

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface and acknowledgements	x

PART I OVERARCHING PERSPECTIVES

1 International investment law and the global financial architecture: Identifying linkages, mapping interactions	3
Christian J. Tams, Stephan W. Schill and Rainer Hofmann
2 International investment arbitration and the global financial system: Are they 'yin' and 'yang' or like oil and water?	23
Charles N. Brower and Alexandra Goetz-Charlier
3 International investment law and financial regulation: Towards a deliberative approach	57
Matthias Goldmann

PART II SOVEREIGN DEBT RESTRUCTURINGS

4 Police powers of the state in sovereign debt restructurings	89
Hayk Kupelyants
5 Restructuring sovereign debt on the basis of collective action clauses	120
Christoph Ohler
6 Sovereign bond disputes before investment treaty tribunals: Safeguarding the exercise of collective action clauses with a single-limb voting mechanism	135
Yanying Li
7 Bilateral investment treaties and the principles on responsible sovereign lending and borrowing: Working together towards the provision of an international legal framework addressing sovereign debt issues?	160
Marie Sudreau

PART III BANK RESCUE MEASURES

- 8 Bail-ins and international investment law: In and beyond Cyprus 193
Maurice Mendelson QC and Martins Paparinskis
- 9 Bank rescue measures under international investment law:
What role for the principle of causation? 211
Anna De Luca
- 10 BITs and pieces: Reflections on the relevance of BITs in resolution-related litigation 240
Phoebus Athanassiou

PART IV ALTERNATIVE CLAIMS AND DEFENCES:
NEW ACTORS

- 11 Capital-flow management measures and international investment
law: Never the twain shall meet? 257
Prabhash Ranjan
- 12 Financial crisis as force majeure under international law and EU law: Defending emergency measures, à l'euro péenne, in investment arbitration under intra-EU BITs 281
Anastasios Gourgourinis
- 13 International financial institutions in investment law and arbitration 316
Michael Wolfgang Müller
- Index* 349