

Acknowledgements

This book was produced as a collective effort under the auspices of the Asian Population Association [APA] Scientific Committee on Fertility Preferences. We are grateful to the support of the APA and, in particular, members of the National Organizing Committee of the Third APA Conference in Kuala Lumpur (especially Tey Nai Peng).

We are grateful to Edward Elgar Publishing as well as all of the contributors for their patience and forbearance throughout this project.

Finally, we would like to thank Priyanka Raj, who provided an invaluable service as a project assistant.
