on accountability and public good, 132–3
change over time, 124
on managing people, 66
membership, 130, 131–2, 291
professional standards documentation of, 294–7, 299 on role of strategic HR, 200 and society, 135
and technology, 127
UK brand as cultural capital, 137
on work intensity, 73
Churches of Christ, in Wigan, 317–20
CIMA see Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA)
CIOB see Chartered Institute of Builders (CIOB)
CIPD see Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD)
Clifford Chance, 106, 107
Clinical Decision Support Software (CDSS), 172, 173 clinical informatics roles, of healthcare professionals, 245–6 Clinical Nurse Specialist, 238
CNMs see Certified nurse-midwives (CNMs)

Code of Practice for Construction Management and Development, 348–9

collegiate professions, 288 communication, 45–6, 150, 161 community-based health services, 237 commuter mobility pattern, 154 Commuting, and work-related travel, 145 compartmentalization, and professional identity structure, 272, 276 competition, 136, 188, 217–21, 222–4 compulsory redundancy, 72
Confederation of Asian and Pacific Accountants (CAPA), 202 conglomerate professional firms, 110–11 Constrained Careerist (CC), 177, 178, 182 constraining professional identity, 275–7 construction industry
Australian, 218–19
and professionalization of project management, 350–51 construction management see construction project management professional/construction managers

Construction Manager, 355 construction managers see construction project management professional/construction managers differentiation strategies, and accounting firms, 202–4 digitalization, and accounting profession, 190

directors, 61, 63, 77, 79
disciplinary mechanism, professionalism as, 8–9, 19, 88, 91, 101 deglomerate, effects of, 189 democratic processes, and professionalism, 17
digitalization, and accounting profession, 190 delaying, 72–3, 79
delayering, 72–3, 79
degeneration models, 241–2, 250 departmentalization, and professional identity, 272, 276 control strategies, and professionalism, 99 core finance and accounting skills, 193–4 corporate culture, and global firms, 108
corporate governance, 195, 196
corporate professions, 288
cost reduction, and organizational change, 71–2, 74
continuing analytic discursive approach, 91
cultural linguistics, and peripheral nations, 116 culture, 62, 69, 72, 80, 108
core finance and accounting skills, 193–4
corporate culture, and global firms, 108
corporate governance, 195, 196
corporate professions, 288
cost reduction, and organizational change, 71–2, 74
continuing analytic discursive approach, 91
cultural linguistics, and peripheral nations, 116
culture, 62, 69, 72, 80, 108

Daniel, Vincent, 194
Darroch, Jeremy, 192
decision-making, 23, 73, 298, 299–304
decimalization, 190
de-merging, effects of, 189 democratic processes, and professionalism, 17 Deutsche
disciplinary mechanism, professionalism as, 8–9, 19, 88, 91, 101
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Personalführung eV. (DGFP), 291, 292
differentiation strategies, and accounting firms, 202–4 digitalization, and accounting profession, 190
directors, 61, 63, 77, 79
disciplinary mechanism, professionalism as, 8–9, 19, 88, 91, 101 discourse(s)
academic perspectives on professional, 97–100 ‘big D’, language and social practices, 91, 94–6 in historical context, 87–9 of HRM, 290
little ‘D’, localized language in use, 92–4
and professionalism, 19–21, 89–92, 98–100
see also Professional discourses discretion
in HRM, professional, 293–6 police work and exercising, 49–50 and professionals, 24
and street-level bureaucrats, 19 discursive strategies, 94
District Mining & technical College, and Wigan, 322–5 division of labour, 44, 68, 165, 167, 168, 171, 174
The Division of Labour in Society (Durkheim), 338 domain changes, and accounting practice, 191–3 domestic services, to emerging-market companies, 113 dominance, and professional identity structure, 271–2, 276 EA see Engineers Australia (EA) economic and social change, 63 economic and technological domain, and professional discourse, 100 economic governance, and global professional service firms, 110–13 economic reform, role in emerging economies, 112–13
The Economist, 196
economy
African, 113
BRIC, 113, 117
emerging economy and reform, 112–13
global, 9, 117
GPSFs and development of, 117–18 and private sector, 63
see also United Kingdom (UK) ecology
education, and professionalism, 18
EE see Establishment Expert (EE)
e-health, 237
electronic mobility, 161 emerging markets, 113–15, 117, 188 employees
accounting profession and progression of, 199 changing terms and conditions, 72 engagement, 68–9, 74, 75 intensification of management and effect on, 74–5 temporary vs. long-service, 73–4 employment
in architecture, 211
of Australian architects, 217 conditions in 2007, 71
of healthcare professionals, 251–2 of professionals in organizations, 16 empowerment, 24, 70, 74, 75 enabling professional identity, 275–7 Engineers Australia (EA), 9, 123
change over time, 124
skill shortages, 137
and technology, 127–8
Engquest, 127
Enron, 11, 134, 135, 191, 194, 196 temporary and professionalism, 24 environmental changes, and accounting profession, 188–94 environmental factors, and accounting practice, 190 environmental sustainability, 11
Ernst & Young, 106, 107, 197
ERP systems see Integrated enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems Establishment Expert (EE), 179–80, 182
Europe, estimating mobile workers in, 148 European Commission, 111 experience, and professionalism, 18 explorers mobility pattern, 154
Fédération des Experts Comptables Européens (FEE), 201
The Field Manual: A Practical Treatise of Surveying Methods and Operations (Higgins), 322 finance and accounting skills, 193, 194 finance business partnering, 193 financial reporting, and accounting profession, 191 Financial Reporting Council (FRC) Conduct Committee, 195 flows, Castells concept of, 147, 162
Foucauldian approach, 97, 98, 289, 346
Freemasonry, 329
French Academy of Architecture, 214
From Log Cabin to White House (Thayer), 320 front-stage work, 96
G-20, 191
GAAP see Generally accepted accounting practice (GAAP)
Gammon, F. T., 320
Garfield, James, 320
GCA see Graduate Careers Australia (GCA) genre, 25, 40–41, 151
see also men; women
General Agreement on Trade Services, 111
General Electric, 110
generalist health professionals, 236–7
Generally accepted accounting practice (GAAP), 191 geographic distance, and mobility of managerial and professional workers, 156–7 GFC see Global financial crisis (GFC) Gibson, A.H., 322
global economy, changing nature of, 117 Global financial crisis (GFC), 218 global firms growth in, 149
and long-haul plane-based travel, 161
mobility patterns, 145
and regional areas creation, 108 work-related travel and mobility within, 160–61
see also globalization globalization
and accounting profession, 11, 187, 188
and global integration, 106–10 and healthcare systems, 244 and markets, 200
and professional discourse, 9, 100 globalized market, future of professions in, 134–8 globalizing professionals, 161
Global–local tensions, and international law firms, 109 Global professional service firms (GPSFs) entering and shaping emerging markets, 113–15 future research agendas, 115–18 globalization and global integration, 106–10 introduction to, 105–6 manufacturing global effects, 110–13 role and importance of, 9
Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 192
GPSFs see Global professional service firms (GPSFs) Graduate Careers Australia (GCA), 216 graphical representations, in discourses, 88–9
GRI see Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)
Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMI), 349
Gutman, Robert, 216

Adrian Wilkinson, Donald Hislop and Christine Coupland - 9781783475582 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 08/09/2019 08:38:10AM via free access see also healthcare systems; health professionals; nurses healthcare systems, 244–5, 247 Health human resources (HR) manager, and health professionals, 248–53 Health information manager, 245 health professionals in Australia, 232–4 change drivers impacting, 234–42 and dual responsibilities, 242–7 expanded scope of practice, 239–42 generalist, 236–7 and health human resources manager, 248–53 and health labour supply, 252–3 interdisciplinary, 247 and management, 30 and migration, 250 specialist, 237–9 Health Workforce Australia, 233, 238 heterogeneity, in imperialism, 116–17 Hewlett-Packard, 159–60 hierarchy, and organizational professionalism, 24 Higgins, Arthur Lovat, 232 High-trust relationships, in workplace, 67 HKIHRM see Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management (HKIHRM) holism, 270, 273–4, 276 Hong Kong (HK) HR independent decisions, 301 HR knowledge vs. experience, 304 HR professional bodies in, 292 HR professionals, 298 practice of HR in, 288 Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management (HKIHRM), 291, 292, 294–7, 299 Hoogervorst, Hans, 196 Horner, Arthur, 325 HR activities of, 302–4 certification, 288 decision making, 299–304 decisions and responsibilities, 301–2 empowerment, 74 fragmentation of, 296–9 international professional bodies, 292 as managerial profession, 12–13, 286, 306 managers, 248 and other professions, 293–4 practitioners, 287–92, 293–5, 298, 299 HRM, 29 defined, 290 of discourses, 290 as emerging managerial profession, 286–7, 292–306 and health professionals, 248–53 and performance, 67 as a profession, 125 and professional accreditation, 135 roles of, 305–6 Human resource management (HRM) see HRM Human resources (HR) see HR Hybrid clinician manager, 242–4 hybridity, notion of, 16, 35–6 hybrid managers, 5, 7–8 accountability and managing professional organization, 35, 43–6 influence on managerial processes, 38–42 and managerial accountability, 35 medical, 39–42 middle levels of police as, 49 and policy, 37–8 and professionals, 36 traditional policing as, 50–51 hybrid organizations, 7, 23–31 hybrid professionalism/hybrid profession, 270 advantages and responses, 29–31 in hybrid organizations, 23–6 risks, 26–8 Hydraulics and its Applications (Gibson), 322 IASB see International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) IBM, 106, 107
ICAEW see Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW)

ICAS see Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland (ICAS)

ICN see International Competition Network (ICN)

ICTs see Information and communication technologies (ICTs) identity(ies)

organizational, 261
social, 90, 261, 269, 270
social identity theory, 263, 264 structure, 269, 270, 277, 278 transition in hybrid roles, 38–42 valued role, 262
see also professional identity ideologies, and language, 94–7

IFAC see International Federation of Accountants (IFAC)

IFRS see International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

IIRC see International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC)

IKEA, 192

IMA see Institute of Management Accountants (IMA)

IMF see International Monetary Fund (IMF)

Inchley, William, 322

income, and work-related travel, 151

Information and communication technologies (ICTs), 10, 147, 150, 155, 180

Information Technology Infrastructure Library (ITIL), 174–5

Innovation, and professionals, 24

Inquiry into Obstetrics and Gynaecology Services of King Edward Memorial Hospital, in Australia, 23

Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW), 11, 200–201, 202, 203, 210

Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland (ICAS), 202, 210

Institute of Management Accountants (IMA), in USA, 202 integrated care professionals, and healthcare, 246–7 integrated enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems, 189 integrated global structures, and global firms, 108

Integrated Reporting, 192

The Intellectual Life of the British Working Classes (Rose), 331

International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), 191, 196

International Competition Network (ICN), 111, 112

International Federation of Accountants (IFAC), 192, 197, 201

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), 191

International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 192

International Integrated Reporting Framework, 192 international law firms, and global–local tensions, 109

International Monetary Fund (IMF), 112 international trade, and Global professional service firms, 110–13 international trips/travel, 157

interprofessional communication, 45–46 intersection, and professional identity structure, 270, 276

Interserve, 192

intra-organizational core-periphery dynamics, 115

Iron triangle, 347, 349

ITIL see Information Technology Infrastructure Library (ITIL)

IT service management (ITSM), 174

IT service support, worker classification and, 175–80

ITSM see IT service management (ITSM)

Japan, HR professional bodies in, 292

job
Index

insecurity, 80
security, 75, 78, 178, 343 stressors, 73
surveillance and change, 73 journey types, in work-related mobility, 156–61 junior management, 8, 61, 63, 76, 79

Kearton, W. J., 322
King, Sir Mervyn, 192
King Edward Memorial Hospital, in Australia, 235 knowledge, 18, 74
knowledge organizations, work-related travel patterns of, 159–60 KPMG, 106, 107, 197

labour-cheapening strategies, 62, 73 Labour process theory (LPT), 62, 64, 67, 72, 73, 79–80 land-based travel localized, 157–8 long-distance, 158–9, 162 language
and discourse, 90
and ideologies, 94–7
Mandarin, 188
language, localized little D, 90, 92–4 in social scientific study, 90 Law Council of Australia (LCA), 9, 123 addressing external pressures to meet needs, 125–6
change over time, 124
impact of consumers on professionals, 135–6 law enforcement professionalization, study of, 91, 95–6 law firms ‘elite’, 106, 107, 112 lawyers, 109, 145, 258, 293
LCA see Law Council of Australia (LCA)
leadership
development of, 68–9
managerial, 38, 42
private sector, 249
professional, 38
transformational, 35

see also leadership styles leadership styles
in organizations, 80
of top management in business organizations, 74 lean management, 71, 73 legal and bureaucratic domain, and professional discourse, 100 legal professions, 98–9, 116
Lehman Brothers, 194
Leyland, Lancashire, 313, 325–9 lightweight project organizations, 340 liminality, concept of, 41–42 linguistic socialization, of trainee journalist, 94–5 Livingstone, David, 320 localized land-based travel, 157–8, 162 locus of control, 62, 63, 67, 69 long-distance land-based travel, 157, 158–9 long-haul plane-based travel, 157, 162 loyalty to organizations, 75
LPT see Labour process theory (LPT)

MacKay, R.F., 322 managed professionalism, 11, 182
management of culture, 69
employees and intensification of, 74–5, 76
by fear, 79
and health professionals, 30 of managerial and professional workers, 66–70 middle, 8, 61, 76
in professional organizations, 29–30 and role of professionals, 5 by stress, 63, 73
see also managerialism; managerial profession; managers; top managers/top management management consultants, 158, 291 managerial accountability, hybrid managers and, 35 managerial control techniques, 62 managerialism changing, 45
decision-making, 23
emergence of, 37–8
gendered nature of, 40–41
as part of professional project, 182–3 resistance of, 39
managerialist policy, 37, 41, 50, 52 managerialist strategies, 51 managerial leadership, 38, 42
managerial profession
    HR as, 12–13
    HRM as emerging, 286–7, 292, 295
    HR practitioner as, 287–292
    as hybrid occupation, 286 managerial workers
    business-related travel for, 147–50
    and change, 61–64
    intensification and extensification of, 80
    managing, 66–70
    and work-related business travel, 145–6
    work-related mobility of, 156–61
    work-related mobility patterns of, 150–55
managers
    and change, 61–62, 71–72, 75
    and depression, 76
    and economic turmoil, 63
    and general HR, 293
    and long-distance land-based travel, 158
    and organizational change, 60, 62
    in organizations, 21
    and professionals, 35, 286
    in UK, 65–6
    working hours, 75–68
see also hybrid managers; managerial profession; managerial workers;
top managers/top management market demands, and accounting profession, 204–7 Marks & Spencer, 192
Masonic Order, Leyland, 327–9 medical hybrid managers, 39–42 medical hybrids, and professional influence, 42 medical profession, and professional dominance over patients, 93–4 Membership expansion, and professional bodies, 129–30 men
    life expectancy of, 235
    and travel for work, 151
meso-level strategy, 30 meta themes, role of, 8–9 micro-level strategy, 30 micro themes, role of, 8–9 middle management, 8, 61, 76
Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundational Trust, 235 migration, and workforce planning, 250
Miller, Louisa, 319, 323
Miller, W. T., 319, 322, 324, 325, 330, 334 mobile work, 340
mobility(ies)
    electronic, 161
    international, 156, 157 professional labour, 214
    social, 331–3, 334
    and social workers, 158
    spatial, 145, 146, 147
    Urry concept of, 147
    virtual, 155
    as work, 153
see also mobility patterns;
    work-related mobility
mobility patterns
    among managerial and professional workers, 151–2 diversity in, 146
    and global firms, 145
    work-related, 153–5
    morale, and organizational change, 75 motivation, and organizational change, 75 multiple professional roles engagement, 267–7, 278 multi-professionalism, 268–70 negative view, of professionalism, 19 network-integrating stage, and global professional service firms, 106 network society, 10, 145, 147
New Public Management (NPM), 24, 27, 37, 68
Index

nomads mobility pattern, 153, 154–5 Nonconformist Christian chapel, 13, 314 non-verbal behaviours, and professional practices, 86 normative value, of professionalism, 17, 18, 24, 31–2, 213 Nouvel, Jean, 219
NPM see New Public Management (NPM) nurses
   identity transition in hybrid roles, 41–2
   -manager, role of, 277
   practitioner, role of, 240 tele-health, 10, 169–74, 180–82 occupational change, professionalism as discourse of, 19 occupational control, 19, 165 occupational professionalism, 22–3, 25–6, 289 occupational professions, 288 occupational stress, and construction managers, 351–2 occupational therapists, 241–2
One Central Park (Sydney), 219 on-site movers, as type of mobility, 153 optimistic view, of professionalism, 18–19
ÖPZ see Austrian Center for Productivity and Efficiency (ÖPZ) Organisation and Wellbeing at Griffith University, 6 organizational cultures, 62 organizational growth, changing patterns in, 70–74 organizational performance, 66–7 organizational professionals/organizational professionalism, 20–21, 22–4, 289–90 organizational restructuring, 71, 72 organizational settings, and managerial and professional work, 60
‘The Organization Man’ (Whytle), 179 organization professions, 288 organizations change in, 60–74, 75 contemporary business, 10
managers in, 21
power asymmetries within, 68 professionals in, 16, 20–21, 30–31 public services, 35–52
and recession, 70
rhetoric and reality in, 67 service-based, 149
sustainable development in, 189
see also hybrid organizations;
   professional organizations;
   public services organizations output, and organizational professionalism, 24 outsourcing services firms, 106, 107 patient safety officers, 235 payscale human capital, 216
PBOs see Project-based organizations (PBOs) ‘Pendulums’ workers, 153 performance, 24, 66–7, 70 performance management, 49, 69, 73 performativity, 5, 62, 69, 289 Perkin, Harold, 313 personnel management, defined, 290 pesimistic view, of professionalism, 19 pharmacy technician, expanded roles of, 241 physician assistants, 241 physiotherapy, expanded roles in, 240 plane-based travel long-haul, 160–61 short-haul, 159–60
PMBOK see Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK) PMI see Project Management Institute (PMI) podiatry, 240
police, as resource managers, 48–51 policing reforms to, 50 policy, and hybrid managers, 37–8 political-economic differences, and peripheral nations, 116
Polly Peck, 194
Polman, Paul, 192
positive view, of professionalism, 18–19
post-industrial professionalism, 168 power, 63, 68, 99, 115, 290, 300, 347–8 power-resistance dynamics, 115–16
presenteeism, 78, 80
PricewaterhouseCoopers, 106, 107, 197
Prince’s Accounting for Sustainability Project (A4S), 192
principals in schools, and transformational leadership, 46–8 private discourse, 86
private sectors
architects and employment in, 217, 218 cost-cutting in, 71
downsizing and decentralization in, 37
and economic turmoil, 63
IT service support, 175–6
leadership, 249
and transformational leadership, 46
vs. public sectors, 70–71
problem-solving, and police work, 49–50
professional bodies
accountancy, 187, 198, 200–201
in Australia and United Kingdom, 141
HR international selection, 292 identity of, 129
and membership expansion, 129–30 mergers in United Kingdom, 198 relevance of, 129
see also Australian professional bodies; professional organizations; United Kingdom (UK) professional bureaucracy, and public services organizations, 47 professional contractors, literature of, 213–14
professional control of work, 166 professional discourses academic perspectives on, 97–100
construction of, 89–92
domains within, 100
and globalization, 9, 100
meaning of, 86–7
professional genres, 99 professional identity, 94, 99, 100
construction of, 265–7
definition of, 260–61
enabling and constraining, 275–7 and engaging in multiple professional roles, 267–7, 278
importance of, 262–63
less complex structures, 270–72, 276 more complex structures, 273–5, 276 practical implications of, 277–80 and professional identification, 263–5
and relevance, 128–32
and work identity, 260–61
professionalism, 165
from above, 11, 21–2, 183
from within and from above, 19–21 from below, 11
as described by Friedson, 87–8 discourses of, 19–21, 91–2, 98–100 and employment of professionals in organizations, 16
interpretation of, 6, 8–9, 17–21, 88
maintaining, 18, 27
national varieties of, 108
organizational and occupational,
20–21, 22–3
post-industrial, 168
in terms of humour and socialability, 253
see also hybrid professionalism/hybrid profession; multi-professionalism professionalization
as form of social closure, 165
meaning of, 88, 213
of project management, 347, 350–51 within United Kingdom construction industry, 13–14
professional occupations, 25–6
professional organizations, 27–8, 29–30, 35, 43
professional project, 166, 213
professional(s), 65, 161
Index

and continuity thesis, 6 co-option into hybrid managerial roles, 35 core characteristics of, 287 definition and role of, 4, 5
and economic turmoil, 63
Gunnarsson on, 86–7
and long-distance land-based travel, 158
and macro-level changes, 8 old and young, 128, 136
and organizational change, 60, 62 success for, 42
vs. non professional occupations, 212
see also professionalism;
professionalization
professional workers
business-related travel for, 147–50
and change, 3–14, 16
characteristics of, 61
declared, 28
intensification and extensification of, 80
and work-related business travel, 145–6
work-related mobility of, 156–61
work-related mobility patterns of, 150–55
profession(s)
Abbott view of, 166
biography as method for studying, 334–5 concept of, 4–5, 88, 165
globalized market and future of, 134–8
interpretation of, 8
values or moral obligations of, 18–19
see also accounting profession;
collegiate professions; corporate professions; legal professions programme of qualitative research, 60–61 Project-based organizations (PBOs), 339 projectification, 339, 340, 341, 356 project management
definition of, 352–3
professionalization of, 13, 347, 350–51
and projectification, 356
Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK), 349, 350
Project Management Institute (PMI), 347, 349 project matrix organizations, 340 project(s)
definition and work organization, 339–40 and temporal pressures facing practitioners, 341, 342–5 see also project management protestant ethic, and Harry Ackers, 331 public good, and accountability, 132–4 public policy, and HR practitioner, 288 public sectors
change in, 60–61, 62
employment conditions in, 71 hybrid managerial roles in, 36 and IT service support workers, 175–6
managers in, 71–2
and New Public Management, 68
vs. private sectors, 70–71, 249
public services organizations, 27, 35, 47
qualifications, of accounting professional, 198–200
Quality of Working Life (QWL), 8, 60, 63, 64, 74
QWL see Quality of Working Life (QWL) reality, in organizations, 67 recession
and business organizations, 70 effects of, 73
and size of American firms, 217 see also United Kingdom (UK) economy
recruitment and retention of accounting profession, 199–200, 204–6
of healthcare professionals, 251–2 regulation and licensing, and architecture profession, 214
regulatory framework, and accountancy scandals, 195–6 Resigned Robot (RR), 176–717, 178, 182 resource management, and police, 48–51 rhetoric organizations, 67
RIBA see Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA)
The Rise of Professional Society: England since 1880 (Perkin), 313 risk-averse, and top management, 74, 75 role identity theory, 266 roles and functions and accounting practice, 193–4 of health professional, 234–42 multiple, engaging in, 277
Rolls-Royce, 194
Rose, Jonathan, 331–2
Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA), 217, 222, 225, 348
RR see Resigned Robot (RR)
Rural Doctors’ Association, 126 safeguarding, 43–6
salary and status, and architecture profession, 216–17 schools in England, 47–8 scientific and academic domain, and professional discourses, 100 self-complexity, 269
Self-Help (Smiles), 314
SEMS see Steam Engine Makers Society (SEMS) senior managers/senior management, 61, 298 service-based organizations, 149–50 service orientation, of professionalism, 17 service support workers Aspiring Artisan, 177–8
Constrained Careerist, 177
Establishment Expert, 179–80
IT service management, 174–6
Resigned Robot, 176–7
Shoesmith, Sharon, 45
short-haul plane-based travel, 157, 159–60 SHRM see Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) skilled trades, and mobile workers, 152 Smiles, Samuel, 314, 333 social capital, 333
social identity, 90, 261, 269, 270 socialization, and identification, 264, 265 social mobility, 331–3, 334 social movement, 13
social power, 347–8
social practices, and language, 94–6 social settings, discourses in, 98 social systems, and professionalism, 17 social work, in Germany, 30 social workers, mobility and, 158 Society at Loughborough University, UK, 6
Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), 291, 292 Spain, women’s career prospects of architecture, 224–5 spatial mobility, 145, 146, 147
specialist health professionals, 237–9 specialization, in health care and technology, 238–9 squeezed middle, concept of, 65 standardization of work practice, and organizational professionalism, 24 Starchitects, 219
‘star system’, 216, 218
Steam Engine Makers Society (SEMS), 320–22, 334
Steam Turbine Theory and Practice (Kearton), 322 Stokes, Billy, 325
strategic alliances, and accounting profession, 201–2 strategist, HR professional role vs., 13 strategy(ies)
differentiation, accounting firms, 202–4 discursive, 94
labour-cheapening, 62
managerialist, 51
meso-level and micro-level, 30 professionalism and control, 99 street-level bureaucrats, 49 stress, 63, 73, 76, 77, 351–2 Struggle, and identity transition, 41 stuckness, concept of, 177 substitutes, threat of, 220–21 substitution models, 241–2, 250 supervision, and professional workers, 21 sustainability and digitization, and accounting profession, 187 sustainable development, and accounting profession, 189, 192 Taylorism, 174
technicist, HR professional role vs., 13 technology
and accounting profession, 11, 190 and architecture profession, 214 and Australian professional bodies, 127–8 and Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA), 127 and Chartered Institute of Personnel Development (CIPD), 127 firms, 106, 107
and health profession, 235–6
and professional discourse, 9, 100
and specialization, 238–9 telecommunications infrastructure, and architecture profession, 214 tele-health nurses, 10, 169–174, 180–82 temporal organizing processes, role of, 9 Tesco, 190, 195
Thayer, W. M., 320
The Theory of Heat Engines (Inchley), 322
The Theory of Machines (MacKay), 322 ‘3Ms’ of management, 51
top managers/top management authoritarian behaviors of, 75, 80 and bureaucracy, 74, 75 centralization of power, 63 leadership styles of, 74
and organizational change, 74
post-2007 recession, 79 trade union, 13, 314, 322

traditional professions/professionals, 286, 290 training, 18, 249–51
transformational leadership, 35, 46–8
transitional responsibilities, and global firms, 108 transnational capitalist class, 161 transnational collaboration, and global firms, 108 transnational trade organizations, 110–11
transitional responsibilities, and global firms, 108
travel see land-based travel;
plane-based travel

Ulrich model, 299–300
Unilever, 192
United Kingdom (UK), 292
Code of Corporate Governance, 195 construction industry in, 341, 350–51 estimating mobile workers in, 148
HR independent decisions, 301
HR knowledge vs. experience, 304
HR responsibility in, 298 Labour Force Survey, 149, 152 practice of HR in, 288
professional bodies in, 123, 125, 126 public sector, change in, 60–61, 62, 70, 71 top management in, 74–5 women’s career prospects of architectures, 224–5 United Kingdom (UK) economy, 63, 70 and managerial and professional workers, 63 post-2007, 79
since 2007, 64–5, 71
United States of America (USA)
architects in, 221
HR professional bodies in, 292 hybrid managers in, 36 valued role identities, 262 values, and language, 94–7 Valukas, Anton, 194
virtual mobility, 155
voluntary redundancy, 71–2, 79
Walker Brothers Engineering, 320–22, 323, 333, 334
WFPMAs see World Federation of People Management Associations (WFPMAs)

Why Do Women Leave Architecture (RIBA), 225
Whyte, William H., Jr., 179
Wigan Mining College, 322–5 women and architecture profession, 212, 215–216, 217, 222–4 barriers to entry to law profession, 130–31 and healthcare professions, 250–51
life expectancy of, 235
and professionalism, 25
and travel for work, 151
work
Abbott and control of, 166
and change, 73
degradation and deskilling, 73–4 hours and managers, 76
standardization and control, 342, 344–5 see also work extensification; work intensification workers
business organizations and flow of, 145 executive, travel for work and, 152 health, 249, 252–3
IT service support and classification of, 175–80 and migration, 250
mobile, estimating, 148 reform job redesign, 236, 250 service support, 174–80
working hours, 75, 76
see also managerial workers;
professional workers; service support workers work extensification, 67
and employee engagement programmes, 80
of managers, 75–8
and organizational change, 62
public sector and change in, 60–61 work intensification between 2006 and 2012, 7 cost reduction as driver for, 71, 72, 73
and employee engagement programmes, 80 and financial crisis, 65, 112 and HRM and performance, 67 and labour process conceptualization, 68 and lean management methods, 71 and project professionals, 342, 343–4 and UK construction industry, 341, 342, 343, 344, 352, 356 work–life balance, 159, 342, 344 workload, and stress, 76, 77 work practice standardization, and organizational professionalism, 24
work-related mobility, 10, 152
and commuting, 145
contemporary patterns of, 148–9 diverse journey types and spatial scales in, 156–61 hierarchical patterns in, 151 Lilischkis types of, 153 patterns, 146, 153–5
spatial mobility, 10
World.com, 134
World Federation of People Management Associations (WFPMAs), 291 World Health Organization (WHO), 235 World Trade Organization (WTO), 110, 111 written and spoken text, professional practices and, 86
WTO see World Trade Organization (WTO)

Yoga teacher, 273–4
‘Yoyos’ workers, 153, 154