Index

Abercrombie, Patrick 37–8, 40 actor-network theory (ANT) 270–71 actor strategies 3–5, 223–6 agglomeration communities 105–6, 181, 243 emergence of Parisian 59–65 extended urban, in London 21, 33, 37
  German, recognised as European Metropolitan Regions 166–7
  Lyon 246–8, 251–6, 274–5, 280, 282
  Marseille 248–51, 256–60
  and reforms of municipal-scale planning 242–3
Aix-Marseille see Marseille Anderson, William 9 assemblage
  cluster policies supporting creation of 199–200, 208, 215 concept of 198, 266, 283
  as framework for analysis 272–5 in Longbridge 272–3, 275–85 for neighbourhoods in crisis 275–83 territorial, in field of innovation 199–202 theoretical framework 269–72
  in Vaulx-en-Velin 274–85
Ayrault, Jean-Marc 73, 250, 252, 256, 259
Balladur report 106–7, 109, 182
Barcelona
  bike-sharing system 219, 223, 226–9, 236–7
  as both municipality and single province 84 challenges to model 89–91
  city government role in urban regeneration 84 comparative decline 87–8, 93 competition with Madrid 1, 18, 79, 81–93 contract between branding and social reality 90 counter-cultural urbanism 92–3 demographic size 82
  as densely populated city 82, 85
  dissatisfaction with urban planning models 91
  economic performance 87
  governance 88, 90
  immigration
    arrival of mass 82
    concentrated in poorer areas of 85 impact of economic crisis 88 impact of Olympic Games 89–90 increasing alignment with pro-sovereignty forces 86 increasing marginalisation of 89 intense social conflict 82
    internationalisation 88
    as laboratory for new politics 80, 91–2 left-wing government 81 political relations with rest of Catalonia 85–6 population 84, 87
    previous success of 82
    radical urbanism 92
    role during Franco regime 89 rupture in historic status of 79 significant level of economic growth 15 sociological composition 82–3 spatial dynamics 80
    tourism 89–90
    urban model 90–91
    urban revival 89
    urban tradition 80
working classes 84–5
Beard, Charles 7
bike-sharing policy in Brussels actors in construction, at regional metropolitan scale 223–30 Clear Channel Outdoor 223–30 Cyclocity system 222–3, 229 dynamics behind development of two competing systems 220–23 elected politicians 237–8 JCDecaux 219, 222–5, 227–31, 234–5, 238 as leading municipality 219
methodology 220
regulation and contractual arrangements 230–38 role of companies 238–9 suitability for case study 219
VillO project 225–6, 230–32, 235, 238 in Europe 218, 236–7
Birmingham
funding to address urban deprivation 272–3 industrial background 272 and political leadership 16, 281 regeneration case study 267, 273, 275–85 rivalry with Manchester 18
Bret, Jean-Paul 255
Bray, Britain see United Kingdom
Brussels
burgomasters of 222, 231–2, 234–5 characteristics of metropolitan 234–7 Conference of Burgomasters 231, 234–5 distribution maps of markets for street furniture and advertising 224 of political majorities of municipalities 233 of VillO stations over municipalities 231–2 metropolitan regional coalition, search for reliance on private companies for political rescaling 226–30 urban authority organized at municipal scale 223–6 mobility in 220–23
municipal depoliticization and counter-power 234–7 public-private regulatory instruments 230–33 rise of metropolitan area 220–23 STIB 220, 222, 225–7, 230 tripartite contractual arrangement 230–33 use of market to build metropolis 237–9
Burke, Edmund 119–20
Cap Digital 205–7
Catalonia
vs. central government 1 demographic explosion 84
impact of economic crisis 86
institutional collaboration 86 socialism and nationalism 85 Socialist Party 85–6
state spending 88
turn to secession within 79
centralized state transformation, in Italy 136–8 Chevènement law 104, 243, 248
Chirac, Jacques 70–71
Cities and International and Transnational Actors (CITTA) 4 citizens, role of 12, 20, 266, 268, 277–8
città metropolitana
creational objective 5
introduction 140
justification of creation 197
as metropolitan council 25 in Milan 209, 211, 213
city
as administrative object 5–7, 176 as by-product of globalisation 2–3 at centre of actor strategies 4–5 and internationalisation 3–4 as legal category
making métropole legally official 111–12
Index

113 at point of no return

116–18 municipal

118–30 in Rotterdam

118–31 as type of reform

10 decentralisation reforms see MAPTAM; NOTRe; RCT

10 Delanoë, Bertrand 70–71, 74, 202–3, 207

10 District of Parisian Region 58–9, 66–70

10 economic resources

14–15 EPCI (Public Institution of Inter-communal Cooperation)

105, 107–11, 176, 242–4, 247–51, 256–60

10 equalisation schemes 159–61, 168–9, 172

10 Estrosi, Christian 180, 182–8, 191

10 Etablissements Publics Territoriaux (ETPs) 73

10 European Metropolitan Regions 165–7

10 European Science Foundation (ESF) 4

10 European Union (EU)
governance and cities

18–19 Italian urban policies driven by

146–7, 149

10 Madrid as beneficiary of funding

87–8 and overseas migrants 36

10 principles of vertical and horizontal subsidiarity 138

10 role in Germany 170–71

10 urban and regional policy

13 fiscal autonomy

11, 14–15, 23, 45

10 France

10 CCI (Chamber of Commerce and Industry, France) 180–81, 185

10 comparison with United Kingdom 267–8, 280–85
decentralisation in

146 decentralisation in 24, 175–6, 257, 260–61, 267–8

10 fragmentation of the politico-administrative map of 241–2

10 metropolitan reference 175–6

10 modes of territorialising innovation

200

10 policy of clusters in 199–200

257–8, 280–85

276–7

10 metropolitan reference 175–6

10 modes of territorialising innovation

10 policy of clusters in 199–200

267–8

276–7

280–85

10 metropolitan reference 175–6

10 modes of territorialising innovation

10 policy of clusters in 199–200

146

10 role in Germany 170–71

10 urban and regional policy 3

146–7, 149

10 Madrid as beneficiary of funding

87–8 and overseas migrants 36

10 principles of vertical and horizontal subsidiarity 138

10 role in Germany 170–71

10 urban and regional policy

13 fiscal autonomy

11, 14–15, 23, 45

10 France

10 CCI (Chamber of Commerce and Industry, France) 180–81, 185

10 comparison with United Kingdom 267–8, 280–85
decentralisation in

146 decentralisation in 24, 175–6, 257, 260–61, 267–8

10 fragmentation of the politico-administrative map of 241–2

10 metropolitan reference 175–6

10 modes of territorialising innovation

200

10 policy of clusters in 199–200

113 at point of no return

116–18 municipal

118–30 in Rotterdam

118–31 as type of reform

10 decentralisation reforms see MAPTAM; NOTRe; RCT

10 Delanoë, Bertrand 70–71, 74, 202–3, 207

10 District of Parisian Region 58–9, 66–70

10 economic resources

14–15 EPCI (Public Institution of Inter-communal Cooperation)

105, 107–11, 176, 242–4, 247–51, 256–60

10 equalisation schemes 159–61, 168–9, 172

10 Estrosi, Christian 180, 182–8, 191

10 Etablissements Publics Territoriaux (ETPs) 73

10 European Metropolitan Regions 165–7

10 European Science Foundation (ESF) 4

10 European Union (EU)
reforming metropolises in 178–9 strong culture of representative democracy 277–8 see also Lyon; Marseille; métropole; Nice; Paris; Vaulx-en-Velin Franco regime 80–81, 89, 91 functional urban regions (FURs) 37

Germany
cities as objects or subjects of fragmented national urban policies creation of ‘European Metropolitan Regions’ 165–7 local government as part of welfare state in 167–8 role of European Union 170–71 urban policies at sub-national level 168–70 urban regeneration and area-based initiatives 163–5 county-exempt cities 158, 160, 167 federal states
competencies belonging to 156–7 dominant role in urban issues 157, 171 and equalisation schemes 159–61, 168–9, 172 exercising control over cities 158–9 functional reforms of 169–70 initiatives with federal government 163–5 and local government 156, 161–2, 169–70 number of 156
principle of connexity 169
regional offices 157–8
relation to federal and local level 161–2 ‘joint decision trap’ 157, 165 labour market policy 167–8 local government associations as actors in urban policy-making 160–61 constitutional right to self-government 169 enterprises based on initiatives of 166 equalisation schemes between 168–9, 172 and federal states 156, 161–2, 169–70 funding and grants 172 growing importance of EU legislation for 170 and national urban policies 171–2 as part of German welfare state 167–8 within structure of German federalism 157–60

urban policies
cities as objects or subjects of 156, 159, 163–71
federal-level 161
and labour market reform 167–8
lessons drawn from 171–2
local government associations as actors in making 160–61 at sub-national level 156–7, 168–70 globalisation
city as by-product of 2–3 impact on cities 5, 272 Globalization and World Cities Research Network (GaWC) 3
governance
component processes 31–2, 34, 52–3 definition 266
local
in France and Italy 199–202
in Milan 209–14
in Paris 202–9
of urban regeneration projects 268–85 metropolitan challenges 32
initiatives developing, from below 166–7 London experience 32–4, 45–51 politics of 43–51
multi-level
and concept of assemblage 266
definition 265

Alistair Cole and Renaud Payre - 9781784719906
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/20/2019 03:39:16AM via free access devolution in decision-making 279, 284–5 and leadership 266–7, 281–3 relationality in 279–81 and role of local communities 276–8 structures at Longbridge and Vaulx-en-Velin 272–5 of Parisian capital region 56–60 urban attempts made to decentralise 120 characteristic of 265 complexities of, in France 280 decentralisation for understanding developments in 117 effect of citizen participation in urban affairs 126–7 fuzzy boundaries of 12
long-term coalitions as fundamental part of 17 and neighbourhood planning 268 pluralistic approach to 271 previous study findings 116 public life rooted in localist sense of belonging 119 ‘rolling out’ new institutional forms as norm in 269 Rotterdam decentralised institutions in 123
effect of citizen participation in urban affairs 126–7 impact of reform on decentralisation 130 perceived administrative congestion in 128 suitability for studying 121 significance of historicising 130 traditional conceptualisation of 269
urban Greater London Council (GLC) 38, 41–4, 47, 49, 52
Greater Paris Metropolis 11, 72–3, 108–11, 202–4, 206–8, 236
Gulick, Luther 8
Hauts-de-Seine 56, 71, 73, 110, 205
Heathrow Airport dilemma 46
Hidalgo, Anne 15, 18, 202–3, 208
history
birth of metropolitanisation late nineteenth century America 5–6 metropolis
as policy problem 10–12
as transnational cause 8–10 and public services role as lever of integration 6–7
French administrative institutional law 100 Italian
of unitary state 136–8
of urban initiatives 141–3 of legal city 102–6
London (1850–2016) 34–45
of metropolitan cooperation in Lyon and Marseille 245–51 of neighbourhood democracy in Rotterdam 1940–1960 121–4, 129
1960–1973 125–6, 129
1973–2015 126–30
Paris (1959–1976) 66–70
understanding multiple uses of 17
Huchon, Jean-Paul 71, 203
Ile-de-France Region 56, 58, 71–3, 109, 111–12, 203–5, 207–8, 214–15 ‘imagined community’ 17, 50–51 innovation
metropolitan challenges, in Milan 209–14 metropolisation of, in Paris 202–9 Milan and Paris comparison 214–15 territorial assemblages and actor systems in field of 199–202 institutional resources 14, 102, 184

Alistair Cole and Renaud Payre - 9781784719906
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/20/2019 03:39:16AM via free access
Cities as political objects

inter-governmental relations 18–19
internationalisation 3–4
Italian Communist Party 143
Italy
  addressing urban problems national policies, municipal innovations and political ties 141–3
  new policies driven by EU and city governments 146–7
  transformation of urban policies 143–5
changing cities
  limits of urban governmental action 149–51
  policies and problems 148–9 structural changes 147–8
città metropolitana 5, 25, 140, 197
  city governments
  empowering cities, inventing
  metropolis 139–41
  new policies driven by 146–7 transformation of centralized state 136–8 metropolitan reform 1
  modes of territorialising innovation policy 200
  policy of clusters in 199–200 polycentric urban system 135 reforms 137–40, 145–6
  subnational governments 1, 136–8, 140–41
tensions
  between levels of government 151–2
  from weak capacity of government 152
  urban policies
  limitations 149–51
  meaning of 135–6
  new, driven by EU and city
  governments 146–7
  pathways for production of 142–3 similarity to policy making 143
  transformation of 143–5
  URBAN programme 146, 149, 152

see also Milan

JCDeaux 219, 222–5, 227–31, 234–5, 238
Johnson, Boris 15, 44, 46
Khan, Sadiq 46
labour market policy (Germany) 167–8
Labour Party (inc. New Labour) 36, 39, 41, 43–4, 49, 53, 281
law
  of 16 December 2010 see RCT (Réforme des Collectivités Territoriales) battles around words of 113 evaluation of role 101 functioning as archive 102 history of French 100–101 of January 2014 see MAPTAM law in Lyon 241–7, 252–5, 260–61
  in Marseille 241–5, 248–50, 256–61
  and métropole
  bringing into legal existence 106–8 of Greater Paris 108–11
  making legally official 111–12
  in Nice 108, 178, 182–3, 189–90
  reforming 178–9
  role of State 101–2
  subjected to logic of 99 models of urban territorial entities 103–6
  political use of, in cities 102–6 as social construction 99–100 sub-municipal layers of government dismantled in Rotterdam by decree of 128, 130
  and territorialisation 243–4 writing and reading 101–2
Lebranchu, Marylise 72–3, 243, 252–4 Livingstone, Ken 15, 42, 44 localism
  in Italian political system 135
  in London 44–5, 47, 51–2
  in Marseille 256–8, 261
London
  development of metropolitan issue government structures and strategies 39–45
  historical perspective 34–5
political economy eras
Fordist Industrial Capital 35–6
Global City 36, 48, 50
Imperial City 35
spatial expansion and metropolitanisation 37–9 framing case study 31–4
Greater London Authority 41, 44–5, 50, 54
Greater London Council 38, 41–4, 47, 49, 52
Greater London Development Plan 42
Green Belt 33, 37–8, 40, 42, 45, 50, 53 localism in 44–5, 47, 51–2
London County Council 40–41, 47, 52–3 Metropolitan Board of Works 40–41 politics of metropolitan governance continuing structural conflict city vs. outer regions/areas 50–52 class and material interest 47–8 dimensions underlying ‘muddling through’ 46–7 metropolitan vs. localist forms 47, 49 national government vs. city’s political leadership 48–50 social access politics of spatial externalities 45–6 significant level of economic growth 15
as ‘unique city’ 31
way forward
current central issues 51 engagement with market forces 51–2 metropolitan and localism integration 52 overcoming city vs. central state problem 53 overcoming legitimacy problem 52–3
Longbridge, Birmingham
Area Action Plan 273, 276–8, 280, 283 challenges in area 273
devolution in decision-making 279, 284–5
leadership 281–3
process of assemblage 284
profile of area 273
relationality 279–81
role of local communities 276–8, 283
suffering socio-economic malaise 275–6
as under regeneration 273
Lyon
bike-sharing system 219, 223, 227–8, 236 ‘city of law’ applied to 104
as common law metropolitan area 179 construction of ‘Lyon Model’ 246–8 forced to conform to legal category 104 Grand Lyon
as agglomeration 280
also known as Lyon Urban Community 236 as France’s second-largest urban area 274 increased power of 246, 252 neutralisation of internal controversy within 254–6 Participation Charter 277–8 and reinforced consultation 247 institutional provisions of metropolis 251
and Marseille
comparison with 245, 252, 260–61
rivalry with 18
métropole arrangement 107–8, 178 metropolitanisation in as integrated metropolis 245 metropolitan advocacy in 245–8
as new metropolis 241
political agreement and controversy neutralisation 252–6 reasons for inclusion in case study 243–4 role of reformers 244, 260
as special case 243
powers behind ‘Lyon Consensus’ 252–4 regeneration project in constraints on change 285
methodology 272
political leadership 281–4
relationality 280–81
role of local communities 277–8, 283
Vaulx-en-Velin 274–5
significant level of economic growth 15

Madrid
ambition of 84
as benefitting from European integration 87–8 as both municipality and state capital 81 capacity to attract foreign direct investment 87
city government role in urban regeneration 84 competition with Barcelona 1, 18, 79, 81–93 contemporary transformation 83–4 counter-cultural urbanism 92–3 delayed hegemony 81–4
demographic size 82
dissatisfaction with urban planning models 91 dominance 79
economic performance 87
goal of 83, 93
governance 88–9
growth in cultural, political and economic importance 86–7 high rate of urban growth 83 immigration concentrated in poorer areas of 85
impact of economic crisis 88
as ‘imperial’ city 83
internationalisation 88
as laboratory for new politics 80, 91–2 large companies based in 87 left-wing governments 81, 90 new narrative of centrality 86–9
population 86–7
as single region autonomous community 81–2 sociological composition 82–3 spatial dynamics 80, 85
tourism 89
transport and infrastructure 89
urban expansion 91–2
Manchester
political leadership 16, 281
progress in catching up with London in devolution stakes 45 rivalry with Birmingham 18 urban regimes identified in 17 MAPTAM law
creating several metropolitan areas 73 elements presented as legal innovations 243 Greater Paris Metropolis created as part of 110 initial aim of 108
for institutional creation of French metropolises 241
in Lyon 245, 247, 252, 260
in Marseille 252, 256–7, 260
opening new domain of French public law 100 and Paris Métropole 109
Marseille
bike-sharing system 236
‘city of law’ not applied to 104
as common law metropolitan area 179 debate over metropolitan area 184
institutional provisions of metropolis 251
and Lyon comparison with 245, 252, 260–61
rivalry with 18
Marseille-Provence-Métropole 248–9 métropole, customised statutes 104 metropolitanisation in central government interventionism 244, 258–61 as fragmented metropolis 245, 248–50, 252 interministerial task force 258–60 localism against metropolitan integration 256–8 metropolitan advocacy in 248–50
as new metropolis 241
reasons for inclusion in case study 243–4 reform as compromise 260
reservations of local politicians 245
as special case 243
material capacity 15, 18
Merriam, Charles 8–9
métropole
addressing French territorial structure 241 balanced 103, 241–2, 246, 248 brought into public political debate 71 creational justification 197 objective 5
destiny 113
essential step in construction process 104 French law endorsing notion of 22, 100 as French metropolitan council 25 gradual formation 102–3
of Greater Paris 108–11
law bringing into existence 106–8 of Lyon 243, 246–8, 253–6, 274–5
making legally official 111–12
of Marseille 248–51, 256–60 and metropolitan reform 101
in Nice
debates and actors 186–91 electoral cycle 185–6
first official 178, 180
political intermediary 182–5 as only existing by convention 102 reform 178–9
reports advocating recognition of formal status 176 as specific type of legal category 99, 101 as subjected to logic of law 99 metropolis, definition 59 metropolitan advocacy in Lyon and Marseille 245–51
metropolitan reference 175–6, 180–82, 184–6, 189–90 metropolitan space 175–6, 178, 180, 183, 198, 214
metropolitanisation
challenges, in Milan 209–14
concept of 19–20
forms and pathways of 20–21
as at heart of political science 2–5 of territorial reform 1 of innovation policies, in Paris 202–9
in London
government structures and strategies 39–45
historical perspective 34–5
political economy eras 35–6 and spatial expansion 37–9, 45–6
as political object
history 5–12
political capacity 12–19
varieties of, in Lyon and Marseille background of France’s territorial structure 241–3 local influences and national outcomes 252–60 metropolitan advocacy 245–51
suitability for case study 243–4 territorialisation of public policy 243–4, 261 two distinct types 245, 260–61
Milan
change, and public policy 148
città metropolitana 209, 211, 213
dominating urban system 135 influence of business organisations and universities 201, 210–15 Italian Association for Industrial Research (AIRI) 211–12
mayoral role 146
metropolitan challenges in field of innovation 209–14 new metropolitan government 140
Cities as political objects

Paris
- comparison with 214–15
- shared characteristic with 198
- rivalry with Rome 18, 79
- significant level of economic growth 15
- Smart City programme 213
- socio-economic and politico-institutional profile 202
- Modernisation de l’Action Publique Territoriale et d’Affirmation des Métropoles (law) see MAPTAM law
- Moratti, Letizia 202, 211–12
- Morizet, André 62–6
- multi-level dynamics between cities and governments 18–19
- multi-level governance see governance: multi-level
- multi-level system of German federalism see Germany

Naples 140, 149
- neighbourhood
- assembling, in crisis 273–83
- end of political, in Rotterdam 126–30
- inventing political, in Rotterdam 121–4, 129
- as political object 119–21
- politics and community organisation, in Rotterdam 125–6, 129
- networks
- actor-network theory (ANT) 270–71 of cooperation 175
governance 22, 117
and relationality 279–81, 284 territorial 13, 20, 200–201, 204, 207 transportation 33, 60, 62, 181, 225, 228
urban 16–17, 19, 60–61
new public management (NPM)
- consequence of reforms 130
- new logics of 128
- principles 138
- Nice
- DATAR 181, 199
- developmentalist approach 180
electoral challenge 185–9
- Front de Gauche (FDG) 186–7, 191 governed by RCT law 107–8
- institutional opportunity 179–85
- metropolitan reference 180–82, 184–6, 189–90
in socio-political context 177–8
- territorial reform 178–80, 182, 185 toward citizen discussion 185–9 toward construction of metropolitan political laboratory
- impetus for 180–82
- political homogeneity in 1990s 179–80
- political intermediary 182–5
- transport issue 180–81
- NOTRe (Nouvelle Organisation Territoriale de la République) 110, 112, 257–8, 260

Paris
- bike-sharing system 236
- bringing public issues onto agenda 59–60, 62–3, 66, 73–4
- Cap Digital 205–7
- ‘city of law’ not applied to 104
- commonalities between political spectrums 74–5
- complex governance of 56–60
- District of Parisian Region 58–9, 66–70
- Fifth Republic 58, 66
- Grand Paris 203–4, 207, 236
- innovation policies
- metropolisation of 202–9
- public authorities at forefront of 201
- and Milan
- comparison with 214–15
- shared characteristic with 198
- Musée Social 63
- new administrative divisions 74–5
- planning 63–5
- pôles de compétitivité 199–200, 205, 214–15
socio-economic and politico-institutional profile 202 special case 108, 112
State
capacity 58–9, 73–4
central, vs. local governance 202–9 emergence of agglomération as issue of 60–65 intervention 57–8, 63, 65, 71, 74–5, 101–3 reform vs. elected officials 70–73 regional scale of modernizing 66–70 representatives 56–8 territorial predominance of 242, 246 urban question differing from Italy 135
Paris Métropole 71, 109
Partit del Socialistes de Catalunya (PSC) 85–6
Petite Couronne 56, 109–10 Pisapia, Giuliano 202, 212–13 planning, definition 63 Poincaré, Raymond 64–5 policy streams 59, 62, 66
political capacity
city visions and narratives 17–18
economic resources 14–15
institutional resources 14 intergovernmental relations and multi-level dynamics 18–19 of local authorities 16 and markets 236–7
as mixed-methods framework for comparing cities 12–13
political leadership 15–16
urban regimes and assemblages 16–17 political economy
eras of London 35–6
perspective 177
political leadership
in Birmingham and Lyon 281–4 in classic comparison of French and English cities 14 as indicator of metropolitan political capacity 13, 15–16
in London 48–50, 281
in Paris 74–5
politics of metropolitan governance (London) 45–51 Port Authority of New York and New Jersey (PANYNJ) 6–7
principle of connexity 169
Prost, Henri 64
public services
and Italian Communist Party 143 role as levers of integration 6–7 RCT (Réforme des Collectivités Territoriales) 1, 100, 107–8, 176, 178, 241, 260 relationality, in Birmingham and Lyon 279–81 Robson, William 7–8
Rome
big event in 144–5
bike-sharing system 236
dominating urban system 135
government of 140
mayoral role 146
rivalry with Milan 18, 79
Rotterdam
decentralisation study 1940–1960: inventing political neighbourhood 121–4, 129 1973–2015: end of political neighbourhood 126–30 current situation 130
dual trajectory 129
impact of urban governance reform 130 neighbourhood as political object 119–21 suitability for 118
urban governance 116–17, 119–21, 123, 127–8, 130
Sarkozy, Nicolas 21, 56, 71–2, 106, 203
Sautter, Christian 204–5
Seine-Saint-Denis 56, 69, 110, 205, 208
Sellier, Henri 10, 62, 65
Siegfried, Jules 63–4
social access politics 45–6
Spain
   15M movement 91–2
   counter-cultural urbanism 92–3 insurgent party, Podemos 80, 86 urban construction boom 91–2
   see also Barcelona; Catalonia;
   Madrid
spatial expansion (London) 33, 37–9, 45–6 STIB (Société des Transports Intercommunaux de Bruxelles)
   220, 222, 225–7, 230
* Syndicat des Transports d’Île-de-France (STIF) 58 Tajani, Cristina 213–14 territorial millefeuille 241
Thatcher, Margaret 36, 42–4, 49
Tokyo 7
transnational cause, city as 8–10
Turin 17, 140, 144, 146, 149
UK Independence Party (UKIP) 49 UMP (Union pour un Mouvement Populaire) 71, 182, 188, 190, 257
United Kingdom
   city-regions, creational objective 5 comparison with France 267–8, 280–85 ‘northern powerhouse’ 1 urban question in 135
   see also London; Longbridge, Birmingham; Manchester
urban fragmentation 10
urban governance see governance:
   urban urban planning
   in Italy 144–5
   in Madrid 83, 91
   in Marseille 250
   and notion of collaborative planning 269
   in Paris 60, 63, 65–6, 73
   in Rotterdam 119–20
urban policies
   in Germany
   cities as objects or subjects of 156, 159, 163–71
   federal-level 161
   and labour market reform 167–8
   lessons drawn from 171–2 local government associations as actors in making 160–61 at sub-national level 156–7, 168–70
in Italy
   limitations 149–51
   meaning of 135–6
   new, driven by EU and city
   governments 146–7
   pathways for production of 142–3
   similarity to policy making 143
   transformation of 143–5
URBAN programme 146, 149, 152, 163
urban regeneration
   and area-based initiatives, in Germany 163–5, 171
   definition 266
   governments in Madrid and Barcelona 84
UK/French case study assembling neighbourhoods in crisis
   leadership 281–3
   relationality 279–81
   role of local communities 276–8 socio-economic malaise 275–6 comparative framework
   Longbridge, Birmingham 272–3
   Vaulx-en-Velin, Greater Lyon 274–6
   definitions and concepts 265–7 study conclusions 283–5
   theoretical framework 269–72
   UK/France comparison 267–8, 280–85
urban regimes
   early development 16
   identification in European cities 17 and political capacity 16–17 types of 17
   urban territorial entities, legal models of 103–6
Index

Val-de-Marne 56, 69, 71, 205, 208
Vaulx-en-Velin, Greater Lyon
constraints on change 285
GPV project 275, 277–8, 280–84
leadership 281–4
multi-layered structure 274
as Priority Zone for Urban Expansion (ZUP) 274–5

profile of area 274
relationality 279–81
role of local communities 276–8, 283
suffering socio-economic malaise 275–6, 284
unrest within 274–5, 284
Voynet law 104