

Contents

List of contributors	vi
1 Empirical legal research: charting the terrain Willem H. van Boom, Pieter Desmet and Peter Mascini	1
2 Conducting experiments and surveys in the field of administrative justice: on the importance of fair procedures in governance Hilke A.M. Grootelaar and Kees van den Bos	23
3 Experimental criminal law: a survey of contributions from law, economics, and criminology Christoph Engel	57
4 Experimental approaches to private law: the case of redressing personal injury Christopher P. Reinders Folmer	109
5 Factorial survey research in the study of environmental regulatory processes Melissa Rorie, Sally S. Simpson and Breanna Boppre	137
6 Case studies in administrative law: the example of self-reporting rules in the regulation of business activities Julien Etienne	174
7 Cases under construction Irene van Oorschot and Peter Mascini	194
8 A traditional lawyer's perspective on the importance of ELS for legal scholarship Jan H. Crijns, Ivo Giesen and Wim Voermans	227
Index	263