Index

Aberdeen Harbour Board (1136) corporate body, profit-making 193 accountability 71–2 accounting, rhetorical function justification of business activities 45 accounting and budgeting, Aristotle recommending 44 action (praxis) 254
acts
commanding (praeeptum, imperium) 257 judging what is discovered (iudicium practicum) 257 taking counsel (consilium) 257 acts of generosity, almsgiving 105 adult moral development theories 222 African ideal of ubuntu, African humanness 96 bond connecting humanity 124 agency and human development in AS and IPS 226–42 agency theory 93
dis-embedded through exercise of virtue 152–3 Albertus Magnus (c.1206–80) just price as the worth of goods 43 alms-giving, goods, use-sharing 42, 45 altruism at work 169
American Law Institute 211 Principles of Corporate Governance 205 amorality, subjectivism 7, 124
Apple iPhone, common good of products 161 Aquinas, St Thomas (1225–74) 260
on business profits 43
common good 94

De Regimen Principum 41 duty to give goods to poor 42 practical reason 257
property for use of man, from God 41 requirements of prudence 258 Summa Theologiae 40–41
areté, goodness of thing or being 273 Aristotelian ethics 55 proper human function (ergon) expresses reason 256 Aristotelian notions of society perfect and imperfect communities 188–90 Aristotelian political philosophy corporations, political entities for common good 55, 91, 96, 187–8 Aristotelian wise action (phronēsis) 126, 137–8
Aristotelian–Thomistic/CST tradition 103–04, 161, 162
Aristotle 134
Catholic Social Teaching 106 emphasis on inner freedom 136 Eudemian Ethics 231 formation of moral character, ethical behaviour 2–3 libri naturales by 1250, needed for an MA 39 Metaphysics 137, 232
Nicomachean Ethics 231, 280 poiēsis or praxis 9–10, 105–06 political community 94
The Politics (1323a) 104 property for common use 41 teachings 93
three kinds of human activity (energeia) 254 wealth 77
The challenges of capitalism for virtue ethics and the common good art (techne) 105–06

AS see autonomous self
Ashton Stalybridge Hyde & Glossop Bank prosperity promotion 66 assets and liabilities, recording in detail 45 Assize of Bread and Ale, price fixing 41 autonomous self (AS) 132, 231 agency and human development 226, 230 cognition, a production 245 critique as incomplete 248 development as a need 244 domination, the modern radical 226–7 freedom as ‘mastery’, ‘self-determination’ 246 integration by cognitive action and maturation 242 intentionality 244 inter-processual self (IPS) 222–3 models in psychology 229 mode of human development, Richard Ryan 228 motivation’ 245
modern view of cognition 245 paradigm, intentional existence 243 autonomous will 228
avarice, capital sin 57
aversion to indulgence in worldly goods 55 beauty of current transactions 1946–55 79 Bank Act 1826, new joint-stock banks, Yorkshire 65 banker’s opposition to exploitation of 170–71 bank failure, 1825 64
Bank of England 62, 75
Bank of England Act 1946 85 new scheme for controlling credit ‘Special Deposits’ 78–9 Bank of Manchester, 1829, fraud by manager 72 bank regulation, self restraint of clearing banks 1940s to 1970s 85 being a man, becoming a man (Frankl) 238 benevolence 22, 103, 273–4 benevolent persons, reliant on an IPS 132 bourgeois virtues, longevity, health, education 176–7 Buddhist ethics 272 bureaucratic authority 265 bureaucratic habitus 142 business, definition of purpose 202 Business Ethics Quarterly article on common-good theory 94 business organizations, ‘communities of persons’ 124 moral communities, Solomon 174–5 multiple purposes’ 98 significant actors 162
capitalism 4, 174
culture and the Middle Ages 49–52 definition, historical 21 development after Second World War 83 education 106
impact of 172
justification of 172 sixteenth century 28–9 three rival accounts 172–5 today 3–4
virtue 166, 176–80
Capital Issues Committee (CIC) 80 cardinal virtues
prudentia, temperantia, fortitudo, justice 256
Cartesian mind–body dualism 133 Catholic Social Teaching (CST) 112, 150, 162 commitment to full employment 160
common good 94, 103–04
commitment to full employment 160
common good definition 177 praxis over the poïēsis 99
Catto, Lord, reassignment as Governor of Bank of England, 1949 85 ‘causal efficacy’, Alfred North Whitehead (1861–1947) 236 cells of embryo, growth while differentiating 240

Kleio Akrivou and Alejo José G Sison - 9781784717919 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 03/20/2019 12:07:25AM via free access ‘Challenges of Capitalism for the Common Good’ 21 characteristics as metaphors, no causal power 154 charitable donations to church for sung masses 44 charity (caritas)
grace of God 55
man’s love of man (amor proximi) 57 priority of, as measure of man and society 50 children, respect for their parents 275, 277 Christian and Buddhist teachings, common good 96 Christian civic life 52 simplicity and charity 55
Christian civilization 54
Christian conception of citizenship service to the common good 50 Christian doctrine shaping civilized ethic of merchant 5 Christian merchants, acts of charity 60 Christian radical 223 tradition of Christian scholars 224 Christian teaching in Gospels rejection of retention of private property 41 Christian virtue, a good merchant 59 church art, sermons, miracle plays 44 Church Fathers’ tradition, faith, hope, love 55 church murals on Last Judgement, survival of 44 circumspension and caution, synesis 258 civic frescoes of Tuscany, Brancacci Chapel 57 civilization of commerce, in the Middle Ages 49–60 classical philosophy 255–6 classical radical (nature) 223–4 classical thought 256–9 clearing banks 78–80, 82 clergy, nobility and commoners 22–3 cognition 245–6
cognitive growth from autonomous self (AS) 229 cognitive rationalist growth 242 coinage value as property of wider community 41 collective political life 133 colonial trade, spectacular increase 33–4 commerce, under royal regulations seventeenth century 30 Committee of London Clearing Bankers (CLCB) 76–7, 85 Committee on the Working of the Monetary System 82 ‘common’, definition 197–8 common end or perfection, eudaimonia 157 ‘common good’ 64, 116–17
both good and common 196 Christian Social Teaching (CST) 156
collaborative economy 6 common good of the firm 126–7 corporation, nature of 195 definition by Charles de Koninck 199 good of all people and whole person 156–7 ‘internal’ or ‘external’ 98 prioritization over interests of a ruler 41 ‘public interest’ 77
revisiting 93–118
two notions, definitions 101
theory 8, 93
collaborative economy
common goods fulfilment cultivation of the virtues 101
two notions, definitions 179–80
‘communion’ among persons ‘participation’ among persons 102 communities, perfect and imperfect harmonising 209 community definition, own best interest 21 ‘good’ behaviour 69 imperfect, corporations, partial goods 209 monitoring 70, 71, 72
virtuous behaviour 68–71 values, bank management monitoring 63 Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church (CSDC) 156, 158 compensation 151
concept of the common good 195–6 corporation as political community 188–95 corporate culture, humanistic 94 corporate decision-making 186–7, 208–12 corporate governance and the common good 11–12 ‘social entity conception’ 211 corporate moral responsibility 151–2 ‘corporate ontology’ 128 corporate purpose
common good of the firm 156–62
corporate raison d’être, life and purpose 128 corporate theory, property and contract law 185 corporation 190
private property of stockholder owners 185 public constitution with public obligations 213 corporation (imperfect) polis, Aristotelian ‘perfect society’ 12 corporations
causally responsible for their actions 151
common good 185–216, 212
communities 100
defining attribute of 194–5 definitions 187
public institutions, common good 187 public purpose in forming, need 194 ubiquitous 185
courage and political courage, Aristotle 276 crafts, lowly for mendicant orders 55 credit restrictions 79, 80 on Conservative government, July 1955 78 Cripps, Sir Stafford Labour Chancellor of the Exchequer, 1947 80 cultural ethical foundations in businesses 122 culture, dual foundation, humanistic 10 culture and economics 49 Damian, Peter (1007–72) 42–3 on earthly possessions 42 Daoist ethics 272
death of the self 227
definition of AS and IPS modes of human development 225–6 deliberation as a moral act 16 virtue (areté) 257
dependence on God for supernatural virtues 56 Descartes, Kant, Fichte, Schelling, Hegel
European modern and idealist philosophy 226 Descartes, René on AS I think therefore I know 229 design of jobs 169–70 development in the AS 229–30
dialogic ethics rooted in humanistic philosophies 138–40 dialogue as ‘a play of persons’ 139 dialoguing praxis of IPS 135 directorships’ qualifications proximity to bank, shares possession 66–7 dishonest behaviour, incentives for 168 distributive justice 212 dividends to shareholders 213 divine omnipotence, man saved by faith 260 divine wisdom overtaken by power 260 Domingo de Soto
on dimensions of the common good 101 duality of man 233
duties of rich and successful, to the poorer 37 duty, sense of 264
dynamic-synthetic view of self 226–7 eye/EARLY MONARCHS, GREATER RELIGIOUS AUTHORITY THAN MEDIEVAL 27 economia aziendale (Gino Zappa)
Costa and Ramus 2015 version 98
Italian managerial theory 97 economic conduct of men 49 economic downturn, severe 1 economic forces, impact on lives of individuals 37 economic social life 11–12 economic sociology 52 economic sustainability purpose 98 economics and management renewal of foundations 255 economy
rethinking its relationship with society 143 ego development theory, psychoanalytic 227 ego-transcendent stage synthesis moment is dissolution of self 227 eighteenth century developments 32–4 election of directors 67–8 English Companies Act 1844
registration to form companies 194
English Joint Stock Companies Act 1856
registration to form companies 194
English joint-stock banks and management in nineteenth century 62–73 Enlightenment disappointment 264 Enlightenment projects attempt to provide morality 265 enterprise, courage and prudence 3, 172 ethical considerations, practical applications 44–6 ‘ethical’ in Aristotle, reference to self 232 ethical stance of merchants individualism and the common good 24–5 shaping commercial society 51 ethical virtue requires social input 276 ethics of inter-processual self (IPS) 221–49 eudaimonia 143, 248
final end of human life 135, 235 excellence of product or service ‘perfection’ of practitioners 160 performances of material products 107 experience in aesthetic and moral terms Alfred North Whitehead
(1861–1947) 235–6 experience, self-constituent process 236 external goods 104–06, 111 factory workers on iPhones in case of sickness from manufacture of them 113
feudal agrarian economy need to work for whole community 21
Fichte, Johann Gottlieb (1762–1814) 229 fiduciary duties 205–06 financial accounts, medieval evidence of careful auditing 46 financial crisis, global, Europe and America 1 financial crisis of 1825–26, joint-stock banks 62 financial theory 93 firm as ‘social entity’ 77 firms as intermediate bodies artificial and imperfect societies 153 firms ‘communities’ of persons 93, 96 firm’s raison d’être to satisfy human needs 97 fishing, virtuous abundant catch and skills and moral virtues 115 flourishing (eudaimonia) common good of political community 101
Frankl, Victor (1905–97)
Man’s Search for Meaning 247 person as complicated physical, psychic and spiritual reality 237–8
‘freedom’ 230, 238, 246–8 freedom to grow (Frankl) 238 ‘free of the self’ 246
free will basis of human social behaviour 128 Freud, Sigmund (1856–1939)
Interpretation of Dreams 267 friars, unique achievement new forms of religious expression 52 for urban sectors 52 ‘friendship of utility’, economic exchange 279 functions of the estates changed by the king 31 funding for shipbuilding 84 fundraisers meeting beneficiaries of their work 169 fund-raising to support churches
John Heritage (c.1470–c.1535) 44
General Electric Company 211–12 gain through trading, lawful 57 genuine achievement, defence of capitalism 173 genuine emotion importance for human integrative growth 236 German Stock Corporation Act 210–11 global capitalism, intensive 8
Godfrey of Fontaines (c.1250–c.1309) 40 ‘good’, definition, Aquinas on 196–7 goodness in human action origin in human vanity (amour propre) 261 goodness via learning, virtue attainment 273 good of the individual 200 good of the perfect community 209–12 good or excellence, internal 109 good purpose of the firm 160 goods and services, to satisfy legitimate needs 157 goods, external and internal 266 goods, producing better, requirement of justice 258 Goodyear Tires
Samir Gibara, on corporate decisions 212 grace in human action 261
Grace, sola fides, sola gratia, sola scriptura 260 Great Learning on wealth 279 groups with private goods customers, community, debt holders, shareholders 204 guilty of multiple homicide depriving needy of sustenance 42 habits concept, good deliberation, 257 good judgement (synderesis) 257 hexis, stem from verb ‘to possess’ 127–8

habitus
capacity for free will for virtuous habits 128 harmony with Aristotle 127 happiness (eudaimonia) 256 happiness, rooted in person’s soul, Aristotle 231–2 head of a household, father or king 190 Heathcoat-Amory, Derek
Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer 80 Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich
(1770–1831) 229
Henry of Ghent (c.1217–c.1309) 40
Hobbes, Thomas (1588–1679) famous thesis, homo, homini lupus 261 Leviathan 261
man as threat to himself 261 selfish agent behaviour 16 Holocaust, impact on Jews 152 homenes oeconomici 93 ‘honest man’ 30–31
honesty norm 168
hospital founder William Browne (c.1410–89), Stamford, Lincolnshire 44 hospitals 161
Huddersfield Banking Company
shareholders 65
human access to God, voluntary, not natural 259 human being as person 239 human being, unity lacking symmetry 131 and self in IPS 238–9
human community, forms, businesses 4, 126 human development theory 222 human dialoguing, relationships of excellence 141 human dignity (personalism) 94 human flourishing 94, 171 human freedom 142, 259 human integrative development in the IPS 135 human integrity, two kinds 221–49 human person, a unitary-totality 237–8 human reality, distinguishing AS from IPS 223–25 human work, subjective or objective 157–8 humans as individuals, Martin Luther (1483–1546) 260 humans as transcendental ‘co-existence’, fundamental 233 humans, passions of corrupt nature 261 Hume, David (1711–76)

direct passions and indirect passions 261 morality based on social success 261 on speed in business 262 Husserl, Edmund 229

imperfect communities independent operation 189–90 income of monastic institutions closely balanced 45 independence of business directors 203 independent division between cognition and action false premise 234 individual and organizational virtues 166–80 individual identity from indirect passions 261 individualism, triumph of undermining of ethical stance 34 individuals are moral agents 150 Industrial and Commercial Finance Corporation Ltd (ICFC) 84 Industrial Revolution 172 influence of state in Western history 21–35 ‘informal’ sanctions, extra-legal measures 69 inner-self dialogue external deliberation, moral acts 137
i institutions 106, 159 ‘integral human development’ Catholic Social Teaching 102
i integrated habitus 123–5, 138, 141–2 for common good of firm 121–44
i virtuous habitus 130–31
i integrated person in IPS cognition, integrity 240 i integration 241–3
i integrity
as intrinsic good 136 of a person with an IPS 136
i integrity habitus of inter-processual self 131–8 i intensity of personal experience, integration of 243 i internal business, aim at virtues 126 i internal goods 104–06, 137 i perfection of individual, excellence of products or services 158 i international financial centre London as leading in nineteenth century 75 i ‘inter-processual self’ (IPS) 131, 136, 243 i cognition as act within activity of living 245–6 i complete and profound psychology 248
i conception of growth 240
i definition of person 239
i development in 240–42
i distinction from alternative 248 i freedom as act of being a person 247 i growth as ‘calling’ 245
i integration, from the beginning 243
i integrated habitus 128–32
i key authors as reference Aristotle (384–22 BC) 231–2
i mindset 123
i mode, system and person 230
i personal integrity 222
i person–person, space of the interpersonal 231 i prerequisite of integrated habitus 133 i progress reliant on systemic view 241–2 i responsive dialogic being 132 i three radicals 226
i intimacy (Polo) 233
i I-person, unique 239
i iPhone example importance in quality of product 111
i importance of moral perfection of maker 111–12
i iPhone manufacturers 112–13 i IPS see inter-processual self 131 i Italian city-states 50
i Italian notion of economia aziendale 96 i Jansenism, human nature corruption by original sin 260–61 i John of Salisbury, philosopher (1159) on public welfare 200 i joint-stock banks 64–6, 71
i after 1825 financial crisis 72 i dominant form of retail bank by 1900, UK 62 i owned by shareholders 62
i Jungian psychoanalysis 130
i jurisdiction over members of corporate community 193 i justice, a corporate virtue 82 i justice, prudence and temperance virtues, difficulties with 174–5 i Justinian, Institutes 191 i Kant, Immanuel (1724–1804)
autonomous self (AS) 229
i justification for existence of moral law 263 i nothing good without qualification 263–4 i philosophy 136
i prudence as self-love with no moral value 264 i rejection of material ethics 224, 263
i key terms
i distinguishing AS from IPS 242–8 i king’s power over the churches 30 i knighthood ideals, barbaric warriors 50 i knowledge an existential act 246 knowledge, body of (eudaimonia)

supreme human good 254

Labour government 75

Last Judgement

reminders to rich of obligations, dangers posed by wealth and business 44 laws for common good 201 legal codes reform in medieval times 50

legal frame of freedom solidarity and self-interest 34 lending for speculation

clearing banks 80–81

prohibition 80–81

li of Zhou dynasty

abandonment and dynasty collapse (475 BC–221 BC) 277 liberal Enlightenment mindset individualist and utilitarian principles 95 liberality, between prodigality and meanness 77

Aristotle 42

liberalization process, ‘Big Bang’ 1986 85–6

lifeguards, benefit of their work for swimmers 169 liquidity crisis, 1825–26 64 literature, MacIntyre on Aristotle’s virtue 125–8 living mutual relationship between persons 139 local bank directors 66

logic

Abelard, Peter (1079–1142), Sic et Non 39–40

Lombard, Peter (c.1095–1160), Sentences 40

London Bankers’ Clearing House 75–6

London clearing banks 1946–71 disposed towards self-restraint 75–88

eleven in 1946 75

pre-eminent position, post-war years 76

Lorenzo de’ Medici 59

Louis XIV, France, ‘l’État c’est moi’ 32

Luther, Martin (1483–1546) 260

MacIntyre, Alasdair 264–5

capital as corrosive of virtues 173

After Virtue: A Study in Moral Theology (1981) 264

A Short History of Ethics 264

Macmillan, Harold, Conservative Party Leader, 1959 84

management activities, ethical considerations 40

Manchester and Liverpool District Bank 63

difference in size and operations 70

directors, accountability to community 70

‘public’ and common good 66

mandala, Tibetan, Indian, early Christian religious cultures 130

Mandeville, Bernard (1670–1733) distrustful of virtue 261 social benefit from lust or ‘private vices’ 261 material and moral development of members through work 93

maturation

AS, reference is the rule 240

IPS rules into service 240

maturation in the IPS

the person past, present, future 240 meaning, search for, personal growth 241 measure of man

charity and service to common good 56 medieval ideal of ‘just price’ 43 medieval intellectual development exploitation of logic 39

medieval jurists’ period corporate bodies, non-profit nature 193 medieval man, negative labelling of 38 medieval moral inheritance, personal virtues 6 medieval morality, ultimate approval of the merchant 53 medieval period

1000 years (c.500–c.1500) 37
The challenges of capitalism for virtue ethics and the common good concept of ‘common good’ 22–8 medieval, positive pictures artistic output in literature, art and architecture 39 ‘medieval’, the common good and accounting 37–46 mendicant moral vision 54–6 mendicant religious orders 54 Dominicans, Franciscans 50, 52 message, charity, penitence, poverty, peace 54 mental midwifery, knowledge transmission 112 mercantile corporations’ employees ‘civil servants’ 193 mercantile freedom identification with the king 23–4, 28 mercantile function, idiosyncrasy 24–5 mercantile profit ethic 33 mercantilism 29–32, 193 merchants critical to town life 53–4 freedom in the society of estates 27–8 increasing individualism 32 praise of good men 59 prudent and experienced 258 social milieu of 52–4 social transfiguration of 50–51 watchword, ‘for God and for the money’ 24 metaphysical conception of universal Plato, Aristotle, Aquinas 259 migration, uncontrollable of populations in war areas 1 Mississippi Company, financial bubbles 194 modern economics, engine for wealth creation 263 modern radical 223 modern Western Philosophy 224–5 modernist thought 259–64 money-making for selfish interests 51 moral agency 150–51, 166, 170 moral and amoral language use 167 moral behaviour from duty 260 moral character as basis, virtue theory 3 moral climate, lust for success financially 1 moral dangers of wealth 56 ‘moral emotivism’ 262 moral identity, economic identity 167 moral intuitionism 171 morality and ethics 125, 221 external sources 237 intrinsic 255

merchants’ actions 25
moral justification of capitalism 177 moral maturity of persons virtuous way of life 129, 134 moral or character virtues (ēthikē aretē) 254 moral perfection fulfilling one’s duty 264 moral psychology, basis of virtue ethics 13 moral psychology of an IPS 134 moral virtue of phronēsis excellence of praxis 114 moral virtues of professionals 112 prudence, justice, courage and honesty 114–15 music and tragedy part to play in ethical education, Aristotle 281 mutual empathy 141
mutuality and openness/freedom 231 narrative order notion 266 National Debt, 1939 84
nationalization of the Bank of England 75 National Provincial Bank of England 1833 63–4, 70 difference in size and operations 70 natural benevolence, innate, Confucius 273 natural environment, medieval low living standards 38 natural virtues, suspect 260 Navarre Autonomous Region of Spain workers have disability 94 needs, lower shared with plants and animals 55–6 negative dynamics 167
neuroscience 101, 134
Nietzsche, Friedrich Wilhelm
(1844–1900)
liberal individualism 265 Northern and Central Bank of England unsuccessful 71
'objective dimensions'
external products of firm 95 of common good 157
of work 104
objective or subjective dimension teachers and healthcare professionals 112 Occidental Christian view of man pre-eminence of prudence and other virtues 256
Ockham, William of (c.1285–c.1349) theory of knowledge 259–60 voluntarism 261
ontology of the self 228
'openness', intimacy in relations 230 open source software founding research on 170
optimism of Smith, theist foundations 263
Order of Friars (Franciscans) 54 Order of Preachers (Dominicans) calling society in towns back to spiritual ends 54
Oresme (c.1320–82), De Moneta 41
organismic valuing process
Carl Ransom Rogers 237
organizational culture, service of ethics 129 orientation to other's authentic happiness 137–8
painting of human faces excellence of products, performance and portrait 107 painters'skill 107–08
parliaments 23
Pascal, Blaise (1623–62), distrust of prudence 261
passions and emotions guided by reason 16 path to virtue through duty 264 peasant sellers, sixteenth century 29 peer monitoring, reduction of moral hazard 69
perfect community imperfect communities within it 189–90
perfection 141–2
in objective dimension of work 114 person 224–5
pre-reflexive self-comprehension 239 personal acceptance 241 personal business interests and social concern 35
personal freedom, free for 225 personal growth 226 personality differences, individual 228 personality psychology model 228
'personal knowing' 233–4
'personal love' 234 personal meaning to life, to 'find' 238 personal participation in the common good 133
personal relating, time-consuming process 231
personal relation to each person, mutuality ethic 130
personal responsibility 5 personal virtues and corporate virtues 153–4
personal virtues, 'systemic shared value' 99
person as transcendent 238 person as unity and infinity 133 person of ren 274
persons as social and political beings virtuous in the firm/organization 128 Philip III of Spain, sun king 32 philosophers
Leonardo Polo, Alfred North Whitehead, Wang Yangming 134 philosophical tradition European modern and idealist 226 philosophies, current, Korsgaard, 1989 229
phronēsis
as excellence of praxis 109
poiēsis 110
310  The challenges of capitalism for virtue ethics and the common good

Pietism, Protestant sect personal relationship with God 267

Pietism and praxis production and activity 111 political communities 189 ruling authority 190 political power of king, nobles 23 ‘politics’ in Aristotle, three different things 254

Polo, Leonardo (1926–2013) philosopher 231
assumption of Aristotelian vision 233–4

Quién es el hombre? 134–5 subject apex in the I 238–9

Pope Leo XIII, 1891
‘inviolability of private property’ 46 portrait painting, internal goods 107–09 positive correlations between high levels of integrity and trust 167 positive psychology 171 post-conventional merging the knower and the known 227 (post)modern mode of autonomous self (AS) 248 post-Piagetian
adult development stage models 227 practical rationality 265–6 related to the human good 257 in a tradition 266
practical reason
instrumental rationality 265 main habits of 258
non-mechanical, non-rule-based 277 theoretical reason 260 practical wisdom 3, 100–01, 256–7 Aristotle 254
phronēsis 103, 105
prudence 254
practice of the crafts external object and set of rules 105 praxis or poiēsis 103, 126–7, 129, 140–42 IPS mindset 133
praxis with poiēsis 142 pre-mercantilism, who rules over trade? 26 ‘presentational immediacy’
Alfred North Whitehead (1861–1947) 236
price, determination of what is just 258 private banks
eclipsing by end of nineteenth century 62 private goods, political elites 7 private ownership of property, natural law 200 private property 37
objective foundation of identity 262 privileges, access to privileged state 23 ‘process-centred’ versus ‘person-centred’ 99 production of modern radical 224 production (poiēsis) 254 productive crafts, aim in 114 ‘professional identity’ effect in banking 168 profitability for shareholders 205 profit as a good 203 profit maximization 76–7 profit-seeking only mean persons (Confucius) 278 profit, unfair undermining of common good 258 property conception of firm 77 pro-social behaviour 169
prudence
meaning in Greek 256 moral and practical wisdom 13 notion 255
moral character as basis 256–7 as only virtue 172
as part of worldview 254–68
phronēsis 105–06
prudent behaviour of merchant distinguish as Christian benefactor 60 prudent meaning, cautious and calculating 264 psychotherapy, growth in 134 ‘public’ banks 65–6 punitive laws 201
purpose of the firm 204
Index

pursuit of selfish interest by making of money 51

Quakerism and clearing banks Barclays and Lloyds Banks 83 radical humanism 129–30 rational excellence (areté) 254 rationalist thinking 229, 255 realism of medieval philosophy ‘problem of universals’ 259 reason intellectual, practical 256 slave of passions 262

social expectations, Aristotle 276 theoretical, practical and technical 256 theoretical (sophia) 254 ways to take advantage of human passions 262

Reason and Human Beings, Kant and Aristotle 14 reciprocity, shu, greatest Confucian virtue 279–80 recognition of broader common good 203 relationship ‘inter-processual’ 231 religious changes
king’s pre-eminence over theologians 27 religious life, not adapted to city life 54 religious orders dedicated to poverty on pursuit and use of wealth 51 ren, fulfilment of one’s humanity 274–5 Renaissance merchants economic profession and social status 60 rental arrears in medieval records evidence of help to tenants 45 requirements of prudence memory, discursive reasoning, shrewdness, docility and wisdom 258 research as purpose of university education provided 161 responsibility for own destiny, true human beings 247 revolt of the privileged 32 rich and powerful duties towards poor and weak, in medieval period 5 Rogers, Carl Ransom (1902–87)
Client-centered Therapy (1951) 236
On Becoming a Person (1961) 236, 244 person not fully identified with nature 237 Roman Stoicism 55
Rome, ancient types of human association universitas, societas 190–91
Roosevelt, President Theodore, on corporations 209 royal courts, Versailles, seventeenth century 31 royal legislation increase late Middle Ages, pre-mercantilism 26 royal power, early modern era moral justification of royal desires 5 rule ‘be who you are truly’ 240
St Anthony (c.250–356) 41
St Augustine, Vigilantus, rejection of miracles 39
St Boniface, eighth century 39
St Dominic and St Francis 54
St John Chrysostom
Glory in labor and handicraft 55
San Bernardino of Siena 50, 57
Schelling, Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph von (1775–1854) 229 scholasticism, man, a social animal 56 scholastic theologians of medieval Europe theoreticians of economic theory 25 Scotus, John Duns (1266–1308) departure from Aristotelian thought 259 freedom of divine will 259 seascape painters, standards 110
Second World War
Britain as world’s largest debtor after 84
The challenges of capitalism for virtue ethics and the common good self actualization 244

defence 241
denying ordinance, 1951 76, 78–9 determination, no natural tendency 260 determination theory (SDT) 167, 169, 230, 244 humanist psychology 169 development, dynamic-synthetic system, AS 226 discipline, contemplation 143, 275 existence in present, past and potential future 239 growing 227
integration 131
essential notion of maturity and ethics 222 interest, overcoming Hobbesian selfishness 169, 262–3 sufficiency, merchant’s ethic 22 known, through identity and quality of relations 239
motivation 243
restraint, common good, virtue ethics 76–7 examples 5, 78, 80, 83, 84–5 understanding in historical context 83–5 self (of subject-agent) in the AS 228–9 self’s moral autonomy 136 self-sufficiency 189, 275 sense of shame, Confucius 274 sermons on the Last Judgement in 813 bishops required to preach 44 seventh commandment (thou shalt not steal) 57 shared decision process 132 shared-responsibility ethic 10–11
’shared-value’ approach to business 96, 99–100 shareholders
capitalism, goal as money making 125 interest, goals 100, 203–04 primacy, wealth maximization 187 profit 205
qualification for directorships 67

theory 93
value maximization 96
wealth 76–7, 202, 203, 206–08 share-price maximization 209 shortchanging 204–05
situational stimuli 168 skills’ acquisition 114 excellence in activity 179 skills through work 103
Smith, Adam (1723–90) 172, 178,
The Theory of Moral Sentiments (1759) 262 social and cultural sphere and capitalism 49–50 social contract theory 100 social conventions and political correctness 31 Social Democrats’ concerns 175 social function, on behalf of the community 5 social institutions, academic and institutional 7 social/political education requirement of virtue 274 social responsibility of business to increase its profits 77 social standing, importance 67 societas ‘copartnership for trading purposes’ 191–2 society of estates, corporate society 22 society unification desire to be praised and envied 262 Socrates, knowledge transmission 112 solicitude, Aquinas on 57–8 soul of human being rational and irrational (Aristotle) 246 speculation, no lending for 80–81 spiritual goods, precedence virtue, friendship, truth, beauty 96
’subject model’ 187, 204
Standard Oil, Frank Abrams, chairman 203 stewardship
community of the common good of human beings involved 143
’strategic economism’ 96 subjective dimension
of common good 157
intellectual and moral virtues 113–14 internal results, knowledge, skills of workers 95
work, superiority over objective 99, 104, 115, 158–9
subjective versus objective dimension 111 surgery, elective, for who can afford it 174
teachers and healthcare professionals dignity and moral perfection, importance of 113
technē (art)
artistry 107–08
of painting 109
and phrōmēsis (prudence) 139 technical reason (technē) 255 ‘temperance’, key corporate virtue 77
The Idea of the Good in Platonic– Aristotelian Philosophy 139
the merchant and the common good social paradigms 21–35 theologians, from sixteenth century permissible exceptions to general prohibitions 25
theology dominance, medieval 39 thinking mind, use of, in pursuit of certainty 255
Thomistic teachings 93
thought (dianoia), three kinds 255 ‘three radicals’ (Polo) 223 trade morality, scholastic principles 25 trading activity, increase, king’s interest 32 transaction-cost theory 93 transcendental anthropology, person reachable 239
transcendentials, four of Polo, convertibles 244
tripartite order, doubt on social usefulness 31–2
trust demonstration 132
Turner, Joseph Mallord William (1775–1851)
seascapes 110
tyranny, when ruler pursues private advantage 197–8 ubuntu, communitarian ethic 96–7 uniqueness of human being 134 unity of a person, growth in IPS mode 244 universal objective language, natural form (physics), abstract form (mathematics) 255
universitas in Middle Ages Bartolus of Sassoferrato 192 universitas scholares modern sense of university 192–3 university institution, common good definition 161
upright living in presence of others force in ethical education, Confucius 281 usury, money distortion 258 utilitarianism 35, 262
Valerius Maximus, ancient Rome on seeking good 198
valuing, shared ways of via personal virtue 237 virtual ‘marketplace’ 3 causal power 154
virtue
aretē, term for human excellence 111 definition of Aristotle 256 development, essentiality 266 ethicists, on different virtues 171 exercise of, Committee of London Clearing Bankers 85
excellence of product or service 272–3
moral agency 125
in nature of human being 231 social 75
virtue theory 15
East and West 14
rooted in Aristotle 7
virtue ethics 2–3, 11, 50, 51, 124, 126, 137
After Virtue 264–7
Aristotelian 221
The challenges of capitalism for virtue ethics and the common good

'common good' 63–4
Confucius and Aristotle difference between 280–81 epistemology 1, 10
for happiness 224
maximizing shareholder wealth 77 non-Western, commerce and the
common good 272–82
proponents, personal accountability 3
virtues
characterization of 154 orientation towards benevolence 3 team-level virtues 155
'virtues of selfishness' 173 virtuous banking 62–73 nineteenth century attitudes 6
virtuous behaviour 262
role of 68–9 virtuous culture 123 virtuous leaders
employee commitment, job satisfaction 167
virtuousness as 'features of an organization' 154
wage reduction 213
Wang Yangming (1472–1529) 134–5 activity of human mind, hsìn 235 human creativity, tao, ch‘eng 235 importance for IPS 234–5 Li and qi 234–5
liang-chich, primordial consciousness 235
metaphysical presences 239 neo-Confucianist tradition 134 warrior, barbarian literary transformation, medieval knights and Christian kings 50 wealth as an instrument 279–80 wealth maximization conflict, wealth position 202, 209
Weber, Max (1864–1920) 265
well-constituted family, benevolence 275
Western Christendom, European countries covered 37–8 Western society, acquisitiveness and greed 51
wheat price tasa, sixteenth century 28–9 Whitehead, Alfred North (1861–1947) persona as organism 134–5, 235 William of Ockham (1287–1347) 259 will of a legislator God 260 wisdom, truthfulness, courage, justice development in these 173–4 work orientation 167
work as 'job', 'career' or 'calling', definitions 170
World Development Report, 2005 143
Zhou dynasty
600 years, Zhou emperors 276–7 rulers, a peaceful society, Zhou li 277 Zigong, student of Confucius, skill in business 278
zoo-keepers' defence of non-human animals
research on 170