Index

actionable items bias of 12
  as element of agenda definition 5–6
  and power 7–8
  refugee crisis as 8
actor-centred constructivism 144–7
Advocacy Coalition Framework (ACF) 110–111, 118, 286, 396 agenda-building 6, 26 agenda, defining 4–6, 21 agenda denial 30–32, 47–9 agenda setting
  and attention 11–12
  defining 6, 369–71
  from democratic theory to policy studies 36–40 dynamics ability to influence agenda 314
  and attention 328–9
  breadth of analysis 328 different, for different issues 314, 318–23 and issue attributes 317–18, 327 issue characteristics that impact 328 policy and public agendas 315–17 and policy environments 436–40 and ‘real-world’ factors 324–7 sophisticated research work 327–8 evolutionary approach to 53–63 four ‘P’s of 7–10 importance of study of 2–4 and political conflict management 10–11 radical roots of 25–8 strategic 114–16
  taming 254–70 types of, and media 157–60 agenda setting approach constructivism in 135 functions 14–15
  popularity among media scholars 158

Agendas, Alternatives, and Public Policies concepts within 40, 225 construction of 60–62 elements generating behavioral study of political elites 54–6 Congressional studies 56–8 natural selection and biological analogy 58–60 major impact of 53, 63
    missing concept 30
    putting ideas at centre of agenda setting analysis 136 Agendas and Instability in American Politics 30, 69, 72 airline safety 49
ambiguity cross-border issues creating situation of 332, 334, 339–40, 342
  definition 11
  as element of policy process 93 within EU 96
  Kingdon’s focus on 11 making decisions in face of 89 measures to exploit 97–8 MSA highlighting importance of 102 of systemic agenda concept 262–3 angel/devil shift 109, 121 apathetic groups 117, 122 attention
    and agenda setting 11–12
    allocation of 69, 71–2, 81, 83 to certain issues at expense of others 89, 97, 101, 316, 328 competition for 93, 97, 325–7, 390 distribution of 75–6, 83
in domestication of wild problems 255–6, 261–3, 268 dynamics of 12, 15, 328–9 economic policy and youth unemployment 465 Handbook of public policy agenda setting economy of 316–17, 327

in educational policy 466
and epistemic communities 275–7, 279, 281–3, 285, 287
to EU issues 357
external conflict diverting public 326 and financial crisis 433–5, 437–8, 442, 450–452
to foreign policy issues 322, 324–9 government
to foreign policy 322 issue to be placed on policy agenda 315
for shifting rules 96 to humanitarian issues 323 and institutional crisis 416, 420, 422
and interest groups 208–9, 212
issue 25, 30, 224, 285, 299, 305, 320
in local government agenda setting 299, 302–6, 310
lurching to policy problem 90 finding solutions to 91 media 8, 169, 174, 209, 245–6, 263, 315–16, 318–20, 323–6, 399–400, 420, 437
in multiple streams approach 87, 89–93, 95–102
in narrative policy framework 107, 111–14, 116–17, 124–6
and natural disasters 389–413
as one-dimensional 80
and PET
concept of 69
linking with policy change 71–2 and policy entrepreneurs 180, 189, 194 to policy issues, elite influence over 106 in political agenda setting by mass media 157–60, 165, 168–9, 174–5
and political parties 223–6, 229
politics of 13–14
presidential 240–241, 243–50, 317–20, 324–7
and public agenda 315
punctuations in 82
selective orientation of 100 serial shifts in 116–17, 126 as subject to manipulation 102 turning to causes of crisis 460 in United Nations 369–70, 372, 375–82
Audiovisual Media Services Directive
(AVMSD) 337–8
bargaining, learning through 286–7 Baumgartner, F.R. 13–16, 29–30, 32, 40, 46, 62–3, 69–70, 72–3, 75–8, 80, 89–90, 96, 106–7, 111–14,
116–17, 120–125, 136, 139, 158–9,
162, 168, 188, 200–203, 205–9, 211–12, 223, 240, 246–8, 261, 273, 275–7, 297, 300, 302, 304–6, 308,
314–17, 325, 328, 353–4, 356–7,
361, 368, 389–90, 395–7, 417, 420, 423–4, 434–6, 439, 442, 451 behavioralists 26–8, 54–5, 60 biological analogy 58–60 budgetary change 70–71, 75, 77–8, 80 change
as aspect of political reality 70 discourse as main instrument of 141 distribution of 75–8, 80–81, 83 gradual nature of policy 79 incremental 70–71, 73–4 institutional 419–23
major, sudden 71, 73–4, 81 one-dimensional concept of 80 policy constructing tools for 139–41
and interest groups 206–9 linking with attention 71–2 major 78–9 political systems inhibiting 74 with regard to US tobacco policy 75 venue 73–4
Cobb, R.W. 4–6, 10–11, 13, 15, 25–33, 35–50, 53, 106, 120, 122, 134, 138, 158–9, 180, 183, 220, 223, 225,
255–6, 261–3, 274, 286, 304, 306, 368–9, 389–91, 396, 434, 437, 459, 467 coercive isomorphism 137–8 cognitive frames 132, 136, 138, 140–141, 147–9 cognitive friction 82–3 collective action
democratic 1 dilemmas 203–4, 350

efforts 208, 376

inputs and outputs 222, 232–3 link to framing 379

of political parties 226–7

communicative discourse 142, 457–64, 467

complexity

of labor code 267–8

making sense of

in terms of constructivism 135–47 in terms of NPF 111–14

organizational 368

technical 273, 393, 434–6 theory 421

veil of 435

conflict expansion 10, 28–9, 44 conflict management, political

and agenda setting 10–11

perspective of Cobb and Elder 6

Congress

attention to natural disasters

399–405, 410–411

and presidential power 246–9 studies of 56–7, 308

constructivism and agenda setting example event 254

future agendas 147–9 possibilities and limitations

actor-centred constructivism

144–7

aspects of process 135–6 constructing tools for policy change 139–41 discourse and fora 141–3 framing policy issues 138 framing through socialization

143–4

identifying problems 136–8 relationship between 132–5 context

and act of coupling 102 agenda setting unable to become divorced from 101

based approach 341

differences between, and agenda setting 81

as element of agenda definition 5–6

institutional, and interest groups

200, 204–6, 213

issue 12, 284, 314, 327–8

learning 279, 282, 284, 289 in narrative structure and content 108–9

PET's sensitivity to 83

and policy entrepreneurs 193–4

coordinative discourse 142, 457–60

coupling streams

policy entrepreneurs as central in 122, 332, 389, 426

role of skill and entrepreneurship in 101–2

crises

affecting agenda setting 457, 459, 467 and agenda capacity 212 determining 145

exogenization of 460

exploiting 98

as important independent variable 415 institutionalization coloring perceptions of 20 relation to focusing events 303, 390, 392, 420 see also financial crisis; Greek social crisis; institutional crisis crisis management 418, 425–7 crisis-reform thesis 423–9 critical junctures 457–60, 464, 466–7

cross-border broadcasting

policy stream 334

politics stream 334

problems stream 333

window of opportunity 335

cultural bias 30–32

data protection regulation

policy stream 341

politics stream 340–341

problem stream 339–40

window of opportunity 342–3

death penalty 208–9

decision-making

bodies, juggling of issues by 32–3 and change within local subsystems 305

Congressional 56

costs 77

critical role of attention in 303 Handbook of public policy agenda setting

of elites 35, 297–8
and epistemic communities framework 273 foreign policy 326
formal agenda for 369 governmental behavioral study of 54 winners and losers in 2
and interest groups 200, 202, 210–211 issues for 350
and level of integration of policy networks 206 linear process 93 organizational, garbage can approach to 124, 183 political list of solutions for 261–5 and political parties 225, 232
and power 115
pre-decisional stages of 277 procedures in EU 351, 353, 355, 358–60 and rules governing policy subsystems 206–7 and types of learning 279 urban survey of role of policy experts in 303 democracy in 1960s 10 American 25–6, 28, 35, 115, 239 capitalist 434–5
collective action 1
Critique of the elitist theory of 53, 55 democratization of information 289 and disadvantaged 25 distribution of power in system of 314 EU’s democratic deficit 142–4 and foreign policy 317, 326, 328–9 Greek transition to 461–3 institutions unaccountable to 3
and interest groups 201–2, 213
majoritarian 99
move from theory to policy studies 36–40, 49–50 multiple streams approach to parliamentary 225–7 normative liberal model of 218–20, 223–4 pluralistic democratic elitism model 35 and policy sciences as cornerstone for 10 moving away from 20–21 use of, to improve 15 and policymaking 2
political debate on 26–8
and political parties 218–22, 228–31, 233
politics 2, 10, 42, 316 reconciling theory and practice 10–11, 15, 20 shift away from analyses of operation of 33 unfairness within 26
and willingness to compromise 192 Demosthenes I disadvantaged 25–6, 31–2, 459–60, 462–3, 467 discourse 141–3, 457–64, 467 discursive institutionalism (DI) 136–7, 141–2, 457–9 discursive practices 257–9, 266–8, 270 drag 13
earthquakes 393, 397–402, 404–6, 409–11
Eastern Europe 3, 344, 350
Ebola epidemic 9
ECJ see European Court of Justice (ECJ) economic policy 317–29
elitists 27–8
entrepreneurship see policy entrepreneurs epistemic communities agenda setting role 274–8, 289 as agents 286–7 framing in learning modes 283–8 through deliberation 284–5
through learning 278–82
internal motivations 289–90
Index 475

original development of framework 273–4 power concentrated in issue framing 290 rooted in knowledge produced by 289 as standard bearers 288 as teachers of frames 283–4 European Commission
acting as fixed external constraint on policy actors 332 adoption of Public Value text 339 approval of takeover of BSkyB’s 338 building communicative discourses 142 challenge to UK 335
creating environment to facilitate policy change 343 on definition of ‘origin’ 333 determining level of protection on personal data 343 extent of agenda setting authority 351 favouring one-stop shop for regulation of satellite broadcasting 336 holding exclusive right to put forward decision-making proposals 355 interaction with European Council 356 political strategy of ‘market gain’ 146 proposed revision of Data Protection Directive 340–341 on satellites 334 European Court of Justice (ECJ)
acting as fixed external constraint on policy actors 332 decisions as focusing events 332, 335, 343 exemption to notification in personal data processing 342 Google decision 340, 342–3 opening up windows of opportunity 343–4 ruling in case against UK 335
Safe Harbor Agreement 342–3
European Union (EU)
agenda openness 358
agenda setting
actors in 355–7
historical and intellectual development 348–53
main controversies 358–60
major claims and developments of 353–7 openness and venue shopping in 353–4 reasons for continuing importance of 360–361 research agenda 362–3 studies, and governance turn 351–3 broadcasting policy, spill-over 338 communicative discourse 142, 464 comparison to other political systems 359–60 as cooperation scheme between states 348 creeping competence 361 Data Protection Directive 340–342 Defrene case in 210, 213 democratic deficit problem 143 epigraphic communities in 284, 287 and financial regulation 448–9 free movement of data 340–343 institutional setting for lobbying 344 institutions acting as external constraint on policy actors 332
and interest groups 211
integration, influence of media 163 liberalisation of communications sector 332 and MSA 88, 93–4
northern Member States requiring greater transparency 339 and policy change 74, 343–4 radio spectrum policy 338–9
Safe Harbor Agreement 340 states steering agendas in 343 studies, as integration theory 348–50 as sui generis system 359 venue shopping applied to 74, 96
‘wellbeing’ policy in 95
see also United Kingdom (UK)

Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) 425–6 feedback
in attention and institutional friction 13–14 interpreting 97–8
negative 73, 75, 417 positive 13–14, 73, 75, 417, 424 financial crisis
highlighting political tensions 20 impact on financial regulation 445–51 media coverage 442–5 from micro- to macro-prudential thinking 448 origins of 440 reaction of public authorities 445–6 scandals 444–5
scope of 441–2
systemic banking crisis 441–2 as window of opportunity 447–8 financial regulation agenda dynamics and policy environments in 436–40 formerly ‘esoteric’ politics 435–6 future research agenda 451–2 governance and politics diversity 433 impact of financial crisis 445–8 and macro-political agenda 434–5, 437–40, 446–7, 449, 451 new participants and policy positions 449–51 political dimension underlying 451 ‘quiet’ and ‘noisy’ politics 433, 436, 439–40, 451 regulatory capture 436, 447, 450–451 subsystems 435, 437–40
technical complexity and low public attention characterized by 434 conceived as variables rather than constants 436 as conducive to disproportionate influence of experts and subsystem insiders 435 implications of 451 and trust 435
financial services expertise 436
increase in public’s exposure to issues of 442 role played in everyday lives 434 floods 392, 400–402, 405, 407–10 focusing events agendas often changed through 335 analysis of 393–6 attention lurching following 90
definition 212
exploiting 98
failures in form of 438
and financial regulation 439
in foreign policy agenda setting 324–5 ideational component 141 importance in agenda setting studies 324
and interest groups 212 issues becoming problems when accompanied by 11, 73, 102
in local government agenda setting 303 natural disasters as 397–411 as part of agenda setting 390–392 as part of MSA 389
potential, definition 392 to produce policy change 95–6 relation to crises 303, 390, 392, 420 significance of 9/11 as 327 as used term for disasters 389 foreign policy 317–29
framing
building sustainable coalitions 103 epistemic community
power 289
as teachers of 283–4
through deliberation 284–5
wars with interest groups 287 example of importance of 208 frame of innocence 209 link to institutional variables 82 role of NGOs in UN agenda setting 379–80
theory 138
through learning 278–82
through socialization 143–4 friction cognitive 82–3
concept of 77
institutional 13–14, 79, 82–3, 247–8
and leptokurtic patterns of change use in studies 77–8

game of language 266, 270 garbage can model of organizational gay rights movement 77–8 general Data Protection Regulation see also data protection regulation Google Ngram project 412 governance, multilevel 209–11 governance turn, in EU 351–3
government
actionable priorities within agenda setting definition 6 and perception 8
and potency 8, 12
and power 7
agenda
institutional rules shaping 307 issues rising to top of 12, 92, 101 limited attention to 165 local vs national 18 understanding 254–5 for ‘wild’ public problems 261–5
American 35, 247
attempts to establish EU economic 147 and coercive isomorphism 137 and cultural bias 30–31 decision-making in 54–5, 261–5
as element of agenda definition 5–6
engaging in ‘collective puzzlement on society’s behalf’ 54
epistemic community 276, 284
EU Member States 355–6, 359, 363 experts’ involvement in agenda setting found at all levels of 273 federal, and natural disasters 397, 401, 406, 412, 415–16
in financial crisis 440, 448 ‘Great Broadening’ 32
Greek 461–3, 465
influence of media agenda on 161–3, 165, 168, 173–4, 220, 245 local, agenda setting 297–311 media and public agendas 321–3 NGOs holding accountable 382
policy and public agendas 315–17
and political parties
similarity to 226–7 position in relation to 231–3 potential gaps with public 3 privatization policies 94–5 and problem solving 89–90, 98 problems addressed by 2 and public entrepreneurs 183, 187–8 and public problems 254–5, 260–265, 268–9
systems, as plagued by ambiguity 9 uncertainty about policy development responsibility 96 variation across sub-functions 78 and windows of opportunity 100–101
writing about 38–40
Greek social crisis
as example of how critical junctures affect agenda setting 457 problem definition during 460–463 youth unemployment 463–7 homelessness 47
Hurricane Katrina 9, 101, 391–2, 396–7, 399, 401–2, 405, 410–411, 415–16, 430
hurricanes 393, 397–402, 405, 407, 427 see also Hurricane Katrina ideas of actor-centred constructivists 144–5, 147
carriers of 142, 146–7, 273–4 challenging 445–8
as constantly floating around 149 differentiating with strategies 142–3 and discourse 142–3, 458–9 economic 145, 148
of epistemic communities 277–9, 290
of interest groups 206–9
as malleable objects 145
as mechanisms of political change 141 place in transforming difficulties into problems 132
of policy entrepreneurs 189, 192, 196 role in shaping interests of policymakers 147
as semi-autonomous concept 229
- types of 142
- uses of 141–2, 148
- as weapons 146
incrementalism 70–72, 75, 80 information flows 211–12
information processing
- human 81, 83, 94, 124
- institutional 13, 81
- limitations on 390
link to PET 69, 111
within narrative policy framework 111–14, 126
proportional 76
institutional crisis
- and agenda change 428
- characteristics 416–17
- crisis concept 415
- explanation of emergence of 419–23
- insights for theory and practice 429–30
- reconsidering ‘crisis-reform thesis’ 423–9
- towards theoretical framework 417–18
- when institutions storm the agenda 415–17 institutional erosion 419, 421–3, 430 institutional friction
- association with ‘punctuatedness’ 82–3
- explanation of 247
- and politics of attention 13–14
- unit of analysis accounting for 248 institutional syncretism 425, 428–30 institutionalists 55, 136–8, 141–3, 368, 372, 457–8 institutionalization
- colouring perceptions of crisis 20
- of financial services 435
- formal 369
- in incubation process 422
- and integration 418
- of monetarist paradigm 207
- policy sectors varying in terms of strength of 417–18
- power to escalate institutional crisis 418
- responsible adaptation deepening 421
- strong and weak
- comparison 428–9
- features of 422–7
institutions
democratically unaccountable 3
- different understandings of 136–7
EU 348–63
- financial 440, 442, 445–7, 449
- in institutional crisis 415–18, 421–5, 429
- as instruments of stability 196
- and interest groups 200–201, 206–9
- international 372–3
- within narrative policy framework (NPF) 124–5, 127
- as normally stable, or with slow change 458
- political 74, 77, 111, 262
- reaction to media coverage 168
- stickiness of 248
- as tantamount to discourses 142
- integration theory, EU studies as 348–50 interest groups
- collective action dilemmas 203–4
- and democracy 201–2
- focusing events, indicators and flows of information 211–12
- ideas, institutions and policy change 206–9
- organization as mobilization of bias 204–6
- as playing important role in policymaking process 200, 213
- study of 200–201
- venue shopping and multilevel governance 209–11 intergovernmentalism 349–50, 360, 362 international relations (IR)
- applying issue competition component 325
- and foreign policy activities 325–7, 329
- relevance of agenda setting for 380–382
- relevance of UN to studies in 368
- state cooperation question 349
- as subject to change 367
- theory, and agenda setting 371–6 Iraq
invasion of 8, 327
media attention to 325
US foreign policy in 288 Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) 8–9 issue attention cycle 224, 285 issues
attributes 317–18, 327
different dynamics for different 314, 318–28 nature of 36–7
policy, framing 138, 290 salient
and agenda setting dynamics 318–23, 328
definition 438
European Commission responsive to public opinion on 356
and financial regulation 435–6, 438–40, 447, 449–52
foreign policy 245, 326
power shaping perception in 9 presidents pandering to public on 244 as proportionate to intensity of consequences 8 transfer from media to political agenda 160, 175 for UK’s data protection regulation 341 and violence to women 380 knowledge
and epistemic communities
as agents of 286 control over production of 275 as human embodiment of 280 imprint on future policy frames 290 as main vehicles of authoritative consensual 276, 282 offering ‘anthropomorphic’ conceptualization of 277 in reflexive learning 284–5 use of, example 283
use of, to disrupt 287 use of, to impose control 288 as form of powering 279, 289 hierarchies, information as important tool in contesting 289 as important commodity in agenda setting 273 production 280–281 renaissance of 278–9
substantive, value-based and experiential 285 Lasswell, H.D. 1, 10, 15, 38, 266 learning modes epistemic learning 283–4 learning in shadow of hierarchy 288 learning through bargaining 286–7 reflexive learning 284–5 legitimacy barrier 31–2 leptokurtic change distribution 76–8, 80–81 local government agenda setting future research agenda 310–311
local origin of research 297–9 newer approaches to research local applications of national level theories of policy agenda setting 302–8 urban theory approaches 300–302 selected sample of publications 308–10 Lockerbie air disaster 8

Nikolaos Zahariadis - 9781784715922
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 08/31/2019 03:05:40AM via free access Handbook of public policy agenda setting

macro-politics 73–4, 434–40, 446–7, 449, 451 measurement 26–7, 30, 33, 97–8
media
ability to shape public opinion and public policy 3–6 and economic and foreign policy 318–29 and financial crises 437–9, 442–5, 447, 451 importance in expansion and containment 29
and institutional crisis 416, 420, 430
and interest groups 209
market, within UK 337–9
and natural disasters 397–400, 411–12
and perception 8
and policy agenda setting 158 and policy and public agendas 315–23 and political agenda setting future research agenda 175
logic behind use of term 158–60 media outlets 167
objective studies of media power in 160–65, 174–5 parties reacting to media coverage 167–9 subjective studies of media coverage 169–73 types of issues 166–7, 174 and President 245–6, 249, 314 and public agenda setting 158 question surrounding role of 62–3, 157, 174 and ‘wild’ problems 263, 266 mobilization
as agenda setting pattern 42 of bias favoring status quo 37 identification of works on 368 institutionalization of UK monetarist paradigm as example of 207 organization as 204–6 interest group 203–4, 208–11 internal 396
mass 11
mobilizing structures in UN agenda setting 376–7 in PET 71
political symbols as vehicles of 45 process of stability encouraging 13 of symbols 138
monetarism, paradigm shift towards 206–7, 209 MSA see multiple streams approach (MSA) multilevel governance 209–11 multiple streams approach (MSA) and agenda setting, in natural disasters context 389–92 application of 94–6 combination with PET 306
in cross-border broadcasting 333–5 as driving force of the punctuated equilibrium approach 63 explanation of 87–90, 102, 183–4, 225
in general data protection legislation 339–43 independence of streams 11 interaction of streams 12 limitations 82
main features
policy stream 90–91
politics stream 91–2
problem stream 90
meta-analysis of works using 53 multiple streams literature 45–6, 53 operationalizing five main hypotheses for 102–3 policy stream 98–9
politics stream 99–100
possibility of 96–7
problem stream 97–8
role of skill and entrepreneurship in coupling streams 101–2 windows of opportunity 100–101 scope conditions of 354 universal elements 92–4 9/11 8, 100–101, 327, 368, 391, 394, 427–8 narrative policy framework (NPF) development 107–8 intersection with agenda setting literature comparisons 127–8
model 116 propositions regarding 125–7 levels of analysis 109–11 macro level institutions 124–5
studies 110–111
meso level hypotheses 110
non-agenda items 119–20
policy entrepreneurs 122–4 policy images, problem definitions and attention 116–17 policy monopolies and communities 117–19 strategic agenda building 114–16 venue shopping 120–121
micro level breach, transportation, congruence, trust and characters 109–10, 113 information processing 111–14 problem definitions and policy images 114 narratives
functions 106–7
structure and content 108–9 national level theories of policy agenda setting, local applications of 302–8 National Science Foundation (NSF) 60 natural disasters
agenda setting and streams approach 389–92 analyzing focusing events 393–7 attention to 389–98, 401–3, 405, 411–13 as circumstantial reactors 389, 391 federal legislation on 408–10 as focusing events 397–411 mitigation 402–7, 409, 412 natural selection 58–60 negative feedback 73, 75, 417
NGOs see non-governmental organizations (NGOs) ‘noisy’ politics 433, 439–40, 451
non-agenda items 119–20, 126 ‘non-decisions’ 2, 20, 28, 119 non-governmental organizations (NGOs) as crucial in initial phases of policy cycle 376 future research agenda 381–2
and issue of violence against women 369, 379–80 role in agenda setting process of UN as mobilizing structures 376–7 as opportunity structures 378–9 role of expert groups mobilized by 287 and third sector policy entrepreneurs 188 NPF see narrative policy framework (NPF) nuclear power 72–3, 424 Office of Communications (OFCOM) 337–8, 345 oil spills 42, 391–2 openness of EU agenda 358 and venue shopping in EU 353–4 opportunity structures 378–9
organization as mobilization of bias 204–6 ownership process 268–9

Participation in American Politics: the dynamics of agenda-building 4, 25, 27–30, 33, 35–7, 39–40, 43–5, 47, 49 party ideology 229–30, 323 perception changing over time 421
and crises 20
direct and interactive effects 9
as element of agenda setting 7–8
helping to get things done 18 importance of, in agenda setting 6 mandate 239
of political parties 226–8, 230–231
performance deficit 419–22, 430 personal troubles 37
PET see punctuated equilibrium theory (PET) pluralists 2, 26–8, 30, 201–2, 204, 297–9, 344, 373 police brutality 9, 31, 379 policy agendas and public agendas 315–17, 319–24, 326–8 Handbook of public policy agenda setting

policy bubbles 31–2 policy churn 426, 429 policy communities 13–14, 56, 60–61, 88, 91, 117–19, 126, 205–6, 210, 268–9, 392 policy cycle 38–9, 192, 223, 370, 376, 450 policy entrepreneurs
attributes 186
challenges faced by 180 characteristics 185–6
concept of 12
definition 180, 185
future research directions 193–6 in garbage can model 148
historical and intellectual development 181–5 linking solutions to problems as crucial to 91 and focusing events 394, 396
and windows of opportunity 389, 426
motivations 186
within narrative policy framework 122–4, 127 role in agenda setting 180–181, 188–93, 369–70 in coupling streams 101–3 strategies 18–19, 186–7 types
private sector 188 public administration 187–8 third sector 188
UK as 185, 332, 335–9, 344 in weak institutionalized setting 426, 429 windows as fleeting opportunities for 100 policy land registry 268–9 policy learning 121, 125, 127, 273–4, 278–80, 394, 396, 402 policy monopolies 73–4, 117–19, 126, 286, 424 policy sciences
as cornerstone for democracy 1, 10, 15 as having multidisciplinary approaches 195
policy stream
in cross-border broadcasting 334
difficult to separate from problem stream 95 in general data protection legislation 341
as independent 11
as interactive 12
as main feature of MSA 90–91
natural disaster example 405
in operationalizing MSA 98–9 as ‘what we can do about it’ 225 policy streams model see multiple streams approach (MSA) policy studies influence of Roger Cobb 40–44 move from democratic theory 36–40 problem definition 44–9 policy windows 12, 103, 239–40, 294, 303–4, 327, 354, 417, 419 see also window of opportunity policymaking
agenda setting as politicized and contested part of 282 ‘arena approach’ to study of British 226 characteristics of 78–9, 302 and concept of attention 69 and contested governance 417 demarcation of 38 effect of delegation of power 210 in European Union 332, 348, 350–351, 353–62 importance of agenda setting in international 367 apathetic groups in 117, 122 interest groups in 200, 211, 213 political ideology in 229 political parties in 221–2, 225, 228–9, 231 politics in 1–2
President in setting agenda 246 regional and local level of 310 timing in 12
as inherently historical process 206 insights from case studies on 307 lack of change during ‘normal’ 70–71
media effects on foreign 323 media seen as influencing 158, 174 networks observed in 268 patterns of punctuated equilibrium
in 79
and PET 82–3
and policy entrepreneurs 187, 189, 192–3
policy studies focused on 80 and power of epistemic communities 273, 289
relations between inputs and outputs of 232–3
role of discourse in 266 Single Market providing political opportunity structure for 332 studies of subnational 95–6 and stylized normative model 218–19
technical–rational interpretation of 278 urban 302
venue shopping applied to 74
winners and losers in 204
political elites attitudes towards change 396 behavioral study of 54–6 as cause of unfair democratic playing field 26 dominance in framing policy problem and solution 288 influence of media on 161–3, 167, 170–173
taking increasing account of public opinion 362 transfer of allegiance to European level 349
political parties
in agenda setting historical and intellectual development of 218–20 major claims and developments
of 223–6
reasons for continuing importance
of 220–222
future research agenda 230–233 perspectives on as collective actors 226–7 ideology vs party goals 229–30 from narrow to more complex 217 three faces of 227–9 political systems
applications of MSA 93–5 complexity of 73
EU comparison 355, 359–60 as inherently biased 2 leptokurtic distributions of change 78 limitation and strength of 74
parallel processing 111 patterns of punctuated equilibrium
in 79
PET applied to 75
politics stream
in cross-border broadcasting 334
in general data protection legislation 340–341
as independent 11
as interactive 12
London Mayor as part of 95
as main feature of MSA 91–2
natural disaster example 405
in operationalizing MSA 99–100 role of political parties in 225 as ‘what we can find support for’ 225
Post-Katrina Emergency Response Act (PKMRA) 397, 411
potency
and crises 20
as element of agenda setting 7–8
of events 12
indirect effects 9
and limited attention paid to natural disasters 19–20
playing enhanced role in mobilization of actors 18
power
agenda setting as tool for 370 of banks 450 classic studies of 88–9 community 27, 297–8, 299–300, 309
and crises 20
direct and interactive effects 9
as element of agenda setting 7–8
of epistemic communities 273–80, 282–4, 287–90
EU distribution of 93, 211 of European Commission 355–6 of focusing events 390–391, 394–5, 411–12 games 146
helping to get things done 18
of interest groups 99, 103, 200, 202, 205–7 link with discourse 266
in local government agenda setting 298–300, 309
of media 157, 160–175 and multilevel governance 210 personal 183, 237
of policy entrepreneurs 183, 191–2
of political parties 221, 227, 229–30
presidential 236–51
proximity as predictor of agenda setting 411 purchasing 266–7
second face of 31, 53
of states 371–6
and strategic agenda building 114–15, 126 struggles 147
UK distribution of 93, 344 unequal distribution of 135, 144 presidential power
and agenda setting 240–242, 249–51 classical works on 236–8 in Congress 246–9
and media 245–6
and public opinion 242–4 understanding presidential facilitation 238–40 'primeval soup of ideas' 11, 98 priorities citizens' issue 158
early examples of setting policy 1–2
as element of agenda definition 5–6
and financial regulation 435, 438–9, 449, 451 local 297, 303–4
need for 15
policy agenda as list of issues and 180, 188
presidential 245, 248–9
public 243–4, 316
role of emotions in setting 112 private sector policy entrepreneurs 188 problem agenda setting see 'wild' public problems
problem definition
as central to policymaking studies 255–6 coupling with solution definition 265–7 during crises discourse vs time 457, 467 Greek 460–463
youth unemployment 463–6
as critical activity 263–5 and critical junctures 457–60, 464, 466–7 delineating way public issues are tackled by public policies 457 as far flung concept 50 monopolizing upstream processes 139
within narrative policy framework 114, 116–17, 126 from offshoot concept to focal policy concern 44–9 within social issue context 20 statistical indicators as powerful aspect of 141 studies identifying additional sources of 95 problem identification 39, 93, 136–8, 159, 393
problem stream
in cross-border broadcasting 333
difficult to separate from policy stream 95 in general data protection legislation 339–40
as independent 11
as interactive 12
as main feature of MSA 90
natural disaster example 405
in operationalizing MSA exploiting focusing events or crises 98 identifying and interpreting variations in policy-relevant indicators 97 interpreting feedback to identify policy success or failure 97–8 windows opening in 101
as 'what is going on' 225 window of opportunity opening for UK 342 proximity drag affected by 13
as element of agenda setting 7–9
indirect effects 9
and limited attention paid to natural disasters 19–20 playing enhanced role in mobilization of actors 18 as predictor of agenda setting power 411 public administration policy entrepreneurs 187–8 public agendas and policy agendas 315–17, 319–24, 326–8 public issues
definition 37
in relation to agenda setting 6 public policy, evolutionary approach to 53–63
public problems
bailout of financial institutions 7
definition 37
detachment from political priorities 2 emergence of pollution as 3 and policy-relevant indicators 97 turning issues into 8
see also ‘wild’ public problems punctuated equilibrium theory (PET) accommodating quantitative and qualitative evidence 14 as bringing concept of attention to core of policymaking 69 building blocks of development 69–70
historical and intellectual development 70–72
importance of 81–2
main controversies 78–81
within narrative policy framework 111–14
and political parties 225–6 prominence of 69
research agenda 82–3
in times of institutional crisis 419, 423, 428 versions first 72–5
later 75–8
punctuations and cognitive and institutional friction 82–3 concept of operationalizing 80–81 subjected to critical evaluation 79–80 and institutional agenda change 124–5, 127 likely occurrence of 14 as sudden, large, significant change 74 typology of different forms of 81 ‘quiet’ politics 433, 436, 439, 451 redefinition 11, 28, 42
reflexive learning 284–5
refugee crisis 8, 98
reputational approach 27 rigidity 419–23
saliency see issues: salient scholarship, future requirements 20–21, 317 school gun violence 3, 12 socialization, framing through 143–4 solution production as legitimization activity 263–5 studies identifying additional sources of 95 stability
as aspect of political reality 70
and change 70–72, 74–6, 80–81, 419, 423 institutions as instruments of 196 of local policymaking 302 micro-prudential approach to financial 448 narrative 125–6
at national level 306 political processes characterized by long periods of 70 process of 13–14 stable unrepresentation 26, 28 stratificationists 27
sub-systems 72–3, 75
success, consequences of 29–30 symbols 10, 29–30, 45, 102, 122–3, 137–8, 141, 390–391, 394–5 systemic agenda concept 4, 228, 262–3, 369

Television Without Frontiers (TWF) 333–5, 337 terrorism 8, 49, 132, 325, 368, 391, 394, 427–8 third sector policy entrepreneurs 188 tobacco policy 73–5, 89, 95, 132, 334–5

UN see United Nations (UN)

United Kingdom (UK)
cross-border broadcasting 333–5, 344–5 data protection legislation 339–43, 345 differences in opinion with EU 332
financial crisis 440, 442, 445–6, 448–9 least leptokurtic budget distributions 78 as majority democracy 99 media coverage of parliament 169 paradigm shift towards monetarism 206–7, 209 as policy entrepreneur 185, 332, 335–9, 344 political agenda setting by media 169, 171–3 political power distribution 93 privatization policies in 94–5 pro-market approach 332 proactive approach 344–5 shift in competition policy 95 ‘wellbeing’ policy in 95 working in tandem with EU 343–4

United Nations (UN)
agenda setting
framing 379–80
and international relations theory 371–6 mobilizing structures 376–7 NGOs and violence against women 376–80 opportunity structures 378–9 relevant for international relations 380–382 definitions and terminology 368–71 as most visible international governmental organization 367 origin 367
scope 367–8

United States (US)
agenda setting and policymaking at federal level 87–8, 92–3 agricultural policy in 419–20
applications of MSA 94–6, 99, 101
Congressional studies 56–7, 164 democratic extent 26 emergence of pollution as public problem in 3 and EU, comparison of agendas 357–8 financial crisis 440–442, 445–7, 449
foreign policy in Iraq 288 friction-generating traits 77–8 interactive advertising 333 ISIS as threat to security 9 leptokurtic distributions 77–8 local government agenda setting publications 309–10 policy agendas project 353
and policy change 74–5, 208–9
policy entrepreneurs in 185
political agenda setting by media 169, 174
Safe Harbor Agreement 340 shifts in attention to political issues in 71
’spoil system’ 221
stratificationists and pluralists 27 venue change example 73–4 see also presidential power urban theory approaches to research 300–302 venue change strategy 73–4, 121, 126–7, 420, 422

venue shopping
in EU agenda setting 74, 96, 353–6, 358, 361 as generating several studies 74, 78 importance in agenda setting 390 in local government agenda setting publications 309
Index 487

and multilevel governance 209–11
within narrative policy framework 120–121, 126
and punctuations 14
as taking place within policy communities 14 for urban megaprojects 305 welfare state 32, 145 ‘wild’ public problems

aspects of problem agenda setting 254–5 definitional stages to building categorizing society by identifying public of victims 257–8 designating causes 258–9 designating responsible authorities and guilty party 259–60 labelling situation and qualifying as problem 256–7
problem definition 255–6 taking action by outlining apocalyptic future 260–261 definitional stages to building unacceptable 255–6 domesticating and taming coupling of problems and solutions 265–6, 270 policy land registry and ownership process 268–9 from ‘wild’ to ‘domesticated’ problems 266–8 governmental agenda ambiguities of systemic agenda concept 262–3 differentiating problem definition as critical activity from solutions as legitimization activity 263–5 selective process 261–2 transformation of situations into unacceptable 255–6 window of opportunity
in cross-border broadcasting 335
ECJ and UK creating 332
in general data protection legislation 342–3 in German privatization policy 94–5 for increased attention 389
in institutional crisis 415, 447–8 as limited time frame for action 184 model for explaining opening of 40 movement across agendas linked to 12 in operationalizing MSA 100–101 people able to exploit 91 for policy change 189–90, 426 theory of event-driven 395–6 requirements for 92
social acuity helping to identify 192 streams coming together 87, 90, 122, 184, 225, 389 structure, agency and timing combined through 136 unexpected closure of 59 use of political for women’s rights 380 winners and losers as dimension of governmental decision-making 2 in election campaigns study 56
and interest groups 200, 213
and lobbying process 201 in policymaking 204 priorities creating 3
in strategic policy narrative construction 124 women, violence against 369, 376–80
youth unemployment 463–7 Zika virus 9