The Central European University and its Open Society mission

Conceived during the 15th anniversary of the Center for Policy Studies at Central European University, most of the chapter contributors have a connection with the Center or the University.

This book came to completion when the Hungarian government passed a law that imposed restrictions on foreign universities and threatened academic freedoms in Hungary, which has been CEU's home for over 25 years. The book is dedicated to CEU's future in Budapest as a free, self-governing institution devoted to the pursuit of academic excellence, critical thinking, and the values of open society.
