

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	xvi
1 Introduction Hamid Etemad	1
PART I EXAMINATION OF ENTREPRENEURIAL ORIENTATION–PERFORMANCE RELATIONS
2 International entrepreneurship and performance: what are the important factors in markets with high cultural distance? Elena Cedrola, Loretta Battaglia and Anna Grazia Quaranta	39
3 Risk-seeking behaviours in SMEs' internationalization Noémie Dominguez	66
4 Psychological traits, experiences, foreign language knowledge of entrepreneurs, and re-internationalization strategies of SMEs: a theoretical analysis Huu Le Nguyen and Sören Kock	96
PART II COLLABORATIVE INTER-DEPENDENCE
5 The dynamic development of international entrepreneurial networks Vaiva Stanisauskaite and Sören Kock	119
6 The influence of the entrepreneur and the accelerator in the internationalization process of web-based firms Diala Kabbara	136
7 Formal inter-firm cooperation and international expansion: how Italian SMEs are using the network contract Selena Aureli and Mara Del Baldo	157

vi	The changing global economy and international entrepreneurship
8	How are knowledge acquisition and SMEs' internationalization related? Empirical evidence from Gruppo Germani Mirella Migliaccio and Francesca Rivetti	183
9	Value chain activities in Born Global companies Ingemar Wictor	198
PART III INSTITUTIONAL CONTEXT
10	The creation and internationalization of border firms Eva J.B. Jørgensen and Einar Rasmussen	231
11	Institutional entrepreneurship and the embedded roles of leaders and state: an historical case study of Abu Dhabi Jasem Almarri, Katariina Juusola and John Meewella	252
12	Concluding remarks, implications and lessons Hamid Etemad	275
	Index	303