

---

Index

---

- Aboriginal MLG 81
- accountability
- decentralization viewed as way to improve 2
  - as democratic principle 39–40, 198
  - health policy and local media 240
  - hiding democratic element of 196
  - and interstate federalism 40–41
  - and MLG 65, 67–8
  - in territorial reform 322, 324
  - women's 83, 85
- activism
- feminist 74, 77, 81, 83–4
  - inter-parliamentary 53–7
  - international 280–81
  - paradiplomatic 287–8
- actor-centred approaches
- to environmental federalism 250–56
  - in Europe and United States 341–9
- adaptive federalism 253
- adjustment, coordination mechanisms based on 49–50
- administrative decentralization 21, 81–3, 90
- advocacy groups 253–4
- Africa see Sub-Saharan Africa
- African National Congress (ANC) 79, 366
- applied social science 2–3, 12–13, 17–18, 354–5, 357, 360, 368
- Australia
- allocation of fiscal resources 319
  - appointed regional governors 85
  - autonomy mitigated by interdependence through shared legislative power 46
  - as coming together federation 32
  - Commonwealth powers 299, 388
  - constitutional politics 391–3
  - decentralizing most health care responsibility 239
  - equalization 301–3
  - federalism
    - and colonial economies 396
    - constitution giving effect to 391–3
    - example of interstate 39
    - as federal state 303
    - mononational federation 299
    - need for reform 397–8
    - puzzle posed by 388–90
    - undergoing significant centralization 388
  - fiscal imbalance 298–9
  - historical institutionalism 389–91
  - ideational landscape 299
  - level of integration 299
  - party systems 302, 393–4, 398
  - second-order policy diversity 395–7
  - shared competences fostering jurisdictional conflict 48
  - territorial party politics 393–5
  - women's representation 80
- Austria
- career movements 179
  - example of intrastate federalism 39
  - health system 238–9
  - high shared rule and limited self-rule 236, 284
  - introduction of minor age voting 209
  - long-standing federal state 121
  - regional elections 107
  - regional tiers of authority 4
  - territorial reform 320
  - women's representation 80–81
- autonomist parties
- capitalizing on electoral dissatisfaction 140
  - future study of 152–3
  - mobilization 143
  - rightist positions 144
  - rise of 139
  - suffering after being in coalition governments 148
- autonomy
- as centrally embedded characteristic of democracy 5
  - Indian fiscal 373, 377
  - Indian institutional 378
  - Indian tribal 380
  - policy, in Australia 397
  - in Sri Lanka 371, 384–5
  - territorial 91, 142, 166–7, 209, 293, 355, 359, 361–7
- bargaining 344–6
- Barnett formula 40
- Basque Country
- immigrant integration policies 262, 264, 268–9
  - independence referendum 2
  - minority language gaining support 21
  - participation in new democratic state 96

- parties operating in 129, 144
- as prototypical minority nation 263
- regional size and wealth 286
- social and economic demands mapped onto territorial cleavages 22
- trade unions 23
- behaviourism 17
- Belgium
  - appointed regional governors 85
  - competitive regionalism 27
  - complaints about excessive inter-regional transfers 27
  - as culturally distinct unit 319
  - exclusive competences 48
  - federalism 26, 31, 79, 121, 148, 151, 192, 241, 252, 280
  - fragmentation of some specific civil rights 208
  - integrated careers pattern 180, 186
  - mandatory health insurance scheme 207
  - as multinational polity 268
  - new regionalist and minority nationalist politics 23
  - participation in regional executives 147
  - party systems 124–5, 139, 146
  - political reconstruction 91
  - reform initiatives 322
  - regional elections 107
  - regional tiers of authority 4
  - regionalist parties in 1970s 169
  - SNRPs 158, 271
  - territorial redistribution 300
  - transformation to one of most decentralized states 97
  - women's representation 80
  - see also* Flanders
- bourgeois regionalism 143
- business groups 23–4
- Canada
  - Aboriginal MLG theorized in 81
  - absence of functional allocation of competencies 48
  - administrative decentralization 82
  - appointed regional governors 85
  - autonomy mitigated by interdependence through shared legislative power 46
  - as coming together federation 32
  - contagion effect of left-wing parties in 165
  - cultural diversity 388
  - as culturally distinct unit 319
  - decentralizing most health care responsibility 239
  - education policy 219–27
  - environmental practices 250–51
  - equalization 301–3
  - as established federation 31
  - ethnoregionalism 139
  - exclusive competences 48
  - federalism 49, 52
  - fiscal imbalance 297–9
  - gender equality provisions 78, 85
  - highly distinctive 'alternative career' structure 178
  - immigration 268
  - incongruence 343
  - independence referenda 1
  - inter-parliamentary relations 54
  - intergovernmental relations 51–2, 54–5
  - minority nationalism 354
  - party system 38, 393–4
  - pluri-nationality 192
  - political reconstruction 91
  - provision of social rights 206
  - regional voters 111
  - self-rule and shared rule 284
  - shared competences fostering jurisdictional conflict 48
  - success and longevity 96
  - territorial politics
    - of fiscal federalism 297–9, 301–3
    - and health 237, 239–41
  - territorial reform 319, 322
  - women's representation 80
  - see also* Quebec
- career patterns
  - findings 178–81
  - highly complex 175
  - lack of focus on collective 174
  - in multilevel systems 175–6
  - in territorial politics 181, 183, 185
  - variation between federal and regionalized systems 177
- Catalonia
  - citizenship 206
  - civil rights 208
  - exhibiting distinct regional political class 184
  - identity 194
  - immigration policy 262, 264, 268–9, 272
  - independence referendum 1
  - integrated careers pattern 180
  - minority language gaining support 21
  - minority nationalism 263, 354
  - participation in new democratic state 96
  - parties operating in 129, 133, 139–40, 146, 148, 153, 184, 269
  - regional size and wealth 286
  - route to self-government 144
  - social and economic demands mapped onto territorial cleavages 22

- superceding competence levels of German Länder 31
- centers and peripheries
  - Catalonia and Spain 194
  - cleavage 139–41, 143–4, 148–50, 158
  - Colombian 98
  - economic development 310–13, 316
  - EU upsetting relations in established 70
  - ‘loose-coupling’ 71
  - nation-state paradigm 68
- centralization–decentralization 35–7, 41, 192, 196
- centralization
  - education policy 222–5
  - environmental policy 254–7
  - welfare state historically encouraging 26
- Charter of Rights 78–9
- citizen participation 5–6, 148, 199, 203–4, 207, 219
- citizenship
  - arguments for and against regional 208–11
  - definition of concept 203–4
  - from gender perspective 74, 77–8, 83, 85
  - and immigration 265–6, 280
  - Indian 373–4
  - multilevel 191, 204–5
  - role of regions 205–8
  - social 20, 192, 199–200, 300, 303–4
  - universalization of entitlements 198–9
- city-regionalism 315
- civic nationalism 265
- climate change policy
  - adaptive federalism 253
  - contrast with resource management policy 251–2, 256
  - diffusion
    - city-to-city 256–7
    - horizontal 250
  - dominated by party politics and interest group politics 256
  - European 254–5
  - multilevel governance of 252
  - role of cities and localities 255
  - slow progression in US 255
  - state-centric approach to 252
- co-government 283–5
- coming together federations 32–3, 372
- Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CPA) 54
- comparative federalism 360–67
- comparative politics
  - environmental 247–9, 252–7
  - of health, components of 238–40
  - health policy as 235–7
  - India, Pakistan and Sri Lanka 382–5
  - in Sub-Saharan Africa 354–68
- competences
  - allocation of
    - to different levels of government 30
    - functional 48
    - in inter- and intrastate federalism 39
    - relation to interdependence 47–9
    - variety of forms 46
  - Commonwealth 388, 391–2
  - devolution from central government 67
  - distribution of fiscal 40
  - ERPs devolving to region 145
  - European Union 65–6, 287
  - exclusive 45, 48, 65
  - expansion of regional policy 280
  - Flanders 270
  - granted to lower tier 47
  - judicial 42
  - law-making 55
  - parties’ role in making distributions 37–8
  - Poland and Czech Republic 133
  - preventing unilateral withdrawal of 57
  - shared 48, 51, 58
  - in Sub-Saharan Africa 358–9
  - in United Kingdom 30–31
- competitive federalism 25, 27, 31
- competitive regionalism 21–2
- conflict resolution
  - decentralization for 89–101
  - indigenous 358–9
- constitutional design 33, 323
- constitutional federalism 31, 42
- constitutional politics
  - in Australia 391–3
  - party aims 133–4
  - pluralism 2
  - rules on initiatives and participation 323, 325
  - shaping interdependence 47–9
  - territorial reform as 319–21
- constructivism 18
- contagion
  - effect of SNRPs 158–9, 164–5, 168–9
  - ‘from the left’ 162
  - ‘from the right’ 162
  - terminology of 162–3
  - theory 158, 163
  - see also* territorial contagion
- cooperative federalism 27, 31, 40, 46, 48, 71, 126
- cooperative surplus 32–3, 37, 41
- coordination
  - and disentanglement reforms 322, 324

- effect of accumulation of offices across territorial levels 182
- in federal systems
  - inter-parliamentary 54–7
  - mechanisms 49–50
  - study of 45–6
- focus on inter-executive 52–4
- inter-parliamentary
  - and activism 54–7
  - neglect of 52–4
- inter-party 123–5
- intergovernmental 50–52
- intra-party 123–4, 126, 131, 135
- problems 333
- reforms 322, 324
- self-coordination 45–6, 49, 52–3
- cross-border cooperation (CBC) 68–9
- culture
  - regional 285–6
  - and technology 20–21
- Czech Republic 111, 121, 125–6, 131, 133
- de-territorialization 17, 19
- decentralization
  - administrative 21, 81–3, 90
  - in Africa 356–9, 366–8
  - asymmetric 323
  - autonomist parties as factor pushing reforms 148
  - and centralization dimension 35–7, 41
  - conditions of success or failure
    - evaluating 360
    - as inconclusive 101
    - main factors 100
  - coordinated process 282
  - defending
    - alleviation of grievances 95–6
    - lack of alternatives 97
    - prevention of secession 96–7
  - defining 90–91
  - detractors
    - crystallization of regional identities 99
    - increased conflict 97–8
    - slippery slope to secession 98–9
  - difference with interdependence 47, 83
  - and economic development 313
  - environmental policy 247–8, 254, 256–7
  - European 4–5, 140, 279
  - fiscal 307
  - from gender perspective 76, 82–3
  - growing trend towards 4
  - health policy literature on 233–6, 240–41
  - increasing variation within welfare states 235
  - in India 377, 380
  - and legitimacy 5–6
  - offering advantage to SNRPs 160
  - paradox 95, 100
  - plural polities 192–3
    - and political parties 342–3
  - pressure for reform 331
  - of property rights 346
  - providing resources for policy-making 47
  - reform 120, 148, 280, 356–9, 367–8
  - regional 4, 27
  - and regional elections 116
  - relationship with ERPs 144–5, 152
  - SNRPs as catalyst for 158–9, 167
  - as solution for conflicts of taste 333
  - statewide parties choosing 164
  - to sub-state level 5
  - and subsidiarity 6
  - theorem 33–4
  - as tool for conflict resolution
    - arguments against 97–9
    - arguments for 95–7
  - ethnocultural conflict 91–5
  - increased interest in 89, 100
  - overall lack of agreement over efficacy 100
  - unitary-plural typology 192
- decision space 234–5
- democratization, mass 191–3
- depoliticization 24–5
- devolution
  - as downward power transfer 75
  - from gender perspective 76, 79, 82–4
- devolution/recognition reforms 323–4
- devolved party structure 133
- devolved regions
  - elections 130
  - parliaments 96
  - policy areas within 149
  - Scotland 40, 90, 96, 130
  - United Kingdom 31
- differentiation/asymmetry reforms 322–4
- disentanglement reforms 322, 324
- dispersed governance 217–20, 222, 225–7
- distributive politics 26–7, 309, 312
- domestic violence see VAW
- dynamic nationalization 108–10, 113–16, 119
- economic development
  - centers and peripheries 310–13, 316
  - globalization and territorial politics of 314–16
  - politics of, and place 312–14
  - regional, and local political classes 310–12
  - territorial politics as driver of 308–10
  - without territorial politics 306–8
- economic federalism 247–9

- education policy
  - centralization in provinces and states 222–5
  - and federal government 221–2
  - and federalism 218–19
  - global and national influences on 219–21
  - governance 217–18
  - and language 225–6
  - venture philanthropists 226–7
- elections see national elections; regional elections
- electoral behavior
  - denationalization of 111
  - difference between regional and national 111–13
  - measuring 108–15
  - of regionalist party voters 107, 153
  - territorial heterogeneity in 112
  - territorial homogenization of 108, 113
  - uniform and non-uniform 112–13
- entrepreneurs, pro-reform 331–2
- environmental federalism
  - actor-centred approach to 250–56
  - comparative 247
  - jurisdictions 254–6
- environmental policy
  - actor-centred approach to environmental federalism
    - benefits of 250–51
    - federal jurisdictions 254–6
    - interest and advocacy groups 253–4
    - political parties, factions and movements 251–2
  - future research directions 256–7
  - territorial approaches to
    - comparative environmental federalism 247
    - economic federalism 247–9
    - policy diffusion and convergence 249–50
    - and territorial politics 246
- environmentalist groups 23–4, 66, 253–4
- Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) 78
- equalization programmes 294–6, 300–304
- ERPs see ethnoregionalist parties (ERPs)
- ethnic nationalism 141–2, 264
- ethnocultural conflict 89, 91–7, 99–100
- ethnoregionalism 143
- ethnoregionalist parties (ERPs)
  - Europeanization of party family 149–51
  - future study of autonomist and regionalist parties 152–3
  - performance
    - determinants of success 143–5
    - electoral success at regional, national and European level 145–6
    - parliamentary representation and government participation 146–8
    - policy performance 148–9
    - political and scientific relevance of 139–41
    - relevance of EU and European Parliament 151–2
    - state of the art research 141–2
- EU see European Union (EU)
- Europe
  - bargaining 344–5
  - citizenship in 204, 206, 210–11
  - and contagion 166
  - decentralization 4–5, 140, 279
  - democratic deficit in political life 196
  - electoral success at level of 145–6
  - federalism scholarship 342–9
  - fiscal federalism 348
  - growth in regional electoral institutions 111
  - intergovernmental relations 346–7
  - migration policy 271
  - neo-functionalism 17–18
  - political careers 173–5, 177, 179–81, 184–5
  - political class 180, 183–5
  - political parties
    - actor-centred approaches 342–3
    - ethnoregionalist 139–53
    - mobilization 139
    - Western, Central and Eastern 120–35
  - recent wave of reform attempts 320
  - regionalism 307, 315
  - second-order election model 111–12
  - SNRPs across Western 158, 160–61, 163
  - static nationalization 109
  - of sub-state regional level 5
  - territorial differentiation 18
  - traditional conceptions of state in 210
  - trend for regional tiers of authority 4–5
  - see also* nation states: Europe
- European Free Alliance (EFA) 141, 151–2
- European integration
  - contributing to electoral success of ERP family 145
  - creating new multilevel political system 139
  - Europeanization of party family 149–51
  - growing field of career research 180
  - opportunities for more autonomy 140
- European Parliament
  - citizens' representatives 66
  - elections 145–6
  - empowerment of 25
  - first direct election to 111, 180
  - institutionalization of 180
  - norm of consensus in 344
  - political class with vested interest in 184

- relevance 151–2
  - as supranational institution 288
  - European regions
    - contesting 27–8
    - distributive politics 26–7
    - functional rescaling 18–21
    - from governance to government 24–6
    - inter-regional transfers 27
    - interest groups 23–4
    - intra-regional inequality 27
    - and production of territory 21–2
    - regional size and wealth 285–6
    - rescaling politics 22
  - European Union (EU)
    - citizens' living conditions 198
    - on competition 27
    - economic development 315
    - environmental and climate change policy 248–55
    - and European Parliament relevance 151–2
    - federalism scholarly struggle to cope with phenomenon of 31
    - increasing salience of territorial politics 74
    - interdependent governance 196–7
    - MLG within 65–71, 81–2
    - policy-making in 63, 66, 70–71, 81–2, 85
    - as political experiment to bond nation states together 2
    - promoting dialogue for inclusive development 24
    - promotion of socio-economic interest 64
    - re-drawing conceptions of sovereignty 3
    - on regional mobilization beyond state borders 281
    - regional representations 281
    - shared rule and self-rule 284–5
    - state formation and nation-building 191–3
    - subsidiarity principle 82, 198, 200–201
  - Europeanization 3, 30, 62, 140, 149–51, 196–9, 315
  - exceptionalism 302–4
  - federal arrangements
    - effects on
      - women's accountability 83, 85
      - women's political participation 77–8, 85
      - women's representation 78–81, 85
    - facilitating or obstructing women's equality-seeking 74
    - feminist activists challenging 83–4
    - gender effects of 77
    - as 'gendered' 75–6
    - 'indirect impacts' of 79
    - re-gendering 75, 78, 81, 83–4
  - federal bargain 222, 343
  - federal government
    - Australian 391–3, 395, 397–8
    - Brazilian 240
    - as constituent of federation 219
    - division of power with substate government 32–3
    - and education policy 221–4, 228
    - and equalization policy 300–302
    - and fiscal transfers 296–9
    - and paradiplomacy 281–2
    - role regarding oil and gas extraction 252, 255
    - and state government 345–6
  - federal institutions 34, 74–5, 236, 300, 319, 322, 327
  - federal jurisdictions 251, 254–6
  - federal systems
    - conflict types in public policies 333
    - coordination in
      - inter-parliamentary, and activism in 54–7
      - intergovernmental 50–52
      - mechanisms 49–50
      - neglect of inter-parliamentary and focus on inter-executive 52–4
      - study of 45–6
    - and fiscal transfers 296–9
  - interdependence
    - as core feature of 57
    - and decentralization as different properties of 47
    - and political dynamics within 50–52
    - study of 50–52
  - no stand-alone equalization scheme in US 302–3
  - political careers in 177–80
  - strategies of parties operating in 132–3
  - territorial distribution of power in 248
  - territorial reform policies in
    - adaptation to change 319
    - contents and outcomes 323–34
    - defining and measuring 321–3
    - recent wave of reform attempts 320
    - relevance of explanatory factors 335
  - types of conflict in 333
- federalism
  - adaptive 253
  - Australian 388–90, 391–3, 397–8
  - comparative 360–67
  - competitive 25, 27, 31
  - and conflict resolution 91–2, 95
  - cooperative 27, 31, 40, 46, 48, 71, 126
  - democratic
    - and gender 77
    - Russia lacking structures of 133

- distinguished from unitary states 30–31
- dual 38, 46
- economic 247–9
- and education policy 218–19, 221–2
- effects of interstate or intrastate 31, 38–41, 295
- environmental 247, 250–56
- functional 48
  - as ‘gendered’ 75–6
  - and health policy
    - Canada 237
    - debate on 236–7
    - in literature 235–6, 239–40
    - United States 237–8
- holding together 33–4, 372
- horizontal dimension of US 55
- in India 374–82
- justification of 34
- MLG associated with 62, 64, 69–70
- oldest argument for 32–3
- open 297–8
- paradox of 95, 100
- ‘picket fence’ 25, 346
- power
  - distribution of 35–8
  - formal divisions of 30
- scholarship in Europe and United States 341–9
- treaty 31, 40, 42, 77
  - see also* fiscal federalism
- federations, territorial redistribution in 294–6
- feminist institutionalism 74, 76
- feminist political science (FPS) 74, 82
- fiscal federalism
  - as crucial dimension of territorial politics 293
  - economics of 33–4, 233, 241
  - in Europe and United States 348–9
  - horizontal disparities and politics of equalization 299–302
  - politicization of fiscal transfers and territorial redistribution in federations 294–6
  - politics of vertical fiscal transfers 296–9
  - theories 20, 26, 33–4
  - US exceptionalism 302–4
- fiscal transfers
  - call for comparative approach 304
  - politicization of 294–6
  - politics of vertical 296–9
- Flanders
  - demand for national self-government 20
  - growing self-confidence of political elite 270
  - immigrant integration policies 264, 269, 271
  - increasing economic weight of 124
  - integrated careers pattern 180
  - mandatory health insurance scheme 207
  - minority language gaining support 21
  - minority nationalism 354
  - as ‘old’ migrant receiving region 262
  - parties
    - divided into regional units 132
    - independence-seeking 134, 139–40, 153
    - multi-layered 124–5
    - representation of territorial interests 134
  - as prototypical minority nation 263
  - regional size and wealth 286
  - social and economic demands mapped onto territorial cleavages 22
- France
  - citizenship policy 269
  - colonialism 361–2
  - Corsica wanting greater autonomy from 1
  - decentralization 90
  - dirigiste form of political integration 311–12
  - experiencing little rescaling 307
  - as foremost example of a unitary and centralized system 192
  - as highly centralized state 30, 41
  - institutional inertia 26
  - political reconstruction 91
  - regional elections 107, 111
  - regional tiers of authority 4
  - self-rule and shared rule 284
  - territorial linkage 179–80
  - top-down regionalism 145
- functional regionalism 23
- functional rescaling 18–21
- GAL-TAN divide 140, 152
- game theory approach 346
- gender
  - decentralization, devolution and accountability 82–3
  - and democratic federalism 77–8
  - federalism as ‘gendered’ 75–6
  - meaning of 76
  - participation and citizenship 77–8
  - re-gendering federal arrangements 83–5
  - salience for territorial politics 74–5, 84–5
  - study conclusion 84–5
  - types of MLG and networks 81–2
  - women’s representation 78–81, 85
- General Revenue Sharing (GRS) 303
- Germany
  - as archetype of cooperative federalism 40, 48
  - citizenship policy 269
  - competitive regionalism 27
  - complaints about excessive inter-regional transfers 27

- emergence of federalism 32
- environmental policy 251, 253
- equalization 300
- as established federation 31
- as ethnically homogeneous society 195
- federalism 121, 132–4, 390
- functional distribution of power 35–6, 48
- health system 238–9
- high shared rule and limited self-rule 236, 284
- international activism 281
- Länder* 26, 30–31, 35, 49, 58, 111, 126, 179, 284, 286, 300
- parental leave policies 81
- party systems 126, 134, 179
- political professionalization and career movements 179
- regional elections 107, 111
- regional tiers of authority 4
- right for regions to set up representational offices 281
- social citizenship 303
- social welfare 206
- territorial identity and interests 134
- territorial reform 319–20, 322
- women's representation 80–81
- globalization 314–16
- governance
  - concept of 217–18
  - to government 24–6
  - rescaling 197–9
  - thesis of dispersed 217–20, 222, 225–7
  - see also* multilevel governance (MLG)
- government
  - from governance to 24–6
  - interest in reform 326–7
  - participation of ERPs 146–8
  - and political power
    - competition between 32–4
    - divided between 31–3, 36–7, 41
- grievance alleviation 95–6
- health policy
  - as comparative politics 235–7
  - components of comparative territorial politics of health 238–40
  - future research directions 240–42
  - as important and frustrating topic for research 232
  - as territorial politics 237–8
  - territorial politics in 233–5
- hierarchical regionalism 242
- Hindu nationalism 372, 381–2
- holding together federalism 33–4, 372
- horizontal fiscal redistribution
  - call for comparative approach 304
  - disparities 299–302
  - General Revenue Sharing 303
  - pressures on 294–6
- ideal-types 31, 38, 41
- identities, multiple
  - governance re-scaling 197–9
  - and legitimation of political institutions 193–5, 199
  - multilevel politics
    - future for interplay with 200
    - interdependence in 195–7
  - re-asserting 199
  - state formation, nation-building and mass democratization 191–3
- identity
  - concept of 190
  - ethno-territorial collective 191
  - mass organizations open to popular forms of 23
  - political 67, 164, 190, 199
  - regional 22, 63–4, 66–7, 99, 161, 285–6
  - relationship with citizenship 205
  - rescaling evident in 21
  - as subject to constant internalization 190–91
  - territorial 134
  - unitary 190
- immigration
  - dependent variables and categorization 264–7
  - escalating political interest in 261
  - exploring nascent research field 263
  - independent variables
    - contextual explanations 271–2
    - ideational explanations 269
    - institutionalist approaches 270–71
    - strategic explanations 267–8
  - legitimation paradox 262–3, 272–3
  - reasons why nationalism scholars study 262–3
  - and substate nationalism 261–4, 267–8, 272
- independence referenda 1–2, 139–40, 148, 163, 207, 209
- India
  - adopting indigenous constitution 371
  - comparison with Pakistan and Sri Lanka 382–5
  - containment of federalism 380–82
  - cultural diversity 4, 388
  - de facto federal nature 371
  - as decentralized (federal) system 97
  - economic liberalization 378–81

- incidence and frequency of President's Rule 378
- legislative power distribution 374–5
- linguistic reorganization and operation as
  - federal state in practice 374–9
- party system 139, 377–9
- population 371
- states and union territories statistics 376–7
- success and longevity 96
- territorial reform 322
- territorial self-rule 372
  - as union state with flexible internal boundaries 372–4
  - women's representation 80
- institutional approaches 341–9
- institutional arrangements 323, 325–7
- institutional change
  - pressures for reform 327–9
  - rescaling of statewide parties resulting from 135
  - in Spain 133
  - variation in multilevel systems 319
- institutional design 31, 34, 41, 46, 195, 358–9, 367
- institutional inertia 26
- institutionalism, historical 389–91
- institutions and institutional environments 283–5
- integration/inclusion reforms 322, 324
- inter-executive coordination 52–4, 56
- inter-parliamentary activism 53–7
- inter-parliamentary relations 52–7
- interdependence
  - constitutional factors shaping 47–9
  - as core feature of federal regimes 57
  - difference with decentralization 47, 83
  - within multilevel polities 195–7
  - policy 283
  - political dynamics and intergovernmental coordination 50–52
  - in power-sharing 84
  - and self-rule/shared rule 39, 284
  - study of, in federal systems 45–6
- interest groups
  - educational 219
  - environmental 250, 253–4
- interests
  - politics of 23–4
  - in reform
    - constellation of 329
    - governmental 326–7
    - territorial 134
- intergovernmental coordination 50–52
- intergovernmental relations (IGR)
  - definition 346
  - in Europe and United States 346–8
  - in federal systems 51–7
  - horizontal 281–2
  - institutions and processes 37–8, 48–9
  - MLG associated with 62, 64, 69–70
  - within multilevel polities 196
  - politics of 57
  - vertical 281–2, 284
- interstate/intrastate federalism 31, 38–41, 295
- issue salience 163, 261
- Italy
  - approach to clientelism 311–12
  - competitive regionalism 27
  - complaints about excessive inter-regional transfers 27
  - decentralizing most health care responsibility 239
  - economic development 310–11
  - ERPs 144, 146–7
  - as ethnically heterogeneous society 195
  - fiscal decentralization 307
  - fragmentations of some specific civil rights 208
  - governance re-scaling 198
  - health politics 239
  - independence referendum 2
  - 'micro' approach to territorial politics 309
  - national identity 192
  - party systems 139, 146
  - political reconstruction 91
  - regional coalition formation 147
  - regional elections 107, 111
  - regional governments set up 23
  - regional polities 311
  - regional resentment 300
  - regional tiers of authority 4
  - regions of special stature 31
  - right for regions to set up representational offices 281
  - self-rule and shared rule 284
  - SNRPs 158, 272
  - social welfare 206
  - Southern policy 313
  - territorial reform 320
  - territorial rescaling of parties 121
  - Third 309–10
  - uneven access to political rights 207
  - unitary state 390
- joint decision traps 58, 71
- Keynesian welfare state 19–20
- language 225–6, 271–2, 373–5, 382–4
- leadership role 331–2

- Lega Nord 142, 147–8, 150, 300
- legal pluralism 69, 74–5, 78, 84–5
- legitimacy
  - as basic need of governments 326
  - and decentralization 5–6
  - of institutions 283
  - of multilevel governance (MLG) 67–9, 71
  - of political institutions 193–5, 199
  - seeking strategies 268
- legitimation paradox 262–3, 272–3
- loose coupling 71
- majoritarianism
  - in Canada 51, 251
  - command-and-control 193
  - and ERPs 144
  - in India 373, 381–2
  - in Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Nepal 372, 382, 384
  - in United States 251
- mass democratization 191–3
- methodological nationalism 3, 110, 116, 173, 196, 279
- migrant integration policy 261–2, 264–72, 274
- minority nationalism 195, 269, 271, 354
- MLG see multilevel governance (MLG)
- modern state formation 191–3
- modernist paradigm 74, 79–80, 85, 160
- multi-level systems
  - higher participation in 85
  - parties confronted with paradox 122–3
  - study of interdependence and coordination in 45–6
- multiculturalism 33–4, 268–9
- multilevel citizenship
  - general conceptual premise 191
  - origins 204–5
  - theory, role of regions in 205–8
- multilevel governance (MLG)
  - Aboriginal 81
  - concept 62–5, 81
  - and economic development 306, 312, 315–16
  - environmental 248, 250, 252–3
  - as gendered 75, 81–2, 85
  - legitimacy 67–9, 71
  - methodological nationalism bias 196
  - move towards government 24–6
  - organisational strategies for parties in response to 167–8
  - as political mobilization 61, 63–7, 70–71
  - state restructuring 62–5, 69–70
  - theoretical fields 61, 69–70
  - types of 64–5, 67, 81–2
- multilevel negotiations 344–6
- multilevel party competition
  - contagion and issue salience 162–3
  - continuum of strategies 130–32
  - future research directions 169
  - and nationalization 114–16
  - research overview of territorialization of 159–61
  - responses to
    - adaptation to paradoxical situation 122–3
    - Belgium 124–5
    - Czech Republic 125–6
    - Germany 126
    - Poland 127
    - Russia 127–8
    - Spain 128–9
    - typology of organizations and strategies 123–4
    - United Kingdom 129–30
    - variance in 132–4
  - and territorial contagion theory 164–8
- multilevel polities
  - and environmental policy 248–9, 251, 253
  - interdependence within 195–7
  - strategies for managing diversity in 194
- multilevel reform negotiations 325–34
- multilevel state architectures
  - comparison with unitary state architectures 31
  - effects of interstate or intrastate federalism 38–41
  - power allocation 35–8, 41
  - rationales for 32–5
  - Westphalian nation state as unit for comparative analysis of 30
- multilevel systems
  - examples of 320
  - territorial reform policies in
    - adaptation to change 319
    - contents and outcomes 323–4
    - defining and measuring 321–3
    - recent wave of reform attempts 320
    - relevance of explanatory factors 335
- nation-building 191–3
- nation states
  - all-embracing and exclusive as problematic 191
  - challenge of power distribution 30
  - conceived as multilevel systems 31
  - democracy at level of 65
  - emergence of 1
  - Europe
    - aspiration 18–19
    - building period 191–2
    - comparison with regions 27

- crystallization of 192
- cultural uniformity 20–21
- de-territorialization 17
- policies challenging very essence of 69
- political dimension 21
- political experiment to bond 2
- sovereignty challenged 3
- territorial cleavages cutting across 17–18
- territorial dimension of 143
- union of existing territorial units into 191
- union states 192
- functional diffusion across 160
- governments retaining power to disrupt
  - networks 81
- homogenous 92
- and immigration 261, 267
- loss of power and influence 196
- MLG as post modern alternative to 81–2
- need for demystification of 18
- as no longer privileged referent 70
- paradigm 2–3, 68
- party competition in 22
- recent creation of 1
- relinquishing part of sovereignty 71
- and rise of professional politician 173
- shared identity 199
- as sole source for data collection 196, 279
- as temporally limited entity 4
- territorial flux in modern system of 2
- territorial movements challenging existence
  - of 6
- vs. territory 246
- trend towards territorial rescaling of 4
- as unit of analysis
  - default 279
  - natural 110, 173
  - only meaningful 2–3
  - paramount 217–18
- United Nations analysis 200
- Westphalian 30, 64, 81
- national elections
  - conceptualizing and measuring
    - nationalization of 108–10
  - dynamic nationalization scores 114, 119
  - electoral success 145–6
  - as first-order 111–12
  - focus on study of 115–16
  - in multilevel electoral system 114–16
  - static nationalization scores 114, 119
  - as two-level game in Australia 394
- nationalism
  - civic 265
  - ethnic 141–2, 264
  - as form of territorial politics 294
  - and gendered literature 76
- Hindu 372, 381–2
- literature on new politics of 205
- main types of 195
- methodological 3, 110, 116, 173, 196, 279
- minority 195, 269, 271, 354
- Polish 127
- and regionalism 142, 195
- and self-determination 6, 293
- Spanish 129
- substate
  - and immigration 261–4, 267–8, 272
  - and territorialisation of politics 159–61, 163
- nationalization
  - dynamic 108–10, 113–16, 119
  - hypothesis 107
  - of national elections 108–10
  - of regional elections 111–15
  - static 108–10, 113–16, 119
- 'nationalization thesis' 22
- negotiated agreements 49–50, 58, 397
- neo-functionalism 17
- New Economic Geography 19
- new regionalism 19, 205, 308–9
- non-statewide parties (NSWPs)
  - competition with statewide parties 145, 164
  - as factor accounting for variation across
    - parties 134–5
  - fuelling centrifugal dynamics 38
  - and regional branches of statewide parties 122
  - in Spain 128–9
- non-territorial autonomy 95
- NSWPs see non-statewide parties (NSWPs)
- open federalism 297–8
- opportunity structures
  - for European positions 181
  - political careers shaped by 185
  - for professional politicians 174, 181
  - in Scotland 183
  - in South America 178–9
  - territory as important dimension in 181, 183, 185
- Pakistan
  - adopting indigenous constitution 371
  - ethnoregionalism 139
  - federal-type arrangements 371
  - management of territorial cleavages 382–5
  - princely states 372
  - state majoritarian ethos 372
  - utilizing political decentralization 92
  - women's representation 80

- paradiplomacy
  - concept of 281, 289
  - as multi-faceted research agenda 288–9
  - as regional actorness 281
  - of regions
    - factors affecting 282–8
    - relation to state diplomacy 281–2
- paradox of decentralization 95, 100
- paradox of federalism 95, 100
- parliamentary representation 146–8
- participation
  - citizen 5, 148, 199, 203–4, 207, 219
  - constitutional rules on 323, 325
  - in federal decision-making 33
  - in federal legislation 39
  - government 146–8
  - and reform 321–2
  - women's political 77–8, 81, 85
- parties see autonomist parties; ethnoregionalist parties (ERPs); non-statewide parties (NSWPs); regionalist parties; statewide parties; substate nationalist and regionalist parties (SNRPs)
- partisan congruence 330–31
- partisan control 330
- party change
  - continuum of strategies 130–32
  - explanations of strategy variation 132–4, 135
  - nature of 120
  - responses to 122–30, 135
- party constitutional aims 133–4
- party ideology 132–3
- party politics argument 286
- party success
  - determinants of 143–5, 152–3
  - at regional, national and European level 145–8, 151
- party systems
  - Australia 393–4, 398
  - Belgium 124–5
  - contagion 162–8
  - Czech 125–6
  - denationalization 122
  - environmental movements 251
  - and ERPs 139–40, 144–6
  - European 139, 143–4
  - and federal bargain 343
  - federal friendly 344
  - fragmented 80, 139, 178, 378–9
  - Germany 126, 179
  - immigration 270–71, 274
  - Indian 377–9
  - institutionalization of territorial conflict in 139
  - nationalized 107, 110, 114, 120
  - Poland 127
  - regional 113–14, 147, 152, 161, 184, 273
  - Russia 127–8
  - Spain 128–9
  - structure of multilevel 37–8, 41
  - substate 159, 161, 166
  - territorial interests and identities within 134
  - United Kingdom 129–30
- peripheries see centers and peripheries
- 'picket fence' federalism 25, 346
- place-based approaches 312–14
- pluralism
  - as centrally embedded characteristic of democracy 5
  - constitutional 2
  - ethnocultural 92
  - institutionalization of 5
  - legal 69, 74–5, 78, 84–5
  - organizational 195
  - political 5
  - territorial 3, 380
- pluralistic game 195
- plurinational accommodation 371–2, 380–81
- Poland 111, 121, 127, 133
- policy centralization 222–5
- policy convergence
  - in Canadian education 223–4
  - environmental 249–50
- policy convergence and divergence
- policy coordination see coordination
- policy diffusion
  - environmental 249–51
  - as mechanism based on adjustment 49
  - vertical and horizontal 251, 347
- policy diversity 395–7
- policy-level factors 286–7
- policy-making
  - authority on immigration 262, 270, 272–4
  - autonomy creating broad scope for 47
  - autonomy in 81–2
  - decentralization providing resources for 47
  - in EU 63, 66, 70–71, 81–2, 85
  - and joint decision-making 58
  - leading to complex processes of
    - coordination and adaptation 48
  - MLG as theory of 61–5, 69
  - social 199
- policy networks 71, 81–2, 196–7, 218, 250, 252, 254
- policy research
  - healthy policy as comparative politics 235–7
  - as most interested in states 237
  - territorial politics in health 233–5
- political actors
  - affected by territorial contagion 165

- determinants of supranational 282–8
- in environmental arena 250–57
- interest in reform 326–7
- reform intervention 321–2, 328
- regions as 278–82
- sub-state responses to immigration 261–74
- political careers
  - conceptual approaches 174–8
  - dimension in territorial politics 181–5
  - empirical findings 178–81
  - territorial dimension of 173–4
- political class
  - European 180, 183–5
  - local 310–12
  - regional 183–4
  - subnational 70
  - theory of 182–4
- political dynamics 50–52
- political institutions
  - legitimation of 193–5, 199
  - providing favourable context for
    - politicization of fiscal arrangements 295
  - regions defined by 205
  - role in governance 217
- political mobilization
  - autonomist and regionalist 143
  - of Catalan ethno-territorial identity 194
  - in Europe 139–40
  - for home rule 195
  - multilevel governance as 61, 63–7, 70–71
  - of people's identities 194
  - and reform 328
  - regional 281–5, 287–8, 307
- political power
  - asymmetry of 37, 41
  - challenge of organization and distribution
    - 30
  - and citizenship 204
  - cooperative surplus 32–3, 37, 41
  - dimensions and patterns of allocation 35–8
  - distribution
    - aspects of 208
    - functional 35–6, 41
    - sectoral 35–6, 41
    - territorial nature of 41
  - of federal level 33, 35–6
  - functional allocation of 47–9
  - in Ghana and Uganda 362
  - governments
    - competition between 32–4
    - divided between 31–3, 36–7, 41
  - horizontal dimension 33, 37
  - institutional 34, 39–40
  - intergovernmental relations 346–7
  - interstate/intrastate federalism 39
  - liberal-individualistic perspective 33
  - one-party monopoly of 127
  - in Pakistan 383
  - protection from, through competition 32–3, 41
  - regionalism and nationalism speaking to 195
  - relation to decentralization 91, 94, 358
  - territorial allocation of 30, 41
  - territorial dimension of 190
  - types of 35
  - in US federal system 39
  - vertical division of 30, 32–3, 36
- political regionalism 22, 308, 315
- political rescaling 22
- political spaces 17, 21–2, 25, 27–8, 151–2, 309
- political strategies for reform 329–32
- politicization
  - and citizens' pressure for reform 328
  - of ethnic identity 195
  - of fiscal transfers 294–6
  - of immigration 263
  - of local policy in EU 343
  - of reform procedures 330
  - of resource management and climate change
    - policies 251–2
- power see political power
- public choice 21, 34, 196
- Quebec
  - civil liberties 208
  - comparison with Australia 299
  - competition over territorial interests 161
  - decentralization
    - blunting force of secession 96
    - and gender 82–3
  - demand for national self-government 20
  - equalization for integration of 303
  - fiscal federalism 297–8
  - immigration policy 264, 268
  - independence referenda 1
  - language and education policy 225–6, 228
  - minority nationalism 263, 354
  - as 'old' migrant receiving region 262
  - parties operating in 139, 297
  - prevalent view of Canada 192
- rational choice 17, 141
- re-gendering 75, 78, 81, 83–4
- Regional Authority Index (RAI) 4, 36, 111
- regional citizenship
  - arguments for and against 208–11
  - history providing examples of 206
- regional competition 19–20, 209, 314
- regional decentralization 4, 27
- regional economic development 310–12

- regional elections
  - conceptualizing and operationalizing
    - nationalization of 111–12
  - critique of ‘methodological nationalism’ 110
  - data collection 116
  - and denationalization 107, 116
  - denationalization of electoral behavior
    - found in 111
  - dynamic nationalization scores 114, 119
  - electoral success 145–6
  - as more than a function of national elections 113
  - in multilevel electoral system 114–16
  - in second-order model perspective 112, 116, 145–6
  - static nationalization scores 114, 119
  - taking region as unit of analysis 114
  - timing of 116
- regional identities
  - crystallization of 99
  - as politicized 22
  - as powerful lever for mobilization 66–7
  - and process of integration 63–4
  - and SNRPs 161
- regional parliaments 96, 107, 140, 174–5, 177, 179, 182–4, 208
- regional political class 183–4
- regional politics 173–4, 367
- regional social dialogue 24
- regionalism
  - bottom-up 145
  - bourgeois 143
  - city 315
  - competitive 21–2, 26–7
  - ethno 143
  - Europe 307, 315
  - functional 23
  - hierarchical 242
  - in Kenya 362
  - and nationalism 142, 195
  - new 19, 205, 308–9
  - political 308, 315
  - regional deviations 180
  - regions with 280
  - regions without 23, 280
  - and self-determination 6
  - top-down 145
  - in United States 307
- regionalist parties
  - of Belgium 169
  - future study of 152–3
  - ideological positions 149–50
  - leftish ideology 144
  - Lega Nord 142
  - playing pivotal roles 147
  - policy performance 148
  - rise of 139
  - shifting autonomy goals 141
  - typologies of sub-types 142
  - varying electoral success 145–6
  - see also* substate nationalist and regionalist parties (SNRPs)
- regions
  - actorness within 280–82
  - beyond state boundaries 282–8
  - empowerment of 279–80, 285
  - history, identity and cultural distinctiveness 285–6
  - institutions of 283–5
  - overlooking territory 278–9
  - party politics 286
  - policy-level factors 287–8
  - re-emergence of 279–80
  - with regionalism 280
  - research agenda for 288–9
  - role in multilevel citizenship theory 205–8
  - size and wealth 286–7
  - without regionalism 23, 280
  - see also* European regions
- representation
  - domain of 321–4, 335
  - European Free Alliance 151–2
  - versus government efficacy 208–9
  - land organizations 131
  - parliamentary, of ERPs 146–8
  - proportional 34, 91, 93, 100, 144, 394
  - regional organizations lacking 128
  - territorial 181–2
  - territorial interest 121, 134, 161, 310, 315
  - women’s 78–81, 83–5, 162–3, 167
- representational offices 281, 287–9
- rescaling
  - functional 18–21
  - governance 197–9
  - interests 23–4
  - politics 22
  - see also* territorial rescaling
- resource management
  - actor-centred approach 254–6
  - centralization or decentralization debate 256–7
  - contrast with climate change policy 251–2, 256
  - interest group politics and intergovernmental disputes governing politics of 252, 256
  - research on decentralization and development 254
- rights
  - civil and political 192
  - collective 194

- EU legal 197
- union 192
- Russia
  - appointed regional governors 85
  - minorities 98–9, 142
  - multi-layered polities 121
  - party positioning 131
  - party systems 127–8
  - regional elections 111
  - trends towards central control and semi-authoritarian regimes 121, 133
  - utilizing political decentralization 92
  - women's representation 80
- Scotland
  - competition over territorial interests 161
  - decentralization 234
  - denationalized elections 107
  - devolution
    - elements of both political and fiscal decentralization 90
    - health politics 238
    - move to decentralist strategy 130, 132
    - party systems 129–30, 134
    - and women's representation 79, 84
  - divergent institutional opportunity structures 183
  - driver of quest for independence 40
  - ERPs 145
  - example of distinct regional class interest 183
  - higher degree of autonomy than Wales 133
  - immigration 262, 264, 268, 270–72
  - independence referendum 1, 96, 139–40, 207, 209
  - minority nationalism 354
  - mixed common and civil law system 208
  - 'Moreno question' 193–4
  - participation in regional executives 147
  - pattern of alternative careers 180
  - as prototypical minority nation 263
  - regional elections 111
  - regional size and wealth 286
  - relocation of focus of solidarity 20
  - secessionist leap forwards 153
  - social and economic demands mapped onto territorial cleavages 22
  - social rights 206–7, 209
  - superceding competence levels of German Länder 31
- secession
  - campaigning as punishable offence in India 380
  - central governments granting autonomy to avoid 93
  - movements 22, 98, 303, 363, 375
  - Pakistan 383–4
  - Parti québécois (PQ) 297
  - as possible competition mechanism 33, 35
  - prevention of 96–7
  - regional citizenship as possible 'springboard to' 210
  - and regionalism 6
  - 'secessionist leap forwards' 153
  - and self-determination claims 92–3
  - slippery slope to 98–9
  - threat in UK and Spain 100, 134
  - 'window of opportunity' 194
- self-coordination 45–6, 49, 52–3
- self-determination
  - in Africa 3
  - Catalan 148
  - claims for territorial 163
  - EU promoting right of 141
  - minorities 75, 92, 94–5
  - movements 3, 141
  - non-statewide parties 134
  - political demands for 6
  - SNRPs 6, 159, 164, 169
  - territorial interests 161
  - in Victoria, Australia 390
- self-government 283–5
- self-rule 36–7, 39, 41, 92, 236, 241, 284–5
- shared rule 36–7, 39–41, 92, 123, 236, 241, 280, 284–5
- SNRPs see substate nationalist and regionalist parties (SNRPs)
- social sciences methodology 2–4
- South Africa
  - apartheid regime 364, 366
  - appointed regional governors 85
  - as Commonwealth country 54
  - confederal union 360
  - decentralization 92, 97–8
  - independent agency and equalization 300
  - women's representation 79–80
- South Asia
  - complexity and heterogeneity 371–2
  - India
    - containing federalism 380–82
    - operation as federal state 374–9
    - as union state with flexible internal boundaries 372–4
  - Pakistan and Sri Lanka 382–5
- Spain
  - allocation of fiscal resources 319
  - asymmetric federalism 37
  - autonomous communities in 31
  - blurring boundaries between federal and non-federal states 30

- competitive regionalism 27
- complaints about excessive inter-regional transfers 27
- as culturally distinct unit 319
- decentralization 96, 121, 132, 307
- decentralizing most health care responsibility 239–40
- devolution empowering women's groups 83
- European integration 150–51
- federal reform challenges 26
- fragmentations of some specific civil rights 208
- identity 194
- independence referendum 2, 140, 148
- integrated careers pattern 180
- as multinational polity 268
- new regionalist and minority nationalist politics 23
- parliamentary representation and government participation 147
- party systems 128–9, 132–4, 139, 146
- political reconstruction 91
- regional elections 107, 111
- regional tiers of authority 4
- right for regions to set up representational offices 281
- self-rule and shared rule 284
- SNRPs 158
- social welfare 206
- territorial reform 319–20, 322
- threat of secession 100, 134
- uneven devolution 307
- union states 192
- as unitary state undergoing 'federalization' 79
- women's representation 79–80
- see also* Basque Country; Catalonia
- Sri Lanka
  - management of territorial cleavages 382–5
  - state majoritarian ethos 372
  - as unitary state 371
  - utilizing political decentralization 92
- state design 133
- state restructuring 62–5, 69–70
- statewide parties
  - competition with non-statewide parties 145, 164
  - integrative function 120, 122
  - involvement of regional parties with 343
  - regional branches of 159, 161, 165
  - responses
    - explaining variance in 132–4
    - to multilevel competition 122–30
  - strategies of adaptation
    - bifurcated 123–5, 130–32, 135
    - centralist 123–5, 127, 129–33, 135
    - confederalist 123–4, 135, 167
    - consensualist 123, 130–31, 135
    - decentralist 123–4, 129–32, 135
    - federalist 123, 126, 130–33, 135
    - study conclusion 135
    - territorial rescaling 121–2, 130, 135
- static nationalization 108–10, 113–16, 119
- status policies 78, 81, 83
- Sub-Saharan Africa
  - decentralization reform 356–9, 367–8
  - development policies 355–6, 367–8
  - history of conflicts 354–5
  - lessons from African experience 358–9
  - need for improved data/methodology 355–6
  - need for long-term approach 359–60
  - towards revival 360–67
  - vs West 356–8
- subsidiarity
  - Christian Democratic parties 166
  - and decision-making 6
  - diverse definitions 200–201
  - and diversity 193
  - European 197–8, 200–201
  - of less importance on political right 133
  - subsidiarity principle 82, 198, 200–201
- substate nationalism
  - and immigration 261–4, 267–8, 272
  - and territorialisation of politics 159–61, 163
- substate nationalist and regionalist parties (SNRPs)
  - aims of 164–5
  - as catalyst for decentralization of mainstream political parties 158–9, 167
  - conditions for contagion 165–7
  - 'contagion' effect of 158–9, 164–5, 168–9
  - growth in size and strength 6, 158
  - positions on immigration 267–74
  - research overview 159–61
  - strategies in response to threat posed by 167–8
- supranational actorness determinants 282–8
- Switzerland
  - allocation of fiscal resources 319
  - cantonal parliaments 56–7, 207
  - cultural diversity 388
  - emergence of federalism 32
  - environmental policy 251
  - as established federation 31
  - example of intrastate federalism 39
  - as federal, but weak on other variables 236
  - federal reform 398
  - as federal republic 192
  - functional allocation of powers 48–9
  - gender politics 74, 78

- government participation 147
- inter-parliamentary relations 54, 56
- intergovernmental relations 51–2, 58
- interstate compacts 55
- as most traditional territorial hierarchy 179
- regional citizenship 208–9
- regional elections 107
- regional tiers of authority 4
- sectoral power distribution 35–6
- territorial reform 320
- women's representation 80
- symmetrical recentralisation 358
- technology 20–21
- territorial autonomy 91, 142, 166–7, 209, 293, 355, 359, 361–7
- territorial cleavages
  - economy, demography and language as dimensions of 271
  - as given new salience and meaning 22
  - important nationalization variable 116
  - in India 372–5, 377–8
  - less sub-state nationalized elections 107
  - national integration ending 278–9
  - in Pakistan and Sri Lanka 382–5
  - and second order effect 146
  - surviving modernization 17
  - taking form around places 312–13
  - treated as 'throw-backs' to past 3
- territorial contagion
  - actors 164–5
  - conditions 165–7
  - dimensions 167–8
  - 'drain' and 'boost' 168–9
  - effect on catalyst parties 168
  - theory of 163–8
- territorial differentiation 17–18, 120, 172
- territorial identity and interests 134
- territorial independence 89, 91, 98
- territorial interests 134
- territorial politics
  - career dimension in 172, 181–5
  - comparative, in Sub-Saharan Africa 354–68
  - of economic development
    - as driver 308–10
    - and globalization 314–16
    - regional 310–12
  - economic development without 306–8
  - and environmental policy
    - actor-centred approach 250–56
    - approaches to 247–50
    - future research directions 256–7
    - introduction to 246
  - and federal frame in Australia 388–98
  - of fiscal federalism 293–304
- gendering 74–85
- of health
  - components of comparative 238–40
  - future research directions 240–42
- in health policy 232–5
- as health politics 237–8
- and immigration 261–74
- as inter-disciplinary subject 7
- language education as subject of 225–6
- renaissance in study of 2–4
- in South Asia 371–85
- territorial reform
  - as constitutional policy and politics 319–21
  - content and direction of 321–3
  - contents and outcomes 323–34
  - defining and measuring 321–3
  - devolution/recognition reforms 323–4
  - differentiation/asymmetry reforms 322–3
  - disentanglement/coordination reforms 322, 324
  - ideas and issues
    - characteristics of proposals of 332
    - combination in reform package 334
    - existence of feasible and acceptable proposals 334
    - type of issue 333
  - institutions
    - constitutional rules on initiatives and participation 323, 325
    - governmental actors' interests 326–7
    - number of arenas or phases 325–6
    - rules on adoption and ratification 325
  - integration/inclusion reforms 322
  - interests and strategies
    - constellation of 329
    - partisan congruence 330–31
    - politicization degree or partisan control 330
    - role of leadership and pro-reform entrepreneurs 331–2
  - intervention domains and reform paradigms 321–3
  - pressures
    - costs of non-decision 328–9
    - definition and perception of problems or reform need 327–8
    - degree of citizen 328
    - relevance of explanatory factors 335
- territorial rescaling
  - drive towards 4–6
  - and economic development 307, 309
  - of European state 17–28
  - of political parties 121–2, 130, 135
- territorial restructuring 148, 217–18
- territorialisation of politics 159–61, 163

- territory
  - constructing 18
  - definition, mapping and control across Europe 27–8
  - as important dimension in opportunity structures 181, 183, 185
  - overlooking 278–9
  - possible end of 17–18, 278
  - production of 21–2
    - as social construct 2
  - tight coupling 71
  - trade unions 23–4, 374
  - treaty federalism 31, 40, 42, 77
  - two-level game 62, 326, 394
- unitary states
  - centralist model of 193
  - vs federal states 30–31
  - Italy as 390
  - vs regional citizenship 210–11
  - Sri Lanka as 371, 385
  - winning rights in 75
  - women's representation 79, 85
- United Kingdom
  - asymmetric federalism 37
  - blurring boundaries between federal and non-federal states 30
  - Commonwealth Parliamentary Association 54
  - complaints about excessive inter-regional transfers 27
  - decentralization 121
  - decentralizing most health care responsibility 239
  - devolved regions 31, 40
  - differentiation of political rights 207
  - European integration 150–51
  - fragmentations of some specific civil rights 208
  - health politics 239
  - high self-rule and low shared rule 236
  - literature on public policy in multi-level settings 149
  - as multinational polity 268
  - new regionalist and minority nationalist politics 23
  - party systems 129–30, 139, 146
  - political reconstruction 91
  - regional elections 107, 111
  - SNRPs 158
  - territorial conflict 272
  - territorial reform 320
  - threat of secession 100, 134
  - uneven devolution 307
  - union states 192
  - welfare provision 206
  - see also* Scotland; Wales
- United States
  - absence of functional allocation of competencies 48
  - actor-centred institutionalism 342
  - autonomy mitigated by interdependence through shared legislative power 46
  - bargaining 345–6
  - career patterns 178
  - civil liberties 208
  - as coming together federation 32
  - education policy 219–27
  - environmental policy 248–53, 255
  - environmental practices 250–51
  - as established federation 31
  - as ethnically heterogeneous society 195
  - example of interstate federalism 39
  - as exception to equalization programme 302–4
  - exceptionalism 302–4
  - as federal, but weak on other variables 236
  - federalism scholarship 342–9
  - fiscal federalism 348–9
  - health politics 237–8
  - high self-rule and low shared rule 236
  - immigration 209
  - institutionalized intergovernmental institutions 48
  - inter-parliamentary relations 54
  - intergovernmental relations 347–8
  - liberal-individualistic perspective on state power 33
  - pattern of IGR 55–6
  - political parties 343–4
  - populism 314
  - reform initiatives 322
  - sectoral power distribution 35–6
  - self-rule and shared rule 284
  - shared competences 48
  - state of health literature 233
  - women's representation 80
- VAW 77, 83–4
- venture philanthropists 226–7
- vertical fiscal transfers
  - comparative approach generating insights 304
  - equalization programmes complementing 300
  - politics of 296–9
  - with strong conditionality 294
- voting behavior see electoral behavior

- Wales 40, 107, 111, 129–30, 132–3, 147–9, 206–9, 234, 286
- Wallonia 97, 124–5, 132, 180, 300
- welfare state
  - Brazilian creation of 240
  - comparative politics of 236
  - decentralization increasing variation within 235
  - federalism as barrier to growth 235
  - historically encouraging centralization 26
- Keynesian 19–20
  - in nation-building 191–2
- Westphalian nation state 30, 64, 81
- Westphalian-style governments 85
- Westphalian system of sovereignty 1–3
- women's policy agencies (WPAs) 81, 83
- women's politics see gender
- women's representation 78–81, 162–3, 167

