

Index

- “360 degree” perspective 150
- Aalto Center for Entrepreneurship 44
- Aalto Design Factory (ADF) 45
- Aalto entrepreneurial ecosystem 42–5, 49–50, 57–9
- Aalto Entrepreneurship Society (AaltoES) 43
- Aalto Start-Up Center 44
- Aalto University 59
- Aalto Ventures Program 45
- ability-motivation-opportunity framework (AMO) 73
- absorptive capacity 67, 176
- accelerators
 - alumni relations 56
 - funding structure 51
 - overview 48–9
 - program package 51–4
 - selection process 54–5
 - strategic focus 49–50
- actors
 - in business ecosystems 20–22
 - as theme of literature 17, 18
- agent-based simulation 174–80
- agglomeration theory 171–2
- Agrawal, A.K. 95
- alliance networks 170
- Allison, P.D. 108
- alumni relations 56
- analytics 151
- antecedents of ecosystems 18, 19–20
- AppCampus
 - as accelerator 48–9
 - ecosystem context 42–8
 - effects 56–9
 - initiative overview 48–56
 - lessons from 59–61
 - method of study 40–41
- arbitrage
 - of strategic knowledge 8, 72, 74, 170, 175–6, 190
 - through incubators 143
- architecture of ecosystems 18, 20–22
- awards 128
- Ballmer, Steve 46
- benchmarks 148–51
- Bethnal Green Ventures 49
- biological metaphors 13
- book
 - audience 4–5
 - motivation 3–4
 - purpose 1–2
 - structure 5–9
- bureaucratic control 80–83
- business ecosystems
 - actors and architecture 18, 20–22
 - antecedents of 18, 19–20
 - concept of 12–13
 - mapping of 14–19, 28
 - outcomes of 26
 - performance 18
 - research methodology 14–17
 - roles within 21
 - varieties of 18, 22–6, 28
- business incubators
 - assessing quality 147–50
 - conclusions 153–4
 - as drivers of entrepreneurial ecosystems 143–5
 - efficiency 142–3, 146, 151–2
 - growth and funding 139–40
 - methodology for analysis 150–53
 - origins and evolution 140–43
 - outlining perimeters 145–6
 - performance 147–51
- Butler, J.E. 81
- buyer resolution 176

- capabilities 168, 170, 175–6
- capital in crowdfunding 99–100
- Centre for Strategy & Evaluation Services (CSES) 146
- certified incubators 145–6, 148
- champions 76–7
- clan control 81, 82
- clustering in fashion design 120, 123, 128–9
- co-creation 39–40, 80
- cognition 75–6
- Cohen, B. 196
- Colombo, M.G. 94–5
- commercialization 44, 142–3
- communication evolution 18–19
- “community-belonging” rewards 98
- competitive advantage 27, 170
- complex adaptive systems 196–7
- complex systems 174
- confidence 75
- content analysis 13, 16–19, 28
- coopetition 4, 27
- co-working space 44
- creative ecosystems
 - fashion design 123–9
 - future research 130–32
 - location and 119–21
- crowdfunding
 - conclusions 110–12
 - geography of 95
 - growth of 93–4
 - industry specificity in 94–5
 - results of study 104–8
 - robustness check 108–10
 - sample and variable 97–9
 - social capital in 94–5
 - statistics by industry 99–104
 - theoretical background 95–7
- cultural domain of incubators 143
- customers 151–2
- customized rewards 98

- data analysis 123–8
- decentralization 78
- DEE-AMO matrix 72–7
- delegation 78
- demand uncertainty 94–5, 96–7, 111, 112
- digital communication and technology 17
- digital evolution 18–19
- discovery
 - actions 74–5
 - of opportunities 72–3
 - and organizational control 81–2
 - and organizational structure 77–8
- dominators 21
- duration of crowdfunding 104

- early stage financing 93–4, 110
- economic capital 128, 131
- ecosystem accelerators 49, 54, 55
- ecosystem architecture 18, 20–22
- ecosystems see business ecosystems
- education services 52–3
- effectiveness of incubators 146
- efficiency of incubators 142–3, 146, 151–2
- “ego-boosting” rewards 98
- Elop, Stephen 46
- embedded knowledge 122
- embedded relationships 96
- emotion 120–21
- entrepreneurial behaviors 67, 68–9
- entrepreneurial ecosystems
 - Aalto as case study 42–5
 - as business ecosystems 22–3, 24–5
 - configurational approach 196–7
 - definitional approach 194–5
 - diversified by crowdfunding 93–4, 110
 - dynamic approach 196–7
 - features of 38–9
 - at firm level 65–7, 69
 - lessons from AppCampus 59
 - links with innovation ecosystems 35–7
 - recent contributions to study 2–3
 - “Entrepreneurial Ecosystems and the Diffusion of Startups” meeting, University of Catania 2
- entrepreneurial networks 4, 139–40, 143–5
- environmental resources 123
- European Business and Innovation Centre Network 145
- European Union (EU), Certified Incubators 145
- evaluation
 - actions 75–6
 - of opportunities 72–3

- and organizational control 82–3
 - and organizational structure 79
- exploitation
 - actions 76–7
 - of opportunities 72–3
 - and organizational control 83
 - and organizational structure 79–80
- external incubation 142
- external social capital 98, 106

- fabric fairs 128, 129, 130
- Facebook connections 96, 98–9, 106, 108
- face-to-face communication 120, 130
- factor analysis 123
- fashion design
 - data findings and analysis 123–9
 - discussion and future research 130–32
 - geography of 119–21
 - introduction to 117–19
 - market responsiveness 122
 - methodology of study 121–2
 - questionnaire 136–8
 - typology of 121, 130
- fashion events 128, 129, 130
- fashion interpreters 121, 130–31
- fashion leaders 121
- feedback in crowdfunding 96
- firm transition 176
- firm-level entrepreneurship
 - antecedents of 65–7
 - conclusions 84–5
 - DEE-AMO matrix 73–7
 - framework for understanding 70–73
 - individual actions and interactions 70–71
 - individual-level factors 72–3
 - multi-level theory 70
 - organizational design 71–2, 77–84
 - outcomes 71–2
 - research gaps 67–9
- firms
 - as concept 17–18
 - incubators and 151–2
 - and industry evolution 18–19
 - need for strategic alliances 11–12
- formalization 78, 80, 82
- for-profit incubators 49, 51
- Foss, N.J. 76

- Frey, B. 78
- funding
 - of AppCampus 51
 - of incubators 144, 146–7, 150
- geography of crowdfunding 95
- “glocal” entrepreneurship 3–4
- Goodhart’s law 131
- graphical analysis 180–82

- healthy entrepreneurial ecosystems 196
- heterogeneous choice model 108, 109–10
- heuristics 75–6
- hierarchies 79, 81
- high-tech industry 97
- hub landlords 21
- human capital 39, 144
- human resource management 71

- Iansiti, M. 20, 28, 37
- imitation 119–20
- incubation process 140–41
- incubators
 - assessing quality 147–50
 - conclusions 153–4
 - as drivers of entrepreneurial ecosystems 143–5
 - efficiency 142–3, 146, 151–2
 - growth and funding 139–40
 - methodology for analysis 150–53
 - origins and evolution 140–43
 - outlining perimeters 145–6
 - performance 147–51
- individuals
 - actions and interactions 70–71, 74–7
 - and entrepreneurial functions 83–4
 - as entrepreneurs 65, 67–8
 - firm-level entrepreneurship 72–3
- industry agglomeration 171
- industry conditions 17
- industry evolution 18–19
- industry specificity 94–5, 106–8, 111–12
- information synthesis 76
- infrastructure 144
- innovation challenges 24
- innovation ecosystems
 - as business ecosystems 22, 23–4
 - features of 39–40

- lessons from AppCampus 60–61
- links with entrepreneurial ecosystems 35–7
- Windows Phone case study 45–8
- institutional knowledge mediation 172–3, 175, 176–7
- intellectual property 119, 142–3, 173
- intelligent agents simulation 174–80
- interdependence of ecosystems 27, 195
- internal processes of incubators 151
- internal social capital 98, 106, 111–12
- internships 44
- investment services 51–2
- “investor-lead” accelerators 49
- Ireland, R.D. 67, 70
- Isenberg, D. 143, 194–5
- Italy 139–40, 145–6, 148
- job descriptions 78
- Jones, G.R. 81
- journal impact factors 15
- JoYà Academy 2
- keystone players 21
- keyword analysis 16–18
- Kickstarter
 - as case study 97–9, 111, 112
 - descriptive statistics 99–104
 - results of study 104–8
- Kirzner, I.M. 72
- Klein, P.G. 76
- knowledge acquisition
 - conclusions 190–91
 - discussion 188–90
 - institutions 170–73
 - new ventures 168–9
 - results and analysis 180–88
 - simulation model 174–7
 - variables and configurations 177–80
- knowledge appropriation 176
- knowledge-mediating institutions 172–3
- knowledge production-stimulating institutions 173, 187–8
- knowledge spillovers 176, 182, 190
- knowledge standardizing institutions 172–3
- knowledge variation-inducing institutions 173, 187–8
- Koland, Lars 66
- Lazaer, E.P. 75
- Le Camping 49
- Levien, R. 20, 28, 37
- life cycle of ecosystems 196
- LinkedIn connections 96
- location
 - of crowdfunding proponents 98–9, 110
 - importance to fashion designers 119–21, 129
- location scale model 108, 109–10
- managerial choice 67, 69
- mapping of business ecosystems 14–19, 28
- market control 80, 82, 83
- market customers 19
- market resolution 175
- market responsiveness 123, 128
- markets
 - access to 38–9
 - and incubators 144
 - and innovation systems 171
 - “matchmaker” accelerators 49
 - mavericks 121, 131
 - mentoring services 53–4
 - merchandising services 54
 - meta-organizations 13
 - micro enterprises
 - fashion designers as 117–18, 131
 - identifying 122
 - use of resources 121
- Microsoft Corporation 45–50, 56–7
- Microsoft Developers Network (MSDN) 47
- Minà, A. 195–6
- mindsets 27
- Mintzberg, H. 78
- Mollick, E. 96
- Mood, C. 108
- Moore, J.F. 12, 13, 22, 24
- motivation 73, 75–7
- neighborhoods 174, 182
- Network Size 178–9

- networks
 - alliance networks 170
 - entrepreneurial networks 4, 139–40, 143–5
 - in innovation ecosystems 39–40
 - and motivation 74
 - social 96, 120
- new venture formation
 - conceptual model 175–6
 - probability of 180–88
 - and regional ecosystems 168–70
- niche players 21
- Node Closeness Centrality 178–9
- Nokia 46, 48, 49–50
- non-profit incubators 139–40, 142, 147

- Open Innovation House 45
- opportunities
 - definition 66–7
 - in entrepreneurial ecosystems 24–5
 - exploitation of 73
- organizational ambidexterity 66
- organizational control 80–83
- organizational design
 - discovery 81–2
 - and entrepreneurial functions 83–4
 - evaluation 81–2
 - exploitation 83
 - firm-level entrepreneurship 71–2, 73–6
 - organizational control 80–81
 - organizational structure 77–80
 - as research gap 68–9
 - in startups 65–7
- organizational structure 77–80
- Osterloh, M. 78
- Oticon 66
- Ouchi, W.G. 77, 80
- outcomes of business ecosystems 26

- parallel activity systems 170–71
- pattern analysis 180
- peer responsiveness 123, 128, 129, 131–2
- Penrose, E.T. 13
- performance
 - of business ecosystems 18
 - of incubators; indicators of 147–50
 - interdependence and 27
 - as theme of literature 18
- personalities 85
- platform management 112
- platforms 22
- policy of incubators 143–4
- policy-makers 19
- polyarchies 79
- post-incubation activities 141
- pre-incubation services 141
- product adoption 176
- product design 110
- product innovation 176

- quality control 55

- R&D 79–80
- reciprocity 25
- regional entrepreneurial ecosystems
 - conclusions 190–91
 - discussion 188–90
 - knowledge acquisition and institutions 170–73
 - knowledge and 168–9
 - new ventures and 168–70
 - results and analysis 180–88
 - simulation design and methodology 173–80
- Registry of Certified Incubators, Italy 145–6, 148
- relevance of incubators 146
- reproducers 121
- reputation 59
- research methodology
 - business ecosystems 14–17
 - compilation steps 16
 - content analysis 14
 - data sample 14–16
 - future possibilities 29
- resource nodes 118, 122, 128, 131
- resource scarcity and costs 38
- reward-based crowdfunding see crowdfunding
- rewards 98, 105–6

- Sah, R. 79
- sample houses 129, 130
- sampling 14–16, 97
- Schoonhoven, C. 80
- Schumpeter, J. 68
- Schwarzkopf, C. 144–5
- seed financing 112

- self-determination 78
- serendipity 8, 81
- service ecosystems 22–3, 25–6
- service-dominant (S-D) logic 26
- simple theory 169, 174
- simulations
 - limitations of 189
 - model validity 180–81
 - in organizational dynamics 169–70
- slack resources 77
- SLUSH conference 44, 51
- social capital
 - in crowdfunding 94–5, 106, 111–12
 - embedded relationships 96
 - fashion design 127–8, 131–2
 - in Kickstarter case study 98
 - knowledge acquisition and 171
- social network analysis 178–9
- social networks 96, 120
- socially sympathetic infrastructures 118, 120–21, 122
- specialization within firms 75, 78, 79
- Spigel, B. 195
- spontaneous initiatives 84
- Stam, E. 195
- Startup Sauna Foundation 43–4, 51
- startups
 - crowdfunding favoring 93–4, 110
 - and ecosystems 38
 - post-incubation activities 141
 - recent rise of 3
- Stiglitz, J. 79
- strategic alliances 11–12, 22
- strategic entrepreneurship 84–5
- strategic knowledge arbitrage 8, 72, 74, 170, 175–6, 190
- strategic knowledge serendipity 168, 171, 173, 176, 182, 188, 190
- structure network metrics 188
- success
 - in crowdfunding 99, 105–6, 111
 - in entrepreneurial ecosystems 4
- Summer of Startups 43
- supply chain actors 19
- support and incubators 144
- sustainability of incubators 146
- sustainable entrepreneurial ecosystems 196
- symbolic knowledge 118, 120, 131
- tacit knowledge 81
- task complexity 97, 111, 112
- technological evolution 18–19
- technological platforms 22
- technology transfer 142–3
- Tobit regression 185, 187
- trends in fashion design 119–20, 123, 127
- Triple Helix of Innovation 171
- UK fashion design see fashion design
- University of Catania, Italy 2
- utility of incubators 146
- value creation
 - co-creation 39–40
 - in ecosystems 26–7, 28
 - in innovation ecosystems 24
 - in service ecosystems 25–6
- venture capital 4
- videogames industry 97
- weaknesses in entrepreneurial ecosystems 4
- Windows Phone
 - ecosystem of 45–8, 56–7
 - as focus of AppCampus 49–50
- Y-Combinator 49