
Contents

List of contributors	viii
Introduction to the Research Handbook on Law, Environment and the Global South Philippe Cullet and Sujith Koonan	xvi
PART I QUESTIONING THE CONCEPTS OF DEVELOPMENT AND SUSTAINABILITY
1 Intergenerational justice, water rights, and climate change Upendra Baxi	2
2 Justice, development and sustainability in the Anthropocene Sam Adelman	14
3 Neoliberalism, law and nature Larry Lohmann	32
4 Radical well-being alternatives to development Ashish Kothari	64
PART II ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS, ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE AND ACCESS TO REMEDIES
5 Environmental rights in the Global South Louis J. Kotzé and Evadne Grant	86
6 North-South transboundary movement of hazardous wastes – the Basel Ban and environmental justice Julia Dehm and Adil Hasan Khan	109
7 The Bhopal case: retrospect and prospect Usha Ramanathan	138
PART III LAND USE, ACQUISITION AND DISPOSSESSION
8 Land rights, poverty, and livelihoods: the case of Ethiopia Brightman Gebremichael	147
9 Wildlife conservation and land rights in Kenya: competing or complementary agendas? Patricia Kameri-Mbote	169
10 Land-grabs and dispossession in India: laws of value Preeti Sampat	190

PART IV FORESTS: A CONTESTED RESOURCE OR COMMODITY

- 11 Environmental impact assessment in the context of mangrove forest ecosystem management in Bangladesh: a case study of Rampal coal power plant project 207
Jona Razzaque
- 12 Forests, people and poverty: failing to reform the global development paradigm 231
Feja Lesniewska
- 13 Access to and control over forest resources – the case of the Forest Rights Act, 2006 in India 249
Shankar Gopalakrishnan

PART V INDIGENOUS PEOPLES: RESOURCE USE, CONSERVATION, LIVELIHOODS AND RIGHTS

- 14 Forest rights and tribals in mineral rich areas of India: the Vedanta case and beyond 272
Geetanjay Sahu
- 15 Conservation and livelihoods: conflicts or convergence? 286
CR Bijoy

PART VI ENERGY AND THE ENVIRONMENT

- 16 International energy policy for development: human rights and sustainable development law imperatives 305
Thoko Kaime
- 17 Nuclear energy and liability: an environmental perspective 322
Saurabh Bhattacharjee

PART VII WATER: PRIVATISATION, DEVELOPMENT AND HUMAN RIGHTS

- 18 Realisation of the right to water: lessons from South Africa 348
Michael Kidd
- 19 Dams and displacement: the case of the Sardar Sarovar Project, India 371
Varsha Bhagat-Ganguly
- 20 Wastewater reuse in irrigated agriculture in urban and peri-urban India: a farmers' rights perspective 396
Lovleen Bhullar

PART VIII COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL USE OF RESOURCES AND EQUITY

- 21 Mining, development and environment in India 413
Felix Padel and Malvika Gupta

22	Environment impact assessment in India: contestations over regulating development Manju Menon and Kanchi Kohli	435
23	The informal waste sector: 'surplus' labour, detritus, and the right to the post-colonial city Kaveri Gill	452
	Index	477