

Index

- acculturation 10, 16, 19–27, 137
adaptive syllabus 92–4
affordable loss principle 18
Alvesson, M. 4, 33
Anderson, A.R. 46
apprenticeship 25–6 Ashforth, B.E. 4
assimilation 10
associational distancing/
 embrace 145–6, 147
attitudes, positive 113
- Bakhtin, M.M. 68
Bandura, A. 113, 121
Barney, J.W. 150
Barthes, R. 65
‘battle scars’ and ‘life lessons’ 23, 147
Beaumont, R. 63
becoming entrepreneurial/fostering entrepreneurial identity and habits 5, 103–120
 antecedents to faculty success 118 becoming entrepreneurial 106–115
 definition of becoming 105–6
 definition of entrepreneurial 104–5
 definition of practice 105
 drive 110, 111, 114–15, 119
 educating for practice 108–110
 educational background 103 educational methods 115–18 emotional intelligence 110–13, 114, 115, 117, 119
- entrepreneurial learning 106–8
entrepreneurial practice and personal requirements 110–15
 mobile technologies and emotion
 measurement 107
 self-efficacy 110–11, 113–14, 115, 117, 119, 121
 storytelling 113
beliefs and knowledge structures 121 beliefs, values, norms, motives and practices 51, 107, 110, 114–15, 119, 129, 138, 140–41
believe it is virtuous to rebound
 personally and professionally
 from failure (virtue) 137–8, 141, 143
Bennis, W.G. 73
Benschop, Y. 36
‘big D’ Discourse 33
Big Fish Presentations 96
Blank, S. ix, 113
‘boot camps’ (60- to 90-day) 23
‘branded’ entrepreneurial identity
 60
Branson, R. 36
 see also cartoon, caricature
 and parody – visualizing
 Bill Gates and Richard Branson as comic book heroes
Builderific Game 91–2, 93
Busenitz, L.W. 150
business accelerators 19, 23, 24
business incubators 19, 23, 24, 92, 127
business plans 133

- capability, perceived 115
 cartoon, caricature and parody – visualizing Bill Gates and Richard Branson as comic book heroes 58–80
 actions and tactics 61, 78
 animated puppet drawing 70 ‘animus’ 60
 ante-predicative narrative 59
 anti-narrative 80
 ‘branded’ entrepreneurial identity
 60
 Branson as Geezer 60, 66, 67–9, 73–5, 76–7, 79
 caricatures 63, 64, 68, 69, 73
 cartoon caricatures 68 cartoons, role of 63–5
 character 73
 comedy 61–2, 65
 counter-narrative 80
 cultural factors 62, 65, 74
 discussing and re-visualizing entrepreneurial identity
 72–7
 double-voiced discourse 68–9 ‘feel good’ factor 69
 fictional gaze 60
 fun, importance of 64
 Gates as Geek 60, 66, 69–72, 75–7, 79
 generic/idiomatic functions of cartoons 66
 haloed/hagiographic presentation 69, 77
 heroism, humbleness and arrogance 77
 humour 61–2, 63, 64–5, 78
 identity 73
 juxtaposition 63
 line drawings 67, 70, 72–3 marshalling and visualizing
 parody 61–5
 masculine stereotypes (Geezer and Geek) 73, 74
 naïve representation 72–3
 parading 64–5
 parody 61, 62
 personal, socially constructed ideology 76
 personality 73
 physiognomy 73
 reality or documentary gaze 60
 scoptic regimes 60, 65, 80
 semiotic analysis/presentation 60, 65, 76, 78
 social power-knowledge relations 61
 stereotypes 65
 storytelling identity 59
 stylized drawings 67–8, 70–72, 73
 three-dimensional puppet 73
 United Kingdom 61, 62, 73, 74
 United States 61, 62, 73, 74
 value-adding identities 58
 virtual reality/realism 73 visual aesthetics 64
 visualizing and using visual methodologies 65–6 Western enterprise discourse and enterprise culture 62
 causal logic x
 character strengths 7, 11, 12, 20
 internalization of 4, 138–40
 Chouinard, Y. 96
 cognitive approaches xi, 150 collective entrepreneur and networks 45–50
 comic book creation 38
 see also cartoon, caricature and parody – visualizing Bill Gates and Richard Branson
 as comic book heroes commitment 1–2, 140–41
 communities of practice 44, 138
 complementary business model
 canvas 133
 contextual space 52
 control bias 90
 Cope, J. 108, 117, 131–2
 coping mechanisms 114
 courage (virtue) 7
 craft entrepreneurs 95
 ‘creative cities’ 39

- critical thinking as entrepreneurial quality 52–4, 110
- Crossman, J.S. 74
- Csikszentmihalyi, M. 7
- cultural factors 62, 65, 74
see also acculturation
- customer discovery and validation 24
- decision-making, high-stakes 111
- delegation and strong attachments to roles 89–92
- deliberate practice 148–9
- demo days 23
- desirability, perceived 114–15
- dignity 17
- discourse see place-based identity
- discursive approaches 32–4
- discursive resources, overlapping, in identity construction 51
- Disney, W. 36
- disruptive innovations 91–2
- Dorf, B. ix, 113
- Down, S. 44–5, 73
- Drakopoulou Dodd, S. 46
- drive 110, 111, 114–15, 119
- Drucker, P.F. 131
- education/educational 106
background 103
educating for practice 108–110
formal 22
methods 115–18
see also teaching entrepreneurs
- effectuation approach x, 18
- emotion/emotional connection 140
intelligence 110–13, 114, 115, 117, 119
measurement 107
negative 111, 117
positive 111
reactions 115
roller-coaster 111, 112
- emotional and biased decisions 90
- emotional/affective systems xi
- Enterprising Women (EW)(Utah) 47–8, 49
- entrepreneur, definition of 94–7
- entrepreneurial, definition of 104–5
- entrepreneurial practice and personal requirements 110–15
- Entrepreneurial Values in Action (EVIA) 11, 137–8, 140–46, 147, 148, 151
- Erikson, E.H. xi
- Essers, C. 36
- Europe 35
- expert entrepreneurs x, 129, 136, 149, 151
affordable loss principle 18
cognitive and virtue-based approaches 150
deliberate practice 148
emotions and logic 111
mastery – ‘battle scars’ and ‘life lessons’ 147
mindset 140
moral virtues 2, 6, 11, 14, 20, 23, 134, 137–9 professors as 149
self-focus 104
- Farmer, S.M. 9
- Fayole, A. 132
- feasibility, perceived 114–15
- feasibility studies 133
- Fields, D. 36
- Fiet, J.O. 128
- ‘Finding Your Passion’ 98–9
- first-mover advantages/disadvantages 91
- flipped classroom model 140
- Florida, R. 39
- Foote, N.N. 4, 148
- fostering entrepreneurial identity and habits see becoming entrepreneurial/fostering entrepreneurial identity and habits
- Foucault, M. 32–3, 52
- Furnham, A. 64

- Gartner, W.B. 117
 Gates, B. 35
 see also cartoon, caricature and parody—visualizing Bill Gates and Richard Branson as comic book heroes global phenomenon, entrepreneurship as 54
 Golding, P. 63
 Gorman, G. 131
 Greene, P.G. 131, 132, 135–6
 Grégoire, D.A. 150
- Hart, C. 64
 Harvey, R.C. 63, 64, 65–6
 heroic entrepreneur 105, 116
 High-Tech/High-Growth network (HT/HG)(Utah) 46–7, 48, 49
 honor 17
 honoring contracts (virtue) 11, 21, 137–8, 141, 143
 Hugo, V. 1 humanity (virtue) 7
 hypothesis generation 24
- Ibarra, H. 107
 identification and internalization distinction 4
 identity alignment 97
 identity construction and entrepreneurship curriculum 138–9
 identity theory xi, 3–6, 10, 106
 identity transitions 140
 industry discourse 50
 industry influences 42–5
 internalization of identity 4, 6, 20, 26
 internalization of virtues and
 character strengths 138–40
 intrapreneurs xii, 139
 Ireland, R.D. 9, 138
- Jack, S. 46
 Jarillo, J.C. 119
 Jay Z 36
- Jobs, S. 35, 53, 76–7
 justice (virtue) 7
- Karreman, D. 33
 Kauffman Foundation 144
 Kaufman, P. 145
 knowledge
 frontier 22
 known 21
 novel 21
 structures 121
 Krauss, L. 19
 Kung-McIntyre, K. 9
 Kuratko, D.F. 135
- Larson, G.S. 9, 39–41, 45
 Leach, C.W. 6, 19–20
 leadership and group dynamics courses 109
 lean startup approach ix, 24, 33–4, 127, 133–4 learning about and learning for 105 learning, entrepreneurial 106–8 learning experience 119
 Liedtka, J.M. 146–7
 Liguori, E. 119
 lived experiences 140
 local values entrepreneurs 42
 locale-specific discourses 40, 42
- macro-level discourse xiii, 35–7, 40, 50–51
 Mael, F. 4
 Marci, J.E. 140
 Mason, S.E. 74
 mastery 148
 gaps 147
 Mayer, J.D. 112
 McCloud, S. 38
 McManus, I.C. 64
 mechanically assumed identity 6, 20 medical education and entrepreneurship analogy viii–ix mentoring 117
 meso-layers of discourse 51

- micro-level identity issues xiii
 Middleton, S. 63
 migrant women entrepreneurs 36–7
 mindset 12–14, 52, 140
 minimal viable products 24
 Mises, L. 14
 Mitchell, R.K. 121
 mobile technologies and emotion
 measurement 107
 moral choices 2
 moral commitment 1–2, 22
 moral communities 1–2, 8, 16, 19, 22
 moral virtues 6, 19, 22, 137
 Morris, M.H. 132
 motivation xi, 83–101
 adaptive syllabus 92–4
 Builderific Game 91–2, 93
 in the classroom – drawing an entrepreneur and role play 87–9
 community – and socially inspired motivations 85
 control bias 90
 craft entrepreneurs 95
 definition of entrepreneur 94–7 delegation and strong attachments to roles 89–92
 disruptive innovations 91–2
 distinct motivations and identities 85–94
 distinct roles – entrepreneur,
 manager and finance/
 investor 83, 86–9
 emotional and biased decisions 90
 extrinsic motivation 84, 119
 ‘Finding Your Passion’ 98–9
 first-mover advantages/disadvantages 91
 identity alignment 97
 initial motivation 83
 intrinsic motivation 84, 119
 overconfidence 90
 product identity 95
 social, environmental or community-inspired ventures
 84–5, 100
 strategizing 91
 teamwork 92
 motives see beliefs, values, norms,
 motives and practices
 Musk, E. 36
 National Science Foundation ix, 134
 Neck, H.M. 131, 132, 135–6
 network(s) 109, 117, 142–4
 and the collective entrepreneur 45–50
 concept of ideal entrepreneur 51
 discourse 50, 51
 groups 53
 New Zealand 53–4
 Nguyen, K. 96–7
 norms see beliefs, values, norms,
 motives and practices
 novelty 21
 Ogbor, J.O. 34
 organic identities 4, 6, 20
 organizational discourse 51
 Osterwalder, A. 134
 overconfidence 90
 Patagonia (company) 96
 Pearson, A.R. 39–40
 Pekar, H. 38
 Perry, W.G. xi
 personal control 104
 personal experiences 119
 personal failure 104
 personal identity 5
 personal responsibility 104, 111
 Petriglieri, G. 140
 Petriglieri, J.L. 140
 Pittaway, L. 131–2
 place-based identity 31–54
 ‘big-D’ discourse 33
 comic book creation 38
 ‘creative cities’ 39
 critical thinking as entrepreneurial quality 52–4 discourse on place, region or locale 50–51

- discourses 50, 52
 discursive approach 32–4 discursive formations 32–3 discursive resources, overlapping 51
 Enterprising Women (EW)(Utah) 47–8, 49
 Europe 35
 global phenomenon, entrepreneurship as 54
 High-Tech/High-Growth network (HT/HG)(Utah) 46–7, 48, 49
 industry discourses 50
 industry influences 42–5
 industry norms and best practices 51
 local values entrepreneurs 42
 locale-specific discourse 40, 42, 49, 50–51
 macro-level discourses 35–7, 40, 49, 50–51
 meso-layers of discourse 51
 network or organizational discourses 50–51 networks and the collective entrepreneur 45–50
 New Zealand 53–4
 place embeddedness 39
 place-based discourse 50–51 ‘place-neutral’ entrepreneurship 53–4
 poster sessions 50
 regional discourses 37–40, 51
 Route 128, Boston 41
 ‘Silicon Glacier’ (Montana) 41–2
 ‘Silicon Slopes’ (Utah) 41–2
 Silicon Valley 40–41, 48, 54
 social identity discourses 37, 50–51
This American Life podcast on the NUMMI plant (GM and Toyota collaboration) 45
 ‘trying on’ of entrepreneurial identities 53
 United Kingdom 44–5
 United States 33, 35, 45
 Western discourse 35
 planned behavior theory 116
 positive psychology xi, 3, 7, 11, 20
 poster sessions 50
 practice, definition of 105
 practices see beliefs, values, norms, motives and practices prestige 17
 Principles of Entrepreneurship course (ENTP) 26
 process-based approaches 127–8, 132–5, 138, 152
 product identity 95
 professional identity 5, 6–9
 Protestant or Calvinist work ethic 35 rational action 111
 reflection/reflexive thinking 52, 110, 113, 115, 116, 117
 regional discourses 37–40
 resilience (virtue) 11, 21 respecting judgement of marketplace (virtue) 11, 21, 137–8, 141, 143 respecting private property and upholding contractual obligations (virtue) 11, 21, 137–8, 141, 143
 Reveley, J. 73
 Richardson, J. 45
 role and identity distinction 9, 116 role play 87–9
 roles, different, of entrepreneur 83, 86–9
 Rooum, D. 64
 Rorty, R. 17, 23
 Roth Eisenberg, T. 36
 Route 128 (Boston) 41
 Saloner, G. 127
 Salovey, P. 112
 Sarasvathy, S.D. 136, 149
 ‘school of hard knocks’ 23, 147
 Schramm, C. viii–xiv
 scientific method 16–17, 22, 136–7
 ‘self’ xi

- self-assessment 112, 146–7
 self-awareness 104, 111–12
 self-belief 113, 116
 self-efficacy 10, 110–11, 113–15, 117, 119, 121
 self-focus 104, 121
 self-identified entrepreneurs 32, 36, 39, 42, 44, 52, 138–9
 self-image 146–7
 self-management 111–12
 self-reflection 110, 115
 self-regulation 121
 self-worth 111
 Seligman, M.E.P. 7
 serial entrepreneurs 104
 Shepherd, D.A. 117
 ‘Silicon Glacier’ (Montana) 40,
 41–2
 ‘Silicon Slopes’ (Utah) 40, 41–2 Silicon Valley as a place-based model 40–41, 46–50
 skills, requisite 104
 Smilor, R. 63
 Smith, I.H. 10
 social entrepreneurs xii, 10, 15–16, 18, 85
 social, environmental or community-inspired ventures
 84–5, 100
 social identity 5–6, 41, 43, 141, 144–5
 discourse 37, 50–51
 social modifier 15
 Stevenson, H.H. 119
 storytelling 113
 strategizing 91
 Street, D. 74
 Sugden, R. 16

 teaching entrepreneurs 127–52
 acculturation 137
 associational distancing 145–6, 147
 associational embracement 145–6, 147
 attitudes, values and beliefs
 140–41
 ‘battle scars’ and ‘life lessons’ 147
 believe it is virtuous to rebound
 personally and professionally
 from failure 137–8, 141, 143
 business incubators 127
 business plans 133
 can entrepreneurship be taught?
 130–31
 centralization of virtues 140, 147–9
 cognitive approaches 150
 commitment 140–41
 communities of practice 138
 complementary business model
 canvas 133
 core values and identities 141 correct approach 131–5
 deliberate practice 148–9
 didactic approaches 128
 emotional connection 140
 Entrepreneurial Values in Action
 (EVIA) frame 137–8,
 140–46, 147, 148, 151
 expert entrepreneurs 129, 137, 147, 148, 149, 151
 exploration 140
 facilitation of identification processes 146–7
 feasibility studies 133
 flipped classroom model 140
 identity construction and entrepreneurship curriculum 138–9
 identity transitions 140
 internalization of virtues and
 character strengths 138–40, 147–9
 laying the groundwork 139–40
 lean startup approach 127, 133–4
 lived experiences 140
 mastery 148
 mastery gaps 147
 mindset 140
 moral virtues 137
 network of entrepreneurial interviewees, building and sustaining 142–4

- norms, practices and values 129, 138
- process-based approaches 127–8, 132–5, 138, 152
- respecting judgement of marketplace 137–8, 141, 143
- respecting private property and upholding contractual obligations 137–8, 141, 143
- scientific method 136–7
- self-assessment assignment 146–7
- self-identity 138–9
- self-image 146–7
- trait-based approach 130–31
- uniformity, lack of 132
- value creation 137, 141, 143
- virtues-based approach 128–30, 135–51
- weekly journaling 148
- teamwork 92
- temperance (virtue) 7
- Terkel, S. 38
- testing of ideas and product prototypes 24
- This American Life* podcast on NUMMI plant (GM and Toyota) 45
- Thomas, R.J. 73
- Thornton, J.E. 74, 75
- Tomasello, M. viii
- ‘tools of the trade’ 14
- trait-based approach 130–31
- transcendence (virtue) 7
- Treble, H.A. 62
- Trevelyan, R.S. 113
- ‘trying on’ of entrepreneurial identities 53
- unique and self-directed characteristic 111
- United Kingdom 44–5, 61, 62, 73, 74
- United States 33, 35, 45, 61, 62, 73, 74
- Small Business Association 121
- university-based entrepreneurship education 22
- Valjean, J. 1
- Vallins, G.H. 62
- value creation 11, 21, 25–6, 137, 141, 143
- value frontier 22
- value-adding identities 58
- values see beliefs, values, norms, motives and practices
- Values in Action (VIA)
- Classification of Strengths 7, 11
- see also* Entrepreneurial Values in Action (EVIA)
- Van de Ven, A. 128
- Vanevenhoven, J. 119
- Venkataraman, S. 136, 149
- virtues-based approach 1–27, 128–30, 135–51
- acculturation 16, 19–27
- centralization of virtues 140
- entrepreneurial identity 9–14
- Entrepreneurial Values in Action (EVIA) Frame 11
- identification 4
- identity theory 3–6
- internalization of character strengths 4, 138–40
- internalization of identity 4, 6, 20, 26
- mechanically-assumed identities 6, 20
- mindsets 12–14
- moderating attraction to entrepreneurship 15–18
- moderating persistence in entrepreneurship 18–19
- moral choices 2
- moral commitments 1–2, 22
- moral communities 1–2, 8, 16, 19, 22
- moral virtues 6, 19, 22, 137
- organic identities 6, 20
- personal commitment 1–2
- personal identity 5
- professional identity 5, 6–9
- role-identity 9
- social entrepreneurship 15–16, 18

- social identity 5–6
 - Values in Action (VIA)
 - Classification of Strengths 7, 11–12
- Watts, G. 117
- Webb, J.W. 9, 138
- weekly journaling 148
- Welter, E. 38
- Western Discourse 35
- ‘what’s in it for me?’ (WIIFM) 18
- Winfrey, O. 36
- wisdom (virtue) 7
- women entrepreneurs 36–7, 47–9
- Woodworth, W.P. 10
- Yao, X. 9
- Zikic, J. 45
- Zimmerman, B.J. 121

