

Index

- 2008 financial crisis
  - distress and growth through and after 114–20
  - robustness and resilience of US metropolitan areas 113–14
- Abel, J. 79
- academic disciplinary silos 4
- Acts of Parliament 11
- AI see artificial intelligence (AI)
- Airbnb 178
- air pollution 179–80
- Amin, A. 162
- analysis of variance 111
- archipelago economy 108
- area-based policies 154–5
- Arribas-Bel, D. 143
- artificial intelligence (AI) 176–8
- Autor, D. 80

- Bair, J. 102
- bank failure rate 108, 112, 114, 116
- Barca, F. 170
- Barrientos, S. 96
- Barro, R. 77
- Batty, M. 144, 145
- Baum, S. 53, 54
- Beer, A. 53
- Bernhardt, T. 96
- Big Data 177
- Birmingham approach to city-region regeneration economies 165–9
- Bolam, A. 53
- Bolwig, S. 96
- Boschma, R.A. 4, 5, 129
- Brexit-related policy 157
- Brouwer, A.E. 15
- bullwhip effect 35
- Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) 111
- Busemeyer, M. 82–3
- business cycles
  - regional see regional business cycles
- buyer-driven commodity chains 91–2

- Caliński-Harabasz pseudo-F index 111
- Capello, R. 118
- capital assets 129
- 'Capture the Gain' project 96
- Cartwright, N. 158
- Castells, M. 144
- Chen, S. 78
- Chicago, trade 25–6
- Chung, S. 36
- city-region regeneration economies
  - air pollution 179–80
  - artificial intelligence 176–8
  - Birmingham approach to 164–9
  - gig economy 178
  - intra-geography of 162
  - policy development 169, 171
  - private sector and 166
  - research agenda 174–81
  - research, systemic/integrated approach 15–16
  - retailing 163–4
  - spatial blindness 169–71
- city-regions
  - change 8–13
  - cutting-edge research 4
  - decision-making of firms 13–15
  - deconstructing 5–7
  - definition 3, 5–6
  - dynamics 8–13
  - globalization 1–2
  - heterogeneity 1
  - migrations 6–7
  - as regeneration economies 7
  - research 1
    - medical sciences 2
    - physical and engineering sciences 2
    - social sciences 2–3, 13
  - resilience and performance of economy 14
  - timeless processes 8–13
  - transformation 8–13
- cluster analysis, US metropolitan statistical areas 108, 111, 114–15, 122
- Cobden Treaty 11

- Coe, N.M. 91, 97, 100, 102
 commodity chains industrial organizations in 91 producer-driven and buyer-driven 91 reframing 92n3
 commodity trade, in Midwest states 27
 Corden, W.M. 63
 cost-capability ratio 97, 99, 101
 Coulombe, S. 77–8
 cross-correlation coefficients 32
 ‘cumulative programmes’ of knowledge 158
 cutting-edge research 4
- Daly, M. 48
 Deaton, A. 158
 decision-making process 13–15
 Deichmann, U. 170
 demographic shifts, economic restructuring and 48–50
 Dependency Theory 91
 Diaspora networks 7
 digital manufacturing 178
 Dijkstra, L. 118
 distinctiveness 166
 division of labour 8–9
 Dresser, M. 6
 dyad group 10
- e-commerce 179
 economic growth, in US metropolitan areas 109–11
 economic performance
   New South Wales 58–9
   regional 54–6
   Sydney 58–9
 economic reforms see economic restructuring, Australia
 economic restructuring, Australia 47 from 1980s to new millennium 48–57
   and demographic shifts 48–50
   endogenous regional employment performance 62–3 generalisations 56–7
   metro-city performance 59–60
   non-metro regions 61–2
   opportunity 53–4
   regional cold spots 52
   regional economic performance 54–6
   regional hot spots 52
   regionalised labour markets 61
   resources boom 65–7
   settlement system 52–3
   shifting of non-metro regions and towns 52–3
   sun-belt migration 50–52
   Sydney’s and New South Wales’ reversal 58–9
   two speed economy 63–7
   vulnerability 53–4
 economic upgrade, in GPNs 95–6 emerging technologies 134 and industries 128–30 employment in US change and recovery 27
   descriptive statistics 114 and GDP 113
   and GMP ratios 114–16, 119 growth rate 26
   pre-crisis levels 110
   uneven distribution 120–21
 Employment Vulnerability Index 63 endogenous employment performance of FERs 62–3
   metro-city performance 59
   pattern of scores 55–6
   spatial differentiation 47 energy exchange 179
 Enterprise Zones 166 environmental upgrade, in GPNs 96–7 error variance decomposition, from exogenous shock 37 ethical trade 96
 evaluation thinking 159
 evidence-based policymaking 149–51, 157
 evolutionary economic geography 4, 127 explanatory variable 101
- FDI see foreign direct investment (FDI)
 Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) 112
 feedback effects 135
 FERs see functional economic regions (FERs)
 Finance, Insurance and Real Estate (FIRE) 32, 111, 113, 115, 116, 118 financial GPNs 102–3
 financialization 3, 16, 101, 110
 Finnegan, R. 162, 163
 FIRE see Finance, Insurance and Real Estate (FIRE) firm-based policies 154 firm-level data 13
 Flanagan, M. 61, 62
 Fleming, P. 6
 Florence, P.S. 14
 Florida, R. 79, 111
 foreign direct investment (FDI) 98, 102, 163, 166

- fragmentation
  - of production 33
  - spatial and functional form 36
- Friedman, T.L. 110
- Frontiers of Commodity Chain Research* (Bair) 102
- functional economic regions (FERs)
  - endogenous regional employment performance of 62–3
  - negative performance 62
  - positive performance 62
  - regionalised labour markets 61
- Gabe, T.M. 79, 111
- GBSLEP see Greater Birmingham and Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership (GBSLEP)
- GCC see global commodity chain (GCC)
- GDP see gross domestic product (GDP)
- geographic organization of production 10, 11, 14
- Gereffi, G. 91, 92, 96, 98
- GFC see global financial crisis (GFC)
- GFN see global financial network (GFN)
- gig economy 178
- Glaeser, E. 75
- global city-regions 6, 15
- global commodity chain (GCC) 90–91
  - global production networks vs. 91–5
- global financial crisis (GFC) 47, 63–7
- global financial network (GFN) 102
- global production networks (GPNs) 3, 9, 90–91
  - conceptual advance in 95–9
  - economic upgrade in 95–6
  - environmental upgrade 96–7
  - financial 102–3
  - GPN 1.0 91–5, 100
  - GPN 2.0 91, 97–102
  - operation 99–102
  - social upgrade 95–7
  - vs.* global commodity chain/global value chains 91–5
- global value chains (GVCs) 3, 9, 90–91
  - application 92
  - global production networks vs. 91–5
- GPNs see global production networks (GPNs)
- Grabher, G. 81
- Graham, S. 143–4
- Granger-causality test 29, 30
- 'great growth illusion' 111
- Great Recession 23, 128
- Greater Birmingham and Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership (GBSLEP) 164, 167–8
- green economy 166
- gross domestic product (GDP) 76–9, 131, 132
  - Australia 66
  - employment in USA and 113
  - growth 118
- gross metropolitan product (GMP) 108, 114
  - employment and 114–16, 119
- gross regional product 43
- GSP 33
  - industry production ratio 32
- GVCs see global value chains (GVCs)
- Hägerstrand's time-space framework 177
- Hallsworth, M. 150
- HAMP see Home Affordable Modification Plan (HAMP)
- Hanushek, E. 76–7, 78
- Harvey, D. 8, 9
- Hassink, R. 81
- Hawke-Keating Labor governments 47, 48
- Henderson, J. 90–91
- Hewings, G.J.D. 28, 36, 170, 179
- Hill, E. 81
- Hodrick-Prescott filtering method 29
- Holling, C.S. 109
- Home Affordable Modification Plan (HAMP) 112, 119–20, 122
- housing policy 4
- human capital 55
  - trade in 38–41
- idiosyncratic behaviour 13–15
- Illinois
  - business cycle 32
  - economic performance 27
  - spillover effects 36–8
  - trade 25–8
- immigration
  - gross regional product 43
  - per capita gross regional product 44 and regional economy 41–4
  - wages 43
- inclusive prosperity 166, 171
- income flows
  - migration and 38–41
- infrastructure
  - hard 163, 175, 176, 180
  - soft 12, 170
- infrastructure investments 68
- innovation policy 128–9
- institutional approach, in skill studies 86
- intensity of city 6
- inter-firm production network 90

- inter-industry flow 33
- International Adult Literacy Survey (IALS) 78
- Internet of Things (IoT) 177
- interregional trade 34, 35
- intra-firm coordination 98
- intra-firm production network 90
- intra-industry flow 33
- intraregional trade 34, 35
- irrational exuberance 110
- irrationality 13–15
- Isard, W. 5

- Jacobs-Crisioni, C. 143
- Jacobson, L. 81
- job losses, Midwest states 36

- labour-intensive manufacturing industries
  - 93–4
- labour markets, regionalised 61
- Lenihan, A. 150
- liberal-conservative approaches 83, 85–6
- Lindblom, C. 150
- linkage process 10
- linked enterprise structures 10–11
- linked process 10
- Lister, J. 96
- Lloyd, G.I.H. 3
- Local and regional economic development (LRED) policies 130
- local economic growth
  - evidence-based policymaking 150–51
  - linking research and policy 157–60
  - political economy factors 159
  - randomised control trials 151, 158–9
  - What Works Centres in 149, 152–3, 159
    - area-based policies 154–5
    - firm-based policies 154
    - people-based policies 153–4
- local economic policy 165
  - see also* local economic growth
- Local Government Areas (LGAs), NSW 55
- locational decision-making 13–14
- locomotive hypothesis 29
- Luoh, M. 78

- M&As see mergers and acquisitions (M&As)
- managed brokerage approach 154
- Markusen, A. 112
- Martin, R. 4, 5, 109, 110, 113, 180
- Marvin, S. 143–4
- Massey, D. 6, 127, 144
- Maude, A. 53

- medical sciences 2
- mergers and acquisitions (M&As) 14–15, 98
- metro-city performance 59–60
  - endogenous regional employment 59–60
  - negative effect 59–60
  - positive effects 60
- metropolitan statistical areas (MSAs), United States
  - best- and worst-performing 115–16
  - characteristics of 116
  - cluster analysis 108, 111, 114–15, 122
  - descriptive statistics of clusters 114, 117
  - distress and growth, financial crisis 114–20
  - employment 113
  - financial integrity of 112
  - GDP 113
  - growth, recession, and resilience in 109–11
  - meso-level venue 107–8
  - methodology and data 111–12
  - post-crisis growth 121
  - resilience 109–10
  - robustness and resilience 113–14
  - spatial econometrics 122–3
  - uneven distribution of employment growth 120–21
- Michael Porter's model of 'industry clusters' 131
- Midwest economies
  - exports to NAFTA 28
  - trade 25–8
  - job losses, spatial effects 36
- migration 6–7, 25
  - and income flows 38–41
- Milberg, W. 96
- mining industry 65
- mining sector growth 64
- MIT SENSEable City Lab 143
- Mitchell, W.F. 61, 62
- mobile phone operators
  - geographical studies 141–2
  - openness 141
  - urban research 142–3
  - urban theory and planning 143–5
- Moretti, E. 75
- mortgage modification rate 112, 114, 119–20
- MSAs see metropolitan statistical areas (MSAs)
- multi-dimensional approach 4
- multi-disciplinary approach 4
- multi-disciplinary research 171
- Murphy, P. 51
- Murray-Darling basin regions 62

- National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER) 113
- national business cycle (CXCI) 32
- National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) 151
- negative effect 59–60, 62
- negative shocks, role of 80–82
- network effects 80–82
- networking 10
- New South Wales (NSW)
- endogenous regional employment performance 62
  - regional economic performance 58–9
  - sun-belt migration 50–51
- Nijkamp, P. 143
- non-farm employment growth rates 26
- non-metro cities
- growth and decline 61–2
  - regional growth rates 56
  - settlement system 52–3
- non-mining sector 64
- O'Connor, K. 48–52, 67
- Occupational Information Network (O*Net), U.S. Department of Labor 79
- occupational perspectives, skills and growth 79–80
- OLS regression 118, 119
- 'one-size-fits-all' approach 68, 69
- opportunity 53–4
- Oracle 141
- 'ordinary citites' 2, 15
- original design manufacturers (ODMs) 94
- original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) 94
- Park, Y. 28, 36
- pastoralism 64
- path dependency 4, 9, 14
- Pendall, R. 110
- people-based approach 57, 169
- people-based policies 153–4
- per capita gross regional product 44
- person-centric approach 177, 178
- Petty, W. 9
- Piketty, T. 176
- place-based identity 7, 8
- place-based interventions 57
- place based marketing 166, 169
- Plato 8
- plucking model, business cycle 110
- policy-makers 23
- in city-region economies 169
  - polycymaking 150
    - evidence 149–51, 157
  - policy-relevant research 175
  - political economy factors 159
  - Ponte, S. 92n4
  - post-crisis growth 108–9, 118, 120, 121
  - post-modern urban theory 144
  - Poulsen, R.T. 96
  - private sector 166
  - privatization 128
  - pro-business development strategies 23
  - process innovation 134
  - producer-driven commodity chains 91
  - product innovation 134
  - production
    - changing organization of 34
    - fragmentation of 33
    - volatility 35
  - pro-economy strategies 23
  - pseudo-F-statistic 111
  - quasi-experimental techniques 159
  - randomised control trials (RCTs) 151, 158–9
  - RAS see robotics and autonomous systems (RAS)
  - rational decision-making 13–15
  - RCTs see randomised control trials (RCTs)
  - recession 134
    - in US metropolitan areas 109–11
  - regeneration economies 13–15
    - characteristics 7
    - city-region see city-region regeneration economies
    - co-location 135
    - decision-making process 13–14
    - definition of 6
    - emerging technologies and evolving industries 128–30
    - 'essence' of region 5–6
    - high-tech 131, 132
    - indexed per capita GDP 132
    - innovation policy and 128–9
    - regional development policy in practice 130–33
    - regional policy and 133–6
  - regional business cycles
    - cyclical parts of 31
    - fragmentation of production 33
    - Granger-causality test 29, 30
    - industry production ratio to GSP 32
    - interregional and intraregional flows 34, 35
    - Midwestern states 28–9

- sales and production volatility 35
- spillover effects 28, 36–8
- regional development policy 130–33
- regional distinctiveness index (RDI) 112, 118
- regional economic performance 54–6
- regional economies
  - ageing on 41–2
  - applications 25–8
  - diagnosis 24–5
  - growth and development strategies for 23–4
  - growth rate of employment in the US 26
  - 'hollowing out' of 35–6
  - immigration and 41–4
  - network of integration 24
  - non-farm employment growth rates 26
  - regeneration of see regeneration economies
  - regional business cycles 28–38
  - trade
    - in human capital 38–41
    - role of 25–8
- regional employment performance 59
- regional policy 126–7
  - development in practice 130–33
  - and regeneration economies 133–6
- research evidence, in real-world policy 157–60
- resilience 9, 14
  - in US metropolitan areas 109–11
  - 2008 crisis 113–14
- resources boom 65–7
- Resseger, M. 75
- retailing 163–4
- Riisgaard, L. 96
- ROAMEF cycle 159
- Robinson, J. 15
- robotics and autonomous systems (RAS) 176–8
- Robson, A. 55, 58, 60
- robustness, in US metropolitan areas to 2008
  - crisis 113–14
- Romero, I. 35
- Safford, S. 82
- sales volatility 35
- savings and loans (S&L) crisis 110
- Schrock, G. 112
- science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) skills 84
- Scientific Maryland Scale 158
- Scott, A. 6, 15
- selective ontology 100
- serendipity 13–15
- service sectors 32, 102–3
- settlement system 52–3
- shift share analysis 55, 59
- short-term self-employment 178
- Shuaib, F. 52
- Shyy, T-K. 55
- skill-biased technology 80
- skill production systems 82–4
- skill shortage see skills gap
- skills
  - economic perspectives 73–6
  - effort to measure skills 76–9
  - history 80–82
  - institutional approach 86
  - metro-level occupational data 80
  - negative shocks 80–82
  - network effects 80–82
  - occupational perspectives 79–80
  - production systems 82–4
  - skills gap 84
- skills gap 84
- skills policy
  - in divergent world 75–6
  - economic perspectives on 73–6
  - and growth through imitation 74
  - microeconomic evidence 72
  - precisely measured skills 76–9
- smart manufacturing 133–4
- smart specialization 75
- Smith A. 8, 9
- social sciences 2–3, 13
- social upgrade, in GPNs 95–7
- Socrates 8
- Soja, E. 144
- Solesbury, W. 151
- Solow-type growth models 74, 75
- spatial blindness 169–71
  - and city-region regeneration economies 169–71
  - World Development Report in 169–71
- spatial differentials
  - from 1980s to new millennium 48–57
  - regional economic performance in 54–6
  - see also* economic restructuring, Australia
- spatial division of labour 10
- spatial econometrics 122–3
- spatial error model 63
- specialisation 61
- spillover effects 28, 36–8
- 'sponge city' effect 53
- 'Spreading the Gains from Globalisation' project
  - 95
- Stimson, R.J. 48, 52, 54–6, 62
- Stough, R.R. 55

- strategic coupling 94–5, 98–9
 Sturgeon, T. 92
 subprime mortgage rate 112 sun-belt migration phenomenon 50–52
 Sunley, P. 100
 swarming behaviours 145
 Sydney
   information technology 59 market share 50
   regional economic performance 58–9
   sun-belt migration 50–51
 systematic mispricing 110
- technological adaptation 129
 technological innovation 176
 Telecom Italia 141
 temporary 163, 178
 temporary urbanism 163
 Thrift, N. 162
 timeless processes 8–13
 Tobler, W. 12
 trade
   decomposition 28
   in human capital 38–41
   role of 25–8
   see also regional business cycles
 Tranos, E. 143 transaction cost economics 91 transnational corporations (TNCs) 90, 94 transportation de-regulation 33
 Tremblay, J. 77–8
 Turok, I. 109
 two speed economy 47, 63–7
- UNCTAD Investment and Enterprise Division 90
 unemployment rates
   Australia 65
   New South Wales 51
- ‘urban debtscape’ 110
 urban regeneration 174
 urban research, data from mobile phone operators in 142–3
 urban theory and planning, mobile phone data 143–5
 US Empowerment Zones 155
- value chain governance 92
 Vanderkamp, J. 25
 vulnerability 53–4
- Walks, A. 110
 Ward’s method 111
Wealth of Nations, The (Smith) 8
 What Works Centre for Local Economic Growth
   (WWCLEG) 149, 159 approach 151–2
   evidence-based policymaking 150–51
   implications 155–6
   linking research and policy 157–60
   in local economic growth 152–6
 Woessmann, L. 76–7
 Woodward, D. 5
 World Development Report (WDR), spatially blind policies in 169–71
 World System Theory 91, 92
 WWCLEG see What Works Centre for Local Economic Growth (WWCLEG)
- Yeung, H.W.-c. 91, 97, 100

