

Contents

---

List of contributors	vi
Introduction: in search of alternative origins of organizing Tuomo Peltonen, Hugo Gaggiotti and Peter Case	x
PART I THEORETICAL ORIGINS
1 Chaos: the unspeakable other to origins and organizing Gibson Burrell	3
2 Revisiting the sociological origins of organization theory: the forgotten legacy of Pitirim Sorokin Tuomo Peltonen	28
3 Neglecting the anthropological origins of organizing: causes and consequences Hugo Gaggiotti, Monika Kostera and Paweł Krzyworzeka	48
4 She came and stayed: a de Beauvoirean approach to organizing Caterina Bettin and Albert J. Mills	69
PART II HISTORICAL ORIGINS
5 Organizing in the Roman Empire Barbara Czarniawska	91
6 A Daoist epistemology for understanding an alternative origin of organizing Wenjin Dai	114
7 The origins of organizing in the sixteenth century Jose Bento da Silva and Ioanna Iordanou	129
8 The Quakers: forgotten pioneers Donncha Kavanagh and Martin Brigham	147
Index	169