

Preface

---

The chapters of this book are based on contributions made by their authors to an academic conference organized by the Maastricht Centre for European Law, at Maastricht University. The conference was made possible by the funding provided by the European Commission's Jean Monnet Programme for our project Flexibility or Disintegration? Differentiation of the Rights and Obligations of the EU States after the Lisbon Treaty and the Euro Crisis (FLEXIDIS). In addition to the European Commission, thanks are owed to the contributors for their commitment to this publication project. Special thanks go to Marina Jodogne, who provided invaluable assistance through her able and patient work in the formatting and editing of the book, as well as to Carol Ní Ghiollarnáth for her thorough and expert language revision of the book. We would also like to express our gratitude to Gloria Bozyigit, student-assistant at Maastricht University, for her support in the editing process. The publication process was greatly facilitated by the smooth cooperation with Edward Elgar Publishing.

The editors

