

Index

- Adams, R. 176
Adams, Z. 50
Ades, A.F. 92
Adler, D. 241, 243
African and Growth Opportunity Act (2000) 143, 147, 148
Anner, M. 251, 253
Arthurs, H. 128, 137, 152
- Bakhshi, S. 92
Barry, C. 83, 90
Bazillier, R. 89
Bensusán, Graciela 7, 12, 25–6, 162, 191
bilateral and regional trade agreements 100, 103, 112–13, 114
Blackett, A. 87, 89–90
Bonnal, M. 91
Botero, J. 33, 36, 37, 87–8, 288
 labour index 48, 49
Burke, R.J. 67, 68
Busse, M. 91, 95
- Cambodia, labour law reform 239–47, 283
 1997 Code 240–41, 245
 Arbitration Council 239, 247, 262, 279
 Prakas for tripartite discussion 242–3 services 244–5
ILO Better Factories Cambodia 102–3, 110, 239, 279
 arbitration mechanism 242 factory monitoring 241–2
 impact 245–6
 union and wages 243–4
ILO Garment Sector Project 241
inclusivity and democratisation 245–6
US–Cambodia Multi-Fibre Agreement 102–3
US–Cambodia Trade Agreement on Textiles and Apparel 241
 World Bank (2004), compliance ranking 243
Cambridge Centre for Business Research 50–54
Campos, N.F. 88, 95
capabilities approach 63–78
 definition 16, 46
 labour and/or labour rights 64–9
 affiliation/collective organisation 65–6, 68–9
 as constitutive of development 133 health and safety and working hours 67–8 political participation 69, 76–7
 Sen's and Nussbaum's theories 63–4, 130–31
 social rights as 'conversion factors' 66 workplace democracy 72, 74–8
 instrumental value of labour democracy 74–5, 296
 workers' subjectivity 75–6
 workplace bridge institutions 77–8
 intrinsic value of labour democracy 74, 296
 labour citizenship approach 72–3, 75, 167, 173, 186, 188
 workplace inequality and discrimination 68–71
Central America Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA) 104, 105, 109, 111, 252
Chang, H -J. 130, 133, 134–5, 154, 155, 156
Cheong, David 23–4, 82
child labour 134, 244

- citizenship, see industrial citizenship/
workplace democracy
- clothing industries, see Cambodia;
Lesotho clothing sector; South
African clothing sector
- Commission on the Legal Empowerment of the Poor 228–9
- common and civil law systems 36, 37
- competitive advantage factors 89–90,
96–7, 112
- state interventions and 135
- constitutive view of the market 133–4,
138, 156
- context dependence 245–6, 252, 258,
263–4, 270, 278, 279–80, 313, 318
- contract of employment 36, 41, 303–4
- convergence 171
- conversion factors 66
- cooperative activities 110–11
- coordinated capitalism 169–70
- core international labour standards, see
international labour standards
- corporate social responsibility 136, 310
- Dahl, R. 72, 75
- Deakin, Simon 18–20, 21–2, 27, 28, 33,
53–4, 66, 84, 133, 137
- labour law functions 41–4, 292–8
- in operational context 177–89
- and Marshall checklist 318–20
- Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work 65,
67, 69–70, 101, 207, 304
- Declaration on the Right to Development (1986) 207, 208–9,
214
- Dehejia, V. 91
- demand management 42–3, 295–6, 320
- democratisation 71–8, 166, 320
- citizenship approach 72–3, 75, 167,
173, 186, 188
- institutional arrangements argument
72
- instrumental value of labour
democracy 60, 74–5
- workers' subjectivity 75–6
- workplace bridge institutions 77–8
- intrinsic value of labour democracy
74
- Latin American development 172–3, 185–8
- mixed state and non-state regulation
263, 286–7, 310
- social and civil dialogue 43
- see also* union/collective organisation
- De Soysa, I. 95
- Devashish, M. 94
- development, human
- as transformative 61–2, 83
- capabilities, see capabilities approach
- global value chains 135–6
- institutionalist perspectives 133–5,
137–8
- neoliberal paradigm 130
- orthodoxy's co-option 129–31
- and subordination 131–2
- participation in the economy and 131–2
- 'social rights' 46
- trade liberalisation and 92–6
- multilateral agreements 97–8
- positive and negative outcomes
94–6
- study findings 93–4
- see also* development as economic development
- development and equality in Latin America 162–200
- countries
- Argentina 183, 185, 187, 188, 189,
191, 194, 195
- Brazil 185, 187, 188, 191–2, 194
- Chile 183, 187–8, 191, 198
- Mexico 187, 189, 191, 198
- Uruguay 184–5, 188, 191, 194, 195, 197
- ECLAC, see Economic Commission
for Latin America and the Caribbean
- functions of labour institutions and policies 176–89
- democratisation and obstacles to 185–8
- economic coordination
- cost cutting and its results
178–80
- state intervention 179
- state-centred and market-
centred models 178

- empowerment 188–9
- risk sharing 180–84
 - fiscal resources 183–4
 - pensions 183
 - unemployment insurance 180–82
- informal employment 168–9
 - empowerment of the vulnerable 188–9
 - percentages across the region 175
 - protection and 181–3, 193–5
 - state control 190–92
- institutional transformation 190–98
- inequality, rate of reduction 162–4, 190
 - and neoliberal reforms 177
 - protecting domestic work 193–5
 - state control and labour inspectorate 190–92
 - subcontracting and collective bargaining 196–8
 - temporary employment agencies 197
- institutions' interaction in labour market 168–176
 - coordinated capitalism advantages 169–70
 - democratisation 172
 - governmental alignment across the region 172–3
 - structural heterogeneity and productive convergence 170–71
 - system and design shortcomings 174–6, 186
- low-productivity sectors 170–71
 - 'enclave growth' type 171
- study aims and focus 164–8
 - and conclusions 198–200
 - concept of inclusive and integrated development 163–4
 - concept of institutional design 174
 - concept of social inequalities 164
 - formal employment 164
 - labour law, public policies and labour market 165–6
 - labour reform, progress and limits 168
 - obstacles to inclusive development 166–7
 - reorientation of public policies and labour institutions 166
 - US Free Trade Agreement 191
 - development as economic development 127–39
 - agenda foci 127–8, 157–8, 227
 - case studies, see Lesotho clothing sector; South African clothing sector
 - regional and global dynamics 152–5
 - see also* development, human
 - development economics, see neoclassical/neoliberal perspectives
 - development friendly labour market 318–20
 - discrimination
 - caste and race discrimination 70, 229–30, 272
 - gender discrimination 68–71, 95, 109
 - domestic work 193–5, 221
 - women workers 221–2
 - work and family balance 188–9
 - sexual harassment 68, 258
 - see also* inequality
 - discrimination laws 297
 - Dixit, A. 308
 - domestic work 193–5
 - Du Toit, A. 130–31
 - Ebert, Franz Christian 23–4, 82
 - Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) 162, 163, 170, 171, 172, 179, 180, 193
 - 'Cambio estructural para la igualdad' (2012) 164–5
 - economic coordination 41–2, 293–5
 - economic south, see labour market regulation
 - Edmonds, E.V. 95
 - El Salvador, labour law reform 105, 247–53, 283
 - effects of reform 251–3
 - Forum for Economic and Social Consultation 247, 249–51
 - Labour Code Commission 249–50

- trade pressure and ILO programme 249–51
 - inclusivity and democratisation 252
- US GSP 247, 249
- weak democratic institutions 247–9, 252–3
 - union repression 248–9
- Elliott, K.A. 106, 107, 113
- employee protection, see protection legislation
- employer re-definition 290
- empowerment 43–4, 320
- environmental regulations 134–5
- Estlund, C. 70, 76, 133, 310
- European Union
 - Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) 252
 - tripartite bargaining ('concertation') 46
 - union centralisation 186
 - Working Time Directive 44
- evolutionary models 38–40
- Eyraud, F. 94, 95

- Fenwick, Colin 1, 11–12, 27, 53–4, 235, 312
- Fiksenbaum, L. 67, 68
- Flanagan, R.J. 89, 90, 91, 95
- forced and bonded labour 99, 222–4
- freedoms/unfreedoms, see capabilities approach
- Freeman, R.B. 88, 106, 107, 113
- Fudge, J. 66, 72, 133, 137, 156
- functional equivalents 300–301

- GDP factors 89
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (1947) 98, 141
- Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) 99–100, 105, 110, 112, 113, 247, 249, 251
 - EU 252
 - US labour-related complaints under 106–7
- geographic factors 92
- Gereffi, G. 128, 135, 138
- Glaeser, E.L. 92
- global economy 95
 - effects on clothing sectors 24, 82–3, 90
 - expanding scope of labour regulation 290–91
- global financial institutions 130
- global value chains 128, 135–6, 214
- Godfrey, Shane 24, 28, 127, 149, 151
- Godínez, V. 163, 166, 171, 196
- Gordon, J. 72, 74, 75, 173
- Gould, W. 90, 91
- governments, see state institutions; state intervention
- Greenhill, B. 95–6

- Harrison, A. 94
- Hasan, R. 94
- Havana Charter (1948) 97–8
- health and safety 67, 88
- Hepple, B.A. 16, 89, 138
- hiring and firing regulation 267–8, 295
- historical view, see evolutionary models
- Howe, John 298
- human capital 88
- human development, see development, human

- IKEA International Framework Agreement 303
- incentive compatibility 313, 318
- inclusive development, see democratisation; development and equality in Latin America
- inclusivity of governance 313
- India
 - Directive Principles of State Policy 209–10
 - Equal Remuneration Act (1976) 221–2
 - housing 228
 - labour courts 224–6
 - Lok Adalats* 226
 - labour law, see right to development
 - Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (2005) 227
 - Minimum Wages Act (1948) 228
 - National Commission for Enterprises in the Unorganised Sector 215, 219, 220, 221, 222–8, 229
 - Pune city 224

- Recognition of Forest Rights Act (2006) 228
- Socio Economic and Caste Census 212–13
- Supreme Court on bonded labour 223
- Unorganised Workers' Social Security Act (2008) 219, 220, 305–6
- indices, see labour indices
- industrial citizenship/workplace
 democracy 72–3, 75, 167, 173, 186, 188
- instrumental value of labour
 democracy 74–5, 296
 workers' subjectivity 75–6
 workplace bridge institutions 77–8
- intrinsic value of labour democracy
 74, 296
- labour citizenship approach 72–3, 75, 167, 173, 186, 188
see also 'social clause' debate
- inequality 35, 92
- Latin America, see development and equality in Latin America
see also discrimination
- Infante, R. 170
- informal employment 168–9, 290
- Latin America 168–9
 empowerment of the vulnerable 188–9
 percentages across the region 175
 protection and 181–3, 193–5
 state control 190–92
- Romania 267
- social dialogue processes 224–6
- South Asia 218–19
 India 211–12
- institutional capacity 238, 282–4, 313
- institutionalist theories 133–5, 138, 174–6, 289, 291
- International Association for the Legal Protection of Workers 82
- International Finance Corporation (IFC) 103, 151
- International Labour Office 236–7 role in Cambodia 27, 235, 239–47, 258, 265, 281, 283 role in El Salvador 27, 235, 237, 245, 247–53, 265, 281, 283
- role in Liberia 27, 235, 245, 253–9, 279, 280, 281, 283
- role in Nepal 27, 235, 259–64, 265, 279, 280, 281, 282–3, 287
- role in Romania 27, 235, 264–70, 281, 284, 287
- role in South Africa 27, 235, 237, 257, 271–9, 283
- International Labour Organization (ILO) 37, 46, 67, 95, 225
- Better Factories Cambodia (BFC) 102–3, 110, 239, 241–2, 243–4, 245–6, 279
- Better Work Programme 37, 46, 67, 95, 151, 225, 287, 309
- constraints upon effectiveness of 235–8 future directions 286–7
 context dependence and systemic fit 279–80
- Convention (No. 158) 261, 263
- Conventions (Nos 87 and 98) 105, 251–2
- Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (1998) 65, 67, 69–70, 101, 207, 304
- Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29) 223
- freedom of association standard 271–3
- inclusivity and democratisation 280–82
- labour law reforms, see individual countries' names
- tripartism orientation 279
- international labour standards 46, 85
 compliance impacts 88–9, 94–5, 150–51, 237 effect on production costs 90
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 62, 92, 265, 266, 269, 284
- International Trade Organization 97–8
- investment 92
- Jütting, J.P. 306, 307
- Kennedy, D. 129, 130, 156
- Kerr, W.A. 92

- Kolben, Kevin 15–16, 21, 22–3, 60, 102–3, 263, 286, 297–8, 309
- Kryvoi, Y. 107
- Kucera, D. 85, 91
- Kuznets, S. 21, 34–5, 37
- labour citizenship 72–3, 75, 167, 173,
186, 188
- labour costs 178–80, 183–4, 197
- labour indices 47–52
- Botero, Djankov, La Porta, Lopez-
 de-Silanes and Shleifer 48, 49
- Cambridge index 50–54
- OECD 49, 50–52
- World Bank 48, 49–50
- labour institutions, see union/collective organisation
- labour law 18–20
- and standard employment
 relationship 40–41, 54, 278, 286
- approaches to development 137–9
- as in liminal stage 127–8, 138, 157–8
- ‘right to develop’, see right to development
- Deakin and Marshall’s checklist
 318–20
- evolutionary character of 39–40,
 129–30
- functions 41–4, 319–20
- democratisation 43, 296
- economic coordination 41–2, 293
- empowerment 43, 297–8
- maintenance of demand for goods and services 42–3, 295–6
- risk distribution 42, 295
- linear models 38
- minimal or ‘floor of rights’ 45, 304
- neoclassical 18–19, 61–2
- new institutionalist 19, 35–6
- object, form and institutions 84
- redressing vulnerabilities and unfreedoms 298
- and standard employment
 relationship 40–41, 54, 278, 286
- structural transformation models
 34–5
- and legal origins approach 36–8
- system interaction 19–20, 54
- techniques 44–7
- international labour standards 46
- mandatory norms 45
- modes of enforcement 45–6
- open coordination 47
- reflexive 44
- see also* labour law reform
- labour law and trade policy, see trade policy and labour standards
- labour law reform 235–9
- case studies, see Cambodia; El Salvador; Liberia; Nepal;
 Romania; South Africa
- context dependence and systemic fit 245, 252, 263–4, 270, 277, 279–80
- Deakin’s and Marshall’s checklist
 318–20
- inclusivity and democratisation
 237, 245–6, 252, 258, 270, 277,
 280–82
- labour market regulation and state capacity 238, 282–4
- assumptions regarding law as a means of 284–5
- beyond orthodox understanding of labour law 286
- ‘orthodox’/‘traditional’ issues 245–6, 257–8
- tripartite discussion and empowerment 281
- underlying assumptions on goals and merits of 282–5
- see also* labour law; labour market
 regulation
- labour market regulation 288–314
- broad view of 301–6
- expanding definition of ‘employee’ 302
- lessening hold of employment
 contract 303–4
- responding to non-standard work
 301–2
- social clauses in trade agreements
 303
- social security to ‘atypical’ workers
 304–5
- supply chains 302–3
- three-pronged strategy 307
- checklist for developing and reforming 318–20
- democratisation 296–7

- economic coordination 319
 - collective action 293
 - industrial and technological upgrading 293–4
 - institutional capacity 313
 - promotion of employment 294–5
- efficient and cheap arbitration bodies 310
- the employer 290
- empowerment and redistribution 297–8
- enforcement and incentives strategies 306, 308–12
 - incentive compatibility 313
 - incentives and education by inspectorates 309
 - self-enforcing governance 308
 - state–private partnerships 309–10
- expanding scope of 290–91
- institutions, new architectures and forms 289
 - and economic North and South mismatch 289–90
 - functional equivalents 300–301
 - systemic fit and context dependence 313, 318–19
 - taking into account local institutional setting 299–300
 - taking into account regulatory incongruity 301–6
 - and workers' bargaining powers 297–8
- labour law debate stand-off 289
- labour regulation as 'constituting' the market 133, 288–9
- maintenance of demand for goods and services 295–6
- minimum floor of rights 304
- risk distribution 295, 319
- social dialogue 310–12
 - inclusivity of governance 313, 318
 - policymaker coordination 291–2
- see also* labour law reform
- labour provisions in trade arrangements 103–14
- compliance and dispute mechanisms 106–10
 - NAALC example 108–9, 111–12
 - political and economic factors 107
 - unilateral trade agreements 106–7
 - US–Cambodia example 109–10
- domestic labour legislation, enforcement 104–5
- labour institutions/workers' organisations 110–12
- capacity building 111
- cooperative activities 110–11
- trade agreement interventions 104–5
- trade protectionism question 103, 112–14
- Laiglesia, J.R. de 306, 307
- Langille, B. 65–6, 69–70, 133
- Latin America, see development and equality in Latin America
- Lee, E. 94, 95
- legal origins theory 21, 36–8, 48, 236–7
- Lesotho clothing sector 139, 140, 152, 156
 - African Growth and Opportunity Act (2000) 147, 148
 - economic development and labour law tensions 152
 - foreign direct investment 147–51
 - government incentives 148
 - South African and Taiwanese 147–8, 151
- Lesotho National Development Corporation 148
- Multi-Fibre Agreement quotas 147
- wages 139, 148–51, 156
 - Lesotho Labour Code 148–9
 - Ministry of Labour and Employment 150
 - Wages Advisory Board 148–50
- Lewis, A. 21, 34, 35, 37
- Liberia, labour law reform 253–9, 280–81, 283
 - 'Americo-Liberian' elite 253–4
 - Human Development Index ranking 254
 - ILO's drafting of 255–7
 - incremental (institutional fit) 138–9
 - limits and achievements of 257–8

- National Tripartite Committee 255, 258
- Poverty Reduction Strategy 255
- weak democratic institutions 253–5
- linear models, limits of 34–8
 - structural adjustment theory, see structural adjustment theory
- macroeconomic structural adjustment programmes 130
- Mah, J.S. 91
- Maine, H.S. 38
- Malmberg, J. 53
- mandatory and default rules 50
- mandatory norms 45
- Marshall, Shelley 1, 174, 268, 287, 288
- Mesa Lago, C. 175, 183
- migrant workers 109, 222–4
- minimum floor of rights 304
- mortality rates 67
- negotiated labour laws 56
- neoclassical/neoliberal perspectives
 - 18–19, 61–2, 130, 133, 137–8, 162–3
 - and ‘orthodox’ issues 128, 129–34, 245–6, 257–8, 261, 280, 298
 - co-option issues 128, 131, 157, 199
 - multilateral trade framework 97–8
 - protectionism 103, 112–14
- Nepal, labour law reform 259–64, 287
- Constituent Assembly 259–60
- Human Development Index ranking 259
- ILO proposals for integrated reform 261–3, 279–80
 - context dependence and systemic fit 263–4
 - realities of practice 281, 282–3
 - Tripartite Taskforce 262
 - weak governance 259–60
- Neumayer, E. 95
- new institutional economics 19, 35–6
- non-government organisations (NGOs) 111
- North American Agreement on Labour Cooperation (NAALC) 101, 108–9, 111–12
- Nugent, J.B. 88, 95
- Nussbaum, M. 63–4, 67–70
- Orbie, J. 105
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - ‘EPL’ index 49, 50–52, 269
 - National Contact Points 303
 - ‘orthodox’ issues 128, 129–34, 245–6, 257–8, 261, 280, 298
- outsourcing 147–8, 179, 198, 302, 303
- Palley, T.I. 88, 90
- Papageorgiou, D. 94
- Pavcnik, N. 92, 95
- Perazzo, I. 162
- Porcile, G. 170
- poverty 63, 92, 131, 212–13, 227–9
- prison and forced labour 99
 - and bonded labour 222–3
- private pension schemes 45
- productivity 93–4
- property and contract rights 36, 134
- property taxation 39
- protection legislation 163, 174
 - country comparisons 50–52, 95
 - employee representation laws 51–2
 - see also* social insurance/security; risk distribution
- protectionism 103, 112–14
- Rama, M. 94
- Reddy, S.G. 83, 90
- redistribution 89–90, 127, 128, 133, 156, 297
 - concept of convergence 171
 - South Africa 139
- reflexive models 38, 44, 46, 308–9
- retail dependency in clothing sector 141, 144, 153
- Revenga, A. 94
- right to development 207–30
 - approach, and implications for labour law 208–14
 - duty of states to enable 209–11
 - participation 213–14
 - processes of development 208–9
 - self-employed and informal work 211–13
 - social security measures 213, 228–9

- territorial limits on domestic labour 214
- Commission on the Legal Empowerment of the Poor 228–9
- Indian labour law 214–18
 - contract labour 217–18, 222
 - ‘flexible’ labour market debate 216–17
 - government Codes 218
 - informal sector 218–19
 - judiciary, and government monitoring 224–6
 - migrant workers/bonded labour 222–4
 - social security 219–20
 - union power 215–16
 - women workers 221–2
- investment and growth 215–16
- labour law and social justice 227–30
 - ensuring employment 227
 - poverty and poverty reduction measures 227–9
 - social dialogue/access to justice 224–6
 - social discrimination 229–30
- risk distribution 42, 132, 180–84, 295, 319; see also protection legislation
- Rittich, K. 130, 131–2
- Robertson, R. 110, 252
- Rodrik, D. 91
- Roethlisberger, C. 179, 186, 191
- Romania, labour law reform 264–70, 284
 - as response to global financial crisis 266–8
 - changes to hiring and firing 267–8
 - unions and ILO responses 266–7
 - employment protection laws 268–70
 - corrective function evaluations 269
 - economic coordination 269
 - unemployment insurance/risk distribution 270
- Human Development Index ranking 264
- ILO and 266, 267
- in constricted policy space 270
- Labour Code (2003) 264–5
 - 2005 and 2006 reforms 266
 - 2011 reforms 267–8, 281
 - labour market flexibility policy 267
 - Social Dialogue Act 267–8
- Rossel, C. 162
- Rossi, A. 110
- SACU 140, 143, 147, 148
- Salomon, M. 209, 214
- Samaniego, N. 162, 169
- Samy, Y. 91
- Sankaran, Kamala 6, 10–11, 26–7, 207
- Sarkar, P. 53–4
- Sarner, R. 91
- Schrank, A. 88
- Sen, A. 63–7, 73, 130–31, 137, 155–6, 298–9
- Singer–Prebisch hypothesis 37
- ‘social clause’ debate 96–8, 303; see also industrial citizenship/workplace democracy
- social dialogue 224–6
 - policy maker coordination 291–2
 - traditional and new institutions 310–12
 - worker agency/participation 76, 210, 213–14
- social expenditure 131
- social insurance/security 39, 42, 44, 304–5
 - India 219–20
 - Latin America 180–81
 - state pension schemes 45
 - see also* protection legislation
- ‘social rights’ 46, 66, 127
- South Africa, labour law reform 271–9, 283
 - assessment of 276–9
 - context dependence 278
 - inclusivity and democratisation 277
 - systemic fit 277
 - collective bargaining 275–6
 - Congress of South African Trade Unions 271
- ILO
 - Freedom of Association report (1992) 271–3
 - Memorandum (1995) 273, 274, 275

- primary objectives 274–5
- Tasks Team's draft Bill (1995) 273–6
- key principles 274
- Labour Relations Act (1995) 276
- market flexibility 275
- Reconstruction and Development Programme 273–5
- small businesses and atypical employment 274
- South African clothing sector 139–58
 - decline and restructuring of 140–42
 - domestic orientation 140
 - retail dependency 141, 153
 - trade liberalisation and competitiveness 140–41
 - union/collective bargaining 141
 - development and labour law tensions 152–5
 - employees, sector attribution 153
 - restructuring: threats to standard employment 153–4
 - trade liberalisation and job loss 154–5
- Import Substituting Industrialisation strategy 140, 142
- Industrial Policy Action Plans (IPAP 1 and 2), 143–4
- KwaZulu-Natal Province 145–6
- labour regulation
 - and development 139–40
 - CMT operatives 144, 146–7
 - non-compliant employers 145–7
 - revision 144–7
- outsourcing 147–8
- retailers 141, 144, 153
- SACU 140, 143, 147
- trade and industrial policy 142–4
 - supply-side programmes 143–4
 - trade agreements 143
 - WTO-approved measures 143
- wages 139–40, 141, 142, 149, 151
 - bargaining council 145–7, 154, 275
- South African Customs Union (SACU) 140, 143, 147–8
- South African Labour Relations Act (LRA) 153, 257, 274, 276
- Southern African Development Community 143
- standard employment relationship 40–41, 54, 139, 278, 286
- state institutions 308, 309–10
- state intervention 134–5, 154–5
 - duty of states 209–10
 - India 215
 - Latin America 179
- Stiglitz, J. 16, 61, 87, 163
- structural adjustment theory 33, 34–8, 301
 - GFIs' macroeconomic programmes 130
- supply chains, power and accountability 302–3
- systemic fit 19–20, 38–41, 54–5, 245, 279, 313, 318
- systemic nature of labour institutions 174–6
- Takala, J. 67
- tariff levels 86, 142
- technical and development cooperation 110
- technological change 92
- Tortell, L. 105
- trade liberalisation 92–6
- trade policy and labour standards 82–115
 - bilateral and regional trade agreements 100, 103, 112–13, 114
 - conflict and linkage between 82–4, 114–15
 - integration of labour standards 96–103
 - EU trade legislation 100
 - implementation mechanisms 101–3
 - multilateral treaties 97–8
 - proliferation of 100–101
 - 'social clause' debate 96–8
 - trade-related 99–102, 112
 - US trade arrangements 98–9, 101
- labour law and trade policy 84–6
 - international trade flows and tariffs 85–6, 142–3
 - labour law heterogeneity and analytical indicators 84–5
- labour law, as driver and drain 87–92

- comparative advantage factors
 - 89–90, 96–7
- core international labour
 - standards compliance 88–9, 94–5
- economic efficiency/utilitarian value 88
- redistributive labour standards 89–90
- socio-economic impacts 87–8
- trade flows 90–92
- labour provisions, effects in trade arrangements 103–14, 303
 - compliance and dispute mechanisms 106–10
 - NAALC example 108–9, 111–12
 - political and economic factors 107
 - unilateral trade agreements 106–7
 - US–Cambodia example 109–10
- on domestic labour legislation 104–5
- on labour institutions/workers' organisations 110–12
- trade protectionism question 112–14
- production 92–3
- trade liberalisation 86, 92–4
- unilateral trade agreements 113
- trade preferences, see Generalized System of Preferences
- transaction costs 35–6
- Trigueros-Argüello, A. 252
- Turnbull, P.J. 95
- unilateral trade agreements 113
- union/collective organisation 65–6
 - collective bargaining 40, 43, 68–9, 141, 275–6
- country case studies
 - Cambodia 243
 - El Salvador 248–9
 - ILO proposals 249–51
 - India 215–16
 - Nepal 261–3
 - Romania 267–8
 - South Africa 139, 141
 - (SACU) 140, 143, 147, 148
 - collective bargaining 275, 276
 - freedom of association 271–3
 - South Asia 211
- democracy and 77
- economic South ('atypical') 291
 - collective action problems 293
 - labour provisions' effects upon 110–12
- Latin America 169–70, 173, 179
- trade liberalisation effects upon 95
- see also* democratisation; wages
- United Nations 113
 - Declaration on the Right to Development (1986) 207, 208–9, 214
 - Legal Empowerment of the Poor (2008) 304
- United States
 - CAFTA 104, 105, 109, 111, 252
 - Generalized System of Preferences 247
 - New Deal (1930s) 43, 295
 - US–Cambodia Multi-Fibre Agreement 102–3, 109–10
 - US–Cambodia Trade Agreement on Textiles and Apparel 241
- value chains 128
- value chains, power and accountability 302–3
- Vandaele, A. 96
- vector auto regression and error correction models 52
- Velásquez Pinto, M. 171, 181
- von Broembsen, Marlese 24, 127
- wages 88, 90
 - clothing industries, Lesotho and South Africa
 - comparison, and minimum labour standards 151
 - Lesotho 139, 148–51, 156
 - South Africa 139–40, 141, 142, 145–7, 149, 151
 - weekly minimum wages (2005–10) 150
 - weekly wages rate 149
- clothing industry, Cambodia 246
- forced labour, ILO's position on 223

- minimum 43, 45, 137, 184–5, 195, 304
- India 227–8
- see also* union/collective organisation
- wages flexibility 94–5
- Washington consensus 37, 61
- Wass, V.J. 95
- Weller, J. 174, 179, 180, 181, 183, 186, 191
- Wilkinson, F. 27, 66, 84
- Winters, L.A. 92
- Woolcock, M. 241, 243
- work-related deaths 67
- workers' organisations, see union/collective organisation
- working time 44, 45, 67–8, 82
- workplace democracy, see democratisation
- World Bank 93
 - Doing Business* 19, 37, 62, 236, 269, 283–4
 - 'employing workers index' (EWI) 48, 49–50
 - International Finance Corporation (IFC) 103
 - Investment Climate Assessment for India 225
 - neo-liberal policy prescriptions 261
 - World Development Report 2013* (2012) 132, 137, 164, 238
- World Trade Organization (WTO) 86, 143
 - Agreement (1994) 96
 - Doha round 100–101
 - Third Recital of Marrakesh Agreement (1994) 86