Index

abstraction level of macroeconomic analysis 207 advertising and the consumer 186–7 tool of competition 187

advice to Japanese 1998
  from the Economist 130–31 “age-old poisons” 133

Aggregate Demand (AD) 79, 83, 136, 140, 220 awkwardness 154–5
  central role in theory of recession 125–6 consumption, investment, government spending, net exports 2 “aggregate” demand and supply big spender, Keynesian 85 interconnectedness 82 misplaced construction 81–2 aggregate demand equation 156 aggregate demand plunge 67 aggregate demand relation 155 aggregate demand restoration deficit financing 221 aggregate demand stimulation for restoration of aggregate output to full employment level 214 aggregate economic variables relationships 202 aggregate entrepreneurial problem 36–9 aggregate investment supposed arithmetic value of zero 207 “aggregate” spending, need to increase 87

Aggregate Supply (AS) 79, 125, 154–5, 220 aggregate supply concept 154 aggregates, focus on 108

aggregates of GDP 119

aggregation 151, 239–42 problem 246
  macroeconomics 239
  microeconomics 239
  allocation of capital 111 alternative to Keynesianism 156–60 American budget deficits 132
  American Economic Association (AEA), 1951 11

American economy sinking economic activity 146 American heartland into “rustbelt” 199 American psyche
  in financial matters 95

annus horridus 1988 62

Annual Summary of Payments Statistics 2014 48 anti-capitalist themes 218 anti-Keynesian

  Free Market Economics: An Introduction for the General Reader 2 anti-market policies damaging in practice 133

Argentine economy, 135

asset portfolios 44

asset price declines, severe, 1990 63 asset price movements 74 asset prices, high 54 asset prices, leakages 53–5 asset price turbulence 68 asset price volatility 55 asset replacement 199

asset transactions between sectors 52

assets, buying and selling 50–51 assumption of unchanging composition of aggregates 206

What's wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

“austerity” 140
austerity episodes 204
“austerity” promise from George Osborne 209 Australia cut in public spending, wage cuts 127 “Premiers’ Plan” 127
“Austrian” analysis of inflationary processes 88–9
Austrian Business Cycle Theory (ABCT) 19, 208
Austrian capital theory 115, 120 Austrian conception of capital 108 value of specific goods 110 Austrian conception of the market 117
Austrian distortions of production structure 208
Austrian economists 13
Austrian interest rate theory 14–19
Austrian laissez-faire prescription 221
Austrian macroeconomists, new 13–14
Austrian perspective capital in specific goods with multiple uses 107 Austrian theory of boom and bust 99
Austrian theory of capital 112 Austrian view of capital, by Keynes 109–10 automobile production 198 qualities and quantities 188
autonomous expenditure 44 Average Price Level 79 balanced budgets “general” theory of economy 219 balanced markets assuring full employment 84–5 bank credits 244
Bank for International Settlements 63 Bank of England independence, 1997 62 bank rate in UK, house prices high 208 bankruptcies 194
barter economy 16
big government justification 218 big government over laissez faire Keynesian model 219 Blue Book, UK presentation of national accounts 52 bond market 168–9 bond markets Operation Twist 170 bond prices 15, 19
books on Keynes after 2007–09 economic crisis 245 “boom and bust” warning 56 boom–bust episode 100 root cause identification 98 boom–bust sequence misdirection of resources 94 British Classical Economists Adam Smith, David Ricardo 183 broad money growth, 1985 60 broad money growth drop 1990 and 1991 60 budget balancing policy 126 budgets deficits 204 building permits 231 business and business investment 134 business as heart of the economy 232 business confidence 246 business cycles dot.com bubble, 2000 96 housing bubble, 2005 96 business firms 192
business investment dependence on current and future consumer demand 228 business reluctance to spend 152 business spending 228 business-to-business (B2B) spending 225–6 “business transactions” 53 buyers and sellers 190
C + I + G 2, 137, 140, 145, 236
Cairnes, John E., “classical economist” 1874 on Supply and Demand and aggregate demand 82–3 Callaghan, James, 1976
on spending way out of recession 145 capital, accumulated wealth, earning profit or interest 192 capital accumulation 189 capital, aggregative view in Keynes 109
capital and investment problems volumes of each 111 capital and labor, idle 120 capital and recession 191–2 capital, Austrian view 119 capital creation on credit expansion 193 capital decumulation 197 capital-entrepreneur arbitrage 17 capital goods 107, 188
  investment 231
  driving the economy 232 loss 194, 196
  of economic system 195 productivity or value 109 relative scarcity 111 resources 120
  scarcity 198
  stock 50 use 114
capitalism, contradictions of 219 capitalist development, 150 years 124–5
capitalist-entrepreneurs 16–17 capital, saving and employment 183 capital, views of 107
Carew, Edna
  The Language of Money (1996) 127 cash balance 15
cash hoarding 190
cash holdings 192, 194 catastrophe for economic theory 141 central bank “braking” rather than “accommodating” 100 central bank role in popular Keynesianism 152 Chamberlain, Neville, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, 1933 on balancing the budget 126 changes in level of output 94 changes in net worth 1998–2013, 12 percent of GDP in
    UK 65
  1998–2013, 21 per cent of GDP in USA 65
  larger than fiscal policy 65 Chicago School Monetarists 13 childbirth expense to parents 186 child labor 184
Chinese recycling dollars in American money market 132 chronic debt financing policy prescriptions 218
chronic secular stagnation 96 Churchill, Winston
  decision, country back on gold standard 95
circular flow 46
circular flow notion 49, 54, 68, 69 “circular flow” of spending 152 classical economics Keynesian undermining 133 classical economic theory 125 classical economists broad principles 213
  “classical medicine” 133 “classical theory” 124 classical theory of recession 126 Climate Change Levy losses for investors 210 Coalition Government in UK, June 2010 tax raising and cutting spending 204 coalminers’ union dispute for pay rise 58 commodity reserve systems 215 co-movements 97
competing currencies 215 competition with other goods or services 30
components of expenditure consumption and investment 46 conceptual legitimacy of Keynesian income-expenditure analysis 45 confidence importance of consumer desires 209–10 consumable output 93
consumer borrowing 50
consumer demand inaccurate anticipation 37 consumer demand change with passage of time 29 consumer desire consumed by presence of wealth 185 production by absence of wealth 185 consumer desire unused strong consumer demand 185

Consumer Expectations Index link to future retail sales 231

“consumer goods” versus “producer goods” (capital) 81 consumer goods and producer goods 16 consumer goods, higher prices 198 consumer goods industries 114

consumer inflation
1 per cent over 2 per cent target 62 consumer preferences 20, 28 consumer role 32

consumers’ expenditure (in real terms) forecast, 1974 57 consumer society justification 218 consumer spending 228 not driving the economy 232 not leading indicator 231 consumer spending drives the economy (anti-saving mentality) 219 Keynesian myth 218

consumer spending stimulation in some lines of investment 231 consumer wants 33

consumption 46–7
effect of nation’s prosperity 228 entrepreneurial profits 32 leading to production 32 uses up economic value 248
consumption and investment 15–16 relationship between 113 consumption expansion twentieth century 183–4 consumption expenditures in United States 225 consumption, financing of 195 consumption, high level key to prosperity in US 225 consumption–investment proportion decrease 20 consumption of the government support for economic system 189–90 consumption over saving Keynesian economics 218

consumptionism 189 perversion of values 191

consumptionist belief, 191 people eager to accept reward without work 190 purposeless passion for work without reward 190 consumptionist’s values absence of wealth 185 consumptionists and productionists 189 context specific outcomes 213 contra-cyclical adjustments to government spending 45 control factors, specification of 161 conventional economics fundamental economic problem, scarcity 153 price adjustment eliminates surpluses and shortages 153 savings promotes capital formation 153 “conventional wisdom” Keynesian economics 245 “coordination” (Friedrich Hayek) 119 coordination and balance 84 corporate equity 50 correlations 97
cost-covering prices, sale at 34 cost-of-production theory of value 203 costs 77
“Counter-Inflation Programme” (1973 Act of Parliament) 57 country with own currency 209 credit and regulatory policies, loose boom in house and other asset prices 203 credit card 48
credit creation 244
“credit crunch” loss of confidence 203 “credit cycle” 53 credit effect 57
credit expansion, 39 loss of capital 194 currency depreciation justification 218 cycles and slumps in an overly aggregated theoretical framework 92 cyclical instability in the savings ratio 63–4 cyclical movements in asset prices equities and real estate 54 daily fluctuation of prices in financial markets 207 damage of stimulus expenditure 249 dangers of Keynesianism economics 123 “dark age” of macro-analysis 79–80 data on household net worth in the USA and UK 74–6 debt over equity Keynesian economics 218–19 debts, rising levels 140 decline in real output 213 decreasing price levels 78 defects of macroeconomic method 206 deficit financing Keynes’s way out of Depression 221 deficit spending, fiscal stimulus over balanced budgets Keynesian model 219 deficits, dangers of 140 deficits over surpluses Keynesian economics 218 definition of a job 156 demand and supply intersections comparison with pair of scissors 170 demand comes from supply 142–3 demand curve 170
demand deficiency as cause of recession 125 “Demand for commodities is not demand for labour” (Mill) 144 demand insufficiency 38 demand, level versus structure 131–2 demand over supply, importance of Keynesian economics 218 demand overestimation 37 demand rationing 242 demand stimulation 35
demographic problem of Japan major fiscal implications 130 dependence on income plus allowance 50 depreciation of housing stock 52 depressions 20
rise in loan rate 21 depressions and credit expansion 193–4 desire, only to buy and consume, not produce and sell 190 to produce and sell, not buy and consume 190 desires, as creation of work 187 devastation of World War I 95 development of common law self-organizing process 212 discretionary financial regulation 2010 Dodd–Frank Act 210 discretionary regulation 210 disequilibrium 238–9 distortions, Austrian 208 domestic products, demand stimulation for 173 Dow, Christopher chief economist at Bank of England 46 “dual income hypothesis” 238 dynamic stochastic general equilibrium (DSGE) 203 early-stage capital formation 93 easy money 221
policy prescriptions 218
easy money over inflexible gold standard Keynesian model 219 easy-money policy 222 econometric models 46 economic activity increase 5 economic benefit for a producer 190 economic consequences, dismal 138 economic coordination and growth 117 economic depressions 193 economic downturns 193, 241 economic forecasting in National Institute downgrading 62 economic growth from micro-economic coordination 119 economic growth in US and UK unusually low since financial crisis 210 economic journalism 152 economic life, rationality 191
What’s wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

> economic policy during Great Depression > full-scale classical approach 126 > economic policy, false premise 4 > economic policy, principles of 213–14 > economic prosperity > a policy of inflation 190 > economic recovery, requirements 194–5 > greater saving, fresh capital 195 > more saving, capital and credit 195 > economic theory 4, 78, 183 > economic theory in practice 145–6 > economics, Keynesian > ambiguity of 151–6 > economic world
> “non-Euclidean” 191
> Economica article, 1933, period analysis 47 > Economist, The
> on Japan in need of fiscal stimulus 131 > economy as a self-organizing system 210–12 > economy, deeply subdued 135 > economy downturn after 1974, 1980 60 > economy malfunctioning 94 > economy, taxed into prosperity 165 > economy-wide aggregates 90 > economy-wide unemployment 92 > education, infrastructure 36–7 > effective demand 239, 248 > backed by money 236–7 > consumption expenditure 237 > Keynes’s definition 236 > supply-side concept 236 > theoretical construct, no evident policy role 237 > “effective demand” notion, 30, 41
> The General Theory 69 > eligibility requirements 176 > empirical macroeconomics, challenge 161 > employment 2
> Employment Act of 1946
> US Congress 102
> employment restoration 247 > employment, views of 184 > endemic problem of unemployment 240 > entrepreneur > as sole producer in market setting 28 > entrepreneur in production, uncertainty 30 > entrepreneurial failure 30–31, 34, 42 > entrepreneurial function 27 > entrepreneurial problem 26–30 > entrepreneurship > and a general glut 39–41 > exogenous change 27–8 > failed 42
> true “driving force” of market process 31–2 > equilibrium analysis 202 > equilibrium levels > national income and national wealth 69 > equilibrium models 211 > equilibrium prices 170 > demand and supply curves 171 > equilibrium theory > Keynesian Revolution, main tenets 202–3 > equilibrium values 46 > equity bull market > US 1928 and 1929 53
> equity prices high 208 > European Exchange Rate Mechanism 60 > Eurozone authorities 44–5 > ex ante and ex post equilibria 115–16 > excess demand 83 > excess of “aggregate supply” over “aggregate demand” 83 > excess supply 83 > exchange rate 95 > exchange rates, falling > Italy joining euro 210
> exogenous change 28
> exogenous shocks
> earthquakes, tsunamis 28 > “expansionary fiscal contraction” 45 > expansionary fiscal policy 20–21 > expansionary monetary policy 20–21 > expenditure containment 126 > expenditure cutting > slashing public sector wages, 1931 127 > expenditure decisions 44 > expenditure on public works 244
Index 265

extra-market forces 97

government spending and money creation 97

Failure of the New Economics, The (1959) 2 failure of stimulus programs 106, 110 fall in demand

answer, increase in demand 137 falling production rates, double-digit 78 faster output growth

by deliberate demand stimulus 57

Federal Reserve purchases, 2007 to 2009 160

Federal Reserve 221

Federal Reserve policy 93

Federal Reserve System 168, 169

Ferguson, Adam, eighteenth-century philosopher 212

“final effective aggregate demand” 224

“finance” 49

financial circulation 49–51, 65, 69

and circular flow 51

financial circulation prices

leakages 53–5

financial crisis 159

cause 203

no non-Keynesians 106

United States 2010 Dodd–Frank Act 210 financial crisis of 2007–2008 101, 156 direct intervention in markets by monetary authorities, treasuries, regulators 210 prolonged recession 203 financial securities, strong 54 fiscal and monetary policymaking loss of credibility 201 fiscal austerity 45

fiscal contraction

in deep recession 204

expansionary not contractionary 204 raising tax revenues, cutting expenditures 204 rapid in US after Second World War 162 fiscal expansion 204

arguments for substantial need in Japan 130 fiscal expansionism

Alberto Alesina, “Bocconi boys” 45

fiscal expansions

International Monetary Fund, no support 130 fiscal policy

deficit spending and taxes 223

“fiscal policy” of government 196 fiscal policy tightening 67 fiscal reflation 68

fiscal “spending” multiplier strength questioned 222

fiscal stimulus 44

Bush Presidency 204

flat tax, low rate, broad-based 180 fluctuations in employment 156 fluctuations in output 156 forecast growth rate of aggregate demand very high 58

forecasting model of NIESR 56

four-stage model of economy

macroeconomics 226

fraud prevention companies 48

free-market economy

inherently unstable 219

free market solutions

Keynes, advocating 133

free markets, power of 180

free trade 180

“general” theory of economy 219

freedom of wage rates 195

Friedman, Milton

misunderstanding of the Austrians 99–100

“The Great Contraction” 220, 223

Frisch, Ragnar, Norwegian economist

“macroeconomics” term (1933) 240

“full employment” 85, 119, 125, 156 full employment, implied assumption 240 fundamental flaws

in macroeconomic analysis 206–7 future demand 29

future market conditions anticipation, supply and demand 32–3 future money 15

G20 Washington summit 44
Galbraith, John Kenneth, Harvard economist 221 GDP (gross domestic product) 139, 160–61 growth in 1972 57
misleading 224–5
a measure of the economy 225 not a measure of total economic activity 225 single output aggregate production function 163 the “use” economy 227
General Financial Contraction fall of accumulated savings 193 general glut 40, 41
General Glut debate 143–4
“general” theory of economy 219
General Theory of Employment, Interest and Money, The (1936)
  11, 49, 78–9, 92, 96–7, 107, 110, 124, 134–5, 202 Preface 101–3
see also Keynes, John Maynard German labour market 214
Global Financial Crisis (GFC) 1–3, 7, 9, 14, 135, 140 glut, excess supply 143 gold standard “general” theory of economy 219
goods production millions of tasks 156 government budget deficits destructive 199 government deficit spending 177 government expenditure, increased 240 government-financed consumption beneficial appearance 196 government income taxation 126
government indebtedness 245 government-induced credit expansion 20 government level of expenditure increase in 134 government price fixing 248 government role 137–8 government spending 135, 147 government spending boost simplistic version of Keynes’s message 237 “Government spending is taxation” 176 government spending on employment targeting of 159 government spending rise, US 174 government spending, speedy 135 government stimulus expenditure 244 measures 138–9 spending, important policy instrument of Keynesianism 175 government-supported union 21 government transfer payments 178–9 Great Depression 99, 126–8, 136, 165, 167, 220 in the United States 8 mid-1930s 78
  severe unemployment 221 share market crash, 1929 124 worst eras in US economy 179 worst period in American economy 175 Great Inflation, 1970s and 1980s deficit spending 8
Great Moderation 62
Great Recession 62, 165 second worst period in American economy 176 worst eras in US economy 179
Great Recession, 1980s 166
Great Recession in late 2008 44 Great Recession of 2008 and 2009 global impact 62–3 greenhouse gases level reduction 132
gross business spending (B2B) 227–8 gross domestic product (GDP) 220 Gross Output (GO) 232
  a measure of “make” economy 227 from input–output tables of Leontief 227 quarterly data 227
  spending measures 226–30 Hayek, Friedrich A., Austrian economist 13, 119, 144, 226–7 business cycle theory 208
Federal Reserve policy 93, 98,
The Pure Theory of Capital (1941) 111

Hazlitt, Henry 6
The Failure of the New Economics (1959) 2

Heath, Edward, PM
Conservative Government 57

Hicks–Hansen IS–LM analysis 235
high birth rate
more consumer desire 185 high inflation 154
low growth 129
higher prices on aggregate demand effect 155 higher rate of inflation increase in aggregate demand 155 hire purchase 50
hoarding 153, 191

Hollande, François, French President quoting Say’s Law 146 homebuilding integral facets of total economy 168
homeownership
integral facets of total economy 168
household net worth 45, 65 houses qualities and quantities 188
housing market 171
US economy 168 housing sector meltdown in US 131–2 human psychology boom driver 96
Hume, David, eighteenth-century philosopher 212
Hutt, William 2–3, 6, 7 “hydraulic Keynesianism” 203

idle resources 92
IMF, see International Monetary Fund implications of self-organization 212–13 inappropriate formalism 206 income 46
income deposits 49
income effects in an economy 178

income-expenditure analysis 44, 45 approach of Keynes, 1940 articles 69 circular flow 65, 67, 74
model 45–7, 115
Keynesian 113
New Palgrave 54 increasing demand for entrepreneur’s products 35 incumbent businesses 157 “industrial circulation” 49
and circular flow 50
industrial output 231
“annual rate of growth of output” 211 “industry” 49
inflation, expected and unexpected 155 inflation check control of prices and wages 57 inflation rate changes distortions in real wage rate 154 inflationary “cure” more market problems 89–90 inflationary monetary expansion 89 inflationary process 88–9 input–output analysis 159 insufficiency of demand for product 30–31 interest rate 15, 16, 18–19, 154 adjustments 20, 171
as determinant of investment 154 high, 1920s 95
lower 112
manage aggregate demand 203 mechanism 114
microeconomics of the interest rate, Austrian approach 116–17 policies 94
policy-infected 98
rise 21 spread 231
theory, Austrian 14–19 International Monetary Fund (IMF) 45, 63, 75 advice to Japanese, 1998 130 “fiscal policy” figures 65 international trade 133 interpretations, conflicting, of Keynes’s message 103 intertemporal coordination 114 structure of production 112–17
What’s wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

intertemporal discoordination and the business cycle 117–18 “investment” commitment of funds to a financial asset 51–2 investment
uses up economic value 248
investment, active 47 investment and savings 115
relationship between 108 investment, employment, consumption downward co-movements 96 investment goods 113–14 investment in securities 14 “investment opportunity” for capital goods 187 investment–savings equilibrium 115 Ireland
2014, fast rate of economic growth 205 draconian fiscal tightening to 2013 205 iron ore scarcity 198
IS–LM model balance between saving and investment 154 IS curve 115
interest rate movements 100 Japan, 1990s
large spending packages, deep recession 129 Japanese downturn 9
Japanese economic stimulus, 1990s 9
Japanese Recovery Program 129–31 Japanese slump, 1990s 13 jigsaw puzzle
capital goods as puzzle pieces 117 meaningful pattern and picture 119 no final picture 117–19 pieces used in right way 119 job creation 157 job creation, meaningful 159 job loss, drop in demand 163 Job Openings and Labor Turnover Survey (JOLTS) US 159 jobs create spending 156 JOLTS data 162

Kates, Steven

Kennedy, John F., President of United States tax cuts to stimulate growth 129 key concepts in Keynesian textbooks 44

Keynes, John Maynard economist most influential and revolutionary of twentieth century, 219
The General Theory, preface 101–3 influence 183
monetary economist 93
A Treatise on Money (1930) 49, 92, 107–12

Keynes, John Maynard, model “aggressive effective demand” 219
Keynes’s view of capital and differences with the Austrians 110
Keynesian aggregate level 83 Keynesian aggregates misdirection for understanding monetary and cyclical processes 77
Keynesian aggregation problem 150
Keynesian consumption function 156
Keynesian demand-deficiency model 123, 132–3 “Keynesian” economic theory 6 signature equation 2
Keynesian Economic Theory and its Critics 1 Keynesian economics 1, 201 conclusive fault line 235 economy to grow from demand side 202
problem 136–7
Keynesian economics failure major reassessment across profession 139 Keynesian economists failures of common sense of 165
Index

Keynesian Episode, The (1979) 244
Keynesian framework, weakness “negative multiplier” in recent US data 162 Keynesian income-expenditure analysis discrediting 44
Keynesianism
how prevalence over Austrianism? 101–3
PSST alternative 160
“Keynesianism” intellectual con trick 199
Keynesianism, removal 218
“Keynesianized”, characterizing US economy 102 Keynesian liquidity trap
Austrian critique 11
Keynesian macroeconomic analysis 39
Keynesian macroeconomics 4, 7 replacement need 218
Keynesian Revolution, main tenets 12, 202–3
Keynesians’ ignorance of role of capital in economic system 195 Keynesian theory 5
no deep recession, twenty-five years after war 129 overturning of self-imposed restraints 126 Keynesian theory’s historic failures 7–8 Knight, Frank H. 2 knowledge distribution 215 known demand 28
labor force, composition changes 162 labor in each production sector resources, capital equipment 84 Labour Government, UK, budget, 2008 fiscal stimulus, one per cent of GDP 204 language, self-organizing process 212 Latin America
highest growth rates, saving and investing 231
Latin American countries economic growth improvement 214 Lawson, Nigel, Chancellor of the Exchequer policy decision 61 leads and lags in determining outcomes 213
leakages 51
leakages from financial circulation 54 significance for forecasting 55–63 Leamer, Edward discrepancy between statistical theory and econometric practice 161 level of abstraction 206 level of aggregate demand, increase 5 level of demand modern macroeconomics 131 life insurance policies 52 liquidation of unsound investments 195 liquidity preference 12 or demand for money 14 theory of interest 22 liquidity trap 12, 21, 22 market forces 19–22 loan rate and natural rate 21 loan rate of interest 14, 17–18, 20, 22 natural rate of interest 19 loanable funds theory 112–13 loan-market signals 93 falsified 93
policy-tainted 93 long hours 184
low interest rates 120 interest-rate sensitive production processes 93 low interest rates in UK 208 low taxes “general” theory of economy 219 Lucas, Robert (1976) instability of macroeconomic model 161 new classicism 99
Lucas Critique 161 machinery, view of 184 machines’ work less work for people 184 macro-aggregate approach failure 86
What’s wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

- macro-aggregates
  - “total demand” and “total supply” 85
- macroeconomic analysis 136
  - data 160–62, 161–2
  - data, inadequacy 162
  - demand management 12
  - equilibrium 68
  - outcomes 44
  - policies 203–6
  - policy for Latin America 214
  - relationships 92
  - stability, UK economy after Second World War 57
  - theory 6
  - variables, constant composition 207
- macroeconomics 238
  - “back-of-an-envelope” economics 206
  - Hicks–Hansen IS–LM analysis 235
  - Keynesian approach 99
  - short life 240
  - university teaching 46
- macroeconomics dominance since 1930s 139
- magnitudes, changes 98
- mainstream macroeconomic thinking undermining 203
- major error
  - spending way to prosperity 134
  - make-work projects 102
  - malinvestment 120
- Malthus, T.R.
  - Principles of Political Economy (1820) 143
- mandated price ceilings 21
- manipulation of aggregate demand 201
- Marget, Arthur W.
  - on monetary and related theory 80
  - “marginal revolution” 242
  - marginal tax rate reductions 172
  - marginalist revolution in economic theory in 1870s
  - William Stanley Jevons 77
- market anticipations
  - Keynesian assumptions 86
  - market clearing 156
  - market-directed economic growth 93
- market economies 211–12
  - progress and prosperity 242
- market economy, developed institutions, entrepreneurships, introduction of new goods and services 207
- market economy, inherently unstable 219
  - Keynesian myth 218
- market prices 111
- market, reliance on lasting solution 134
- markets, unbalanced 131
- Marshall, Alfred 219
- Marx, Karl 219
- mathematics in economic theorizing 213
- meaningful patterns 118
- measure of austerity, 2009–13 against measure of economic growth 205
- measuring economic progress not by unemployment 119
- Menger, Carl 219
- mercantilism, influence 183
- microeconomic adjustment processes 108
- microeconomic interactions 207
- microeconomic level 82
- microeconomic policy
  - 2002 Hartz Commission 214
  - micro-foundation monetary theory and Keynesian avalanche 78–9
  - micro-foundational theories 78
  - micro-foundations 240–41
- Middle Ages
  - execution by king 170
- Mill, James 142
- Mill, John Stuart 144–5, 219
  - “Demand for commodities is not demand for labour” 144
  - Principles of Political Economy (1848) 241
- minimal regulations 180
- Minsky, Hyman P.
  - consumer spending drives the economy 225
- Mises, Ludwig von
  - Theory of Money and Credit (1912) 93
Index

Modigliani paper, 1944 49, 58 monetarism 13 monetary aggregates 62 monetary contraction weakness in aggregate domestic demand 56 monetary disequilibrium 68 monetary economy 246 monetary expansion effect on market activities 88 monetary inflationary process, “Austrian” Friedrich Hayek, on 88 Monetary Policy Committee Bank of England 62 monetary policy, depressions 13 monetary policy, power and importance Keynes mistaken in disparaging 223 monetary policy relation real interest rate effect 155 monetary policy to target inflation 132 monetary theory and monetary policy tenuous links broken 201 money growth 62
  accelerations or decelerations 55 money growth deceleration, late 1990 63 money hoarding
  price falls 21
  “money matters” 223
money spending, a virtue 190 money supply and aggregate price level 163 and interest rates, impact on business cycle 223 mortgage loan, fixed-rate 171 mortgages 171
  financial derivatives 132 mortgages, supply increased by low interest 165 multi-equation, multiple regression techniques in US economy 161
multiple regression techniques 161 multiple specificity of capital goods 120 multiplier concept 44
multiplier “process” 47
Napoleonic Wars
  England in 1807 142
national expenditure 46, 47 national income 47
National Institute of Economic and Social Research (NIESR) 45 advocacy of fiscal reflation 58 national output 46 natural experiments microeconomists 161 natural medicine, power of 180 natural rate monetary rate of interest 16 natural rate of interest 16–17, 20
Keynesian macroeconomics 60 natural scientists, in 1970s interdependent variables 212 neoclassical economics, Milton Friedman business confidence strengthening 210 “net” acquisition of financial assets 52 “net” in “net lending” 52 net sales of assets 68 network of self-organizing processes 212 net worth changes motivation for volatile leakages 65 net worth figure 75
New Classical Macroeconomics 12
New Classical Revolution (1977) 12
New Deal
  high levels of public spending 8
New Keynesianism 102
NIESR, see National Institute of Economic and Social Research 56 Nobel Prize winning adherents Keynesian economics 245
  no business cycle of boom and bust 221 no business errors 221
  no liquidity trap 221
  no “new economics” of Keynes 221
Norman, Montagu
  Governor of Bank of England in 1920s 95
no separation of AS and AD Milton Friedman 221 notional demand 236
Obama, Barack
fiscal stimulus 204
Obama stimulus package of 2009 237 objective “price level” statistical illusion 84 observational studies 161 oil price rise and fall in 132 “oil shock”, 1973–74 154 Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 63
OECD countries 205
Osborne, George, UK Chancellor severe rate of fiscal tightening 209 overfunding of budget deficit 60 over-production 39 of one good 40
parasitism 189, 191 source of general prosperity 191 partial glut 39 pathology of the miser 190 pattern predictions 212 patterns of specialization, new 157 patterns of sustainable specialization and trade (PSST) 157–9, 163–4 patterns of trade, unsustainable 157 pay for non-work increases amount of work 165 PDI, see personal disposable income pebble dropping into water ripples and rest, more pebbles need 87 pension programs for retired government employees in US 224
personal disposable income (PDI) 59 personal income tax rate, highest 172 personal sector assets 58
Phillips Curve
Friedman, Milton (1967) 154
Phelps, Edmund (1970) 154 Phillips-curve-like relation inflation 155
Phillips-curve theory 162 physical capital, destruction of 110 point predictions 212 policy-driven economic boom in US, 1920s 94–5
policy-induced boom, 1920s 93 policy-induced boom–bust episodes versus vacillations in slack economy 95–7
policy prescriptions 244–9 political theory Keynesian economics 245 politicians
short-term political considerations 120–21
 politicization of stimulus spending 121 politics and economics
self-organizing process 212
Post-Keynesians
“effective demand” notion 248 popular Keynesianism 150 not intuitive 153
post-Global Financial Crisis 140 postwar recovery conversion to Keynesian theory 128 post-war recovery, after 1945 8 poverty 185, 186 practical policy, Keynes’s approach 93–5
pre-Keynesian economics “classical economics” 141 prescriptions for prosperity higher tariffs 173 present consumption over future consumption 15
present money 15 pre-war exchange rate of $4.87 to the pound 95
price adjustments 242, 246–7 price and wage rigidities 238, 243 price-cost difference in different markets 207 price distortions and malinvestment 208
price falls 243
price level
and aggregate wage 163 general definition by Benjamin Anderson 84
what it is 84
“price-level” statistically constructed objections to 90
price lowering 21
price manipulation
Federal Reserve System 170
price mechanism 111, 152, 247 price rise predictions 212 prices of long-life assets 243 prices fall 195 rising in mass unemployment 198–9 role 242–3, 249
price system 249
pricing system improving working of 244 primacy of demand instead of production 249 principles rather than rules for economic theories 214 private bonds 171
private investment expenditure 246 private sector activity 247 problems with Keynesianism Austrian capital theory view 106 production and demand 241 production and investment before consumption 228 production costs 30, 34–5, 41 production decisions opportunity costs 108 production expansion in nineteenth century 183–4 production limiting consumption 186 production of economic value 27 production process 28–9 productionist views 186 importance of consumer desires 187 productive resources 39 productive resources, scarcity 31 productivity and investment, crisis in 231–2 productivity of labour 83 profit 28
profitability of investments 18 of specific production process 29 profit and loss 117 coordinating role 17 profit function 29
profit opportunity of entrepreneur 29–30 profit return 17 progressive taxation
  policy prescriptions 218
pro-Keynesian view of World War II revision by historians and economists 222
propensity to consume, value of 47 prosperity dependence on absence of wealth 185 protectionism
  Keynesian model 219
PSST, see patterns of sustainable translations and trade public spending 129 combined with budget deficits 126 public spending increases 135–6 public works expenditure creating employment 244 purchasing power 236 purchasing power raising 35 pure rate of interest 17
Quadrant, Australian magazine 123, 124, 135
quantity of money 44, 54 quoted securities 50 rate of interest fluctuation 97 rates of interest, rising braking action of 100 rates of profit 207 rational expectations 240 assumption of 239
Reagan, Ronald, President of United States 165
  spending restraint years 179–80
  tax cuts to stimulate growth 129 Reagan era 1977–88
  high personal income tax rate 173 Reagan recovery 166
Reagan supply-side years cuts in tax-rates 166 dollar appreciation 166 government spending under control 166 sound monetary policy 166 “real balance” effect 202 real-world forecasting 54 Reason Foundation
  expert on roads and infrastructure 223
What’s wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

recession
free market economy 243 recession and inflation 8 recession causes 143 recession ending
not from increased levels of public spending 126 return to sound finance and fiscal discipline 126 recession fighting massive deficits, interest rates, low 219 recession, potential causes not demand failure 125–6 recessions, none 125 recessions problem 131, 238 absence of demand 125 absence of demand for output 143 deficiency of aggregate demand 125 fall in consumption spending and investment 137 recovery of the private sector 134 reduction in propensity to consume new demands for scientists, technicians 114 retail clerks employment reduction 114 reduction of interest rates slashing public sector wages, 1931 127 regulation of markets 134 relation between costs and prices rate of profit 111 resources, unemployed 246 resource-using costly production process 33–4 retail sales 231
retail store, luxurious dilapidated roads, alongside, in US 231 revolutionary technology 39 Ricardo, David, economist 219 no deficiency of demand 143–4 rich to poor, redistribution 165 rigidity of prices from government intervention 21–2 rigid money-wage policy 92 rigor-seeking Keynesianism 150–2, 154 roads and infrastructure in America substandard 223
“Roaring Twenties” 165, 167 massive cuts in tax rates 173 spending restraint years 179–80 Roosevelt, Franklin Delano deficit finance 8
New Deal with “Keynesian” prescription, 1933 127, 248
Röpke, Wilhelm 2
Royal Economic Society 69
Rueff, Jacques 2 saving
not spending for purposes of consumption 192 saving and hoarding 192 saving, frequently bad Keynesian myth 218
saving, investing, capital formation main ingredients of economic growth 231 saving ratio fluctuations 63 saving ratio increase, 1990–92 63 “savings” income minus consumption 51 “savings” and “investment” 52 coordination 113
dependence on psychological factors 153 Keynes’s denial of link between 114 saving decisions, individual self-defeating consumer demand, down 241 savings-investment identity 51–3 savings leading to reduction in employment 114 savings leading to reduction in total income Keynesian results 114 savings ratio 63
fluctuations in 52–3
Say, Jean-Baptiste 219 greatest French economist, early nineteenth century 146 “Law of Markets” 83
Say’s Law 125, 140–42, 218, 228, 244 comment from James Mill, economist 142–3 correctly understood 142 economists’ taught to reject 124–5 full employment guaranteed by Index

market operation, Keynesian myth 124 “general” theory of economy 219
Keynes’s misunderstanding, 143–4 meaning “supply creates its own demand” 141 “supply creates its own demand” 125
Say’s Law and policy 147
Schumpeter, Joseph A. 219 creative destruction 157, 158 on Austrian inflationary way 88 Schwartz, Anna J.
“The Great Contraction” 220
scientific procedure
self-organizing process 212
self-correcting market economy 13 self-organizing processes in human societies significance of 212
self-organizing system 212 Senate, Australia, inquiry on stimulus 123 on Keynesian economics 141 report extract 138–9 share market prices across world plunge in 132 Shaw, George Bernard
Keynes’s letter to 102 “shock” expenditure 47
short-term focus modern politics, modern economics and business 224 short-termism justification 218
short-term processes higher interest rates 18 “skilled” labor or “unskilled” labor 81 skills of unemployed 158 Smith, Adam 156, 212–13, 219 first principles for promoting economic growth 213–14 Smoot–Hawley Tariff legislation, US 173–4 snapshot view 27
social aspect to production 31 social security benefits, US 224 Social Security/Medicare unfunded liability 224 sound money 180
Southeast Asia
highest growth rates, saving and investing 231 special case, 1970s, huge increase in cost of oil 129 rapid growth in wages 129 UK’s economic prospects, dark, 1974 58 specialization and trade, patterns 150–51, 156–7 speculative demand 14–15 speculative demand for money liquidity trap 19 “Spending creates jobs and jobs create spending” 151–2, 156 spending for production 192 spending for recovery catastrophic 123 spending, lack of 152 spending newly created money 190 spending over saving Keynesian model, 219
spending restraint 180 spending, wasteful and profligate easy and common 135 stabilization policies, counterproductive 98 “stagflation” of 1970s downward spiral of economies 129 “stagflation” of 1970s, US 162 standard macroeconomic model 135 standard macroeconomics 4 static and dynamic accounts of the multiplier, 1930s 47 static equilibrium analysis 26–7 static equilibrium model 211 Stephen, Leslie
“best test of a sound economist” (1876) 144 sterling selling falling exchange rate 209 stimulus check 176 stimulus model, Keynesian, failure 121 stimulus packages 177, 195 drain on the economic system 197 more loss of capital 196–7 should be stopped 198
What’s wrong with Keynesian economic theory?

stimulus program 178 stimulus spending 245, 246 stimulus spending by the Keynesians 119, 121 stock market advance 1986 60 stock market index 212 stock prices 93, 231
structural unemployment wine and cloth 163
structure of demand Keynes recessions 131 subsidization by government of sector of economy 36 substantial unemployment Keynesian economics 246 substitution effects 178 incentives reduction 179 substitution effects in an economy 178 supply 81
supply and demand for different commodities 83 supply chain of goods 156 supply curve constraint mortgages 170
“Supply really does create demand” (François Hollande) 146–7 supply-side economics 172, 176 supply, value-adding 147 sustainable patterns of trade 157 tariffs, increase in 173–4 tax cuts 129, 173 tax cuts in Japan 130
tax cutting corporate business and investments 232 tax policies
Keynesian periods, 1929–39 172 supply-side periods, 1921–29, 1981–89 172 tax rates corporate income for Great Depression and Great Recession years, 1929–39 and 2004–14 172 for capital gains 172 for personal income 172 taxing work increases amount of 165 tax-rebate plan
President Gerald Ford, 1970s 178 technological advances in nineteenth century accumulation of capital goods 189 technological change 48 technological errors 28 technological progress 189 new uses for capital goods 185 technological progress, lack of no increase in capital goods 188–9 technological progress value 187 technology and capital goods 187–8 Template Letter 3 temporary idle resources, 89 Thatcher government “monetarist” policy 60
time-consumption temporal production process 33–4 time dimension 47 time paths of consumption 94 time preference present consumption over future consumption 15 time preferences 18
Total Output 227
consumers on consumption goods 137
Total Output and Employment 79 “trade cycle” boom and bust 98
trade cycles
boom phase 96
trade needs, accommodation 100 transfer payers 177 demand reduction 179
transfer payment check Summers’s logic 176 transfer recipients 177 spending more 179
transfer resources and spending power 179 Troubles Asset Relief Program (TARP) 223 Truman, Harry S., American President no fiscal stimulus to American economy 128 unemployment, 89, 92, 150, 239 unemployment benefits 21 unemployment compensation, generous 102–3 unemployment countering “print money”, spend, borrow 244 unemployment, growing 194 unemployment increase 157 unemployment problem job loss, options available 157–8 unemployment rates, double-digit 78 unemployment rates in United States, UK and Australia, 1929 to 1938 127 unemployment situations Keynesian economics relevance 244–5 unfunded liabilities in America 224 unit trust units purchase 52 unitary rate of interest 16
United Kingdom Blue Book 52
United Kingdom Clearing House Automated Payment System (CHAPS) 50
United Kingdom fiscal policy tightening 67
United Kingdom Payments Administration Ltd payments settlement 48 United Kingdom savings ratio, 1963 to 2015 63
United States Bureau of Economic Analysis 226–7
United States economy investment-driven, not consumption-driven 228 United States employment rate 160 United States stock market companies buying back own shares 208 value and production glut 33–6 value creation 36
sale at profit 34 value-creation process on consumers’ terms 41 value creation through production 42 value destruction sale at a loss 34 value of transactions significance 47–50 value productivity not physical productivity 110 Vietnam War 129 virtues of thrift “general” theory of economy 219 Wage Level 79
wage rates, lower cost and prices, lower 195 wage rates, sticky-downward 92 wage restraint during 1973 58 Walrasian general equilibrium 239, 242 wars, natural disasters beneficial to Keynes 196 Washington Consensus John Williamson 214 waste workers in industries 163 weakness in an industry 159 wealth, spending one’s way to 165 websites delivering news 157 welfare state 218
welfare state, slow development postwar period 129 “wholesale financial” transactions 50
Wicksell, Knut, Swedish economist rising prices, 1898 86
Wicksellian model nature of capital 109
World Bank world output value, 2013 48
World War II benefits of massive deficit spending 222 world’s economies, instability carbon emissions limitation 132