

Tables

---

1.1	Home ownership and related housing market characteristics across the EU around 2015 (%)	10
3.1	Distribution of housing stock by category of owner, c. 2010 (%)	65
3.2	Comparative overview of the housing regimes of Finland, Norway and Sweden	66
3.3	The path-dependent development of the Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish housing regimes	78
5.1	Public social spending in the OECD, change 1995–2007	120
6.1	Estimates of negative equity 2010/11, Northern Ireland and the UK	143
7.1	Covariates for the analyses of the real-estate market in Germany	169
7.2	Chance of home ownership by period	171
7.3	Chance of home ownership by population (1990–2012)	173
7.4	Value of housing (mean, median and Gini) by population (2002, 2007 and 2012)	175
7.5	Value of the owner-occupied property, 2002, 2007 and 2012 (linear regression)	176
7.6	Transition to home ownership	180
7.7	Transition to home ownership, by cohort	181
8.1	Indicators of population ageing and expenditure for long-term care by sources of funding	199
8.2	Opinions and evaluation of old-age care with regard to its level, availability, responsibility for and sources of funding, 2007	200
8.3	Housing of the population 50+ according to selected indicators	204
9.1	Ownership rates (%) by socioeconomic characteristics, 2013	227
9.2	How acquired current residence (as of 2013)	229
9.3	Mechanisms of property rights transitions	230
10.1	Historic housing provision by source of finance (000s)	242
10.2	Average affordability in a typical Communist estate in the city of Pitesti	251