

Contents

---

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
1 Service innovation research methods Flemming Sørensen and Francesco Lapenta	1
2 Quantitative measurement instruments: a case of developing a method for measuring innovation in service firms Jon Sundbo	19
3 The critical incident technique and everyday innovation Lars Fuglsang	40
4 The laddering method in service innovation research Niels Nolsøe Grünbaum	60
5 Narratives as driver for co-creating new stories of service Anne Vorre Hansen	76
6 Mapping innovation processes: visual techniques for opening and presenting the black box of service innovation processes Anne Rørbæk Olesen	95
7 Interpretivist analyses of social networks of service innovation Jorn Kjølseth Møller and Flemming Sørensen	112
8 The role of social media data for research on user-driven innovation Ada Scupola	132
9 Using technology-oriented scenario analysis for innovation research Francesco Lapenta	148
10 Using Future Workshops for idea generation in engaged service innovation research Ada Scupola	166

11	Service innovation field experiments: developing and testing new innovation processes Flemming Sørensen	181
12	Service innovation in complex research projects: learnings from working within a triple helix framework Claire Esther Staddon Forder	203
	Index	227