

Figures

I.1	Number of top family businesses by rank of sales in 2010 (US$ million)	10
I.2	Average longevity of the largest Latin American and Spanish family businesses in 2010 (by year of founding)	11
I.3	Historical periods of creation of the largest Latin American and Spanish family businesses by year of foundation, 2010	11
I.4	Largest family businesses in Latin America and Spain: sectorial specialization in 2010 (sales over US$10 billion)	13
I.5	Specialization of the largest family businesses and groups of Latin America and Spain, 2010 (percentage total sales of the sample)	14
I.6	Sales versus assets in the largest businesses and groups of Latin America and Spain, 2010 (US$ billion)	15
1.1	Emerging multinationals by country of origin in Fortune Global 500 (2013)	24
1.2	Fortune Global 500 (2013) ranking of countries with greatest number of companies compared with Brazil and Mexico	26
1.3	2005–12 yearly evolution of number of companies in Fortune Global 500: China, South Korea, India, Brazil and Mexico	26
1.4	Percentage of concentration of sales of the ten largest companies with respect to the 100 largest in Latin America and the world	27
4.1	Map of north of Mexico	80
12.1	Map of entrepreneurial families and groups in Chile, 1960–2012	268