Thanks to the contributors for their endless patience and courtesy as I delayed and dithered. In Ireland, deadlines, like traffic signposts, are viewed as guidelines only. I am definitely Irish. Thanks to my family. This project coincided with a move to Australia. Teresa, Daniel and Katherine's support throughout was unwavering and humbling but, more importantly, filled with love and fun.

Jack Anderson, Melbourne, 26 October 2017

In addition to thanking my co-editors and the contributors, I would like to acknowledge the support of the EU's Erasmus+ Programme in the production of this Handbook.

Richard Parrish, Ormskirk, 26 October 2017

I would like to thank my co-editors for their initiative and effort to put this volume together and for the temerity of including me on the team of a law handbook.

Borja García, Loughborough, 26 October 2017
