
Figures

1.1	Articles on gentrification 1979–2016	3
3.1	The famous ‘double-slit’ setup	30
6.1	Retail and office development in the Meat Packing District, New York City	85
6.2	Postmodern buildings along the High Line, New York City	92
6.3	Postmodern landscape along the High Line, New York City	93
14.1	Visual intervention at Favela Santa Marta’s main square (Praça Cantão) and tourists, 2015	228
14.2	Demolition ‘for public good’, Chicala, Luanda, 2015	233
14.3	Contestation against gentrification at the peak of the Santa Marta favela in Rio de Janeiro, 2015	240
14.4	Displacement map of Rio de Janeiro	242
16.1 and 16.2	Chennai is witnessing mega peri-urban public and private property developments like these social housing and luxury towers, along the same main road	271
16.3	Residents fighting the demolition of Las Gladiolas housing towers (San Juan, Puerto Rico) come together with other island-wide communities threatened by displacement	272
16.4	Residents of Villa Autódromo (Rio de Janeiro) unite with academics, activists and human rights lawyers to discuss relocation threats due to Olympic Stadium construction	274
18.1	Electric Avenue, Brixton	275
18.2	Boutiquing Brixton: fromage and champagne	295
19.1	‘Downtown is looking up’	300
19.2	Map of Silver Lake	311
19.3	Silver Lake is strongly characterized by its hills and central urban location	314
19.4	Site of historic Le Barcito/Black Cat Bar before it became a gastropub in 2012	315
19.5	Gentrification maturing in Silver Lake	322
19.6	Evidence of a less gentle gentrification in Silver Lake, 2013	324
21.1	Cereal Killer Café, Brick Lane, London, target of anti-gentrification activists	326
22.1	Area-level Rural-Urban Classification (RUC) (2011) showing most remote rural areas	349
22.2	Remote rural areas based on levels of out-commuting flows and relative population density (2011)	373
22.3a	Areas of wilderness in England and Wales (2011)	375
		377

22.3b	Areas of wilderness by rural output areas in England and Wales (2011)	378
22.4	Designated National Park areas in England and Wales	378
22.5	Rural gentrification in wilderness areas using cheese typology	379
22.6	Cumbria/Yorkshire Dales and rural gentrification using the cheese typology	381
24.1	Milky Way Garden, Parkdale, Toronto	419
27.1	Efficacy beliefs	472