

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	viii
Introduction: situating gender scholarship in IPE Juanita Elias and Adrienne Roberts	1
PART I THEORIES AND APPROACHES
1 Problematic premises: positivism, modernism and masculinism in IPE V. Spike Peterson	23
2 The production of life itself: gender, social reproduction and IPE Meg Luxton	37
3 Postcolonial feminism Sheila Nair	50
4 Liberalism, feminism and the global political economy of liberal feminism Jane S. Jaquette	61
5 Constructivist thought in feminist IPE: tracking gender norms Gülay Çağlar	73
6 Gender, IPE and poststructuralism: problematizing the material/discursive divide Penny Griffin	86
7 Queer theory and feminist political economy Nicola Smith	102
8 A feminist institutionalist approach to IPE and gender Georgina Waylen	113
PART II ENGAGEMENTS AND PERSPECTIVES
9 Close(d) encounters: Feminist Security Studies engages Feminist (International) Political Economy and the return to basics Heidi Hudson	127
10 Gender and development Shirin M. Rai	142
11 Feminist engagements with ‘everyday life’ Stephanie M. Redden	159

vi Handbook on the international political economy of gender

12	Multiple dimensions of gender inequality: engaging ‘the state’ in IPE Stefanie Wöhl	171
13	The political economy of post-conflict violence against women Jacqui True	184
14	Perspectives on private security: the myth, the men and the markets Amanda Chisholm	196
15	Feminist perspectives on the UN Women’s Empowerment Principles Catia Gregoratti	211
16	Social reproduction: from welfare to the global prison? Victoria Pereyra Iraola	225

PART III GOVERNING MARKETS AND ECONOMIES

17	Financialization, unconventional monetary policy and gender inequality Brigitte Young	241
18	Microfinance: empowering women and/or depoliticizing poverty? Kenji Wada	252
19	Remittances in the global political economy Rahel Kunz	265
20	Financial crises in historical perspective Adrienne Roberts and Juanita Elias	281
21	Feminist political economy perspectives on gender expertise Lucy Ferguson	298
22	The World Bank and the challenge of ‘the Business Case’ for feminist IPE Sydney Calkin	311
23	Gender mainstreaming at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development Sara Wallin	323
24	The diverse economy: feminism, Capitalocentrism and postcapitalist futures Katharine McKinnon, Kelly Dombroski and Oona Morrow	335

PART IV THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF PEOPLE AND THINGS

25	Women and unfree labour in the global political economy Genevieve LeBaron	353
26	Transnational care work and the ‘care crisis’ Hironori Onuki	365
27	Marketization, commodification and privatization of care services Tiina Vaittinen, Hanna-Kaisa Hoppania and Olli Karsio	379

28	Sex work Sara Kallock	392
29	Migrant and domestic and care workers: unfree labour, crises of social reproduction and the unsustainability of life under 'vagabond capitalism' Sedef Arat-Koç	411
30	Gender, migration and social reproduction Eleonore Kofman and Parvati Raghuram	427
31	Industrialization, feminization and mobilities Samanthi J. Gunawardana	440
32	The gender dynamics of trade Zoe Pflaeger Young	456
33	Critical perspectives on gender, food and political economy Merisa S. Thompson	470
34	The global political economy of beauty Angela B.V. McCracken	486
	Index	503