

Index

- absolute freedom 72–4
- academic micro-politics 53–4
- accounting practices
 - of Jesuits 129, 137–9
 - of Quakers 149, 151
 - of Roman Empire 91, 99
- agriculture in Roman Empire
 - labor 102–3
 - landowners and estate management 101–2
 - technology 103
- ambiguity
 - de Beauvoir embracing notion of 76–7
 - managing by creation of own ‘art of living’ 78–80
 - as mode of existence of human being 76–8, 83
 - negative connotations 76
 - realizing one’s own 84
- anachronism xii–xiii
- animalistic imagery 8
- anthropology
 - academic political controversies associated with 62
 - advantage of exposing business students to 63, 65
 - ‘anthropological frame of mind’ 58–9, 61
 - anthropologists 50
 - characteristics of good research in 58
 - and embarrassment 62
 - ethnography as method of 59, 62–3
 - as imagining organizing 50
 - influence across disciplines 48–9
 - inspiration from 49
 - as less important focus than psychology 52
 - original idea of ‘observing’ 51–3
 - as overlooked in organizing 48
 - studying of organizations 50–51, 53, 60
 - reasons for exclusion from 53–6
- archiving 135–7, 140–41
- Army
 - control of 94–5
 - as means of controlling Roman Empire 92–4
- art of living
 - as ethics of organizing 80–81
 - Lebensphilosophie* based on 70
 - MMA gym as place for freedom 71, 81–3
 - one is what one does 78–80
- autopoiesis 19–20
- Axial Age 6
- banks
 - Quakers 153–4
 - Roman Empire 100–101
- Barnard, C. x, xvi, 19, 28, 31–2, 39, 132
- Beer, S. 13, 19–20
- Bento da Silva, J. 129, 137–8
- Brewis, J. 71–2, 76–81, 83
- bureaucratic rationality xi, 97
- Burrell, G. xxii, 7, 28, 35, 40, 63, 76, 85
- business (Quakers)
 - and beliefs 154–5
 - and industry 148–51
 - lessons from 162–4
 - loss of 160–62, 164
 - nature of 151–4
 - practices 157–60, 164–5

- Cadbury company 149, 153, 160
 Cadbury, E. 161, 163
 Cadbury, G. 153
 Cartesian vision of man 76–8, 83
 Case, P. xii, 39
 Casey, C. xi, 40
 catalogues 139–40
 Chaology xv, 12–16
 Chaos
 as absence of organization 13 in academic literature 13 antonym 13 in the beginning 7–12
 cult of 11–12, 22–3
 current meaning of 12
 as defining term of Organization Theory 4–5 desire to keep at bay 24 as ghost at table of Organization Theory 25 hierarchy of positioning around 15–16 as metaphor 12–13
 and notion of cosmos 5–6, 15 relation to disorganization 14–15 as unspoken about 6, 21 and wuwei 121
 chaos theory 13
Chaoskampf 9–10, 12, 15
 Chinese philosophy characteristics of 114
 Daoism 119–26
 East–West distinction 114–16, 118–19, 124–6 previous representations in MOS 116–18 romanticization of 118–19 civilizational dynamics 33, 35–9, 41–2
 Clegg, S. 24, 28, 32, 34, 40, 131 complexity theory 14, 20
 ‘conduct of conduct’ 132, 141, 143 corporate power 53–4 cosmogenesis 7
 cosmos 5–8, 15
 Council of Ten 133–7, 142–3 creation action within 5 of ‘art of living’ 79–80, 83 and myth 6–9, 12, 21–2 notion of 5 of order 10 relation to Chaos 10–11, 15 and ritual 5–6 of things 10
 cultural–historical approach 29, 32–4, 40
 cultural mentalities 28, 30, 32–9, 41–2 culture attempts to measure 60–61 of Chancery 136
 Greek 97
 as mattering 116
 Quaker 157–60
 teaching 60–64
 Cunliffe, A.L. x–xi, 28, 35, 40–41, 58, 61, 132
 cybernetics 19–20
 Czarniawska, B. xiv, 49, 52, 55–6, 58–61, 65, 112
 Daoism
 Daoist epistemology of organizing 122–6 mysterious Dao 119–22 data collection 59–60
 Davis, G.F. xi, 3, 34, 40 de Beauvoir, S. (approach to organizing) ambiguous ‘me’ 76–80
 art of living
 as ethics of organizing 80–81
 MMA gym as place for freedom 81–3
 one is what one does 78–80
 existentialism
 absolute vs situated freedom 72–4
 other as hell vs other as part of who I am 74–6 fighting for own freedom 80–83 practice through examples 70–72 reasons for 69–70
 relevance of 84–6

- towards non-essential philosophy of
 - organizing 83–4
- deutero learning 56–7
- disorganization 7, 10, 14–15
- East–West distinction 114–16, 118–19, 124–6
- epistolarity
 - of Jesuits 139–42
 - of Reformers and Humanists 141–2
 - of Venetians 134–5, 141
- ethics
 - of impeding observation 64–5
 - of organizing 80–81
- ethnography
 - auto-ethnographic work 71, 77, 79–80
 - in early twentieth century 50
 - ethos of ‘being there’ 52
 - as less important focus than psychology 52
 - organizational
 - consequences of neglecting origins of imagining 56–9
 - development of 55–6
 - as methodology 61
 - origin of 55
 - purpose of 64
 - relevance for bodies of knowledge 63–4
 - understandings of 50
 - use as data collection tool 59–60, 63
- ethnos 60
- European Union 111
- existentialism
 - absolute vs situated freedom 72–6
 - de Beauvoir’s perception of 70, 72, 79, 83
 - and ethics 80–81
 - other as hell vs other as part of who I am 74–6
 - reason for arousing perturbation 86
 - Sartre against de Beauvoir 72–6, 85–6
- Fayol, H. x, xvi, 28, 85, 132
- finances of Roman Empire
 - accounting system 91, 99
 - banks 100–101
 - monetary transactions 100
 - taxation 98–100
 - wealth 99–100
- Foucault, M. xii–xiii, 18, 79, 87, 119, 129–30, 132–3, 142–3
- freedom
 - absolute vs situated 72–4
 - fighting for own 80–83
 - MMA gym as place for 81–3
- functionalist systems theory 28–9, 31–2, 39–40
- Gaggiotti, H. 48, 61
- governmental management
 - as administrative principle 132–3
 - Jesuits’ administration 137–40, 142
 - and pastoral power 142–3
 - Venetian central intelligence organization 133–7, 142
- governmentality xx, 132
- guanxi* 118
- Harvard University
 - anthropology department 51
 - central role of organizational studies 39
 - circle of scholars 19, 28
 - early American sociology at 29–32, 42
- Hatch, M.J. x–xi, 28, 35, 40–41, 63, 132
- Hawthorne project 31, 51–5, 59
- hermeneutics 121–2
- history
 - American sociology at Harvard University 29–32, 39–40
 - anthropology and origins of organizing 50–53
 - of Chaos, creation and organization 7–13, 15–19, 21, 23–4
 - of civilizational dynamics 35, 37, 39
 - cyclical philosophy of 35–6

- of early modern Venice 133–7
- Jesuits' organization 137–40
- of management rhetoric 36
- of modernity 40–41
- of Organization Theory 28, 34–6, 40, 42
- of Quakers 147–51, 162–5
- of Roman Empire 91–111
- sixteenth century 129–43
- and sociological imagination 56–7
- Sorokin's contribution to sociology 32–4, 42
- uses in Organization Theory 130–32
- holistic perspective
 - for engaging with culture 61
 - and ethnography 57
 - in Integralist culture 38
 - of organizational life 52
 - organizations observed by 50
 - using 'unprofessional' 54–5
- humanism 14, 141–2
- hydraulic societies 8
- Ideational culture 32–8, 41
- Ignatius of Loyola 137–42
- imagination
 - and ethnography 59
 - as necessity 57
 - organizational 62
 - reflexivity inspiring 58
 - sociological 49–50, 55–8, 62
- imagining organizing 48–50, 56–9, 63–5
- industry
 - and Quakers 148–51
 - in Roman Empire
 - labor 105–6
 - resources 103–4
 - technology 104–5
- Integralist culture 33–9, 41–2
- interdisciplinary emphasis 60
- Jordanou, I. 133–4, 140
- Jesuits' way of organizing 129–30, 137–40, 142–3
- Kavanagh, J. 71, 81–3
- Kostera, M. 56–7, 59
- Kuhn, T. xii–xiii, 125
- labor
 - agriculture in Roman Empire 102–3
 - industry in Roman Empire 105–6
- landowners and estate management in Roman Empire 101–2
- magic realism 7
- management
 - defined as 'conduct of individual's conduct' 143
 - governmental 132–40, 142–3
 - of Quakers 160–62
 - scientific x–xi, 150, 161–4
- management and organization studies (MOS)
 - manufacture of East and West 'fusion' in 119
 - positivist traditions in 115
 - previous representations of Chinese thinking in 116–18
 - Quakers as overlooked in 147, 151
 - traditional model of subjectivity 85
- managerialism
 - decline of Quaker business linked with rise of 147
 - emergence of 129–31
 - in Jesuits' administration 137–40
 - in Venetian central intelligence organization 133–7, 143
- Marduk 9, 12
- material flow 20
- materiality 10, 15, 24
- Mayo, E. x, xvi–xvii, 19, 28, 31–2, 51–2, 54–5, 59, 62, 85
- mentalities see cultural mentalities
- Merton, R. xvi, 19, 28, 31–2, 39
- metallurgy 24
- Milton, J. 11
- MMA (mixed martial arts) gym 81–3
- modernity
 - crisis of materialistic 31
 - cultures of 30
 - development of 34

- historical-cultural analysis of 40
- limits of Sensate 34
- as only accomplished by
 - organizations 131
- and organizational analysis 36
- of Renaissance mentality 33–4
- role of post-Enlightenment 32
- rupture of 152
- secular 41
- Sorokin's historical and
 - philosophical treatment of 40–41
- Sorokin's reconsideration of 35, 37
- Morgan, G. xi, 28, 40, 63–4, 76, 85
- MOS see management and
 - organization studies (MOS)
- music-making 16, 24, 156
- myth 5–9, 12, 21–2, 24

- narrative accounts 9–10
- 'nothingness' 7–8, 15, 72–4

- observational practices
 - anthropological approach 51–3
 - ethical risk of impeding 64–5
 - of ethnographer 58–9
 - as fundamental for imagining
 - organizing 63
 - helping to imagine organizing 50
 - holistic approach 50–51
 - and people 50
 - technique created by
 - anthropologists 49
 - Warner's approach 59–60
- 'Occidentalism' 4, 8, 18
- organicism 18–19, 25
- organization
 - Chaos as absence of 13
 - concept of 16–21
 - origin of term 16–18
 - production of 20–21
- organization studies
 - anthropological inspiration 49
 - different uses of historical
 - methodologies in 130–31
 - epistemological origins of 48
 - ethical risk of impeding
 - observational practices 64–5
 - ethnography as tool for 59–60
 - Hawthorne project as foundational 51
 - imagining ethnographically,
 - consequences of neglecting 56–9
 - original idea of 'observing' factory 51–3
 - practice of observing 50–51
 - reasons for excluding anthropology
 - from origins of 53–6
 - teaching culture in 60–64
 - see also* management and
 - organization studies (MOS)
- Organization Theory (OT)
 - Chaos as defining term of 4–5
 - Chaos as ghost at table of 25
 - creation myths of 21–2
 - as a discipline 3
 - engineering foundations of 150
 - forefathers of 132
 - governmental management
 - overlooked by 133
 - and modernity 40
 - mystery house of 3–4, 8, 22
 - origins in religion 5–6
 - as owing origin to myth, music and metallurgy 24
 - sociological origins of 28–42
 - and Sorokin 34–42
 - uses of history in 130–32
- organizational secrecy 134, 136–7
- organizing
 - art of living as ethics of 80–81
 - concept of xiv, xxii
 - Daoist epistemology of 122–6
 - de Beauvoiran approach to 69–86
 - focus on xiv
 - imagining 48–50, 56–9, 63–5
 - Jesuits' way of 137–40
 - in Roman Empire 91–111
 - towards non-essential philosophy of 83–4
 - urban 55–6
- organon 16–17, 24–5
- Orientalism 118–19

- origins of organizing
 - as anthropological reflection 50–51
 - as beginning in industrial management aftermath x
 - Daoism for understanding
 - alternative 115, 117, 119–26
 - historical, philosophical and disciplinary x
 - historiographies xi–xiv
 - reasons for excluding anthropology
 - from studies 53–6
 - in religion 5–6
 - in sixteenth century 140–43
 - social theoretical reflection on x–xi
 - sociological 28–42
- Other
 - and Chaos 5–6, 12, 14
 - de Beauvoir 73–6, 78–83
- Parsons, T.
 - biographical details 29–30
 - functionalist systems theory 28–9, 31–2, 39–40
 - in Harvard circle of scholars 19, 28
 - modernist functionalism 40
 - social theory movement led by 42
 - vs Sorokin 31–2, 39–40, 42
 - structural-functionalist approach 32
 - systems theory 29
- pastorate 132, 141–3
- Peltonen, T. 31, 37
- ‘Pferdigm’ 3
- philosophy of pragmatism 4
- Porter, M.E. 163–4
- Quakers
 - absence from history of management thought 147, 150, 162–3
 - beliefs of 148, 154–6, 158–9, 161–2, 164–5
 - in business 148–55, 157–65
 - concern with authenticity 157–9, 165
 - emergence of 148
 - examples of companies 148–50
 - and industry 148–51
 - innovations pioneered by 151
 - as largely forgotten influence 148
 - lessons from 162–5
 - and managers 160–62
 - philosophy 154–5, 160–61
 - practices of 157–60, 164–5
 - scientific innovations 152–3
- Reason 6, 13, 22
- reason
 - abstract 38
 - autonomous 35
 - enlightened 38
 - mindfulness of human 38
 - universal 35
 - wisdom as balanced form of 39
- reflexivity 58, 79, 117
- religion
 - and Chaos 7–12
 - origins of Organization Theory in 5–6
 - recent surge of interest in 37, 41
 - in social theorizing 36–7, 41–2
 - see also* Quakers
- renqing* 118
- retail trade in Roman Empire 108–10
- Roethlisberger, F. x, xvi, 28, 31, 53
- Roman Empire organization
 - administration of cities and provinces 96–8
 - agriculture
 - labor 102–3
 - landowners and estate management 101–2
 - technology 103
- Army
 - controlling of 94–5
 - as means of controlling Empire 92–4
- bureaucratization 97–8, 110
- causes of decline 110–11
- finances 98–101
- as hybrid economy 91–2, 111

- industry
 - labor 105–6
 - resources 103–4
 - technology 104–5
- past and present 110–11
- transport 106–8
- wholesale and retail trade 108–10
- Rowntree company 149, 153, 155–6, 160
- Rowntree, J. 155–6
- Rowntree, S. 155–6, 162
- rupturism 22–3

- Sartre, J.P. xviii, 71–6, 78, 80, 83, 86
- scientific management x–xi, 150, 161–4
- Scott, W.R. xi, 34, 40
- Secret Chancery 135–7
- self
 - and ambiguity 76
 - creation 83–4, 86
 - inner 70, 79
 - organization of 69
 - postmodernist view of 69
 - relation to Other 74
 - of Sartre 76
 - sense of 77, 79, 82–3
 - shame of 75
 - stylization 70, 79
 - techniques of 79–80
 - willing oneself free 78, 81, 85–6
- self-organization 19–20, 25, 80–81
- selfhood 72–3, 77–8, 85
- Sensate culture 32–8, 41
- situated freedom 72–4
- sixteenth century
 - Council of Ten and Venice's
 - central intelligence
 - organization 133–7
 - emergence of managerialism 129–31
 - Jesuits' way of organizing 137–40
 - origins of organizing 140–43
 - relevance of 132–3
 - uses of history in Organization Theory 130–32
- slavery 98–102, 105–6
- Society of Friends see Quakers
- sociological imagination 49–50, 55–8, 62
- sociology
 - allegiance to critical 36
 - early American 29–32
 - Sorokin's contribution to 32–4, 39, 41
- Sorokin, P.
 - biographical details 30–31
 - contribution to cultural and historical sociology 32–4
 - cultural–historical approach 29, 40
 - influence of Russian thought 41–2
 - and Organization Theory
 - possible reasons for exclusion from 40–42
 - potentials 34–9
 - time for legacy to be incorporated into 42
 - as unknown in history of 28, 32, 39
 - vs Parsons 31–2, 39–40, 42
 - as Russian-American scholar 28
- spiritualist 41
- Stewart, I. 12–15
- structure–process debate 8
- subjectivity 72–6, 84–5

- Tao Te Ching* 7
- taxation in Roman Empire 98–100
- Taylor, F.W. x, xvi, xxi, 21, 28, 85, 132, 150, 161
- technology
 - agriculture in Roman Empire 103
 - industry in Roman Empire 104–5
- textile industry 131
- tools 24
- trade in Roman Empire 108–10
- transport in Roman Empire 106–8

- urban organizing 55–6
- Venetian central intelligence
 - organization 129–30, 133–7, 141–3
- war
 - costs of 95, 98–9
 - and organization 16–17, 23
 - Organization Theory 21–2
- Warner, W.L. 51–2, 54–7, 59–61
- water mills 103–4
- Weber, M. x–xi, 21, 29–30, 32, 40, 110, 131, 152
- wholesale trade in Roman Empire 108–10
- wuwei* 118, 120–21
- yin and yang 8, 120