

Index

- Abrahams, E. 128, 144
accountability 186–7, 195
 corporate 218 adverse selection 206–7, 208, 229 aesthetics 149, 156, 158
 and values 151–4, 166–7 “affluenza” 2 agency theory 45, 50–51, 53, 55, 58
anthroposophy 114
Aquinas, T. 154, 155, 168
Aristotle 156, 192–3
Arthur Anderson 48, 55–6
Augustine (Saint) 151, 160–161, 192
Aurobindo, S. 128, 132, 145
- Bandura, A. 109, 195, 275
BankTrack 229, 230
Barney, J.B. 95, 96–7, 98
beauty see aesthetics beliefs see values
Bhagavad Gita 133–4, 145
Bhattacharya, R. 94, 98 biodiversity, as principle 214
Bird, F.P. 254–5, 259
Birmbacher, D. 241, 242, 257, 258
Blair, M.M. 44, 60
Boers, E. 255, 258
Bouckaert, L. 111, 115
BP oil spill 1, 56–7 brain 125–7, 144
Brenkert, G. 263–5
bribery 52
Brinkmann, J. 253, 259, 271–2
Brune, J.P. 255, 258, 259
Buddhism 130–131, 134, 137, 145
business analogy with music improvisation 164–6 creating wealth as purpose 67–9 as part of economic system 65–7 responsibilities 30–37 rhythm of 158–60 self-interestedness of 21, 35–7 and society 64–5, 76
 and time 10, 150–151, 157–60, 162–3
business ethics future of 262–3, 278 character building and development of moral imagination 275–6 criticism, collaboration and confrontation in 271–2 different levels and challenges in 270–271 ideals and realities in 267–9 need for new paradigm 274–5 personal development in 272–3 as a practical effort 263–5 regaining legitimacy and relevance in 276–7 requirements for 265–7 transmission of human values 269–70
 relevance of ethical competency 139–42
 tool for reducing theory-practice divide in 240–58
business schools business ethics within 272–3 challenge to 142
 misunderstanding of ethics 269–70
business transactions 21, 22, 23–4, 30 busy-ness 162–3

- Capaldo, A. 98, 99
- capitalism in economic system 65–6 shareholder, priority of economic democracy over 112
- Caprara, G-V. 109, 275
- Chakraborty, S.K. 139, 143
- character building 275–6
- chronopathy 151, 161–3
- Clarkson, M.B.E. 44, 60
- codes of conduct analytical framework for evaluating 202–3 for corporate social responsibility and sustainability 203–10
 Equator Principles (EP) 226–31
 Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) 231–5
 ICMM SD Framework 210–218
 Kimberley Process Certification Scheme (KPCS) 218–26
 multi-stakeholder 13, 200–202
- Coffee, J.C., Jr. 84, 85, 88, 89, 92, 100–101
- collaboration 165–6, 271–2
- Colombo, R.J. 96, 97
- common morality 185–6
- community development, as principle 215
- compliance enforcement 225
- consciousness 124–9
- corporate governance
 as principle in ICMM SD framework 212
 and proxy voting services 90
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) codes of conduct for 203–10 defined, in context of study 201 as distinguished from ethics 264
 for human rights 74–6
 as increasing profits 44, 49
 intrinsic 45, 61
- Costanza, R. 177–8
- Cragg, W. 52, 60, 208
- Crane, A. 231, 270
- creativity 165
- crises 1–3, 45, 173, 176–7, 178, 274
- Crotty, J. 81–2
- crowding out theory 108–9
- Daly, H.E. 173–4, 175, 177
- De George, R.T. 35, 39
- decision-making as component of economic system 66, 76 corporate, as principle 212
 and values 8
- Deepwater Horizon 1, 56–7
- DeLong, T.J. 162, 168
- Descartes, R. 129–30
- dialogues
 on future of business ethics 262–78
 Socratic 240–258
- Dodge v. Ford Motor Co.* 43–4
- Domask, J. 231, 233, 234
- Drucker, P.F. 58, 60
- dualism 129–36
- Eastern perspectives 119, 120–21, 129–36, 156
- Easwaran, E. 132, 145
- ecological economics 177–8 gradual and rapid change 173
 green economy 175–7
 real economy 174–5
 side effects of industrial society 171–2 symptoms and lack of communication 172
 uneconomic growth 173–4
- economic life 149
 and rhythm of business 158–60
 and values 166–8
- economic system business as part of 65–7 components of 65–6, 76
 creating wealth as purpose 67–9
 definition 77
 interdependence with eco-systems 274–5 neglect of 64–5
- Eisenstein, C. 2, 178, 274
- Elliott waves 158, 159
- “embodied knowledge” 121–2
- empathy 196, 275–6

- employee unions 31–2
- Enderle, G. 67, 70, 75–6, 254, 270–271
- Enron collapse 48, 55–6, 89, 92, 271
- environment, as principle 214
- environmental crisis 1
- environmental stewardship 216
- equality 21–2
- of opportunity 28–30
 - see also* inequality
- Equator Principles (EP) 208, 226–31
- ethical competency
- introduction 119–21
 - preamble 117–19
 - relevance for business ethics 139–42
 - source of ethics 123–4
 - consciousness 124–9
 - dualism, unity, and ethics from ‘Eastern’ perspective 129–36
 - importance of spiritual teacher 138–9
 - realizing and being at one with 136–7
 - spontaneous ethical behavior 121–3
- ethics
- functions for 49
 - implications of profit maximization model 54–8
 - rebuilding foundations of 58–60
 - side constraints 49–50, 52–3, 54, 55
- eudaimonia 192–3
- executive compensation 32, 41, 45, 47, 59
- exit strategy 183–4, 187–90, 195
- fast finance 92–3, 102
- fiduciary duty 99–101, 102
- financial crisis 1, 4
- auditors’ lack of influence 88–9
 - causal links 6, 54–5, 82, 90, 102, 160, 163, 269
 - effect of income inequality 39
 - lack of trust as outcome 93–4
 - loss of business ethics’ credibility 277
 - opportunity for change 177, 269
 - “perfect calm” prior to 81
 - perplexity about values as outcome 269
- firms, history of 42–4
- Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) 207, 231–5
- Forman, R.K.C. 124, 137
- Frank, R. 20, 38
- free riders 72, 87, 92, 206–7, 208, 219, 235
- freedoms 68
- Friedman, M. 44–5, 49, 60, 61
- Ghoshal, S. 46–7, 60
- Giannoccaro, I. 98, 99
- Global Compact 45–6, 200
- Goldman Sachs 94, 97–8
- governance structure examples 215, 221–2, 229
- Grameen Bank 68, 69, 113
- “great divergence” 4, 19, 21
- green economy 175–7
- Greenpeace 184, 187–90, 193, 197
- Gronke, H. 256, 257, 258
- group discussion process see Socratic dialogue (SD)
- guilt 194
- Gulbrandsen, L.H. 200, 231, 232, 233
- Hansen, M.H. 95, 96–7, 98
- Harmon, M.M. 186, 194
- Hayek, F.A. 26–30, 38
- health and safety, as principle 213
- Heath, J. 51, 61
- Heckmann, G. 241, 242, 258, 259
- see also* Nelson-Heckmann tradition
- Hinduism 9, 130–134
- Hirschman, A.O. 183–4, 193
- Homo Oeconomicus 107, 277
- Horwitz, M.J. 43, 60
- hour glass model 243–4
- human rights
- abuses 219–20, 223–7
 - moral value of 167
 - as principle in ICMM SD framework 213
 - responsibility for 6, 35, 46, 61
 - defined as public goods 74–6
 - securing, as future challenge 271

- and time 149, 154–7
- violation, as form of art 151–2
- Huxley, A. 136–7, 146
- “I” (self) 129, 130, 131, 144, 146
- ICMM SD Framework see International Council on Mining and Metals Sustainable Development Framework
- Ims, K.J. 7, 12, 183, 184–5, 186, 193, 197, 275–6
- independent verification
 - in codes of conduct 210
 - in ICMM 217, 218
 - as principle 215
- India 113, 119, 123, 128, 138, 142, 143
- inequality
 - Hayek, social justice, and equality 26–30
 - increased 19–21
 - libertarianism, Narveson, and business 21–5
 - overview 3–7
 - prior considerations and new directions 30–37
 - relation to market/capitalist system 29
- information sharing 98, 100
- institutional ethics 271
- institutional trust 95–6
- instrumental rationality logic 47–8
- interconnectedness 9, 110, 111, 131, 139
- International Council on Mining and Metals Sustainable Development Framework 207, 210–18
- International Finance Corporation 227, 228
- International Oil Daily* 227, 230
- investment value chain
 - fiduciary duty 99–101, 102
 - outline 82–3
 - players in 84–92
 - principal/agent problems 92–3
 - trust in 99–100, 102
- ISO 14001 234
- issue specificity 208, 209
- IWA (International Water Association) 184, 190
- Jackson, K.T. 149, 168, 269–70
- Jakobsen, O.D. 274–5
- Jensen, M.C. 45, 61
- Kasser, T. 2, 109–10
- Kay, J. 82, 86, 92, 93, 99–100, 102
- Kell, G. 200, 202
- Kelleher, E. 87, 88, 89
- Kessels, J. 241, 243–4, 252, 256, 257, 258, 259
- Kierkegaard, S. 154, 168, 186–7, 274–5
- Kimberley Process Certification Scheme (KPCS) 208, 218–26
- Krohn, D. 241, 242, 255, 257, 258, 259
- Kuprewicz, R.B. 227, 230
- Lansley, S. 19, 20, 38
- Laufer, W. 202, 232
- law, obligation to obey 51, 52–3
- Lawrence, S. 228, 229
- legitimacy
 - of business ethics 276–7
 - of Forest Stewardship Council 232, 233
 - input and output 13, 200
 - moral 229–31, 234
- Lehman Brothers 81
- Lenox, M.J. 206, 207
- Lewicki, R.J. 94, 95, 97
- libertarianism 21–5, 29, 36
- Lindner, E. 172, 178
- Long Term Capital Management 54–5
- Lowenstein, R. 54–5
- Lozano, J.M. 272–3
- Mahabharata* 123, 133, 144
- Mainelli, M. 84–6, 91–2
- market institution 67, 72–3
- Martin, R. 41, 45, 47, 54, 58, 60, 61
- materialistic management
 - materialistic vs. spiritual values 109–11
- model 107, 115
 - money as motivation 108–9
 - profit as measure of success 107–8

- non-materialistic management 111–14
- Matten, D. 231, 270
- Max-Neef, M. 173, 176–7
- Max Planck Institute 88, 89
- Meckling, W.H. 45, 61
- microfinance 113
- Mintzberg, H. 58–9
- Mitroff, I.I. 7, 276
- money
 - equating with wealth 68
 - laundering 224
 - in microfinance 113
 - as motivation 8–9, 107, 108–9
 - one cannot eat 171
- moral authorship 186–7
- moral disengagement 109, 275
- moral hazard
 - conundrum 50–51
 - societal perspective 51–3
- moral imagination 275–6
- moral values
 - of communities 185
 - connections with economic and aesthetic values 166–8
 - of human rights 167
 - periodic rise and fall 158–60
 - of trustees 97
- mortgages
 - and executive compensation 47
 - fraudulent ratings of 91, 93
 - and inequality 5, 27, 31
- motivation
 - money as 8–9, 107, 108–9
 - private goods 73
 - public goods 74
 - self-regarding 66–7, 73, 76
- music 10, 149–50, 153, 154, 161, 164–6
- Narveson, J. 22–5, 36
- Nelson-Heckmann tradition 13, 240–241, 256, 258, 259
- Nelson, L. 241, 252, 258, 259
- New York Times* 61, 94
- Niebuhr, H.R. 186, 194
- Noah, T. 19, 38
- non-materialistic management 111–14
- Nussbaum, M.C. 123, 156
- Occupy Wall Street 19, 107
- O’Higgins, E. 267–9
- O’Reilly, E. 193–4, 196
- Ostrom, E. 73, 200, 203
- Pattberg, P. 200, 232
- Pearce, J. 177, 178
- Pedersen, L.J.T. 183, 193, 197, 275–6
 - “perfect calm” period 81–2
 - performance assessment 231
 - performance verification 218
 - personal development 272–3
 - personal responsibility
 - case study 187–90
 - discussion 191–5
 - conclusions 195–7
 - introduction 183–4
 - meaning of 184–7
- Peters, B.G. 231, 232
- Pickett, K. 20, 37, 38
- Pierre, J. 231, 232
- Pogge, T.W. 12, 156
- Potoski, M. 229, 230
- Prakash, A. 229, 230
- principal/agent problems 92–3
- private goods
 - combination of public and private wealth 72–4
 - distinction with public goods 70–71
 - motivations 73
 - production of 72, 73, 76
- product sustenance life cycle 158, 159
- profit maximization
 - and business ethics 41
 - critics of 46–7
 - history of the corporation 42–4
 - model
 - implications for ethics 54–8
 - normative implications 47–50
 - and moral hazard 50–53
 - profit, as measure of success 8–9, 107–8
 - rebuilding trust 58–60
 - shareholder primacy theories 44–6
- profit sharing agreements (PSAs) 226–7
- Pruzan, P. 111, 118, 119, 124, 140, 141, 143, 146, 265–7

- public goods
 combination of public and private wealth 72–4
 defined as 67–8 distinction with private goods 70–71
 motivations 74
 production of 72, 74
 responsibility for human rights defined as 74–6
- Raupach-Strey, G. 256–7, 258
 real economy 174–5
 Reality 110, 132, 134, 135, 137, 139, 146
 reflexivity 192, 196
 regressive abstraction 243, 246, 251 relational trust 95, 98, 99 relevance of ethical competency for business ethics 139–42 regaining, in future of business ethics 276–7
- “reputation effect” 203
- responsibility business, regarding equality and inequality 30–37 for future generations 150 grounded in structure 165
 for human rights 6, 35, 46, 61, 74–6 personal 12–13, 183–97 and prior agreements 24–5 role-mediated 185–6, 194–5 triangle of 185–6
see also corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- risk management, as principle 213
- Roth, N.I. 95, 96, 97
 Rousseau, D.M. 94–5, 97, 99
 Ruggie, J. 46, 52, 61, 75, 200, 202
 Russell, P. 127, 145
- Saint Augustine 151, 160–161, 192
 Schepers, D.H. 200, 203, 205, 226, 231
 Scruton, R. 151, 153, 168 self-deception 187, 194–5 self-interest
 business 21, 35–7
 civic moral disengagement 109 economic behaviour 50, 53
 ‘Homo Oeconomicus’ 107
 as motivation 66–7, 73, 76
 norm of 23–5, 196–7
 priority of commitment over 112 and public goods 6, 75–6, 100 self-regulation 223, 225, 231
 Sen, A. 4, 68, 71, 73, 156
 Sethi, S.P. 200, 202–3, 205, 207, 209, 210, 219, 230, 231, 232
 shareholder primacy theories 5–6, 42, 44–6, 51, 53, 59
 short-termism 93, 151, 163
 Sitkin, S.B. 95, 96, 97
 slow finance 101–2
 social justice 26–30, 38 society, and business 64–5, 76
 Socratic dialogue (SD) 240–241 dialogue process design 242–3 examples 245–51
 indispensable features 241–2 published descriptions of 243–5 rules 242
 study discussion 257–8
 use in business ethics teaching and research 252 use in reducing theory/practice divide in business ethics 253–7
- spirituality and business success 141 defining 110, 141
 as framework for leadership 111, 119, 140, 142 and future of business ethics 265–7, 274–5 as inspiration 9 spiritual value orientation 9, 109–11 see also non-materialistic management
- spontaneous order 27, 28, 38
 Statoil 183–4, 187–90, 193
 Stiglitz, J.E. 1, 2, 19, 38, 71
 Stout, L.A. 97, 98
 strong evaluations 191–2 supply chain regulation 224–5 sustainability analogy with music 165 attitudes towards 85, 87, 110, 192

- codes of conduct for 203–10
 - and ecological economics 177–8
 - striving for, as goal 270–271
- Taylor, C. 191–2, 194
- Tencati, A. 276–7
- theory/practice divide 253–8, 271
- time 10, 149, 157–8, 164–6
- transcendence 9, 110, 139
- transparency
 - in codes of conduct 210
 - lack of, examples 218, 229
- Triodos Bank 113–14
- trust
 - calculus based 95
 - control based 96–7
 - fiduciary duty 99–101
 - in financial institutions 81, 93–7
 - importance of 97–8
 - and investment value chain 99–100, 102
 - link with inequality 20, 37
 - mutual, priority of 112
 - regaining 58–60
 - strong-form 97–8
 - system based on 113
 - voluntary codes of conduct 203, 207, 209
- Tyrie, A. 81, 93–4
- uncertainty 166
- uneconomic growth 173–4
- unintended actions/consequences 27, 30, 171, 176, 274
- unions 31–2
- United Nations (UN) 75, 77
- unity 129–36
- Universal Consciousness 128–9, 134, 136
- value creation 101, 102, 158
- values 7–11
 - and aesthetics 151–4, 166–7
 - materialistic vs. spiritual 109–11
- moral
 - of communities 185
 - of human rights 167
 - link with aesthetic and economic 166–8
 - periodic rise and fall 158–60
 - of trustees 97
 - perplexity about, as outcome of financial crisis 269
 - transmission of authentic human 269–70
- Vedic texts 128–9, 131–3, 135, 137, 142, 144
- Vivekananda, S. 128, 131, 135
- voluntary codes of conduct 202–9
 - see also* codes of conduct
- wage inequalities
 - erosion of unionization 31
 - Hayek's view 27–8
- Wallage, I. 13, 183–4, 187–97
- warranties system 224–5
- wealth
 - as combination of private and public wealth 69–72
 - implications of 72–4
 - creation, as purpose of economy and business 67–9
 - defining, and types of 68–72
- Western perspectives 119, 131, 144, 156, 269
- Wilkinson, R. 20, 37, 38
- Williams, B. 186, 193
- Williams, C.A. 53, 61
- Williams, G. 101–2
- wisdom 166
- Woolley, P. 92, 93
- World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED) 68, 174
- Zsolnai, L. 7–8, 107, 115, 184, 196, 275, 276–7

