I am grateful to the contributors to this collection for authoring such excellent chapters and for keeping to the brief when doing so; also for their responsiveness and patience in the journey from submission to publication. Likewise, thank you to Laura Mann, Kaitlin Gray and the team at Edward Elgar for supporting this project and for their assistance during the editing and production process. Thanks must also go to Prof. Dev Gangjee, Prof. Michael Handler and Dr Makeen Makeen, along with the Series Editor, for their feedback on the draft proposal for this collection: their input helped shape the focus and scope of the book. My research assistants, Jingwen Guo and Ashleigh Hamidzadeh, helped enormously with initial copy-editing and the rather painstaking task of ensuring the chapters were in house style: I am grateful to them both for their efforts and professionalism. Last, but by no means least, thank you to Dr Megan Smith for her continuing support and understanding, especially when I try to juggle too many things at once.
