

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: what are the issues now? Controversies about disequilibria, economic growth and economic policies Noemi Levy and Etelberto Ortiz	1
PART I STRUCTURAL DISEQUILIBRIA IN EUROPE: WHAT TO DO
1. A structural and monetary perspective of the euro crisis Riccardo Bellofiore, Francesco Garibaldi and Mariana Mortagua	15
2. The big financial crisis and the European economic adjustment: a road toward the strengthening of the neoliberal agenda Ma. Guadalupe Huerta	34
3. Debt deflation theory and the Great Recession Domenica Tropeano and Alessandro Vercelli	49
PART II THE FORCES OF DISEQUILIBRIA AT WORK: THEIR IMPACT ON GROWTH
4. The periphery in the productive globalization: a new dependency? Alan Cibils and Germán Pinazo	69
5. Latin America in the new international order: new forms of economic organizations and old forms of surplus appropriation Noemi Levy	90
6. Inequality, technological change and worldwide economic recovery Carlos A. Roza	108

7.	Global disequilibria and the inequitable distribution of income Alma Chapoy	125
8.	Financialization, crisis and economic policy Hassan Bougrine and Louis-Philippe Rochon	143
PART III DISEQUILIBRIA IN THE MEXICAN ECONOMY: THE EXPORT GROWTH MODEL, ECONOMIC STAGNATION AND LABOR PRECARIZATION
9.	The limits of the export-led growth model: the Mexican experience Etelberto Ortiz	161
10.	The Mexican economy in 2014: between crisis, free trade, social devastation and labor precarization Alejandro Álvarez and Sandra Martínez	181
11.	The accumulation mode of production in Mexico and the economic structure of the manufacturing industry Luis Kato	196
PART IV DISEQUILIBRIA IN MEXICO: THE FINANCIAL AND FISCAL TRAP
12.	Economic growth and financial development in Mexico: from a virtuous circle of a bidirectional causality to a financial subordination Teresa López and Eufemia Basilio	213
13.	Private sector finance in the era of deregulation and economic openness: Mexico 2000–2014 Christian Domínguez and Juan Marroquín	231
14.	Pro-cyclical fiscal policy and the fiscal support of the Mexican monetary policy Luis Á. Ortiz	246
	Index	265