

Contents

List of figures and tables	ix
List of contributors	xi
1 Contextualizing entrepreneurship in-between Marcela Ramírez Pasillas, Ethel Brundin and Magdalena Markowska	1
PART I CONTEXTUALIZING THE TOP-DOWN DRIVING FORCES FOR ENTREPRENEURIAL PRACTICES
2 The political economy of indigenous ethnic entrepreneurship: the Ethiopian experience Hussien Yimam	21
3 Who is really an ethnic minority? The puzzling paradox of the conceptualization of ethnic entrepreneurship Hussien Yimam	36
4 Women's entrepreneurship in Rwanda: overcoming entrepreneurial stereotypes through government support Jean Bosco Shema and Samuel Mutarindwa	52
5 The impact of the institutional context on women's entrepreneurship in Ethiopia: breaking the cycle of poverty? Hailemickael Deres Mekonnen and Joaquín Cestino	65
6 Contextualizing entrepreneurship as an antidote to institutional evangelizing: diezmo and informal contract commissions in Mexico Edmundo Ramírez Pasillas and Hans Lundberg	80
7 Contextualizing universities for new venture creation: the case of family business students at the Tecnológico de Monterrey in Mexico Fernando Sandoval-Arzaga, David S. Xotlanihua González, Geraldina Silveyra and María Fonseca-Paredes	92

8	The discursive formation of ‘seriousness’ in the ship canal rat race between Panama, Mexico and Nicaragua Hans Lundberg	105
PART II CONTEXTUALIZING THE BOTTOM-UP DRIVING FORCES FOR ENTREPRENEURIAL PRACTICES
9	Jugaar as entrepreneurial resourcefulness Khizran Zehra	131
10	Contextualizing entrepreneurial networks in Ethiopia: the case of the Ekubs of the Gurage ethnic group Yaschilal Shitaye Anely	146
11	Contextualizing crowdfunding in low-income countries: the case of Pakistan Nadia Arshad	157
12	Exploring antecedents for new venture creation in Ethiopia Yikaalo Welu Kidanemariam	169
13	Contextualizing entrepreneurial opportunity creation as an outcome of social embeddedness Demeke Chimdessa Gutu and Jebessa Teshome Bayissa	181
14	Exploring institutional entrepreneurship in developing countries—copreneurs in the tourism industry: a Bolivian case Maria José Parada and Alexandra Dawson	194
15	The interplay between context and family business continuity in developing countries Pierre Sindambiwe	211
16	Entrepreneurship in family businesses in Ethiopia Ermias Werkilul Asfaw	224
PART III CONTEXTUALIZING HYBRID DRIVING FORCES FOR ENTREPRENEURIAL PRACTICES
17	Placing the Ugandan entrepreneurship paradox in context Peter Rosa and Waswa Balunywa	235
18	Barranquilla’s carnival: the place where identity meets societal entrepreneurship Erika Arévalo	250

19	New firms' survival in Rwanda: an analysis of institutional and social contexts Samuel Kamugisha	262
20	Daring to be different: a case of entrepreneurial stewardship in a Guatemalan family's coffee farm Marcos Vega Solano and Allan Discua Cruz	274
21	Financial performance of family versus non-family firms in the context of an economy in turmoil: a market from 'developed' to 'emerging' Diogenis Baboukardos and Naveed Akhter	288
22	A literature review of mixed-embeddedness for immigrant entrepreneurship: lessons for developing countries Asres Abitie Kebede	304
23	Influences of immigrants from emerging economies and developing countries on immigrant entrepreneurship in Sweden Quang Evansluong	316
24	Epilogue: multiple embeddedness contexts for entrepreneurship Rodrigo Basco	329
	Index	337

