Tables

1.1 Home ownership and related housing market characteristics across the EU around 2015 (%)
3.1 Distribution of housing stock by category of owner, c.2010 (%)
3.2 Comparative overview of the housing regimes of Finland, Norway and Sweden
3.3 The path-dependent development of the Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish housing regimes
5.1 Public social spending in the OECD, change 1995–2007
6.1 Estimates of negative equity 2010/11, Northern Ireland and the UK
7.1 Covariates for the analyses of the real-estate market in Germany
7.2 Chance of home ownership by period
7.3 Chance of home ownership by population (1990–2012)
7.4 Value of housing (mean, median and Gini) by population (2002, 2007 and 2012)
7.5 Value of the owner-occupied property, 2002, 2007 and 2012 (linear regression)
7.6 Transition to home ownership
7.7 Transition to home ownership, by cohort
8.1 Indicators of population ageing and expenditure for long-term care by sources of funding
8.2 Opinions and evaluation of old-age care with regard to its level, availability, responsibility for and sources of funding, 2007
8.3 Housing of the population 50+ according to selected indicators
9.1 Ownership rates (%) by socioeconomic characteristics, 2013
9.2 How acquired current residence (as of 2013)
9.3 Mechanisms of property rights transitions
10.1 Historic housing provision by source of finance (000s)
10.2 Average affordability in a typical Communist estate in the city of Pitesti