

Figures

10.1	Relationship between private compliance assurance and public supervision	227
10.2	Model for public supervision based on compliance management systems (IMPEL 2012)	228
10.3	Different agencies shift focus from output to a compliance management system	230
12.1	Port of Huntington location	264
16.1	The EPA Network structure	326
16.2	Interest groups	327
16.3	The EU policy cycle	330
16.4	Roles in environmental protection	331
17.1	INECE's compliance and enforcement pyramid	339
24.1	Structure of the new model of environmental institutions from an enforcement and compliance point of view	472
24.2	SMA technical organization chart	473
24.3	Number of inspections by all governmental agencies with competence on environmental enforcement and compliance and origin (January 2013–September 2013)	476
24.4	Composition of the Civil Society Council	477
24.5	Number and topics of denunciations/complaints (January 2013–June 2013)	477
25.1	The Belgian environmental network for the police	484
25.2	Strengths and competences of the main players in the enforcement of environmental law	485
25.3	Possible composition of a 'risk group' dealing with waste activities	487
25.4	Projected Influx	489