

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction: the comparative turn in constitutional theory Gary Jacobsohn and Miguel Schor	1
PART I CONSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURES AND RIGHTS
2 What is judicial supremacy? Stephen Gardbaum	21
3 Federalism and constitutional theory Stephen Tierney	45
4 Theoretical underpinnings of separation of powers Cheryl Saunders	66
5 Constitutional dialogue and judicial supremacy Miguel Schor	86
6 Judicial dialogue and fundamental rights in the European Union: a quest for legitimacy Aida Torres Pérez	102
7 Parliamentary bills of rights: have they altered the norms for legislative decision-making? Janet L. Hiebert	123
8 Social rights in comparative constitutional theory Jeff King	144
9 Human dignity and its critics Jacob Weinrib	167
PART II CONSTITUTIONAL INTERPRETATION
10 The counter-majoritarian thesis David Robertson	189
11 Legal pragmatism and comparative constitutional law David Landau	208
12 Beyond the principle of proportionality Victor Ferreres Comella	229
13 Text and textualism: religious establishment in the United States Supreme Court and the European Court of Human Rights Howard Schweber	248
14 Reception, context and identity: a theory of cross-national jurisprudence Heinz Klug	269

PART III CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE

15	“We the people”, “oui, the people” and the collective body: perceptions of constituent power	295
	Yaniv Roznai
16	Amendment theory and constituent power	317
	Mark Tushnet
17	Anchoring and sailing: contrasting imperatives of constitutional revolution	334
	Gary Jacobsohn
18	Theorising about formal constitutional change: the case of Latin America	354
	Joel I. Colón-Ríos
19	Transitional justice, transitional constitutionalism and constitutional culture	372
	Gábor Halmai

PART IV ISSUES IN CONSTITUTIONALISM

20	The unwritten constitution	395
	Janet McLean
21	Militant democracy and constitutional identity	415
	Jan-Werner Müller
22	Some notes on inclusive constitution-making, citizenship and civic constitutionalism	436
	John E. Finn
23	Race and American constitutional exceptionalism	456
	Mark A. Graber
24	Constitutional dissonance in China	476
	Wen-Chen Chang and David S. Law
	Index	515